ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

As previously reported on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 14, 2004, CACI International Inc, a Delaware corporation (CACI or the Company) announced on May 3, 2004 that its wholly owned subsidiary, CACI Enterprise Solutions, Inc., previously named Dagger Acquisition Corporation, had completed the purchase of the Defense and Intelligence Group (D&IG) and related assets of American Management Systems, Incorporated. This form 8-K/A is being filed to report the financial statements pursuant to Item 7 below.

ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS AND REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On May 3, 2004, CACI International Inc announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary, CACI Enterprise Solutions, had completed the purchase of the Defense and Intelligence Group and related assets of American Management Systems, Incorporated (AMS).

A copy of the Registrant s press release regarding CACI s completion of its acquisition of AMS s Defense and Intelligence Group and increase in guidance for the remainder of fiscal year 2004 is attached as Exhibit 99 to this current report on Form 8-K.

ITEM 7. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND EXHIBITS

(a) In accordance with Item 7 (a)(4) of Form 8-K, the Audited Financial Statements for the Defense and Intelligence Group as of December 31, 2003 and 2002 and for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2003 and the related Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm thereon, and the Unaudited Balance Sheet as of March 31, 2004 and the Unaudited Statements of Operations and Cash Flows for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 are being filed as part of this Form 8-K/A beginning on page 3.

(b) In accordance with item (7)(b)(2) of Form 8-K, and because it was impracticable to provide the required pro-forma financial information relative to the acquired business at the time of the Company s Current Report on Form 8-K, dated May 14, 2004 was filed, the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations, Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet, and Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements are being filed as part of this Form 8-K/A beginning on page 19.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors

CACI International Inc

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of the Defense and Intelligence Group of American Management Systems, Inc. (D&IG) as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related consolidated statements of operations, group s equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2003. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the D&IG s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Defense and Intelligence Group of American Management Systems, Inc. at December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2003 in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(amounts in thousands)

NOTE 1 NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

American Management Systems, Inc. (AMS) was incorporated in February 1970 to provide IT consulting to government, financial services and communications industries. The Defense and Intelligence Group (D&IG) of AMS provided defense and intelligence agencies of the U.S. Federal Government with business management solutions including information technology and design in support of acquisition, financial management, engineering services and logistics, warfighting and intelligence missions.

On March 10, 2004 AMS announced its approval of an Agreement and Plan of Merger with CGI Group, Inc. and CGI Virginia Corporation which provided for a tender offer to purchase all the issued and outstanding shares of common stock and a merger of CGI Virginia Corporation into AMS. AMS also announced its approval of an Asset Purchase Agreement with CACI International Inc, CACI, INC. FEDERAL, CACI Enterprise Solutions, Inc. and CGI Group, Inc. for the acquisition by CACI Enterprise Solutions, Inc. of certain assets and the assignment of certain liabilities associated with the D&IG immediately upon the satisfaction of the conditions to the tender offer. On May 1, 2004 CACI Enterprise Solutions, Inc. completed the purchase of the D&IG for $415 million in cash. The accompanying consolidated financial statements present the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the D&IG.

AMS did not report separate financial statements for the D&IG nor maintain its financial records to capture assets, liabilities and indirect costs for the D&IG. Since the D&IG could not be reported on as a separate business unit for financial statement purposes, certain allocations of assets, liabilities and costs were allocated to the D&IG that management believes are equitable and provide a reasonable estimate of the costs attributed to the D&IG. The following is a brief summary of the allocation methodology for significant financial statement captions:

Statements of Operations

Revenue and direct costs were specifically identified by contracts associated with the D&IG. Indirect costs were allocated based upon indirect rates calculated in accordance with the AMS costs disclosure statement. These allocations were then adjusted for specific one-time charges that did not relate to the D&IG business such as contract litigation costs or asset write-downs. Income taxes were calculated as if the D&IG were a stand alone taxable entity during the periods presented.

Balance Sheets

Billed and unbilled accounts receivable were specifically identified based on the contracts associated with the D&IG.

Certain prepaids and other assets were specifically identified such as software licenses. Other assets purchased on behalf of AMS such as insurance policies were allocated using an income statement percentage approach, i.e. comparing the D&IG's revenue or expense to AMS' total revenue or expense, as appropriate.

