ITEM 4.02. NON-RELIANCE ON PREVIOUSLY ISSUED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OR A RELATED AUDIT REPORT OR COMPLETED INTERIM REVIEW.

On May 1, 2006 the management of Franklin Electronic Publishers, Incorporated (the Company or we) concluded that we should restate the previously issued consolidated financial statements contained in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2005, September 30, 2005 and December 31, 2005 to adjust the timing of revenue recognized on the licensing of certain software in May 2005. On May 1, 2006, the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors met and discussed this matter with management and our independent accounting firm, Radin, Glass & Co., LLP, and concurred with management's conclusion.

In May 2005, we entered into an agreement with a customer to license certain software for $800,000 for a four year period. The agreement also provided for maintenance and support service to be provided by the Company during the period of the contract for an additional $160,000. The customer had the option of accepting or declining the maintenance and support service. Pursuant to our understanding, at that time, of the authoritative literature on the subject (Statement of Position 97-2 published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants) we recognized the $800,000 license fee in our fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2005 as revenue when the agreement was signed. We are recognizing the maintenance fee at the rate of $3,333 per month for 48 months.

We now believe that, absent definitive Vendor Specific Objective Evidence (VSOE) to support the separate price of the maintenance, we should have recognized the entire $960,000 (licensing fee and maintenance and support) ratably over the four year period of the contract. The entire payment was received in July 2005.

Because we have concluded that our previously filed Quarterly Reports noted above should be revised to make the change discussed above, investors should no longer rely upon our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the quarters ended June 30, 2005, September 30, 2005, and December 31, 2005.

The effect of the change discussed above is shown below:

Period Ended	Revenue from License
	As Originally Reported	Amount of Change	Adjusted Amount
June 30, 2005	$ 800,000	($ 766,667)	$ 33,333
September 30, 2005	0	50,000	50,000
December 31, 2005	0	50,000	50,000

The remainder of the revenue from the contract will be recognized as shown below:

Periods	Revenue to be Recognized
Quarter Ending	March 31, 2006	$ 50,000
Years Ending	March 31, 2007	200,000
	March 31, 2008	200,000
	March 31, 2009	200,000
	Quarter Ending	June 30, 2009

The changes described above are all non-cash and will have no effect on the previously reported amounts of cash in the Company's financial statements. Current direct expenses pertaining to the transaction approximate 3% of revenue and will be adjusted accordingly.

We intend to file amendments to our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June, 30, 2005, September 30, 2005 and December 31, 2005 as soon as practicable.
