Macquarie became the beneficial owner of 50.79 Shares on August 1, 2007, when it, together with a group of other private investors, acquired the then outstanding Shares (the "Privatization") through Redford Holdco, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Holdco"). The source of funding for the Privatization was obtained pursuant to certain subscription agreements, dated as of March 12, 2007, under which each member of Holdco (including Redford Australian Investment Trust, an Australian unit trust (the "Trust")), subscribed for equity of Holdco denominated in units for the purpose of funding the Privatization (including certain transaction costs). The aggregate dollar amount of Macquarie's subscription was $25,112,283. After giving effect to a 129,318.88 to 1 stock split consummated on September 10, 2012, Macquarie became the owner of record of 6,568,255 Shares upon liquidation of the Trust on the Closing Date.