DEFENSE AND INTELLIGENCE GROUP OF AMERICAN MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS, INC

Property and equipment was specifically identified based on locations in which the D&IG employees work. Other fixed assets were allocated using an income statement percentage approach.

Accounts payable and accrued expenses were determined primarily using an income statement percentage approach based on cost relationships. Certain material accrued expenses that could be specifically identified such as deferred maintenance revenue were also recorded to the D&IG balance sheet.

Interim Results

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2004 and for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, have been prepared pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements reflect all necessary adjustments and reclassifications (all of which are a normal, recurring nature) that are necessary for fair presentation for the periods presented. It is suggested that these unaudited consolidated financial statements be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements included herein. The current period's results of operations are not necessarily indicative of results that may be achieved for any future period.

A. Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the D&IG and an allocation of the accounts of R.M. Vredenburg & Co. (Vredenburg) based on contracts acquired by CACI. Vredenburg was a wholly-owned subsidiary of AMS that was acquired in August 2003 (see Note 2). All significant intragroup and intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

B. Revenue Recognition

Revenue on time-and-materials contracts was recognized to the extent of billable rates times hours delivered plus expenses incurred. Revenue on cost-reimbursable contracts was recognized to the extent of costs incurred plus either a proportionate amount of the fee earned or the entire amount of the fee awarded. For fixed-price contracts, where the D&IG has the ability to produce reasonably dependable estimates regarding revenue and costs, revenue was recognized using the percentage-of-completion basis of accounting based on the percentage of costs incurred in relation to total estimated costs to be incurred. The estimates utilized on these contracts were continually updated during the terms of the contracts and may have resulted in the revision of recognized revenue and estimated costs in the period in which they were identified.

Large systems integration projects are generally either fixed-price or time-and-materials contracts that are structured in phases (design, development and implementation) for delivery and contract management purposes. These long-term production-type contracts generally include the delivery of software, integration and customization services, training and maintenance. In accordance with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Statement of Position No. 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition (SOP 97-2), when these software licenses require significant production, modification, or customization, the entire arrangement is accounted for in accordance with Accounting Research Bulletin No. 45, Long-Term Construction-Type Contracts, using the relevant guidance in SOP No. 81-1, Accounting for Performance of Construction-Type and Certain Production-Type Contracts (SOP 81-1). Because the arrangements are accounted for under SOP 81-1, the entire contract values are recognized as revenue using the percentage-of-completion basis of accounting.

Typically, the D&IG bundled software licenses with services. When no significant production, modification or customization of the software was required, the D&IG allocated a portion of the contract value to each element of the contract based on its relative vendor specific objective evidence of fair value (VSOE). Generally the D&IG was able to establish VSOE for all elements of the arrangement and bifurcate the contract value accordingly. In these circumstances, revenue was recognized on each element separately. Revenue on software license fees was recognized when a non-cancelable license agreement was in force, the software was delivered, the license fee was fixed or determinable, and collection was deemed probable. In certain circumstances, the D&IG was not able to establish

VSOE for the software. In these situations, once the software was delivered and the only undelivered element was services, the entire contract value was recognized over the service period. The D&IG was unable to establish VSOE for software it sells as part of a multiple-element arrangement when the software product had not yet been sold separately and a standard price list was not established. In such circumstances, when VSOE was established for the undelivered elements in the arrangement (which generally consist of maintenance, training, data conversion or other services), the D&IG used the residual method, in accordance with SOP 97-2, to determine the value of the software to recognize. When VSOE could not be established for the undelivered services, the entire contract value was recognized over the same period.

The D&IG also entered into contracts with customers that did not include the sale or integration of software. These contracts included services such as general consulting or training and were typically performed on a time-and-materials or cost-reimbursable basis. When such contracts were performed on a fixed-price basis, the D&IG recognized revenue as earned in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101, Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements (SAB 101), as services were performed and were contractually billable. The D&IG records revenue for award fees related to contracts recognized under SAB 101 upon notification from the customer that the fee has been awarded.

Maintenance and product support agreements generally provide for minor programming corrections, new releases and help-desk support. The terms of these agreements may vary with each customer but maintenance and product support are typically sold for a twelve-month period with renewals occurring annually based on renewal rates stated in the original contract. The D&IG generally invoices and requires the customer to pay in advance of the maintenance period. Prepaid maintenance was deferred and recognized ratably over the maintenance period.

