OUR COMPANY

We are the leading manufacturer of high-quality, technologically advanced dental equipment, and are focused on developing innovative systems and solutions for dentists around the world. Our business has grown substantially over the past five years, driven by numerous high-tech product introductions and a continued expansion of our global sales and service infrastructure, strong relationships with key distribution partners, namely Patterson and Henry Schein, and an international dealer network. We generated revenues of $770.3 million in the fiscal year ended September 30, 2010, with the U.S. market contributing 31% of revenue, or $239.5 million, the German market contributing 19% of revenue, or $148.3 million, and the rest of the world contributing 50% of revenue, or $382.4 million.

We have a long tradition of innovation in the dental industry. We introduced the first dental electric drill 130 years ago, the first dental X-ray unit 100 years ago, the first dental computer-aided design/computer-aided manufacturing (CAD/CAM) system 25 years ago, and numerous other significant innovations in dentistry. We continue to make significant investments in research and development and our track record of innovation continues today, with numerous recent product launches, including the Galileos and CEREC combination (launched in September 2009), the CEREC AC unit (launched in January 2009), the Galileos Compact 3D imaging system (launched in July 2008), the TENEO treatment center (launched in July 2008) and the CAD/CAM milling unit MC XL (launched in fiscal year 2007).

Our Segments

We report our worldwide operations in four business segments:

Dental CAD/CAM Systems. We pioneered the application of high-tech CAD/CAM techniques to the traditional lab-based restoration process with the commercialization of our CEREC (CEramic REConstruction) method. CEREC is an in-office application that enables dentists to produce high-quality restorations from ceramic materials and insert them in a patient's mouth in a single appointment. To date, we have an installed base of over 29,000 CAD/CAM systems in dental offices worldwide. In the dental laboratory market we have a leading market position, with almost 5,000 inLab CAD/CAM systems installed. CEREC has a number of advantages compared to the traditional out-of-mouth pre-shaped restoration method, as CEREC does not require a physical model, restorations can be created in the dentist's office and the procedure can be completed in a single visit. Independent studies indicate that CEREC ceramic restorations are very durable and can replace conventional restoration materials for most procedures. In addition, CEREC restorations are aesthetically pleasing and have the benefit of a natural-looking appearance.

Imaging Systems. Our imaging systems products comprise a broad range of digital systems for diagnostic imaging in the dental practice, including intraoral, panoramic and 3D imaging systems. Intraoral x-ray equipment typically takes images of one or a few teeth. Our panoramic models, which we market under the Orthophos XG line, produce images of the entire jaw structure and provide general practitioners and specialists with a wide variety of diagnostic capabilities. In July 2006 we introduced our GALILEOS Comfort 3D-imaging unit, and in July 2008 we launched GALILEOS Compact 3D-imaging unit, specifically tailored to meet the needs of the general practitioner. In September 2009, we introduced software that facilitates the integration of Galileos 3D X-ray volume (bone level data) with a CEREC AC CAD/CAM scan (surface level information) that allows the practitioner to plan both the implant surgery and the prosthetic at the start of the implant treatment session. This integrated process reduces the number of treatment sessions, results in greater accuracy and superior implant alignment. With this new software, the dental practitioner can now place more focus on the desired aesthetic outcome throughout the entire treatment process.

Treatment Centers. Our treatment center products range from basic dentist chairs to sophisticated chair-based units with integrated diagnostic, hygiene and ergonomic functionalities, as well as specialist centers used in preventative treatment and for training purposes. We offer specifically configured products to meet the preferences of dentists within each region in which they operate. Our treatment center configurations and system integration are designed to enhance productivity by creating a seamless workflow within the dental practice. Our centers therefore allow the dentist to improve both productivity and increase patient satisfaction, significant factors in adding value to his or her practice. In October 2004, we acquired one of the leading Chinese manufacturers of basic treatment centers, located in Foshan (South China). This facility manufactures basic products for both the domestic Chinese market and export markets. In July 2008, we launched our TENEO Treatment Center, which combines industry-leading technology with a timeless design that provides both patient and dentist with the ultimate in convenience and comfort.

