PROXY STATEMENT

Middlefield Banc Corp. ("Middlefield"), an Ohio corporation, is registered as a bank holding company with the Federal Reserve Board and owns all the capital stock of The Middlefield Banking Company ("Middlefield Bank"), Emerald Bank, and EMORECO, Inc. Middlefield's common stock is traded on OTC Markets Group Inc.'s over-the-counter securities market under the symbol "MBCN". As used in this proxy statement, "we," "us," and "our" refer to Middlefield and/or its subsidiaries, depending on the context. The term "annual meeting," as used in this proxy statement, includes any adjournment or postponement of such meeting.

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by Middlefield's board of directors of proxies to be voted at the 2012 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The annual meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 16, 2012, at 1:00 p.m. local time, at SunValley Banquet & Party Center, 10000 Edwards Lane, Aurora, Ohio, 44202. The accompanying Notice of Meeting and this Proxy Statement are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 9, 2012.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING

PURPOSE OF THE MEETING

At the annual meeting, we will ask Middlefield shareholders to (1) elect two directors to serve until the 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified, (2) elect one director to serve until the 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until his successor is elected and qualified, and (3) ratify the appointment of Middlefield's independent auditor.

VOTING PROCEDURES

If you were a shareholder at the close of business on March 26, 2012, you are entitled to vote at the annual meeting. As of March 26, 2012, there were 1,771,687 shares of Middlefield common stock issued and outstanding.

The enclosed proxy is for use if you are unable to attend the annual meeting in person or if you wish to have your shares voted by proxy even if you attend the annual meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the annual meeting, please vote your shares by (1) the Internet or (2) completing, signing, dating, and returning the enclosed proxy as soon as possible in the postage paid envelope provided. If you hold your shares in the name of a bank or broker, the availability of Internet voting will depend on the voting processes of the applicable bank or broker.

Proxies solicited hereby may be used at the annual meeting only and will not be used for any other meeting. Proxies solicited by the board will be voted in accordance with the directions given. If no instructions are given, proxies will be voted in favor of the proposals set forth in this proxy statement.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time before completion of the annual meeting, but revocation will not affect a vote previously taken. If your common stock is held in street name, you must follow the instructions of your broker, bank, or other nominee to revoke your proxy instructions. If you are a holder of record and wish to revoke your proxy instructions, you may revoke a proxy by attending the annual meeting and advising Middlefield's Secretary that you intend to vote in person (but your attendance at the annual meeting will not constitute revocation of a proxy), giving a subsequent proxy relating to the same shares, or filing with the Secretary at or before the annual meeting a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy. A written notice revoking a proxy should be delivered to Ms. Kathleen M. Johnson, Secretary, Middlefield Banc Corp., 15985 East High Street, P.O. Box 35, Middlefield, Ohio 44062. Unless revoked, the shares represented by proxies will be voted at the annual meeting.

EXPENSE OF SOLICITING PROXIES

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by Middlefield. We will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy material to the beneficial owners of common stock. In addition to solicitations by mail, directors, officers, and regular employees of Middlefield and its subsidiaries may solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation.

QUORUM AND VOTE REQUIRED

A quorum is required to conduct business at the annual meeting. When present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting, the holders of a majority of the shares of Middlefield common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote will constitute a quorum for the conduct of business at the meeting.

Shareholders are entitled to one vote for each share held. Shareholders are not entitled to cumulate their votes in the election or removal of directors or otherwise. Directors are elected by a plurality vote of shareholders present in person or by proxy and constituting a quorum, meaning the nominees receiving the greatest numbers of votes will be elected. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is needed to ratify the appointment of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. as Middlefield's independent auditor for 2012.

ABSTENTIONS AND BROKER NON-VOTES

Abstention may be specified on all proposals except the election of directors. Broker non-votes generally occur when shares held by a broker nominee for a beneficial owner are not voted with respect to a proposal because the nominee has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner and lacks discretionary authority to vote the shares. Brokers normally have discretion to vote on routine matters, such as the ratification of independent registered public accounting firms, but not on non-routine matters, such as amendments to charter documents, executive compensation proposals, and the election of directors. Although they are counted for purposes of establishing that a quorum is present, abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted as votes cast. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes have no effect on the election of directors or ratification of the appointment of Middlefield's independent auditor.

BOARD RECOMMENDATIONS

The board of directors recommends that you vote FOR each proposal.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Middlefield periodically reviews its corporate governance policies and procedures to ensure that it meets the highest standards of ethical conduct, reports with accuracy and transparency, and maintains full compliance with laws, rules, and regulations. As part of the corporate governance process, the board reviews and adopts corporate governance policies and practices for Middlefield.

DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

A majority of Middlefield's directors are independent, as the term independence is defined in Rule 5605(a)(2) of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (Nasdaq) listing standards and as defined by Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(ii) promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Under Nasdaq Rule 5605(a)(2), a director of Middlefield is independent (i) if he or she is not an officer or employee of Middlefield or its subsidiaries, (ii) if he or she does not have a relationship with Middlefield that, in the opinion of Middlefield's board, would interfere with the director's independent judgment in the exercise of his or her responsibilities as a director, and (iii) if he or she satisfies all of the following standards is not employed by Middlefield now and was not employed by Middlefield during the last three years, is not a family member of an individual who is or was during the last three years employed by Middlefield as an executive officer. The term family member includes a person's spouse, parents, children, and siblings, whether by blood, marriage, or adoption, or anyone else residing in such person's home, has not accepted and his or her family members have not accepted any payments from Middlefield exceeding $120,000 during any period of 12 consecutive months within the three years preceding the determination of independence (other than compensation for board or board committee service, compensation paid to a family member who is a non-executive employee of Middlefield, benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan, or non-discretionary compensation), is not and his or her family members are not a partner in or a controlling shareholder or an executive officer of any organization to which Middlefield made or from which Middlefield received payments for property or services in the last three years exceeding 5% of the recipient's consolidated gross revenues for that year or $200,000, whichever is greater (other than payments arising solely from investments in Middlefield securities or payments under non-discretionary charitable contribution matching programs), is not and his or her family members are not a current partner or employee of Middlefield's outside auditor (S.R. Snodgrass, A.C.) or a former partner or employee of Middlefield's outside auditor who worked on Middlefield's audit during the last three years, and is not and his or her family members are not employed as an executive officer of another entity on whose compensation committee any of Middlefield's executive officers served during the past three years.