Losses on contracts, if any, were recognized during the period in which the loss first became probable and reasonably estimable. Any projected loss recognized was based on the D&IG's best estimates of a contract's revenue and costs. Any contract losses recognized were periodically reviewed for accuracy as total revenue and total cost to complete estimates were updated during the term of the contract.

Revenue recognized in excess of billings was recorded as unbilled accounts receivable. Cash collections in excess of revenue recognized were recorded as deferred revenue until the revenue recognition criteria were met. Substantially all of the revenue and related accounts receivable of the D&IG is generated from agencies and departments of the U.S. Federal Government. Reimbursements, including those relating to travel, other out-of-pocket expenses, and any third-party costs, were included in revenue, and an equivalent amount of reimbursable expenses were included in direct costs. The D&IG regularly assesses the billed and unbilled balances and records an allowance for doubtful accounts equal to the amount estimated to be not collectible.

The costs associated with cost-type federal government contracts are subject to audit and adjustment by the U.S. Government. In the opinion of the D&IG management, no significant adjustments or disallowances of costs are anticipated beyond any such amounts provided for in the consolidated financial statements.

C. Developed Computer Software

The D&IG developed proprietary software products which were then licensed to customers either as stand-alone applications or as elements of custom-built systems. The D&IG capitalized the costs incurred for development of software for external sale after technological feasibility had been established in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 86, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased, or Otherwise Marketed (SFAS 86). Costs incurred prior to the establishment of technological feasibility were charged to research and development expense. When the software was ready for general release to customers, capitalization ceased and such costs were amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated economic life, which was generally three to five years.

In accordance with SFAS 86, on a quarterly basis the D&IG performed net realizable value (NRV) analyses on each capitalized software product to ensure that the value of the product meets or exceeds the expected total amount to be capitalized on the development as well as to evaluate the economic life of the product. The NRV analyses consider the expected future sales pipeline and revenue projections associated with the products. When updating the NRV analyses, if the D&IG noted a change in the expected revenue stream demonstrating declining revenue trends, the D&IG either accelerated the amortization or wrote-off the unamortized software development costs that exceeded the expected NRV.

Product development for the years ended December 31, was as follows:

	2003	2002	2001
Capitalized	$ 11,678	$ 6,653	$ 4,479
Expensed	694	2,394	1,469
Acquired	2,762
	$ 15,134	$ 9,047	$ 5,948

The D&IG acquired $2,762 of developed computer software during August 2003 as a result of the acquisition of 100% of the outstanding common stock of Vredenburg (see Note 2).

The D&IG recorded total amortization expense on developed computer software of $2,884 in 2003, $1,107 in 2002, and $0 in 2001. Unamortized costs of developed software were $21,028 and $10,406 at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

D. Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, the D&IG recognizes an impairment loss when circumstances indicate that the carrying value of long-lived tangible and intangible assets with finite lives may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets is assessed by a comparison of the carrying amount to the estimated future net cash flows. If estimated future undiscounted net cash flows are less than the carrying amount, the asset is considered impaired and expense is recorded at an amount required to reduce the carrying amount to fair value. Long-lived tangible and intangible assets primarily include property and equipment, developed computer software, and intangible customer relationships associated with Vredenburg. The D&IG recorded software asset impairments of $3,175 in 2003 for the write-off of certain non-performing software assets that were no longer expected to provide future value, which is included in indirect costs and selling expenses in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

E. Stock-Based Compensation

Edgar Filing: CACI INTERNATIONAL INC /DE/ - Form 8-K/A

Some of the D&IG's employees participated in various equity compensation plans sponsored by AMS. AMS plans authorize grants of stock options and restricted stock with respect to AMS common stock.

