Item 2.04 Triggering Events that Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

On February 9, 2009 (the Proceeding Date), Spansion Japan Limited (Spansion Japan), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Spansion Inc. (the Company), entered into a proceeding under the Corporate Reorganization Law (Kaisha Kosei Ho) of Japan to obtain protection from Spansion Japan's creditors while it continues restructuring efforts (the Spansion Japan Proceeding).

The Spansion Japan Proceeding constitutes an event of default causing automatic acceleration of the outstanding obligations without further action under the following debt instruments of Spansion LLC and Spansion Japan:

The Senior Facility Agreement, dated March 30, 2007, among Spansion Japan, GE Capital Leasing Corporation and the other financial institutions party thereto (the GE Facility), which resulted in all obligations under the GE Facility (approximately $285 million as of the Proceeding Date) becoming automatically due and payable.

The Revolving Credit Facility Agreement, dated as of December 28, 2007, among Spansion Japan, The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. and the other financial institutions party thereto (the BTMU Revolver), which resulted in all obligations under the BTMU Revolver (approximately $98 million as of the Proceeding Date) becoming automatically due and payable.

The Credit Line Account Application and Agreement for Organizations and Business, dated as of December 29, 2008, between Spansion LLC and UBS Bank USA (the UBS Credit Line), which resulted in all obligations under the UBS Credit Line (approximately $75 million as of the Proceeding Date) becoming automatically due and payable.

The Indenture, dated as of June 12, 2006, among Spansion LLC, the Company and Spansion Technology LLC, as guarantors, and HSBC Bank USA, National Association, as successor Trustee (the Exchangeable Debentures Indenture), governing Spansion LLC's issued and outstanding 2.25% Senior Subordinated Exchangeable Debentures due 2016, which resulted in all obligations under the Exchangeable Debentures Indenture (approximately $208 million as of the Proceeding Date) becoming automatically due and payable.

In addition, the Spansion Japan Proceeding constitutes an event of default, which may result in acceleration of the outstanding obligations thereunder if the Agent or Trustee, as applicable, takes the prescribed steps under the following debt instrument to cause such acceleration:

The Credit Agreement, dated as of September 19, 2005, among Spansion LLC, Bank of America, N.A. and the other financial institutions party thereto, as amended, under which there were approximately $10 million of obligations outstanding as of the Proceeding Date.

The Indenture, dated as of December 21, 2005, among Spansion LLC, the Company and Spansion Technology LLC, as guarantors, and HSBC Bank USA, National Association, as successor Trustee, governing Spansion LLC's issued and outstanding 11.25% Senior Notes due 2016, under which there were approximately $266 million of obligations outstanding as of the Proceeding Date.

The Indenture, dated as of May 18, 2007, among Spansion LLC, the Company and Spansion Technology LLC, as guarantors, and HSBC Bank USA, National Association, as successor Trustee, governing Spansion LLC's issued and outstanding Senior Secured Floating Rate Notes due 2013, under which there were approximately $632 million of obligations outstanding as of the Proceeding Date.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

In connection with the Spansion Japan Proceeding, on the Proceeding Date the Company issued a press release, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