Applying these standards, the board has determined that all of the current directors and director nominees were independent directors within the meaning of Nasdaq Rule 5605(a)(2) and the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC except for Messrs. Caldwell and Heslop. All directors serving on the corporate governance and nominating committee, audit committee, and compensation committee in 2011 were considered by the board to be independent directors within the meaning of Nasdaq Rule 5605(a)(2) and the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC.

LEADERSHIP STRUCTURE OF THE BOARD

The office of Chairman of the Board and the office of President and Chief Executive Officer have traditionally been separate at Middlefield. Middlefield believes that separation of these two offices is consistent with the board's responsibility for oversight of management and of Middlefield's affairs generally. Moreover, the board recognizes the time, effort, and energy that the Chief Executive Officer and President is required to devote to his position, as well as the commitment required to serve as Middlefield's Chairman of the Board. The board believes that having an independent outside director serve as Middlefield's Chairman of the Board is the appropriate leadership structure at this time and demonstrates Middlefield's commitment to good corporate governance.

RISK OVERSIGHT

The board is actively involved in oversight of the risks that could affect Middlefield. This oversight is conducted primarily through committees of the board, but the full board has retained responsibility for general oversight of risks. Board committees exercising oversight of risks include (i) an audit committee that takes into account financial reporting and legal and compliance risks, (ii) a compensation committee that is responsible for risks relating to Middlefield's employment policies and compensation and benefits systems, (iii) a corporate governance and nominating committee that oversees risks relating to management and board succession planning and Middlefield's ethics and business practices, and (iv) other bank committees, such as the loan and asset/liability management committees, that are responsible for exercising oversight of the risks associated with the business of banking. The board satisfies its risk oversight responsibility through full reports by each committee chair regarding the committee's considerations and actions, as well as through regular reports directly from officers responsible for oversight of particular risks within Middlefield, Middlefield Bank, Emerald Bank, and EMORECO, Inc.

CODE OF ETHICS

Updated and revised in November 2011, Middlefield's Code of Ethics is designed to promote the highest standards of ethical conduct by directors, executive officers, and employees. The Code of Ethics requires that directors, executive officers, and employees avoid conflicts of interest, comply with all laws and other legal requirements, conduct business in an honest and ethical manner, and otherwise act with integrity and in Middlefield's best interest. Under the terms of the Code of Ethics, directors, executive officers, and employees are required to report any conduct that they believe in good faith to be an actual or apparent violation of the Code of Ethics. Middlefield's Code of Ethics also incorporates a Code of Ethics for Financial Professionals, which applies to the principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or person performing similar functions. The Code of Ethics for Financial Professionals is used to assure that Middlefield maintains the highest integrity with respect to the preparation and reporting of financial information related to Middlefield and to assure full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in SEC reports and other public communications. The Code of Ethics is available at www.middlefieldbank.com and www.emeraldbank.com.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS

Shareholders may use the following process to send communications to the board and/or individual directors. If the concern relates to Middlefield's financial statements, accounting practices, or internal controls, the concern should be submitted in writing to the chairman of the audit committee in care of Ms. Kathleen M. Johnson, Secretary, at Middlefield Banc Corp., 15985 East High Street, P.O. Box 35, Middlefield, Ohio 44062. If the concern relates to Middlefield's governance practices, business ethics, or corporate conduct, the concern should be submitted in writing to the chairman of the corporate governance and nominating committee in care of Ms. Kathleen M. Johnson, Secretary, at the same address as above. If the shareholder is unsure as to which category his or her concern relates, he or she may communicate it to any one of the independent directors in care of Ms. Kathleen M. Johnson, Secretary.

BOARD MEETINGS AND COMMITTEE INFORMATION

Middlefield's board held 10 meetings in 2011. The individuals who served in 2011 as directors of Middlefield attended at least 75% of (i) the total number of board meetings and (ii) the total number of meetings held by all committees on which he or she served.

The board encourages directors to attend the annual meeting of shareholders. All directors who served in 2011 attended the 2011 annual meeting except for Mr. Heslop.

The standing committees of the board are the corporate governance and nominating committee, the compensation committee, and the audit committee. From time to time, the board of directors may also appoint ad hoc committees. Each standing committee has a separate written charter. Information about the board's standing committees, including the names of the current committee members, is set forth below.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The charter and guidelines of the corporate governance and nominating committee were adopted by the board in February 2004, and amended in February 2012. A current copy of the charter and guidelines is available at www.middlefieldbank.com and www.emeraldbank.com. A copy of the charter and guidelines is also available in print to shareholders upon request, addressed to Middlefield's Secretary, Ms. Kathleen M. Johnson, at Middlefield Banc Corp., 15985 East High Street, P.O. Box 35, Middlefield, Ohio 44062. Members of the committee are appointed by the board. The corporate governance and nominating committee met four times in 2011.

