eLong, Inc. Announces Appointment of Guangfu Cui as New Chief Executive Officer

9/26/2007

Beijing, China September 26, 2007 eLong, Inc. (NASDAQ:LONG), a leading online travel service provider in China, today announced the appointment of a new Chief Executive Officer.

Guangfu Cui will join as CEO of eLong, Inc., effective October 8, 2007. Henrik Kjellberg will step down as Interim CEO of eLong but will remain Chairman of the eLong Board of Directors, and will remain actively involved in the company.

Guangfu Cui has significant experience in business expansion and establishing national brands in China. He also brings a thorough understanding of the Chinese consumer and the Chinese market, having worked not only for P&G but also for Fedex Kinko's in China said Mr. Kjellberg.

I am delighted to be joining eLong at this exciting and challenging stage in the company's development, said Guangfu Cui. The Chinese travel market is just starting to take off and eLong is extremely well positioned to build a very strong position in this segment. We will continue the process of change to make eLong an even stronger company.

About Guangfu Cui

Prior to joining eLong, Guangfu Cui was the Managing Director for FedEx Kinko's China. Under his leadership, Mr. Cui positioned the company as market leader in digital printing industry in China with 16 centers and 300 employees within four years after he joined FedEx Kinko's.

Prior to joining FedEx Kinko's, Guangfu Cui worked for Procter & Gamble China for over 12 years, including two and half years working in the United States. He was instrumental in building Procter & Gamble China's distribution network and retail coverage system.

Guangfu Cui is 38 years old, holds an MBA from Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and a BA in Law from Peking University.
