Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Davison Petroleum Products, L.L.C., Davison Transport, Inc., Transport Company, Davison Terminal Service, Inc., Sunshine Oil and Storage, Inc., T&T Chemical Inc., Fuel Masters, LLC, TDC, L.L.C. and Red River Terminals, L.L.C. (collectively, the Davison Entities) entered into a Contribution and Sale Agreement with Genesis, dated as of April 25, 2007 (the Purchase Agreement), that provides for the acquisition by Genesis of substantially all of the assets of the Davison Entities refining services, terminaling, trucking, transportation and marketing businesses (the Assets). As consideration for the sale of the Assets, the Reporting Parties received the aggregate purchase price of $280 million in cash (subject to adjustments) and 13,459,209 Common Units of Genesis. Each of the Reporting Parties acquiring Common Units as a result of the sale of the Assets has done so with the intent of holding the Common Units as an investment.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The purpose of the acquisition of Common Units is to hold such securities as an investment. Except as described under (d) below with respect to the potential right to participate in the designation of up to two members of the board of directors of the issuer's general partner, none of the Reporting Parties has any present intent to acquire additional securities, change the business or function of the issuer, take any other action to alter the management, operation, structure, capitalization, or effect any other material change on the issuer.

(a) - (c) Not applicable.

(d) Under the terms of the Unitholder Rights Agreement dated July 25, 2007, the Davison unitholders have the right to designate up to two directors to the board of directors of the issuer's general partner, depending on their continued level of ownership of the issuer's Common Units. So long as the Davison unitholders hold 35% or more of the outstanding Common Units of the issuer, they may designate two directors to serve on the board, and so long as they own at least 10% and up to 35% of the outstanding Common Units, they may designate one director. Although the Reporting Parties have no formal or informal agreement to act with regard to the sale or voting of the Common Units, their securities are aggregated for purposes of designating members to the board of the issuer's general partner. Immediately following the closing of those transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, approximately 47.5% of the outstanding Common Units of the issuer were held by persons who would be considered Davison unitholders for purposes of determining the right to designate members for the election to the board of the issuer's general partner. In accordance with the right, James E. Davison, Sr. and James E. Davison, Jr. were designated, and subsequently appointed to the board of directors of the issuer's general partner effective July 25, 2007.

All references to the Unitholder Rights Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Unitholder Rights Agreement included as an exhibit hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Except as the Reporting Parties' Common Units may be counted for the limited purpose of determining the number of members that may be designated to the board of the issuer's general partner and any participation they may have with other parties to designate such members from time to time, the Reporting Parties have no formal or informal agreements, plans or proposals to modify the existing board structure, terms of office for directors, or take any other action to modify the board.

(e) - (j) Not applicable.

Each of James E. Davison, Jr., Steven K. Davison and Todd A. Davison own 33 1/3% of each of Davison Petroleum Products, L.L.C., Davison Transport, Inc. and Transport Company, but is deemed to have no individual voting or dispositive power over the securities owned by any of these entities due to the requirement for a majority vote to take any action with respect to the Common Units held by each entity. James E. Davison, Sr. owns 100% of Davison Terminal Service, Inc. and Sunshine Oil and Storage, Inc., and has voting and dispositive control over the Common Units held by these entities. This Schedule 13D is filed pursuant to the Joint Filing Agreement entered into by each of the Reporting Parties in order to reflect the combined beneficial ownership of those entities made party to the Purchase Agreement that are under common ownership.

The aggregate number of Common Units held by the Reporting Parties represents approximately 47.5% of the issuer's Common Units outstanding based on an estimated 28,318,532 Common Units outstanding as of July 25, 2007, which represents the total of 13,784,441 outstanding Common Units as reported in Genesis Energy, L.P.'s 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, 13,459,209 Common Units issued on the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, and 1,074,882 Common Units issued to the issuer's general partner upon the exercise of its right to maintain its proportionate ownership of the issuer. Individually, Davison Petroleum Products, L.L.C., Davison Transport, Inc., Transport Company, Davison Terminal Service, Inc. and Sunshine Oil and Storage, Inc., beneficially own approximately 32.7%, 8.4%, 1.4%, 3.6% and 1.5%, respectively, of the outstanding Common Units of the issuer.

- (b) Davison Petroleum Products, L.L.C., Davison Transport, Inc., Transport Company, Davison Terminal Service, Inc. and Sunshine Oil and Storage, Inc., may be deemed to have sole voting and dispositive power over 9,262,868, 2,368,580, 393,345, 1,010,835 and 423,581 Common Units, respectively. James E. Davison, Sr. may be deemed to have sole voting and dispositive power over 1,434,416 Common Units due to his sole ownership of Davison Terminal Service, Inc. and Sunshine Oil and Storage, Inc. To the Reporting Parties' knowledge, none of issuer's Common Units are beneficially owned by any of the persons identified in Schedule A to this Schedule 13D, other than James E. Davison, Sr.
- (c) Except for the Purchase Agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby, to the Reporting Parties' knowledge, no transactions in the issuer's Common Units have been effected during the past sixty (60) days by any person named pursuant to Item 2.
