» American to Launch Nonstop Service Between Miami and Milan, Italy

American announced today new nonstop service between Miami International Airport (MIA) and Malpensa Milan Airport (MXP) in Milan, Italy. Customers can begin booking travel for the new route on June 2 for travel beginning Nov. 21. As the home to a growing Italian population and one of the world's key fashion industry markets, Miami continues to be a preferred destination for travel from Milan, said Marilyn DeVoe, American's Vice President - Miami. This new route enhances our expanding global network and provides our European customers a gateway to many Caribbean and Latin America destinations from our Miami hub. The MIA-MXP route will be operated as part of our joint business with British Airways and Iberia. Read more about the new route in the press release posted in American's Newsroom.

AMR in the News

From The Dallas Morning News

AMR Predicts Strongly Profitable Q2 if Trends Hold

AMR reported an operating profit of $14 million in April. I'm pleased to report that, excluding reorganization and special items, we posted a very strong improvement to our bottom line, AMR Chairman and CEO Tom Horton said in a message to employees Wednesday. And if current trends continue, we are well on our way to a strongly profitable second quarter. AMR reported a net loss of $105 million in April compared to a $142 million loss in April 2012. In its monthly report to the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, AMR said the loss shrank to $39 million if it excluded items related to its reorganization, versus a $67 million ex-item loss a year earlier.

Final Boeing 787 Battery Modification Completed

An Air India Boeing 787 has become the 50th, and final, aircraft to receive the battery modification, thereby clearing the last of the previously-delivered fleet to return to service. In other positive news for the program, workers in the Everett, Wash., assembly plant are in the final stages of preparing to install or load the major fuselage sections of the first 787-9, ZB001, into the production tooling. The aircraft is widely expected to be completed and ready for the start of flight tests in the late August timeframe.

Crude Oil and Jet Fuel

Closing Fuel Prices for Wednesday, May 29

Crude oil was $93.13 a barrel, down $1.88 from the previous day.

Jet fuel price was $114.66 a barrel, down $1.27.

It's a Fact

On Tuesday, American took delivery of a new Boeing 777-300ER aircraft, configured with three classes and featuring lie-flat seats with all-aisle access in First and Business Class. The plane is the seventh 777-300ER delivered to American, and the fifth of eight expected to be delivered this year.