The corporate governance and nominating committee recommends to the board the slate of director nominees to be proposed by the board for election by the shareholders, any director nominees to be elected by the board to fill interim director vacancies, and the directors to be selected for membership on and chairmanship of the committees of the board. In addition, this committee addresses general corporate governance matters on behalf of the board and annually reviews with the board the requisite skills and criteria for new members. The committee also reviews the composition and function of the board as a whole.

Several factors are considered by the committee when selecting individuals to be nominated for election to the board. A candidate must meet any qualification requirements set forth in any corporate governance documents such as the committee's charter and/or guidelines. A candidate must also not have been subject to certain criminal or regulatory actions. The committee does not have a policy for the consideration of diversity in the nomination process, but the committee takes into account in its deliberations all facets of a potential nominee's background, including the following criteria in selecting nominees:

personal qualities and characteristics;

accomplishments and reputation in the business community;

financial, regulatory, and business experience;

current knowledge and contacts in the communities in which Middlefield does business;

ability and willingness to commit adequate time to board and committee matters;

fit of the individual's skills with those of other directors and potential directors in building a board that is effective and responsive to Middlefield's needs;

independence; and any other factors the board deems relevant, including diversity of viewpoints, background, experience, and other demographics.

Edgar Filing: MIDDLEFIELD BANC CORP - Form DEF 14A

In addition, prior to nominating a director for reelection to the board, the committee considers and reviews the director's board and committee attendance and performance; length of board service; experience, skills, and contributions that the director brings to the board; and independence. The committee's goal is to identify individuals that will enhance and add valuable perspective to the board's deliberations and who will assist Middlefield in its effort to capitalize on business opportunities in a challenging and highly competitive market.

Middlefield's corporate governance guidelines establish stock ownership guidelines for directors. The guidelines state that within three years of being elected, directors should own Middlefield common stock equal in value to at least two times a director's current yearly base compensation for service on Middlefield Bank's board of directors. As of December 31, 2011, two times the directors' projected annual yearly compensation is $43,200. Similarly, directors serving on Middlefield Bank's or Emerald Bank's board of directors are required, within three years of being elected, to own Middlefield common stock equal in value to at least two times a director's current yearly base compensation for service on those respective banks' board of directors. Middlefield's corporate governance guidelines also establish a director retirement age. Upon reaching the age of 75, directors may serve on the board until their term ends, but directors may not stand for reelection after their 75th birthday.

The committee will consider director nominees recommended by shareholders. A shareholder may submit a nomination for director by following the procedures specified in article III, section 4, of Middlefield's regulations. Among other things, these procedures require that the shareholder deliver to Middlefield's Secretary a written notice stating the name and age of each nominee, the nominee's principal occupation, and the number of shares of Middlefield common stock the shareholder beneficially owns. The written consent of the nominee to serve as a director must also be provided by the shareholder making the nomination. The information must be provided to the Secretary at least 60 days before the date corresponding to the date on which Middlefield's proxy materials were mailed to shareholders for the previous year's annual meeting, and no more than 120 days before that date. A nomination made by a shareholder who does not comply with these procedures will be disregarded.

To identify nominees, the committee relies on personal contacts as well as its knowledge of members of the local communities. The committee also considers director candidates recommended by shareholders in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth above. The committee determines whether a candidate is eligible and qualified for service on the board by evaluating the candidate under the selection criteria set forth above. Middlefield has not previously used an independent search firm to identify nominees. Directors of Middlefield Bank are elected and nominated solely by Middlefield's and Middlefield Bank's board. Similarly, directors of Emerald Bank are elected and nominated solely by Middlefield's and Emerald Bank's board. Directors of EMORECO, Inc. are elected and nominated solely by Middlefield's and EMORECO, Inc.'s board.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The compensation committee establishes the base salary of each executive officer as well as the executives' award levels under the Annual Incentive Plan. The committee is also responsible for administration of other executive benefits and plans, including the 2007 Omnibus Equity Plan and the executive deferred compensation agreements entered into by the Bank with Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy. Middlefield approved a compensation committee charter in April 2004 to help establish compensation policies that will enable Middlefield to attract, motivate, and retain high quality leadership. The compensation committee charter was updated in February 2012. The compensation committee's decisions about compensation for named executive officers' performance takes into account the views of Middlefield's Chief Executive Officer. But for its review of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the compensation committee reviews reports submitted by each director. Middlefield's compensation committee met five times in 2011.

The compensation committee has engaged compensation consultants and advisors from time to time to provide input on both board and executive compensation issues. The committee utilizes the services of consultants to conduct periodic comprehensive total compensation studies as well as ongoing updates on best practices. The compensation committee retains the right to hire, fire, and obtain advice and assistance from legal counsel or other experts or consultants consistent with its charter. During 2011, the compensation committee did not engage any compensation consultants to provide advice and counsel related to executive compensation issues.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The audit committee appoints Middlefield's independent public auditor, reviews and approves the audit plan and fee estimate of the independent public auditor, appraises the effectiveness of the internal and external audit efforts, evaluates the adequacy and effectiveness of accounting policies and financial and accounting management, supervises the internal auditor, and reviews and approves the annual financial statements. The audit committee has the authority to engage separate legal counsel and other advisors, as necessary, to execute its duties. The audit committee met five times in 2011.

Middlefield's board adopted a written charter for the audit committee in August 2001. The charter is reviewed on an annual basis, and was revised in February 2012. A current copy of the audit committee charter is available at www.middlefieldbank.com and www.emeraldbank.com.

