On December 21, 2010, the Company entered into new forms of employment agreement (the new employment agreements) with each of Matthew K. In addition, the new employment agreements modify the term during which a CC Termination (as defined in the new employment agreements) triggers a severance payment and provide that payments made under the new employment agreements will be reduced under certain conditions related to the imposition of an excise tax. All other material terms of the new employment agreements are consistent with the material terms of the original employment agreements.
