Leading brands such as Sanex, Radox and Duschdas strengthen category leadership in Skin Cleansing and Deodorants

London

- September 25, 2009, Unilever today announced that it has made a binding offer to acquire the Personal Care business of the Sara Lee Corporation for €1.275 billion in cash. The transaction is subject to regulatory approval and consultation with European employee works councils.

Paul Polman, CEO of Unilever said: "Personal Care is a strategic category and a key growth driver for Unilever. This transaction builds on our portfolio in Western Europe and also in

Asia

. The Sara Lee brands enjoy strong consumer recognition, offer significant growth potential and are an excellent fit with Unilever's existing business."

Vindi Banga, President Foods, Home & Personal Care added: "We are delighted to have the opportunity to acquire such a strong stable of brands, which will help build on our global leadership positions in Skin Cleansing and Deodorants. They are a perfect complement to Unilever's existing portfolio of brands like Dove, Axe and Rexona."

The acquisition will strengthen Unilever's leadership positions overall in Western Europe

. In addition, there is significant potential to build these brands in developing and emerging markets, which already generate approximately 15% of their annual sales.

The Sara Lee brands generated annual sales in excess of €750 million with an EBITDA of €128 million for the year ending June 2009.