Middlefield believes that none of the directors who serve on the audit committee have a relationship with Middlefield or its subsidiaries that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as directors. The board, in its business judgment, has determined that all members of the audit committee meet the current independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market and applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, and that Mr. Jones and Ms. Turk satisfy the requirements for an audit committee financial expert promulgated by the SEC.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011, and has discussed the audited financial statements with management. The Audit Committee has also discussed with S.R. Snodgrass, A.C., Middlefield's independent auditor, the matters required to be discussed by PCAOB AU Section 380 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committees), and has discussed with S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. its independence. Based on this, the Audit Committee recommended to the board that the audited financial statements be included in Middlefield's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Submitted by the Audit Committee:

Richard T. Coyne, Kenneth E. Jones, James J. McCaskey, and Carolyn J. Turk, C.P.A.

2011 DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

The following table shows the compensation of directors for their service in 2011, other than Directors Caldwell and Heslop. The director compensation information to follow represents compensation for the full year, through December 31, 2011. The majority of director compensation is paid by Middlefield Bank for directors' service on Middlefield Bank's board and board committees, but compensation shown in the table is aggregate compensation paid for directors' service to Middlefield, Middlefield Bank, Emerald Bank, and EMORECO, Inc. Information about compensation paid to and earned by Directors Caldwell and Heslop is included elsewhere in this proxy statement.

- (1) On February 14, 2011, each outside director of Middlefield Bank and Emerald Bank was granted 220 shares of restricted stock under Middlefield's 2007 Omnibus Equity Plan. The restricted stock vested 90 days from the date of grant. This column represents the grant date fair value in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 and is equal to the number of shares times the fair market value (the closing price) on the date of grant ($18.00). Because such stock vested on May 14, 2011, and is therefore no longer restricted, none of Middlefield's outside directors held any shares of restricted stock on December 31, 2011.
- (2) No stock options were granted to directors in 2011. The aggregate number of outstanding option awards for each current director as of December 31, 2011, was as follows: Mr. Coyne: 3,000; Mr. Hummel: 0; Mr. Jones: 4,050; Mr. McCaskey: 2,407; Mr. Skidmore: 2,837; Mr. Toth: 1,500; and Ms. Turk: 1,500. All outstanding director option awards are vested and exercisable.
- (3) For 2011, represents payout of an annual retirement benefit to Director Coyne under the terms of his Director Retirement Agreement with Middlefield Bank. Payout of an annual retirement benefit to Director Coyne commenced due to his attaining the normal retirement age of 75 in 2010.

DIRECTOR FEES AND LIFE INSURANCE

Middlefield directors receive compensation of $750 for each board and committee meeting attended. Middlefield's Chairman of the Board receives additional annual compensation of $3,600. Middlefield Bank directors receive compensation of $1,800 per month less $100 for each meeting not attended in a particular month. Middlefield Bank directors also receive $400 in committee fees for each meeting attended. Emerald Bank directors receive compensation of $500 for each board and committee meeting attended. Directors of EMORECO, Inc. receive no compensation for board service.

Director Coyne and certain former directors of Middlefield Bank are also entitled to life insurance benefits under a group-term life insurance program, potentially receiving benefits ranging from $10,000 to $30,000 payable to the director's designated beneficiary. Director Coyne's beneficiaries are entitled to insurance benefits of $19,500, former Director Frank's beneficiaries are entitled to insurance benefits of $30,000, and former Directors Halstead, Hasman, Hunter, and Villers' beneficiaries are entitled to insurance benefits of $10,000 each.

DIRECTOR RETIREMENT AGREEMENTS

Middlefield Bank entered into director retirement agreements with each nonemployee director in 2001. Of the current directors, only Director Coyne is a party to a director retirement agreement. Director Coyne's agreement was amended in December 2007 to provide for a uniform normal retirement age of 75. The agreements provide directors with a retirement benefit that Middlefield considers modest. The director retirement agreements provide for an annual benefit in an amount equal to 25% of the average annual fees earned by the director in the three years before attaining normal retirement age. The benefit is payable for ten years beginning at normal retirement age, even if the director continues serving as a director. If a director terminates service before normal retirement age for reasons other than death or disability, beginning at normal retirement age he or she will receive over a ten-year period a payment based upon the retirement-liability balance accrued by Middlefield Bank at the end of the month before the month in which the director's service terminated. However, no benefits are payable in the case of early termination unless the director is at least 55 years of age and has served as a director for at least five years, including years of service before the director retirement agreements were entered into. Likewise, if a director's service terminates because of disability before normal retirement age, beginning at normal retirement age he or she will receive over a ten-year period a payment based upon the retirement-liability balance accrued by Middlefield Bank at the end of the month before the month in which the director's service terminated. If a change in control of Middlefield occurs, the director will receive a lump-sum payment equal to the retirement-liability balance accrued by Middlefield Bank at the end of the month before the month in which the change in control occurred. For this purpose, the term "change in control" means a change in control as defined in IRC section 409A and Internal Revenue Service regulations implementing section 409A. After a director's death, any benefits remaining unpaid to the director will be paid to his or her beneficiary in a single lump sum. A director forfeits all benefits under the director retirement agreement if he or she is not nominated for reelection because of the director's neglect of duties, commission of a felony or misdemeanor, or acts of fraud, disloyalty, or willful violation of significant bank policies, or if the director is removed by order of the FDIC.

Former Directors Halstead, Hasman, Hunter, Paul, and Villers have retired. The annual retirement benefits under their Director Retirement Agreements are $5,040, $4,275, 4,383, $4,000, and $5,292, respectively, payable for ten years. Former Director Frank will also be entitled to an early termination benefit equal to $3,115 annually, payable for ten years upon reaching the normal retirement age 75. Director Coyne receives an annual benefit of $6,272 due to his attaining the normal retirement age of 75 in 2010. The director retirement agreements of Directors Frank, Halstead, Hunter, and Villers also provide that Middlefield Bank shall obtain and maintain health insurance coverage for the lifetime of these directors and their spouses if the coverage can be obtained on commercially reasonable terms.