The D&IG elected to account for its participation in AMS stock-based compensation plans using the intrinsic value method under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees and to disclose pro forma effects on net (loss) income as provided by the provisions of SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure and Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 123). Accordingly, no compensation cost for stock options held by employees of the D&IG has been recognized. Had compensation cost for stock options been determined based on the fair value at the grant dates in 2003, 2002, and 2001 consistent with the provisions of SFAS 123, the pro forma net (loss) income would have been as follows:

	Year Ended			(unaudited) Three Months Ended
	December 31,			March 31,
	2003	2002	2001	2004	2003
Net (loss) income, as reported	$ (6,326)	$ 3,321	$ 1,131	$ (1,804)	$ (1,054)
Deduct: Total stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value based method for all stock option awards, net of related tax effects	985	1,348	914	733	274
Pro forma net (loss) income	$ (7,311)	$ 1,973	$ 217	$ (2,537)	$ (1,328)

DEFENSE AND INTELLIGENCE GROUP OF AMERICAN MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS, INC

(amounts in thousands)

For 2003, 2002, and 2001 disclosure purposes, the fair value of each stock option granted was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. For March 31, 2004 disclosure purposes, the fair value of each stock option granted was determined by measuring the value of compensation to the employee which was based on the difference between the stock price at the grant date and the purchase price of AMS stock at $19.40 per share by CGI Group, Inc. These options would be amortized on a pro-forma basis based on the vesting schedule specified in the option agreement. The fair value of the options granted for the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002, and 2001 were $6.74, $11.22, and $9.74, respectively. The fair value of the D&IG's participation in AMS stock-based option awards to employees was estimated assuming no expected dividends and the following weighted-average assumptions:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2003	2002	2001
Risk-free interest rate	3.0%	4.0%	5.0%
Expected life (years)	5	5	6
Expected volatility	66.0%	66.7%	57.4%

F. Income Taxes

Deferred tax assets and liabilities were determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities, using enacted tax rates for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse.

Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences in recognizing certain income, expense, and credit items for financial reporting purposes and tax reporting purposes. Such deferred income taxes primarily relate to the methods of accounting for revenue, capitalized software development costs and restricted stock. A valuation allowance is recorded if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of a deferred tax asset will not be realized.

G. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses reported during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

NOTE 2 ACQUISITIONS

Vredenburg

On August 1, 2003, AMS acquired 100% of the outstanding common stock of Vredenburg, a provider of professional and technical services to the Department of Defense and U.S. Intelligence communities. The results of operations of Vredenburg have been allocated to the consolidated financial statements since August 1, 2003, the acquisition date. The acquisition adds critical infrastructure protection capabilities, sophisticated document management technologies, and new program management expertise to AMS offerings in financial management, acquisition and procurement, business intelligence, enterprise architecture, and technology consulting.

The aggregate purchase price paid by AMS, net of $585 in cash acquired, was $46,939 and included cash payments through December 31, 2003 of $42,939. Amounts remaining to be paid by AMS at December 31, 2003 consisted of $4,000 of payments related to earn-out targets for which all contingencies were resolved and full payment was made on January 30, 2004.

The purchase price allocation has been prepared on a preliminary basis by AMS, and reasonable changes are expected as additional information becomes available. The estimated fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the date of the acquisition have been allocated to the D&IG based on the 2003 Vredenburg revenue acquired by CACI as a percentage of total 2003 Vredenburg revenue, and are allocated as follows:

Accounts receivable	$ 13,071
Other current assets, net of cash acquired	3,727
Other noncurrent assets	4,267
Developed computer software	2,762
Other intangible assets	13,962
Goodwill	26,720
	<hr/>
Allocation of assets acquired	64,509
Short-term debt	(1,015)
Accounts payable and other current liabilities	(12,291)
Long-term debt	(1,477)

Allocation of liabilities assumed	(19,871)
	<hr/>
Allocation of net assets acquired	$ 44,638

Edgar Filing: CACI INTERNATIONAL INC /DE/ - Form 8-K/A

The developed computer software assets have estimated useful lives of five years. The D&IG's allocation of other intangible assets consist of customer relationships of $13,518, net of accumulated amortization of $444 at December 31, 2003. Customer relationships have a weighted average useful life of 14 years. Other intangible assets are being amortized on a straight-line basis over periods ranging from 10 to 15 years based on their estimated useful lives. Amortization expense from the date of acquisition through December 31, 2003 was $444 and $266 for the quarter ended March 31, 2004. Future amortization expense related to other intangible assets is expected to be $1,065 in each of the years ending December 31, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008. None of the goodwill is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

The D&IG results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2003 include the operating results of this acquisition from August 1, 2003 through December 31, 2003. The following unaudited pro forma condensed financial information is based on the historical financial statements of the D&IG and Vredenburg adjusted to give effect to the Vredenburg acquisition as if it had occurred on the beginning of each period presented.

