As a result of transactions ancillary to the PXP Merger, each Subsidiary Guarantor no longer had outstanding any guarantee of any indebtedness (other than the Outstanding PXP Notes) of PXP or any other Subsidiary Guarantor in excess of $10.0 million in aggregate principal amount and, therefore, was automatically released and relieved of any obligations under its respective subsidiary guarantee with respect to each series of the Outstanding PXP Notes pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

The foregoing description of the Eighteenth Supplemental Indenture does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Eighteenth Supplemental Indenture, which is included as Exhibit 4.1 hereto.

As a result of such termination, each 11.875% Notes Subsidiary Guarantor was automatically released and relieved of any obligations under its respective subsidiary guarantee and the 11.875% Indenture.

Pursuant to the 4% Supplemental Indenture, the 4% Notes will be convertible into the merger consideration that the holders of the 4% Notes would have been entitled to receive upon the closing of MMR Merger had such 4% Notes been converted into shares of MMR's common stock immediately prior to the closing of the MMR Merger.

The foregoing description of the 4% Supplemental Indenture does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the 4% Supplemental Indenture, which is included as Exhibit 4.5 hereto.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

Completion of the PXP Merger

On May 31, 2013, FCX and PXP Merger Sub completed the acquisition of PXP pursuant to the PXP Merger Agreement. Under the terms of the PXP Merger Agreement, PXP merged with and into PXP Merger Sub, with PXP Merger Sub continuing as the surviving company and a wholly owned subsidiary of FCX.

At the effective time of the PXP Merger on May 31, 2013 (the Effective Time), each share of PXP's common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned or held by PXP in treasury immediately prior to the Effective Time) was converted into the right to receive the total per share consideration equivalent in value to approximately $46.01 based on the average of the closing prices of FCX common stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) for the ten trading days ending on May 22, 2013, which was $32.17 (the FCX Ten Day Price). Pursuant to the terms of the PXP Merger Agreement, PXP stockholders were entitled to elect to receive the per share consideration in either shares of FCX common stock or cash. Based on the FCX Ten Day Price, the per share stock consideration is approximately 1.4302 shares of FCX common stock (the Stock Consideration) and the per share cash consideration is approximately $46.01 (the Cash Consideration). These amounts do not include the previously disclosed special one-time cash dividend of $3.00 per share, which was declared, with FCX's consent, by PXP's Board of Directors on May 20, 2013, payable to PXP stockholders as of May 30, 2013, the record date for such dividend.

The election deadline for the merger consideration was May 15, 2013. Based on the final results of the merger consideration elections and the terms of the PXP Merger Agreement:

holders of approximately 45.5% of PXP's outstanding shares, or approximately 60,231,439 shares (including holders of certain restricted shares and restricted stock units that were entitled to make a merger consideration election under the terms of the PXP Merger Agreement (collectively, electing equity award holders)), elected and will receive the Stock Consideration;

holders of approximately 29.1% of PXP's outstanding shares, or approximately 38,503,126 shares (including electing equity award holders), elected and will receive the Cash Consideration; and

holders of approximately 25.4% of PXP's outstanding shares, or approximately 33,550,726 shares (including electing equity award holders), did not make a valid election or did not deliver a valid election form prior to the election deadline and will receive approximately 99.5% of their merger consideration in cash equal to approximately $46.01 for each share of PXP common stock and the remainder of their merger consideration in shares of FCX common stock at an exchange ratio of approximately 1.4302 shares of FCX common stock for each share of PXP common stock.

No fractional shares of FCX common stock will be issued in the PXP Merger, and PXP stockholders will receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of FCX common stock, if any, they would otherwise be entitled to receive as a result of the PXP Merger.

The description of the terms of the PXP Merger Agreement contained in this Item 2.01 does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the PXP Merger Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference to Exhibit 2.1 of FCX's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on December 6, 2012.

Completion of the MMR Merger

On June 3, 2013, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the MMR Merger Agreement, MMR Merger Sub merged with and into MMR, with MMR surviving the MMR Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of FCX.

At the effective time of the MMR Merger, each outstanding share of MMR common stock (other than shares owned by FCX and its subsidiaries and shares held by stockholders who properly exercise dissenters' rights) was converted into the right to receive $14.75 in cash, without interest, and 1.15 royalty trust units representing beneficial interests in Gulf Coast Ultra Deep Royalty Trust. Holders of royalty trust units will be entitled to share in a 5% gross overriding royalty interest in hydrocarbons saved and produced from MMR's existing shallow water Gulf of Mexico and onshore Gulf Coast ultra-deep exploration prospects. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional royalty trust units.

The description of the terms of the MMR Merger Agreement contained in this Item 2.01 does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the MMR Merger Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference to Exhibit 2.2 to FCX's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on December 6, 2012.
