6.375% Senior Notes due 2020 and 6.375% Concurrent Notes due 2020

On October 4, 2012, (1) VPI Escrow Corp., a newly formed wholly owned Delaware subsidiary of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International (Valeant), a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (the Company), completed its previously announced offering (the Senior Notes Offering) of $1,750 million aggregate principal amount of 6.375% Senior Notes due 2020 (the Senior Notes), and (2) Valeant completed its previously announced offering (the Concurrent Offering) of $500 million aggregate principal amount of 6.375% Senior Notes due 2020 (the Concurrent Notes), and together with the Senior Notes, the Notes)

The Notes were offered and sold to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities law and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

As previously announced, on September 2, 2012, the Company, Valeant, Merlin Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Valeant (Merger Sub), and Medicis Pharmaceutical Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Medicis), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides for Merger Sub to merge with and into Medicis (the Merger), with Medicis surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Valeant. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and Medicis will continue as the surviving corporation.

The Senior Notes are the senior unsecured obligations of VPI Escrow Corp. and, upon consummation of the Merger, in accordance with the terms of the Supplemental Indenture (as defined below), Valeant will assume all of VPI Escrow Corp.'s obligations under the Senior Notes and the Senior Notes will be jointly and severally guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the Company and each of the Company's subsidiaries (other than Valeant) that is a guarantor under the Company's senior secured credit facilities. The Concurrent Notes are the senior unsecured obligations of Valeant and are jointly and severally guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the Company and each of the Company's subsidiaries (other than Valeant) that is a guarantor under the Company's senior secured credit facilities.

The net proceeds of the Senior Notes Offering are expected to be used to fund (i) the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (ii) Medicis's obligation to pay the conversion consideration with respect to, or repurchase, its outstanding notes, and (iii) transaction expenses in connection with the Merger Agreement. Valeant intends to use the net proceeds of the Concurrent Offering for general corporate purposes, including potential acquisitions.

In connection with the issuance and sale of the Senior Notes, VPI Escrow Corp. additionally entered into an escrow and security agreement (the Escrow and Security Agreement), dated as of October 4, 2012, with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee under the Indentures (as defined below), and as escrow agent (the Escrow Agent). The proceeds of the Senior Notes Offering were deposited, pursuant to the Escrow and Security Agreement, into a segregated escrow account pending completion of the Merger.

Pursuant to the Escrow and Security Agreement and the Senior Notes Indenture (as defined below), if the Merger has not been consummated or the other conditions described therein have not been satisfied on or prior to the Deadline (as defined in the Senior Notes Indenture) or if VPI Escrow Corp. shall notify the trustee in writing of VPI Escrow Corp.'s or the Company's announcement that the Merger Agreement has been terminated or that it will not pursue the consummation of the Merger, VPI Escrow Corp. will be required to redeem the Senior Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the issue price of Senior Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest from the issue date of the Senior Notes.

Senior Notes Indenture and Concurrent Indenture

The Senior Notes were issued pursuant to the indenture, dated as of October 4, 2012 (the Escrow Corp Indenture), between VPI Escrow Corp. and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, as trustee (the Trustee), and pursuant to a supplemental indenture dated October 4, 2012 (the Supplemental Indenture), among Valeant, the Company, the guarantors named therein and (the Trustee), upon consummation of the Merger (the Escrow Corp Indenture as supplemented by the Supplemental Indenture, the Senior Notes Indenture). The Concurrent Notes were issued pursuant to the indenture, dated as of October 4, 2012, among Valeant, the Company, the guarantors named therein, and the Trustee (the Concurrent Indenture), together with the Senior Notes Indenture, the Indentures).

Pursuant to the Indentures, the Notes will mature on October 15, 2020. The Notes will accrue interest at the rate of 6.375% per year. Interest on the Notes will be payable semi-annually in arrears on each April 15 and October 15, commencing on April 15, 2013.

Valeant may redeem all or a portion of the Notes at any time prior to October 15, 2016, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption, plus a make-whole premium. On or after October 15, 2016, Valeant may redeem all or a portion of the Notes at the redemption prices applicable to the Notes as set forth in the Indentures, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption of the Notes. In addition, prior to October 15, 2015, Valeant may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes with the net proceeds of certain equity offerings.

In the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the Indentures), unless Valeant has exercised its right to redeem all of the Senior Notes or Concurrent Notes, respectively, each holder of the Senior Notes or the Concurrent Notes, as applicable, may require Valeant to repurchase such holder's Notes in whole or in part, at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the purchase date of the Notes.

The Indentures contain covenants that limit the ability of the Company and any of its restricted subsidiaries (as such term is defined in the Indentures) to, among other things:

incur or guarantee additional debt;

make certain investments and other restricted payments;

create liens;

enter into transactions with affiliates;

engage in mergers, consolidations or amalgamations;

repurchase capital stock, repurchase subordinated debt and make certain investments; and transfer and sell assets.

The Indentures also provide for customary events of default.

The foregoing summary of the Indentures is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete text of the Escrow Corp Indenture, the Supplemental Indenture and the Concurrent Indenture, copies of which are attached as Exhibit 4.1, Exhibit 4.2 and Exhibit 4.3, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
