Re: The First Instance Judgment Rendered in the Lawsuit for Damages against the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc.

Today, a first instance judgment (Judgment) was rendered in the lawsuit for damages (Lawsuit) filed by Mizuho Securities Co., Ltd. (the Company) against the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. (TSE).

1. Outline of the Case

December 8, 2005 During its commissioned ordering of sale of a share of J-COM Co., Ltd. (stock code number: 2462), the Company erroneously placed an order to TSE by ordering the sale of 610,000 shares of J-COM Co. Ltd. stock at a price of 1 yen instead of the intended sale of 1 share of J-COM Co., Ltd. stock at a price of 610,000 yen.

The Company immediately realized the mistake after placing the order and properly submitted several cancel orders. However, TSE failed to process the cancellation of the order in accordance with the cancel order due to a defect in TSE's electronic trading system, and thus allowed the sales of the shares composing the order to be completed even after the cancel orders were received. As a result, the Company eventually accrued a loss of approximately 40.7 billion yen.

March to August 2006 The Company and TSE held discussions regarding the sharing of losses incurred by the Company. No progress was made.

October 27, 2006 The Company filed the Lawsuit against TSE in the Tokyo District Court seeking damages (approximately 41.5 billion yen in total), which consist of the portion of the above-mentioned total loss (approximately 40.7 billion yen) that accrued after the Company placed the cancel order to TSE and other expenses.

December 4, 2009 The Tokyo District Court rendered its Judgment.

2. Substance of the Judgment

The Tokyo District Court ordered TSE to pay the following amount to the Company (this judgement can be executed provisionally):

- (1) 10,712,128,508 yen.
- (2) Interest on 10,512,128,508 yen at the rate of 5 percent per annum accruing for the period from December 8, 2005 to September 15, 2006.
- (3) Interest on 10,512,128,058 yen at the rate of 6 percent per annum accruing for the period from September 16, 2006 to the time the full amount is paid.
- (4) Interest on 200,000,000 yen at the rate of 5 percent per annum accruing for the period from December 8, 2005 to the time the full amount is paid.

3. Future Prospects

Edgar Filing: MIZUHO FINANCIAL GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Regarding our future course of action, the Company will closely examine the substance of the Judgment, carefully consult with its legal counsel, and determine what future course to take.

The Judgment's impact, etc., on the Company's performance for the present and subsequent accounting periods are not determined at this moment. However, accounting of the incident had been completed in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006. No losses will be recorded in the current or any subsequent accounting period as a result of the portion of the Company's claim in the Lawsuit that was not upheld by the Judgment.

End.