DIRECTOR INDEMNIFICATION

At the 2001 annual meeting, shareholders approved the form and use of indemnification agreements for directors, including Directors Caldwell, Coyne, and Heslop. In March 2010, Middlefield entered into indemnification agreements with Directors Jones, McCaskey, Skidmore, Toth, and Turk. The indemnification agreements allow directors to select the most favorable indemnification rights provided under (1) Middlefield's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or Regulations in effect on the date of the indemnification agreement or on the date expenses are incurred, (2) state law in effect on the date of the indemnification agreement or on the date expenses are incurred, (3) any liability insurance policy in effect when a claim is made against the director or on the date expenses are incurred, and (4) any other indemnification arrangement otherwise available. The agreements cover all fees, expenses, judgments, fines, penalties, and settlement amounts paid in any matter relating to the director's role as a Middlefield director, officer, employee, agent, or when serving as Middlefield's representative with respect to another entity. Each indemnification agreement provides for the prompt advancement of all expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding subject to the director's obligation to repay those advances if it is determined later that the director is not entitled to indemnification.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS

Except as may be stated in this proxy statement, no person is known by Middlefield to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding common stock.

On August 15, 2011, Middlefield entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Bank Opportunity Fund LLC ("BOF"). On March 21, 2012, Middlefield and BOF entered into a letter agreement pursuant to which they agreed to amend the August 15, 2011 Stock Purchase Agreement. Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, as amended, BOF will own and control 24.9% of Middlefield's common stock, provided that certain approvals are obtained and conditions satisfied. The amended Stock Purchase Agreement also grants to BOF the right to designate one person to serve on Middlefield's board and on the boards of Middlefield Bank and Emerald Bank. BOF anticipates acquiring 4.9% of Middlefield's common stock sometime in the immediate future.

Subsequent to the initial investment, an additional 5% of Middlefield's common stock is proposed to be acquired by BOF on or before April 30, 2012, for aggregate ownership of 9.9% of Middlefield's common stock. Acquisition by BOF of the remaining 15% of stock for ownership of 24.9% in the aggregate will be conditioned on regulatory approval, as well as stockholder approval under the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Act and satisfaction of other conditions specified in the amended Stock Purchase Agreement. Middlefield expects to call and hold the special meeting at which stockholders will consider and vote upon the transaction with BOF in the second or third quarter of 2012. Assuming there currently are 1,771,687 shares outstanding, we estimate that BOF's ownership of 24.99% of our common stock will represent ownership by BOF of approximately 590,300 shares, increasing shares outstanding to a total of approximately 2,361,987 shares.

On August 12, 2011, an institutional investor also entered into a subscription agreement with Middlefield to acquire 4.9% of Middlefield's common stock. After completion of the BOF transaction, the subscription agreement requires the institutional investor to buy additional Middlefield shares at $16 per share so that the institutional investor maintains its ownership interest at 4.9%. The investor currently owns 85,200 shares.

The following table shows the beneficial ownership of Middlefield common stock on March 26, 2012, by each director and director nominee and each executive officer identified in the Summary Compensation Table, and all directors, nominees, and executive officers as a group.

For purposes of the table, a person is considered to beneficially own any shares over which he or she exercises sole or shared voting or investment power or of which he or she has the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Unless otherwise indicated, voting power and investment power are exercised solely by the person named or they are shared with members of his or her household. Shares deemed to be outstanding for purposes of computing Percent of Stock are calculated on the basis of 1,771,687 shares outstanding, plus the number of shares each individual has the right to acquire within 60 days.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires Middlefield's directors and executive officers, as well as any persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of Middlefield's equity securities, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Middlefield stock. Based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to Middlefield and written representations to Middlefield, to Middlefield's knowledge all section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, except that (i) Directors Coyne, Hummel, Jones, McCaskey, Skidmore, Toth, and Turk failed to file Form 4s for the grant of 220 shares of restricted stock on February 14, 2011, and (ii) Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy failed to file Form 4s for the incentive stock options to acquire 2,500 shares granted on May 9, 2011. The directors and Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy also did not file Form 5s in a timely manner to report these transactions.

2011 SUMMARY COMPENSATION TABLE

The executive compensation information to follow represents compensation for the full year, through December 31, 2011. The majority of the compensation is paid by Middlefield Bank, but compensation shown in the table is aggregate compensation paid by Middlefield and its subsidiary banks Middlefield Bank and Emerald Bank. No compensation is paid by EMORECO, Inc.

- (1) includes salary deferred at the election of the executive under Middlefield Bank's 401(k) retirement plan. Also includes fees for service as a director. Mr. Caldwell's director fees in 2011 and 2010 were $31,100 and $24,600, respectively. Mr. Heslop's director fees in 2011 and 2010 were $26,400 and $22,700, respectively.

- (2) For 2011, represents cash bonus payments made in March 2012 based on the compensation committee's evaluation of certain individual and corporate performance objectives achieved during the 2011 fiscal year.
- (3) No stock awards were granted to the executives in 2011 or 2010.
- (4) On May 9, 2011, Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy were each granted an incentive stock option to acquire 2,500 shares at an exercise price of $17.55. The incentive stock options vest and become exercisable in one year and expire 10 years from the grant date. This column represents the aggregate grant date fair value of stock option awards granted to Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718.
- (5) For 2010, represents cash incentive payments made in March 2011 under Middlefield Bank's Annual Incentive Plan based on financial performance and the executives' performance in 2010. No cash incentive payments under Middlefield Bank's Annual Incentive Plan were made to the executives in 2011.
- (6) The figures in the "all other compensation" column represent (i) matching contributions under Middlefield Bank's 401(k) plan, (ii) contributions and interest earnings credited by Middlefield Bank for each executive under the executive deferred compensation agreements, and (iii) premium paid by Middlefield for the group-term life insurance on the executives' lives. For 2011, the Bank made contributions of $7,024 to the 401(k) plan account of Mr. Caldwell, $5,552 to the account of Mr. Heslop, and $4,200 to the account of Mr. Stacy. The contributions and interest earnings for the executive deferred compensation agreements were $25,740 and earned interest of $2,916 for Mr. Caldwell, $20,350 and earned interest of $2,261 for Mr. Heslop, and $15,400 and earned interest of $1,677 for Mr. Stacy. The premium paid by Middlefield for group-term life insurance coverage was $504 for each executive. The group-term life insurance plan does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation in favor of the named executive officers and is generally available to all salaried employees.