	Years ended December 31,
	2003	2002
Pro Forma:
Revenue	$ 285,295	$ 255,944
Net (loss) income	$ (3,281)	$ 5,863

NOTE 3 PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Depreciation of equipment has been provided over the estimated useful life of the respective assets (ranging from three to ten years) using the straight-line method. Leasehold improvements are generally amortized using the straight-line method over the remaining lease term or the useful life of the improvements, whichever is shorter. Costs for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense when incurred. Property and equipment consists of the following at December 31:

	2003	2002
Equipment and furniture	$ 10,247	$ 9,066
Leasehold improvements	3,592	3,388
Allocated property and equipment	6,396	4,971
	20,235	17,425
Less accumulated depreciation and amortization	(14,415)	(11,972)
Total property and equipment, net	$ 5,820	$ 5,453

Depreciation and leasehold amortization expense was $2,526 in 2003, $2,695 in 2002 and $2,417 in 2001.

NOTE 4 OTHER ASSETS

At December 31, 2003 other assets consisted of $7,186 for an allocation of company-owned life insurance and $706 of other deferred fees, accrued long-term interest, and notes receivable. At December 31, 2002, other assets consisted of $9,019 for an allocation of company-owned life insurance and $663 of other deferred fees, accrued long-term interest and notes receivable. Effective January 1, 2004, AMS established new deferred compensation plans. Participants in the prior plans either rolled-over their existing balances to the new plans or received distributions. Distributions from the prior plans were funded from collapse of company-owned life insurance plans, therefore, the balance of company-owned life insurance was $0 as of March 31, 2004. Other assets as of March 31, 2004 consisted of $912 of deferred fees, accrued long-term interest and notes receivable.

NOTE 5 EMPLOYEE SHARE PLANS

2003 Stock Incentive Plan

On May 9, 2003, the stockholders of AMS approved the 2003 Stock Incentive Plan (the 2003 Plan). The 2003 Plan permits awards to all employees (including the D&IG employees) of stock options (incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options), restricted stock awards, stock appreciation rights, performance shares, performance units, stock unit awards, and other incentive awards. The 2003 Plan authorizes the issuance of 4,500 shares of AMS common stock plus certain remaining shares, subject to the terms of the 2003 Plan, available under AMS 1996 Amended Stock Option Plan F, 1999 Contractor Stock Option Plan, Stock Option Plan for Employees and Restricted Stock and Stock Bonus Plan (collectively, the Prior Plans). As of December 31, 2003, 5,377 shares were available for grant under the 2003 Plan.

All option awards granted under the 2003 Plan have been granted at the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. The terms of the awards are fixed on the date of grant. Options granted in 2003 under the 2003 Plan generally become exercisable over a three- or four-year vesting period beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. Options granted under the 2003 Plan expire no more than ten years from the date of grant. Restricted stock awards granted under the 2003 Plan generally are subject to restrictions for a minimum of three years from the date of grant. Performance awards may be issued upon the achievement of certain performance criteria and only after the end of the relevant performance period as set forth in the applicable award agreement. Stock unit awards will generally have a vesting period of not less than three years.

Prior Stock Option Plans

Under AMS 1996 Amended Stock Option Plan F (Plan F) which was stockholder approved, up to 5,800 shares were authorized for issuance pursuant to incentive stock options or non-qualified stock options granted to employees (including the D&IG employees) and non-employee directors. Options that were granted under Plan F expire no later than ten years from the date of grant. After the adoption of the 2003 Plan as of May 9, 2003, AMS did not make any grants under Plan F.

AMS also has an equity incentive plan, the Stock Option Plan for Employees, which was adopted by the Board on July 27, 2001. This plan is not stockholder approved. Under this plan, up to 1,000 shares were authorized for issuance to employees of AMS (including the D&IG employees) pursuant to non-qualified stock options. The maximum vesting and life of shares granted under this plan was ten years from the date of grant. After the adoption of the 2003 Plan as of May 9, 2003, AMS did not make any grants under this plan.

