ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

A. Subscription Agreement and Plan of Merger

On December 14, 2006, ProQuest Company (the Company) entered into a Subscription Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), by and among the Company, ProQuest Information and Learning Company (PQIL), ProQuest Canada/U.K. Holdings, LLC (Canada/U.K. LLC), I&L Holding, Inc. (Buyer Parent), I&L Operating LLC (Buyer Sub) and Cambridge Scientific Abstracts, Limited Partnership (Guarantor). The following summary description of the Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Under the terms of the Agreement, at the closing, the following transactions will occur:

- (i) Buyer Parent will purchase 1,000 shares of PQIL's Series A Preferred Stock (the Preferred Stock) for a total consideration of $122 million (the Issuance), and as a result, Buyer Parent will own 90% of the voting control of PQIL;
- (ii) Immediately after the Issuance, Canada/U.K. LLC will merge (the Merger) with and into Buyer Sub and the separate existence of Canada/U.K. LLC shall cease and Buyer Sub shall continue as the surviving company (the Surviving LLC). The consideration for the Merger will be approximately $91.3 million, subject to certain reductions and adjustments, including changes in working capital; and
- (iii) following the transactions described in clauses (i) and (ii) above, Buyer Parent, shall cause Surviving LLC (or a wholly owned subsidiary of Surviving LLC) to merge with and into PQIL, with PQIL continuing as the surviving entity (the Second Merger). In connection with the Second Merger, all shares of PQIL common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive, in the aggregate $9 million and each share of Preferred Stock will be exchanged for the right to receive one share of Common Stock of PQIL.

The Agreement contains a working capital adjustment and representations and warranties and indemnification obligations customary for transactions of this type.

In the Agreement, the Company also agreed to cease any discussions or negotiations with respect to the sale of PQIL or a sale of the Company. If the Company board determines that an unsolicited proposal is reasonably likely to lead to a proposal to purchase the Company that is more favorable to the Company than the terms of the Agreement (a Superior Proposal) and such actions are necessary or advisable to comply with the fiduciary obligations of the Company's board of directors, the Company may provide information to and negotiate terms with the proposing party. The Company may under certain circumstances terminate the Agreement within five business days following the date the Company provides notice to the Buyer Parent of its intention to terminate the Agreement in favor of a Superior Proposal. If the Agreement is so terminated, the Company must pay to the Buyer Parent a termination fee equal to $8,500,000.

The Transactions are subject to customary closing conditions and regulatory approvals, including expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Subscription Agreement and Plan of Merger, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. There are representations and warranties contained in the Subscription Agreement and Plan of Merger which were made by the parties to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in these representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the Subscription Agreement and Plan of Merger and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that is different from certain standards generally applicable to shareholders or were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Based upon the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information

A copy of the press release issued on December 15, 2006 in connection with the execution of the Agreement is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.