Perquisites and other personal benefits provided to each of the named executive officers in 2011 and 2010 were less than $10,000. The value of insurance on the lives of the named executive officers is not reflected in the Summary Compensation Table because the executives have no interest in the policies. However, the executives are entitled to designate the beneficiary of death benefits payable by Middlefield Bank under executive survivor income agreements. See the Executive Survivor Income Agreements section in the discussion below.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN

Established by Middlefield Bank in 2003, but terminable by the board at any time, all employees are eligible to participate in the Annual Incentive Plan. Annual incentive payments under the plan for a particular year are based on objective financial performance criteria established before the beginning of the year by the board based on the compensation committee's recommendations. To become entitled to an Annual Incentive Plan cash award for 2011 performance, Middlefield's executive officers had to cross several distinct plan thresholds, including satisfaction of a rolling-average return on equity goal and a net income goal. In future years, other financial performance measures could be taken into account, such as return on average equity (ROAE), return on average assets (ROAA), loan growth, deposit growth, efficiency ratio, and net interest margin. The compensation committee also considers objective individual performance goals. An employee's potential cash incentive payment under the Annual Incentive Plan depends upon two factors: (x) the employee's position, which establishes a maximum cash incentive award as a percent of base salary, and (y) the extent to which the performance targets, such as targeted net income, and individual performance targets, are achieved.

2007 OMNIBUS EQUITY PLAN

The 2007 Omnibus Equity Plan (the Plan) authorizes the issuance of 160,000 shares of Middlefield common stock. Middlefield's compensation committee administers the Plan. Shares of common stock issued under the Plan may consist in whole or in part of treasury shares or authorized and unissued shares not reserved for any other purpose. Awards to employees may take the form of incentive stock options (ISOs) that qualify for favored tax treatment under IRC section 422, stock options that do not qualify under IRC section 422 (NQSOs), stock appreciation rights (SARs), restricted stock, and performance shares. In contrast to the kinds of awards that may be made to employees, non-employee directors are eligible for awards of NQSOs and restricted stock only. The terms of each award will be described in an award agreement. Of the shares authorized for issuance under the Plan, up to 80,000 may be reserved for issuance under incentive stock options. The aggregate number of shares underlying awards granted to an individual participant in a single year may not exceed 16,000. Awards made under the Plan generally are not transferable except as specified in the Plan. During a participant's lifetime, awards are exercisable solely by the participant or the participant's guardian or legal representative. Plan awards may be transferred by will and by the laws of descent and distribution.

Unless the participant's award agreement provides otherwise, when a participant employee's service terminates or when a non-employee director participant's service terminates the portion of any award held by the participant that is not exercisable is forfeited. All NQSOs, SARs, and ISOs held by the participant that are exercisable shall be forfeited if not exercised before the earlier of the expiration date specified in the award agreement or 90 days after termination occurs. However, all of a participant's outstanding awards are forfeited if the participant's employment or director service terminates for cause or if in Middlefield's judgment a basis for termination for cause exists, regardless of whether the awards are exercisable and regardless of whether the participant's employment or director service actually terminates. However, shares of restricted stock or performance shares that have been released from escrow and distributed to the participant are not affected by a termination for cause.

If a change in control of Middlefield occurs, the compensation committee has broad authority and sole discretion to take actions it deems appropriate to preserve the value of participants' awards. In general, a change in control means one or more of the following events occur a change in the composition of Middlefield's board of directors, after which the incumbent members of the board on the effective date of the Plan including their successors whose election or nomination was approved by those incumbent directors and their successors no longer represent a majority of the board;

a person (other than persons such as subsidiaries or benefit plans) becomes a beneficial owner of Middlefield securities representing 25% or more of the combined voting power of all securities eligible to vote for the election of directors, excepting business combinations after which Middlefield's shareholders own more than 50% of the resulting company and except for stock issuances approved by incumbent directors and their successors;

a merger, consolidation, share exchange, or similar form of business combination transaction requiring approval of Middlefield's shareholders, excepting business combinations after which Middlefield's shareholders own more than 50% of the resulting company; or Middlefield's shareholders approve a plan of complete liquidation or dissolution or sale of all or substantially all of Middlefield's assets.

Fair Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 718 requires that the compensation cost relating to share-based payment transactions, including grants of stock options, be recognized as an expense in financial statements. For this purpose, cost is measured based on the fair value of the equity instrument issued, according to any option-pricing model satisfying the fair value objective of FASB ASC Topic 718.