The exercise price of stock options granted under all Prior Plans is not less than the fair market value on the date of grant. Options granted under the Prior Plans may be exercisable immediately, in monthly installments, or in annual installments, as set forth in option agreements.

Restricted Stock

AMS has a Restricted Stock and Stock Bonus Plan (the Restricted Stock Plan), adopted by the Board on May 11, 1990, which is not stockholder approved. Pursuant to the Restricted Stock Plan, restricted shares were granted to employees of AMS (including the D&IG employees) as discretionary awards or as profit-sharing awards upon the attainment of certain performance objectives. Restrictions on shares generally lapse over a three-year period. In certain circumstances, the receipt of discretionary awards could be deferred to a later specified date.

Unearned compensation was recorded for restricted stock on the dates that restricted stock was granted based upon the market value of the shares. Compensation expense, allocated to the D&IG financial statements, for which restricted stock was granted was $382, $780 and $495 for the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

These financial statements reflect net operating loss carry-forwards of $25,932 and tax credits of $321 from recent years that are anticipated to be fully realized in the sale of the D&IG to CACI. The D&IG was included in the consolidated tax returns of AMS and therefore AMS has paid cash for income taxes owed for all periods presented in the consolidated financial statements.

Employee Benefit Plans

AMS maintained a 401(k) defined contribution plan covering substantially all U.S. employees, including those in the D&IG. This 401(k) plan does not provide matching contributions.

AMS had a simplified employee pension plan. This plan was a defined contribution plan whereby AMS made contributions, which were based on the application of a percentage specified by AMS to the qualified gross wages of eligible employees. Total plan expense allocated to the D&IG was approximately $5,231 in 2003, $3,966 in 2002, and $3,563 in 2001.

Deferred Compensation

The D&IG participated in deferred compensation plans that were implemented in late 1996, and permitted eligible employees to defer an elected portion of their compensation. The deferred compensation earned a specified rate of return. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, the D&IG had accrued $8,035 and $9,015, respectively, of which $5,392 and $3,315, respectively, was classified as a current liability. The D&IG recorded interest expense of $581, $621, and $568 in 2003, 2002, and 2001, respectively, related to the earnings by the deferred compensation plan participants.

To fund these plans, the D&IG purchased company-owned life insurance contracts which were held by an irrevocable grantor trust. Charges to other expense associated with these contracts were $343, $549, and $457 in 2003, 2002, and 2001, respectively, which were offset by other income to adjust the contracts to their cash surrender values of $365, $44, and $84 in 2003, 2002, and 2001, respectively. Proceeds from the insurance policies are payable to the D&IG upon death of the insured. During 2001, AMS received proceeds of $1,810 associated with one of these policies, which resulted in a $305 gain allocated to the D&IG.

In an effort to achieve cost reductions and align its work force with changing market conditions and revenue outlook, AMS recorded a charge in 2003 of which $4,972 was allocated to the D&IG and was reported as indirect costs and selling expenses for severance and severance-related costs in accordance with SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities (FAS 146). The 2003 severance costs relate to a reduction in senior level staff and management positions. In addition, during 2002 and 2001, charges of $3,823 and $6,804, respectively, were allocated to the D&IG and reported as indirect costs and selling expenses for severance and severance-related costs. These charges were recorded in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (Including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). The remaining $724 liability included in accrued compensation and benefits as of December 31, 2003 for severance and severance-related costs is expected to be paid over the next year. During 2002 and 2001, the D&IG recorded charges of $1,133 and $3,956, respectively, for the closure and consolidation of facilities. During 2003, the D&IG recorded charges of $1,857 related to changes in estimates of the timing and amount of anticipated subtenant rental payments associated with the prior facility restructuring plan and for the closure and consolidation of additional facilities. Of the remaining $3,772 total liability at December 31, 2003, $2,712 represents a noncurrent liability recorded as other long-term obligations for costs to be incurred through 2008.

During the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, the D&IG did not record any charges under FAS 146 for severance or closure of facilities. The remaining liability at March 31, 2004 consisted of $378 for severance and $3,832 for closure of facilities. The facilities liability consists of $1,454 recorded in accrued compensation and benefits and $2,378 recorded as other long-term obligations.

NOTE 8 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES*Lease Commitments*

Rental expense of the D&IG totaled $15,824, $12,849 and $14,872 for the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The following is a schedule of future minimum lease payments under leases that were assumed by CACI as of December 31, 2003.

