Hanson announces an insurance settlement covering approximately 20% of its asbestos costs

Hanson PLC, the international building materials company, announces that one of its US subsidiaries, Hanson PLC, has reached a settlement with its insurers covering approximately 20% of the group's present asbestos costs.

The settlement is effective from January 1, 2006 and resolves a number of issues relating to historical asbestos claims issued prior to the mid 1980s and which provide insurance cover for a range of claims, including

Under the settlement, the subsidiary will pay the first US$35 million (approximately £20 million) of the settlement. Hanson estimates that this will be paid over approximately three years. Thereafter, the subsidiary full by the insurance carriers up to agreed, and undisclosed, limits. These limits, assuming they claims, are expected to provide asbestos insurance cover for this subsidiary well beyond 2020.

Hanson has previously advised that the group's total annual cost of asbestos, before tax, is estimated at £34 million per annum (approximately £34 million, or £21 million after tax) over the next eight years. This settlement would reduce the net cost by 20% to $48 million pa, after 2008.

Certain other US subsidiaries of Hanson PLC continue to litigate for asbestos coverage under their resolution through litigation and/or negotiation may take a number of years to complete. Hanson is attempting to introduce US Federal Reform for asbestos.
