Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

A special meeting of the shareholders of Columbia Banking System, Inc. (Columbia) was held on March 18, 2013. The special meeting was held in order to vote upon the following proposals set forth in Columbia's definitive proxy statement, filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 6, 2013: (1) to approve the issuance of shares of Columbia common stock, in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 25, 2012, by and among Columbia and West Coast Bancorp (West Coast), and Sub (as defined therein) (the Stock Issuance Proposal); and (2) to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting of the shareholders of Columbia, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the Stock Issuance Proposal (the Columbia Adjournment Proposal). At the special meeting, the Stock Issuance Proposal was approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Columbia common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Sufficient votes were also received to approve the Columbia Adjournment Proposal, but an adjournment was not necessary in light of the approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal.

There were 39,703,319 shares of Columbia common stock issued and outstanding on the record date and eligible to be voted at the special meeting and 34,409,240 shares represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, which constituted a quorum to conduct business at the meeting.

The items voted upon at the special meeting and the final voting results for each proposal were as follows:

1. The Stock Issuance Proposal

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This filing may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, target, estimate, continue, prospects or potential, by future conditional verbs such as will, would, should, could or may, or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the performance or achievements of Columbia or West Coast to be materially different from any expected future results, performance, or achievements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and neither Columbia nor West Coast assumes any duty to update forward looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the business combination transaction involving Columbia and West Coast, including future financial and operating results, the combined company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: (i) the possibility that the merger does not close when expected or at all because required regulatory or other approvals and other conditions to closing are not received or satisfied on a timely basis or at all; (ii) changes in Columbia's stock price before closing, including as a result of the financial performance of West Coast prior to closing, or more generally due to broader stock market movements, and the performance of financial companies and peer group companies; (iii) the risk that the benefits from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, including as a result of changes in general economic and market conditions, interest and exchange rates, monetary policy, laws and regulations and their enforcement, and the degree of competition in the geographic and business areas in which Columbia and West Coast operate; (iv) the ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Columbia and West Coast; (v) the reaction to the transaction of the companies' customers, employees and counterparties; and (vi) diversion of management time on merger-related issues. For more information, see the risk factors described in each of Columbia's and West Coast's Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").