Vredenburg Retention Agreements

In connection with the Vredenburg acquisition (see Note 2), AMS entered into agreements to pay up to approximately $3,600 for continued employment of selected former Vredenburg employees. These amounts will be paid out in installments over a two year period following the acquisition and are being expensed ratably over the periods earned. AMS paid $1,308 during the year ended December 31, 2003. The D&IG's allocation of this expense was $1,226 which is included in direct costs in the accompanying consolidated 2003 statement of operations.

Indemnification Agreements

The disclosure provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, apply to indemnification agreements that may contingently require a guarantor to make payments. The D&IG enters into licensing arrangements with its customers for the rights to use intellectual property that include a commitment to indemnify the licensee against liability and damages arising from any third-party claims of patent, copyright, trademark or trade secret infringement. The D&IG cannot determine or predict the maximum amount of potential future payments under this type of indemnification because the D&IG would not have adequate information about the nature and scope of any such claim until a claim has been submitted to the D&IG. Third-party claims are subject to contest by the D&IG and dispute resolution procedures specified in the particular contract and payment by the D&IG under such indemnification clauses is generally conditional on the claim. As of December 31, 2003, the D&IG was not aware of any indemnification agreements that would require material payments.

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information has been prepared by CACI International Inc (CACI) and gives effect to the acquisition of certain assets and the assignment of certain liabilities associated with the Defense and Intelligence Group (D&IG) of American Management Systems, Inc., (AMS) completed on May 1, 2004 for $415 million in cash.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the twelve months ended June 30, 2003 has been prepared to give effect to the D&IG acquisition as if it had occurred on July 1, 2002. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the nine month period ended March 31, 2004 has been prepared to give effect to the D&IG acquisition as if it had occurred on July 1, 2003. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2004 has been prepared to give effect to the D&IG acquisition as if it has occurred on March 31, 2004.

The pro forma adjustments, which are based on available information and certain assumptions that CACI believes are reasonable under the circumstances, are applied to the historical financial statements of CACI and the D&IG. CACI 's preliminary allocation of the D&IG purchase price is based upon preliminary estimates of the fair value of net assets acquired. Management believes that the preliminary allocation of the purchase price is reasonable, however, in some cases, the final allocation will be based upon an independent valuation that is not yet complete. As a result, the allocation is subject to revision as additional information becomes available, and such revised allocation could differ from the preliminary allocation.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements and the notes thereto for CACI and the D&IG. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information is provided for informational purposes only and does not purport to represent what CACI 's financial position or results of operations would actually have been had the acquisition occurred on such dates or to project CACI 's results of operations or financial position for any future period.

These pro forma financial statements contain certain costs, including expenses allocated to the D&IG, that CACI 's management does not expect will continue. As a result, actual results may differ significantly from the pro forma information presented herein.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA
CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS OF OPERATIONS

The following notes relate to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations:

- a) To reflect the reported historical operating results of CACI for the year ended June 30, 2003 and the unaudited operating results for the nine months ended March 31, 2004.
- b) To reflect the historical results of operations of the D&IG for the twelve month period ended June 30, 2003, consistent with CACI's fiscal year. The unaudited quarterly statements of operations derived from the audited statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 were used.
- c) To record estimated amortization expense related to the identifiable intangible assets associated with the acquisition of the D&IG. CACI has retained an outside firm to do an independent appraisal for the allocation of the purchase price related to the acquisition of the D&IG. As this appraisal has not yet been completed, the total allocation, the useful lives, and the method of amortization may change. Based on the most current projections, CACI recorded the following intangible assets: (amounts in thousands).

