See Item 33.

ITEM 33. RECENT SALES OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

Upon our formation in June 2004, Sunstone Hotel Investors, LLC was issued 100 shares of common stock of Sunstone Hotel Investors, Inc. for total consideration of $100 in cash in order to provide our initial capitalization. The issuance of such shares was effected in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

In connection with the formation and structuring transactions carried out in conjunction with our initial public offering, Sunstone Hotel Investors, Inc. issued 9,990,932 shares of common stock and Sunstone Hotel Partnership, LLC issued 19,112,556 membership units that are exchangeable for shares of our common stock to Sunstone Hotel Investors, L.L.C., WB Hotel Investors, LLC, Sunstone/WB Hotel Investors IV, LLC and Sunstone/WB Manhattan Beach, LLC in exchange for the contribution of assets by them. We received substantially all of the hotels and other assets we own as consideration for these issuances of common stock and membership units. We have not obtained any independent valuation of the consideration received by us, and the value of the securities issued by us and Sunstone Hotel Partnership, LLC depended on the initial public offering price. Sunstone Hotel Investors, Inc., Sunstone Hotel Partnership, LLC, Sunstone Hotel Investors, L.L.C., WB Hotel

Edgar Filing: Sunstone Hotel Investors, Inc. - Form S-11/A

Investors, LLC, Sunstone/WB Hotel Investors IV, LLC and Sunstone/WB Manhattan Beach, LLC committed to these issuances prior to the filing of the initial public offering Registration Statement. The issuances of such shares were effected in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) under the Securities Act.

On April 27, 2005, we entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with BIP REIT Private Limited, an affiliate of GIC Real Estate, an investment arm of the Government of Singapore, pursuant to which we agreed to sell 3,750,000 shares of common stock at a purchase price of $20.65 per share. The aggregate purchase price for the shares is $77,437,500. Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the purchase price has been deposited into escrow pursuant to an Escrow Agreement with Citibank, N.A., to be released upon the closing of the acquisition of interests in six Renaissance hotels from Marriott. See Summary Recent Developments in Part I of this

Registration Statement. The common stock issuable to the investor will be issued and deposited into escrow upon the occurrence of certain events specified in the Escrow Agreement and will be released upon the closing of the acquisition from Marriott. This offering is exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof and Rule 506 promulgated thereunder, as there was no public offering of the securities.

On April 27, 2005, we entered into a Purchase Agreement with Security Capital Preferred Growth Incorporated, an investment vehicle advised by Security Capital Research & Management Incorporated, pursuant to which we agreed to sell 4,102,564 shares of series C convertible redeemable preferred stock, or series C preferred stock, at a purchase price of $24.13125 per share. The aggregate purchase price is approximately $98,999,998. The Series C Preferred Stock will pay a base dividend of 6.45%, subject to increase based on increases in the dividends payable on our common stock. The Series C Preferred Stock will be convertible into common stock on a one-for-one basis at any time and will be callable after five years. The closing of this offering is conditioned upon the closing of the acquisition of interests in six Renaissance hotels from Marriott as described in Summary Recent Developments in Part I of this Registration Statement and the closing of the sale of common stock to BIP REIT Private Limited described above. This offering is exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof and Rule 506 promulgated thereunder, as there was no public offering of the securities.

On May 12, 2005, we exchanged all of the 750,000 outstanding shares of our series B cumulative redeemable preferred stock for 750,000 shares of series A cumulative redeemable preferred stock. The series A and series B preferred stock have identical terms. The surrender of the series B preferred stock was the only consideration we received for the newly issued shares of series A preferred stock. This transaction was exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 3(a)(9) thereof.

ITEM 34. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Maryland law permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty which is established by a final judgment as being material to the cause of action. Our charter contains such a provision which eliminates directors and officers liability to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law.

Our charter authorizes us, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law, to obligate the Company to indemnify any present or former director or officer or any individual who, while a director or officer of the Company and at the request of the Company, serves or has served another corporation, real estate investment trust, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent from and against any claim or liability to which that individual may become subject or which that individual may incur by reason of his or her service in any such in that capacity and to pay or reimburse his or her reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding. Our bylaws obligate us, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law, to indemnify any present or former director or officer or any individual who, while a director or officer of the Company and at the request of the Company, serves or has served another corporation, real estate investment trust, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent and who is made, or threatened to be made, a party to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in any such capacity from and against any claim or liability to which that individual may become subject or which that individual may incur by reason of his or her service in any such capacity and to pay or reimburse his or her reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding. The charter and bylaws also permit the Company to indemnify and advance expenses to any individual who served a predecessor of the Company in any of the capacities described above and any employee or agent of the Company or a predecessor of the Company. Maryland law requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Company's charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful in the defense of any proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of his service in that capacity.

Maryland law permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, under Maryland law, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification and then only for expenses. In addition, Maryland law permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation's receipt of (a) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (b) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

ITEM 35. TREATMENT OF PROCEEDS FROM STOCK BEING REGISTERED

ITEM 37. UNDERTAKINGS

The undersigned registrant further hereby undertakes that:

(1) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(2) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in the form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.

(3) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
