MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, to be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Thursday, June 25, 2015, at Bridge Capital's principal executive offices at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113.

The Boards of Directors of Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance, and Bridge Capital have each approved an agreement and plan of merger, or the merger agreement, pursuant to which Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance surviving, which we refer to as the merger. Immediately following the completion of the merger, Bridge Capital's principal operating subsidiary, Bridge Bank, will merge with and into Western Alliance Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Alliance, which we refer to as the bank merger. Following the bank merger, Western Alliance Bank plans to operate its Northern California offices and the existing Bridge Bank offices as a combined division under the Bridge Bank trade name.

At the special meeting you will be asked to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby. You will also be asked to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

If the merger is completed, Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization. Each outstanding, vested and unexercised Bridge Capital option for which an exercise election has not been made will be canceled and the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (1) the excess of (A) the sum of (i) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (ii) $2.39 over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (2) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option. In addition, certain unvested restricted stock awards and stock options previously issued by Bridge Capital will be converted to Western Alliance awards and options under the terms of the merger agreement.

Western Alliance's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol WAL. Bridge Capital's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol BBNK. On May 21, 2015, the last practicable trading day prior to the printing of the attached proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price per share of Western Alliance's common stock was $31.82 and the closing price per share of Bridge Capital common stock was $27.75.

This is a prospectus of Western Alliance relating to its offering of up to 13,548,204 shares of Western Alliance common stock to Bridge Capital shareholders in the proposed merger and a proxy statement of Bridge Capital. This document and the documents incorporated by reference contain important information about Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, the merger and the conditions that must be satisfied before the merger can occur. Bridge Capital encourages you to read this entire proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the merger agreement, which is included as Appendix A, and the section discussing Risk Factors relating to the merger and the combined company beginning on page 22.

Your vote is very important. The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote on the Internet or by telephone or by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible to make sure your shares are represented at the special meeting. To vote your shares, you may vote by telephone or on the Internet or use the enclosed proxy card or attend the special shareholders' meeting. Bridge Capital will hold to allow you to consider and vote on the merger agreement. To approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special meeting, you must vote for the proposal by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If you do not vote at all, that will, in effect, count as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are fair to, and in the best interests of, Bridge Capital and its shareholders. Accordingly, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously recommends you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, FOR the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and FOR the proposal to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON

JUNE 25, 2015

To the Shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, will be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Thursday, June 25, 2015, at its principal executive offices at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113, for the following purposes:

1. Approval of the Merger Agreement. To consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 9, 2015, or the merger agreement, by and between Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance, and Bridge Capital, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A hereto, pursuant to which Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance surviving, or the merger, and approve the transactions contemplated thereby.
2. Advisory Vote on Certain Compensatory Arrangements. To consider and vote on a proposal to approve, on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as described in the section entitled "The Merger Golden Parachute Compensation for Bridge Capital's Named Executive Officers" beginning on page 71; and
3. Adjournment. A proposal to approve any adjournments or postponements of the meeting, including, without limitation, a motion to adjourn the special meeting to another time and/or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in order to approve the foregoing proposals.

You are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof only if you were a holder of record of Bridge Capital's common stock at the close of business on May 18, 2015.

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are fair to, and in the best interests of, Bridge Capital and its shareholders. Accordingly, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously recommends you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, FOR the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and FOR the proposal to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Bridge Capital's common stock outstanding on May 18, 2015 is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. The required vote of Bridge Capital's shareholders is based on the total number of shares of Bridge Capital's common stock outstanding and not on the number of shares which are actually voted. Not returning a proxy card, or not voting by telephone, Internet or in person at the special meeting, or abstaining from voting, will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Each of the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, have agreed to vote in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Bridge Capital shareholders are entitled to assert dissenters' rights with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Your dissenters' rights are conditioned on your strict compliance with the requirements of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law. The full text of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus, and a summary of these provisions can be found under "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 72.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING, PLEASE VOTE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BY MAIL, BY TELEPHONE OR THROUGH THE INTERNET. INSTRUCTIONS ON THESE DIFFERENT WAYS TO VOTE YOUR SHARES ARE FOUND ON THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD. YOU MAY REVOKE YOUR PROXY AT ANY TIME BEFORE IT IS VOTED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance, and Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, have agreed to the acquisition of Bridge Capital by Western Alliance under the terms of an agreement and plan of merger that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A. In order to complete the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders must vote to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby. Bridge Capital will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Bridge Capital common stock without attending the special meeting in person.