EXECUTIVE DEFERRED COMPENSATION AGREEMENTS

On December 28, 2006, Middlefield Bank entered into executive deferred compensation agreements with Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy. The December 28, 2006 executive deferred compensation agreements were amended on March 8, 2008, for purposes of compliance with IRC section 409A. The executive deferred compensation agreements are intended to provide supplemental retirement income benefits. The arrangement is noncontributory, meaning contributions can be made solely by Middlefield Bank. For each year the executive remains employed with Middlefield Bank until attaining age 65, Middlefield Bank may credit each executive with a contribution equal to 5% of the executive's base annual salary. Contributions exceeding 5% of salary are conditional on achievement of performance goals: (i) Middlefield Bank's net income for the plan year and (ii) Middlefield Bank's peer ranking for the plan year, as established using the Uniform Bank Performance Report (UBPR) as reported on the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council's website at www.ffc.gov/UBPR.htm. The UBPR is an analytical tool created for bank supervisory, examination, and management purposes. In a concise format, the UBPR shows the impact of management decisions and economic conditions on a bank's performance and balance-sheet composition. Each of the two performance goals can account for a contribution of up to 7.5% of the executive's base annual salary. The net income goal for each year will be established by the compensation committee no later than March 31 of that year. The compensation committee's decisions are reported to the full board, but the decisions are not final unless approved by a majority of Middlefield's independent directors.

EXECUTIVE SURVIVOR INCOME AGREEMENTS

In June 2003, Middlefield Bank entered into executive survivor income agreements with various officers, including Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy. The agreements promise a specific cash benefit payable by Middlefield Bank to an executive's designated beneficiary at the executive's death, provided the executive dies before attaining age 85. The benefit would be paid to the executive's beneficiary if the executive dies in active service to Middlefield Bank, but it also would be payable after the executive's termination of service if the executive terminated (i) because of disability, or (ii) within 12 months after a change in control of Middlefield, or (iii) after having attained age 55 with at least ten years of service to Middlefield Bank or after having attained age 65.

The total death benefit payable to Mr. Caldwell's beneficiaries if he dies in active service to Middlefield Bank is $471,741, the benefit payable to Mr. Heslop's beneficiaries is $368,970, and the benefit payable to Mr. Stacy's beneficiaries is $222,619. For death after terminating active service with Middlefield Bank, the death benefit for Mr. Caldwell's beneficiaries is $471,741, $368,970 for Mr. Heslop's beneficiaries, and $111,309 for Mr. Stacy's beneficiaries. To assure itself of funds sufficient to pay the promised death benefits, Middlefield Bank purchased insurance on the executives' lives with a single premium payment. Middlefield Bank owns the policies and is the sole beneficiary. Of the total premium paid for the insurance on the various executives' lives, $495,873 is attributable to insurance purchased on the life of Mr. Caldwell, $447,351 is attributable to insurance on the life of Mr. Heslop, and $333,890 is attributable to insurance purchased on the life of Mr. Stacy. The premium amounts are not reflected in the Summary Compensation Table. Middlefield Bank expects that the policies' death benefits will be sufficient to pay all benefits promised under the executive survivor income agreements.

SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

Middlefield and its subsidiaries have not entered into written employment agreements with officers. Middlefield entered into severance agreements on January 7, 2008, with six executives, including Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy. The severance agreements provide that the executive is entitled to severance compensation if a change in control occurs during the term of the agreement, payable in a single lump sum. For purposes of the severance agreements, the term change in control means (i) an occurrence of a change in ownership of Middlefield, (ii) a change in effective control of Middlefield, or (iii) a change in the ownership of a substantial portion of Middlefield's assets as defined consistent with IRC section 409A. The agreements promise to each executive a lump-sum payment calculated as a multiple of the executive's salary and the executive's cash bonus and cash incentive compensation. In the case of executives other than Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy, the lump-sum severance benefit is payable immediately after involuntary termination without cause or voluntary termination for good reason occurring within 24 months after a change in control. Rather than being contingent on a separation from service after a change in control, the lump-sum benefit of Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy is payable immediately after a change in control occurs.

The multiple of compensation payable under the severance agreements is 2.5 times in the case of Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Heslop and two times compensation for all other executives. The agreements also promise continued life, health, and disability insurance coverage for 24 months after employment termination and legal fee reimbursement of up to $500,000 for Messrs. Caldwell and Heslop and $300,000 for the other four executives if the severance agreements are challenged after a change in control.

RETIREMENT PLAN

Middlefield does not maintain a defined benefit or actuarial plan providing retirement benefits for officers or employees based on actual or average final compensation. But both Middlefield Bank and Emerald Bank maintain a section 401(k) employee savings and investment plan for substantially all employees and officers who have more than one year of service. The banks' contribution to the plans is based on 50% matching of voluntary contributions, up to 6% of compensation. An eligible employee may contribute up to 15% of his or her salary. Employee contributions are vested at all times. Contributions are fully vested after six years, vesting in 20% annual increments beginning with the second year. Middlefield Bank employees also have life insurance benefits under a group term life insurance program, paying benefits to an employee's beneficiary if the employee dies while employed by Middlefield Bank, up to the lesser of (i) twice the employee's annual salary at the time of death or (ii) $140,000.

IRC LIMITS

The qualifying compensation regulations issued by the Internal Revenue Service under IRC section 162(m) provide that no deduction is allowed for applicable employee remuneration paid by a publicly held corporation to a covered employee to the extent that the remuneration exceeds $1 million for the applicable taxable year, unless specified conditions are satisfied. Salary and bonus amounts deferred by executives are not subject to section 162(m). Currently, remuneration is not expected to exceed $1 million for any employee. Therefore, Middlefield does not expect that compensation will be affected by the qualifying compensation regulations. The compensation committee and Middlefield's board intend to maintain executive compensation within the section 162(m) deductibility limits, but could permit compensation exceeding the section 162(m) limits in the future.

TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

Directors and executive officers of Middlefield and their associates are customers of and enter into banking transactions with Middlefield Bank and Emerald Bank in the ordinary course of business. Middlefield expects that these relationships and transactions will continue. The transactions with directors, executive officers, and their associates have not involved more than the normal risk of collectability and have not presented other unfavorable features. Loans and commitments to lend included in these transactions were made and will be made on substantially the same terms including interest rates and collateral as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with persons not affiliated with Middlefield.

