Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 13.09(1) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and Rule 11.8.3 of the listing rules of the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

The Company and all members of the board of directors warrant that the information contained in this announcement is truthful, accurate and complete, and jointly accept full responsibility for any false representations or misleading statement contained in, or material omissions from, this announcement.

In recent years, international crude oil prices have been fluctuating at a high level, and the prices has surged substantially since the second half of 2007. The stringent control on the prices of domestic petroleum product in China has led to a distortion to the correlation in prices between crude oil and petroleum products. As part of non-state owned or controlled local refineries failed to operate in full capacity or even closed down because of the loss and there had been an increased consumption of diesel during the winter period in 2007, there were supply shortages of petroleum products in certain regional markets. In order to safeguard the stable operation of the petroleum product market, China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation and its subsidiaries (including the Company) have adopted a variety of measures to safeguard the supply of petroleum products in the domestic market, achieving significant results. Accordingly, the oil refining operation of the Sinopec group recorded quite substantial losses. Recently, the Company has received an one-off compensation of RMB341.18 million. Of this amount, RMB93.90 million will be recorded as a subsidy for the Company for 2007 and RMB247.28 million will be recorded as a subsidy for the Company for the first quarter of 2008.

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 13.09(1) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and Rule 11.8.3 of the listing rules of the Shanghai Stock Exchange.