We are delivering this proxy statement/prospectus to you as both a proxy statement of Bridge Capital and a prospectus of Western Alliance. It is a proxy statement because Bridge Capital's Board of Directors is soliciting proxies from its shareholders to vote on the approval of (i) the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; (ii) on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers providing for compensation in connection with the merger and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable; and (iii) adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals, and your proxy will be used at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. This document is a prospectus because Western Alliance will issue Western Alliance common stock to the Bridge Capital common shareholders in the merger, and this prospectus contains information about that common stock.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: In the proposed merger, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance being the surviving corporation. Immediately following the completion of the merger, Bridge Bank will be merged with and into Western Alliance's wholly-owned subsidiary, Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank as the surviving entity. Western Alliance plans to operate its Northern California offices and the existing Bridge Bank offices as a combined division under the Bridge Bank trade name.

Q: What are the proposals on which I am being asked to vote?

A: You are being asked to vote on the following proposals: (i) to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (ii) to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers in connection with the merger and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and (iii) to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Q. Does the Bridge Capital Board of Directors recommend voting in favor of the proposals?

- A. Yes. After careful consideration, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders. As a result, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, FOR approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers and FOR the approval of adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Q: Does my vote matter?

A: Yes. The merger cannot be completed unless the merger agreement is approved by the Bridge Capital shareholders. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, or vote to abstain, or you do not provide your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee with voting instructions, as applicable, this will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposals?

A: The merger agreement proposal must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote thereon. The proposal regarding the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers must be approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote thereon. The proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn the special meeting, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, must be approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

Q: When will the merger close?

A: The merger is expected to close as soon as possible after satisfaction or waiver of all applicable closing conditions, including the receipt of Bridge Capital shareholder and regulatory approvals, which closing conditions are expected to be satisfied or waived in the second half of 2015. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur.

Q: What will Bridge Capital shareholders receive in the merger?

A: For each share of Bridge Capital Common stock you own, you will receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and (y) $2.39 in cash. Each outstanding, vested and unexercised Bridge Capital option for which an exercise election has not been made will be canceled and the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (1) the excess of (A) the sum of (i) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (ii) $2.39 over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (2) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option. In addition, certain unvested restricted stock awards and stock options previously issued by Bridge Capital will be converted into Western Alliance awards and options under the terms of the merger agreement.

To facilitate the merger's compliance with the continuity of interest requirement for tax-free reorganizations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, the form of merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment to ensure that the merger qualifies as such a reorganization. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights. For more information regarding the potential adjustments that may result to the merger consideration for U.S. federal income tax purposes, see the factors discussed in Risk Factors beginning on page 22 and The Merger Agreement Potential Adjustment to the Merger Consideration beginning on page 82.

Q: What will happen to shares of Western Alliance common stock in the merger?

A: Each share of Western Alliance common stock outstanding held by Western Alliance shareholders immediately before the merger will continue to represent one share of Western Alliance common stock after the effective time of the merger. Accordingly, Western Alliance shareholders will receive no consideration in the merger and the merger will not change the number of shares a Western Alliance shareholder currently owns.

However, after the merger, the current shareholders of Western Alliance as a group will own a percentage of ownership of the combined company that is smaller than such shareholders' percentage ownership of Western Alliance before the merger.

