ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On September 14, 2012, Gaylord Entertainment Company (the Company) issued a press release announcing its plans to enter into certain management agreements with respect to several of its attractions with Marriott International, Inc. (Marriott). The Company will retain ownership of the attractions managed by Marriott. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company will continue to own and operate the Grand Ole Opry and Ryman Auditorium. The Company's entry into the management agreements with Marriott is subject to the Company's completion of its hotel management transfer, which is subject to certain closing conditions, including the approval by the Company's shareholders of certain proposals that will facilitate the Company becoming a real estate investment trust (REIT) at a special meeting of stockholders to be held on September 25, 2012, lender consent to amendments to the Company's credit facility, and other customary conditions and regulatory approvals. A copy of the Company's press release is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K may contain forward-looking statements concerning the Company's goals, beliefs, expectations, strategies, objectives, plans, future operating results and underlying assumptions, and other statements that are not necessarily based on historical facts. Examples of these statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our expectation to contract management functions to Marriott, and our expectation to elect REIT status. Actual results may differ materially from those indicated in our forward-looking statements as a result of various important factors, including: conditions to closing the hotel management transfer may not be satisfied or waived; and we may fail to qualify as a REIT by January 1, 2013 or at all, and, if we do qualify as a REIT, we may be unable to maintain that qualification.

Additional Information and Where to Find It
