Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On May 9, 2007, Lydall, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release setting forth the Company's financial results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2007. Such results have been adjusted to reflect events occurring after the release of preliminary financial results for the first quarter on April 27, 2007. Net income was $1.3 million, or $.08 per diluted share for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, compared to the previously reported net income of $1.8 million, or $0.11 per diluted share. The Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, filed by the Company on May 9, 2007, reflects these results.

The previously announced financial results were adjusted to reflect additional developments in an ongoing litigation matter involving a former employee of the Company which occurred subsequent to the Company's preliminary earnings announcement.

In April 2007, the Connecticut Supreme Court upheld certain rulings of a Connecticut state court and overturned others including the award to the Company for compensatory and punitive damages and reimbursement of its attorneys' fees. Thereafter, the former employee commenced a separate action in the Delaware Chancery Court seeking the advancement of legal fees and expenses incurred on his behalf in defending the Company's Connecticut state court action aggregating $1.9 million, plus interest. Of this claimed amount, the Company previously advanced $0.8 million to the former employee's attorney and expensed $1.0 million related to this matter. This action is now pending before the Delaware Chancery Court.

These developments provided additional information related to the estimates previously made with respect to this matter. As a result, the Company recorded an additional $0.8 million (pre-tax) of litigation expense in the quarter ended March 31, 2007 related to this matter. The expense was recorded in corporate office selling, product development and administrative expenses.

A copy of the Company's press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference.
