NORTH AMERICAN ENERGY PARTNERS PRICES C$225 MILLION

OF 9.125% SENIOR UNSECURED DEBENTURES

Edmonton, Alberta, March 29, 2010 - North American Energy Partners Inc. (NAEP or the Company) (TSX/NYSE: NOA) announced today that it has priced a private placement of 9.125% series 1 senior unsecured debentures due 2017 with an aggregate principal amount of C$225 million (the Debentures).

This is an important milestone in the execution of our business strategy, said Rod Ruston, President and CEO of NAEP. The successful completion of our refinancing plan is expected to strengthen our balance sheet, reduce our financing costs and enhance our ability to support future growth opportunities, particularly in the oil sands.

The debentures will bear interest at 9.125% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears on April 7 and October 7 and will be guaranteed by its subsidiaries. Subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, the issuance of the Debentures is expected to close on April 7, 2010. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the issuance, combined with borrowings under its credit facility and existing cash, to redeem all US$200 million principal amount outstanding of its 8³/₄% senior notes due December 2011 and liquidate all of the related secured currency and interest rate swaps.

The planned refinancing will move us from US dollar denominated debt into Canadian dollar denominated debt, which is aligned with the currency of our operations, said David Blackley, Chief Financial Officer. The planned refinancing will also address our short-term refinancing risk, reduce our financial leverage and lower our overall cost of debt.

NAEP is currently exposed to interest rate risk due to the unwinding of its US dollar interest rate swap in February 2009 and as a result, the effective interest rate on the 8³/₄% senior notes has increased above the hedged effective rate of 9.889%. By removing the remaining swaps, we expect to decrease our interest rate risk exposure and lower our overall cost of borrowing, said Blackley.

NAEP has issued a notice of redemption for the 8³/₄% senior notes to the trustee, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., who will notify noteholders of the redemption details. The 8³/₄% senior notes will be redeemed on April 28, 2010 at par plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date. Prior to the redemption date, the Company may purchase notes in the open market or by private contract.