- d) In conjunction with the acquisition of the D&IG, CACI secured $550 million in financing of which $200 million was in the form of a revolving credit facility that expires in 5 years and $350 million was in the form of a term loan that expires in seven years. The adjustment records the incremental interest expense at an annual average rate of 2.91% related to the additional borrowings of $422.5 million resulting from $415 million in purchase price plus associated financing fees incurred by CACI under its revolving credit facility to finance the D&IG acquisition. The average interest rate used above is the average interest rate we estimate will be applicable based on historical rates. The revolving credit facility will bear interest at adjustable rates. An increase of 1/8% in the interest rate applicable to the revolver would result in an increase in pro forma interest expense of $514,000 and $386,000 and pro forma net income of $26,258,000 and $25,211,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2003 and the nine months ended March 31, 2004, respectively.
- e) To recognize federal and state income taxes at combined rates of 37.7% and 38.2% for the twelve months ended June 30, 2003 and the nine months ended March 31, 2004, respectively, which reflects CACI's overall tax rate for the corresponding periods.
- f) To reflect the sale of Karcher Group Incorporated (Karcher) previously operated by the D&IG. Karcher was acquired on August 1, 2003 by AMS in connection with AMS' acquisition of R.M. Vrendenburg & Co. CACI sold Karcher in May 2004, as it was not complimentary to the business operated by CACI.
- g) To reflect the elimination of intercompany revenue and expense between CACI and the D&IG.
- h) To reflect bank financing fee amortization as follows (amounts in thousands):

	Interest Expense
	Amount	Estimated Term	12 Months Ended June 30, 2003	Nine Months Ended March 31, 2004
Term loan	$ 4,800	7 years	$ 686	$ 514
Revolving credit facility	2,700	5 years	540	405

CACI INTERNATIONAL INC
NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA
CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

The following notes relate to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet.

- a) To reflect the historical unaudited financial position of CACI.
- b) To reflect the historical unaudited financial position of the D&IG.
- c) The D&IG acquisition has been accounted for under the purchase method pursuant to the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations. Accordingly, the identifiable net tangible and separately identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed were recognized at their estimated fair values as of the date of the combination. The pro forma adjustments herein are based on management's preliminary estimates of fair value. The final allocation of the purchase price, when completed, may differ materially from the preliminary purchase price allocation herein.

Borrowings utilized for the D&IG are as follows (amounts in thousands):

Purchase Price	$ 415,000
Financing Costs	7,500
Total borrowings	$ 422,500

The total consideration paid for the acquisition was obtained primarily through borrowings under CACI's credit facilities.

The preliminary allocation of the purchase price is as follows (amounts in thousands):

Net estimated fair value of assets purchased	$ 88,039
Goodwill	235,621
Estimated intangible assets	132,000
Loss reserve on contract	(29,500) see footnote (d)
Reduction in value of developed computer software	(4,160) see footnote (d)
Deferred income taxes	(7,000) see footnote (e)

Edgar Filing: CACI INTERNATIONAL INC /DE/ - Form 8-K/A

The D&IG was capitalizing software to be sold to both Federal and Civilian customers under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 86, Accounting for the Cost of Computer Software to Be Sold, Leased, or Otherwise Marketed. Currently, only one customer is contractually obligated to purchase this on-going developed software. While CACI's management intends to complete the development of this software for the customer, CACI does not plan to continue to market this software. As a result, no value was allocated to the capitalized software as part of the purchase and therefore, $4.16 million was removed from Developed Computer Software. In addition, the change in management's intent regarding the software product changes the accounting guidance to AICPA Statement of Position No. 81-1, Accounting for Performance of Construction, Type and Certain Production-Type Contracts (SOP 81-1). When applying percentage of completion accounting using SOP 81-1, the contract is expected to be in a significant loss position. As a result, $29.5 million has been recorded as a liability in Other Accrued Expenses, based on the most recent estimate-to-complete analysis available.

- e) As part of CACI's acquisition of the D&IG business, the Company acquired the stock of R.M. Vredenburg & Co. (Vredenburg). For book purposes, CACI is required to amortize intangible assets, however, for tax purposes, the amortization is not deductible. This results in a deferred tax liability estimated to be approximately $7.0 million.

- f) In securing the $550 million in financing (see Note d of the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations) CACI incurred $7.5 million of debt financing fees which have been recorded as Other Assets on the balance sheet. These costs will be amortized over the terms of the related credit facilities.
- g) To adjust Other Intangible Assets and Goodwill related to the AMS acquisition of Vredenburg. These assets have been subsequently reevaluated with the purchase of D&IG by CACI. The chart below reconciles the change in Other Intangible Assets and Goodwill:

	Other Intangible
	Assets	Goodwill
Purchase price allocation	$ 132,000	$ 235,621

Pro forma adjustment	$ 118,749	$ 208,729