Instruments. We offer a wide range of instruments, including handheld and power-operated handpieces for cavity preparation, endodontics, periodontology and prophylaxis. New products that we have introduced over the last several years include: SIROLaser, a compact diode laser that can be used in endodontics, periodontology and oral surgery; SIROEndo, a root canal preparation unit; and SIROPure, oil-free, power-driven handpieces. Our instruments are often sold as packages in combination with treatment centers.

Our Industry

We believe that we are favorably positioned to benefit from several trends in the global dental industry, including:

Technological innovation. New dental technologies offer improved dental care to patients, enable dentists to enhance productivity, increase profitability, and increase their control over the entire treatment process. Recent innovations in the dental industry include the digitization of the dental practice, 2D and 3D digital radiography and CAD/CAM restorative dentistry. New treatments in dentistry require new types of equipment that support these advanced treatment methods.

Increased use of CAD/CAM systems in restorative dentistry. As a result of developments in CAD/CAM technology and improvements in ceramic dental restorative materials, the dental industry continues its shift to restorations created with CAD/CAM technology. For example, in-office dental CAD/CAM technology enables dentists to create high-quality restorations that offer patients the convenience of single-visit restorations. Dental CAD/CAM technology has also been adopted in the dental laboratory market due to increased precision, speed and quality.

Shift to digital imaging. The imaging segment continues to benefit from an industry wide shift away from film based dental imaging systems towards digital imaging systems. Digital imaging has a number of advantages over film, as dentists are able to conduct improved diagnostic analyses; do not need to spend thousands of dollars on film each year; do not need to spend time developing film; do not need a dark room; do not need to buy and store chemicals; can shoot an X-ray during a procedure (not possible with film); can easily store and retrieve X-ray images; and can significantly increase their practice productivity. In addition, digital imaging utilizes significant lower radiation dosage than does film based imaging.

Favorable demographic trends. Growth in the worldwide population, coupled with increased life expectancy, has resulted in a growing elderly patient population. Older patients spend more on dental services and visit the dentist more regularly than do younger dental patients. In addition, increasing levels of disposable income around the world are driving increased dental expenditures, particularly preventive and cosmetic treatments.

Table of Contents

Growing patient focus on dental health and cosmetic appearance. As a consequence of greater health awareness, patients have become more focused on retaining and improving the appearance of natural teeth. This trend has resulted in a reduction in the number of drill and fill treatments performed by dentists and an increase in the number of patients demanding cosmetic dentistry and specialized procedures to preserve and retain natural teeth longer.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. Section 145 of the DGCL further provides that a corporation similarly may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner that the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145 of the DGCL also provides that a corporation has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was

By-laws

Article V of the By-laws of the company (effective as of September 20, 2010) (the By-laws) provides, among other things, that each person who is or was made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is or was involved in, any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he, or a person of whom he is the legal representative, is or was a director, officer, employee or, pursuant to a resolution or resolutions adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors of the company, agent of the company or a subsidiary of the company or is or was serving at the request of the company as a director, officer, partner, member, employee, agent or trustee of another corporation (other than a subsidiary of the company) or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as an officer or director or in any other capacity while so serving, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the company from and against, to the fullest extent by the DGCL, as the same exists or may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the company to provide broader indemnification rights than the DGCL permitted the company to provide prior to such amendment) against all expenses, liabilities and losses (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes, penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be such an officer, director, partner, member, employee, agent or trustee and shall inure to the benefit of the person's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that, subject to certain exceptions, the company shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person only if such proceeding was authorized by the board of directors of the company. Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, in a primary offering of securities of the registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
- (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the registrant or used or referred to by the registrant;
 - (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the registrant; and
 - (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the registrant to the purchaser.
- (6) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of the securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
