Dear TWU International Officers and Local Presidents,

Today represents an exciting day in American's history. As you know, after many months of careful analysis, we have come to the conclusion that a merger with US Airways will give our customers and our stakeholders the most value and create the best future for our company and our people.

I hope you will agree there are many benefits to this combination – an enhanced network, a modernized fleet and a path to sustainable profitability being among them. Creating this new American will better serve our customers, helping us to effectively compete and win against industry peers, and allowing us to continue to invest in our products and people. The combined new American will be built around our people, who will be the key to a successful merger and to maintaining a strong operation and happy customers.

We will need your help and leadership to make this as smooth a transition as possible for everyone involved. In the immediate future, our TWU-represented employees will not see any changes. The current TWU Collective Bargaining Agreements (CBAs) will remain in place until we secure the necessary regulatory and US Airways stockholder approvals of the merger and Bankruptcy Court approval of our Plan of Reorganization, which we expect to take place in the third quarter of 2013. We are pleased that at that point we will be able to immediately share some of the anticipated benefits of the merger with our ground employees as the 4.3 percent base pay rate increase that is part of the three-party Memorandum of Understanding will take effect.

The past year has had its share of difficult changes for our TWU-represented people. No doubt, the year ahead will bring changes as well, but they will lay the foundation for a more rewarding future. This merger represents what I hope will be a brighter future for our company and all of our employees. I look forward to continuing to work with you as we begin the transition toward a stronger new American, and I thank you for your shared commitment to taking care of the interests of all of our ground employees that the TWU represents through this unprecedented time.

Sincerely,
