Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Open Text Corporation (OpenText) is furnishing certain financial measures that are not in accordance with U.S. GAAP (Non-GAAP) and last twelve month (LTM) financial data, which information is included in the offering memorandum for the proposed offering described under 8.01 below. The disclosure is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference into this Item 7.01.

The information set forth in this Item 7.01 including Exhibit 99.1 is being furnished under Item 7.01 of Form 8-K and shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. In addition, this information shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or any filing under the Exchange Act, regardless of any general incorporation language in any such filing.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On January 5, 2015, OpenText issued a press release announcing a proposed offering of $600,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of its senior unsecured fixed rate notes due 2025 (the notes), guaranteed initially on a senior unsecured basis by OpenText s existing and future wholly-owned subsidiaries that borrow or guarantee the obligations under the existing credit agreement, dated as of January 16, 2014, among GXS, Inc. (as successor to GXS Group, Inc.), as borrower, Open Text Corporation, as guarantor, the other guarantors party thereto and the lenders party thereto (the 2014 Credit Agreement). The press release announcing the proposed offering is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 8.01.

The notes and related guarantees will not be registered under the Securities Act. The notes may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act), except to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A under the Securities Act and to certain persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes will be offered in Canada under available prospectus exemptions.

OpenText intends to use a portion of the net proceeds of the proposed offering discussed above to repay in full the outstanding term loan under its existing credit agreement, dated as of November 9, 2011, as amended by a first amendment dated as of December 16, 2013 and by a second amendment dated as of December 22, 2014, among Open Text ULC, as term borrower, Open Text ULC, Open Text Holdings, Inc. and Open Text Corporation, as revolving credit borrowers, the guarantors party thereto, the lenders party thereto and other financial institutions party thereto (the 2011 Credit Agreement). The 2011 Credit Agreement currently provides for a $600 million term loan facility (Term Loan A) and a $300 million committed revolving credit facility (the Revolver). OpenText intends to add the remaining net proceeds of the proposed offering to its cash balances for general corporate purposes, including potential future acquisitions. OpenText expects to fund its previously announced acquisition of Actuate Corporation with cash on hand.

As previously disclosed, on December 22, 2014, the 2011 Credit Agreement was amended to, among other things, increase the total commitments under the Revolver to $300 million, reduce the interest rate margin for the Revolver and extend the maturity date of the Revolver to December 2019 (unless Term Loan A has not been repaid on or prior to November 2016, in which case the Revolver will mature in November 2016).

Concurrently with the proposed offering and effective upon the repayment in full of Term Loan A with the net proceeds of the proposed offering, the 2011 Credit Agreement will be amended and restated to, among other things, remove the provisions related to Term Loan A and modify certain provisions related to the incurrence of debt and liens and the making of acquisitions, investments, and restricted payments and make other changes, in each case, generally to conform with the 2014 Credit Agreement.