OUTSTANDING EQUITY AWARDS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2011

The following table shows as of December 31, 2011, the number of shares acquirable, exercise prices, and expiration dates of all unexercised stock options held by the executives identified in the Summary Compensation Table. No executives exercised stock options in 2011. On May 9, 2011, Messrs. Caldwell, Heslop, and Stacy were each granted an incentive stock option to acquire 2,500 shares at an exercise price of $17.55 per share. The incentive stock options vest in one year and are exercisable no later than May 9, 2021.

FIRST PROPOSAL ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

According to article III, section 2, of Middlefield's regulations, the board may consist of no fewer than five and no more than 25 directors, the precise number being fixed or changed from time to time within that range by the board or by majority vote of shareholders acting at an annual meeting. Article III, section 2(b) of Middlefield's regulations provides that at any time when the number of directors (including vacancies) of Middlefield is six or more, the directors must be classified into at least two classes, as nearly equal in number as possible and consisting of no fewer than three directors in each class, designated Class I, Class II, and if there are nine or more directors, Class III. Currently, Class I of Middlefield's board consists of Directors Hummel, Jones, and McCaskey (whose terms expire at the 2014 annual meeting), Class II consists of Directors Coyne, Heslop, and Toth (whose terms expire at the 2012 annual meeting), and Class III consists of Directors Caldwell, Skidmore, and Turk (whose terms expire at the 2013 annual meeting).

Middlefield's corporate governance guidelines provide that directors are subject to a mandatory retirement age and cannot stand for reelection following their 75th birthday. Mr. Richard T. Coyne, Middlefield's Chairman of the Board, reached the mandatory retirement age of 75 during the fiscal year 2010. The board is concerned that Director Coyne's retirement will disrupt the culture of collegiality and consensus that characterizes the board's operations. After extensive discussion, and at the recommendation of Middlefield's corporate governance and nominating committee, the board voted on February 13, 2012, to (i) waive the age 75 reelection limitation found in the corporate governance guidelines so that Director Coyne may stand for reelection to the board for one additional year only and (ii) subject to Director Coyne's reelection at the 2012 annual meeting, reassign Director Coyne to Class III whose term ends at the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders. In reaching this decision, the board noted that continuity of leadership would benefit Middlefield and its stockholders. At the same time, the board affirmed its support of the mandatory retirement age and reaffirmed all provisions in the corporate governance guidelines. The board's waiver applies solely to Director Coyne and does not constitute a waiver of any future director obligation to comply with the age 75 reelection limitation found in Middlefield's corporate governance guidelines.

Also on February 13, 2012, the number of directors constituting Middlefield's board was fixed at ten to ensure that each director class consists of three directors. As a result, there is currently a vacancy in Class II of the board. Middlefield will fill the remaining vacancy in the board when a suitable candidate is identified. Under the terms of the amended Stock Purchase Agreement between Middlefield and BOF, as described on pages 9-10 of this proxy statement, it is anticipated that Mr. Joseph J. Thomas will be BOF's nominee to the board and that he will be appointed to fill the vacancy in Class II. Mr. Thomas would stand for election at Middlefield's 2013 annual meeting for a term consistent with Class II.

For purposes of the 2012 annual meeting, the corporate governance and nominating committee has recommended Directors Heslop and Toth for reelection to the board, and the board has nominated such persons to serve as directors for three-year terms ending at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, or until their successors are elected and qualified. Similarly, the corporate governance and nominating committee has recommended Director Coyne for reelection to the board, and the board has nominated him to serve as a director for a one-year term ending at the 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, or until his successors is elected and qualified.

The biographies of each of the nominees and continuing directors below contains information regarding the person's service as a director, business experience, director positions held currently or at any time during the last five years, information regarding involvement in certain legal or administrative proceedings, if applicable, and the experiences, qualifications, attributes, or skills that caused the corporate governance and nominating committee and the board to determine that the person should serve as a Middlefield director.

SECOND PROPOSAL RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

Middlefield's independent auditor for the year ended December 31, 2011, was S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. The audit committee has selected, subject to shareholder ratification, S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. to be Middlefield's independent auditor for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012. We expect one or more representatives of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. to be present at the annual meeting. The representative of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. will have the opportunity to make a statement if desired, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The following table sets forth the fees paid to S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. for services provided during fiscal years ended December 31, 2011, and 2010:

	2011	2010
Audit Fees (1)	$ 100,431	$ 101,196
Audit-Related Fees	$ 0	$ 0
Tax Fees (2)	$ 12,941	$ 11,334
All Other Fees (3)	$ 22,116	$ 21,491
Total	$ 135,448	$ 134,021

- (1) Audit fees consist of fees for professional services rendered for the audit of Middlefield's financial statements and review of financial statements included in Middlefield's quarterly reports.
 - (2) Tax service fees consist of compliance fees for preparation of original tax returns.
 - (3) Other services consist of assisting in compliance audits related to BSA/OFAC/AML/USA PATRIOT Acts and ACH.
- The audit committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services, and other services. Pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of services and is generally subject to a budget. The independent auditors and management are required to periodically report to the audit committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent auditors in accordance with this pre-approval, and the fees for the services performed to date. The audit committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis.

AUDITOR INDEPENDENCE

The audit committee of the board believes that the non-audit services provided by S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. are compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence. To the best of Middlefield's knowledge, none of the time devoted by S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. on its engagement to audit Middlefield's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011, is attributable to work performed by persons other than full-time, permanent employees of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR ratification of the appointment of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. as Middlefield's independent auditor for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012