Q: What if I hold options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are vested as of the effective time of the merger or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that have vested or will vest coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not been made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q: What if I hold options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are unvested as of the effective time of the merger or will not become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Q: What if I hold restricted shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are vested as of the effective time of the merger or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration.

Q: What if I hold restricted shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are unvested as of the effective time of the merger or will not become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Q: How do I make an exercise election with respect to my options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock?

A: If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are vested or will vest at or prior to the effective time, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. The exercise election deadline will be 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. To make an election, a holder must submit a completed election form and return it so that the form is actually received by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC at or before the exercise election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. If you do not make a valid exercise election at or before the exercise deadline, at the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which you have not made an exercise election will be cancelled and, in exchange for such cancellation, you will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

Table of Contents

Q: Can I change my exercise election with respect to my options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock?

A: Once an option is exercised, such exercise cannot be revoked or undone. All elections will be revoked automatically if the merger agreement is terminated.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of shares of Bridge Capital common stock?

A: The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, it is expected that a U.S. holder of shares of Bridge Capital common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 76.

Q: Will I receive any dividends?

A: Before the merger takes place, Bridge Capital has agreed not to pay any dividends to its shareholders. After the merger, any dividends will be based on what Western Alliance pays to its shareholders. Western Alliance has not paid dividends in the past and does not presently intend to pay dividends.

Q: What will happen if Bridge Capital shareholders do not approve the compensatory arrangements proposal?

A: Approval of the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the completion of the merger. The vote is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Therefore, if the other requisite shareholder approvals are obtained and the merger is completed, the amounts payable under the compensatory arrangements will still be paid as long as any other conditions applicable thereto occur.

Q: Why am I being asked to cast an advisory (nonbinding) vote to approve compensation that certain Bridge Capital officers will receive in connection with the merger?

A: SEC rules require that Bridge Capital seek an advisory (nonbinding) vote with respect to certain payments that will be made to Bridge Capital's named executive officers by Bridge Capital and Bridge Bank in connection with the merger. See The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours and The Merger Golden Parachute Compensation for Bridge Capital Named Executive Officers.

Q: Who can vote?

A: You are entitled to vote at the Bridge Capital special meeting if you owned Bridge Capital common stock at the close of business on May 18, 2015. You will have one vote for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that you owned at that time.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should first carefully read and consider the information contained and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. If you are a Bridge Capital shareholder:

After you have decided how to vote your shares, please indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote, and sign, date and return it as soon as possible in the enclosed envelope. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy card will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement proposal, the compensatory arrangements proposal and the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals. Not returning a proxy card, or not voting in person at the special meeting, or abstaining from voting, will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

You can choose to attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person instead of completing and returning a proxy card. If you do complete and return a proxy card, you may change your vote at any time up to and including the time of the vote on the day of the special meeting by following the directions in the section The Special Meeting Revocability of Proxies.

You may also choose to submit your proxy by telephone or on the Internet and may do so by following the instructions on your proxy card.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker, bank or other nominee will not vote your shares of Bridge Capital common stock unless you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote. You should instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares by following the instructions provided by the broker, bank or nominee with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What if I fail to vote on the Internet or by telephone or to submit my proxy card or to instruct my broker, bank or other nominee?

A: If you fail to properly vote on the Internet or by telephone or to submit your proxy card or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares of Bridge Capital common stock and you do not attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, your shares will not be voted. This will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Q: What do I do if I receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus or set of voting instructions?

A: If you hold shares directly as a record holder and also in street name or otherwise through a nominee, you may receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus and/or set of voting instructions relating to the special meeting. These should each be voted and/or returned separately in order to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the special meeting by doing any one of the following: (1) complete, sign, date and submit another proxy (a properly executed, valid proxy will revoke any previously submitted proxies); (2) re-vote by telephone or on the Internet; (3) provide written notice of revocation to Bridge Capital's Corporate Secretary; or (4) attend the special meeting and vote in person. For more information see The Special Meeting Revocability of Proxies beginning on page 41.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is complete you will receive a form which will include instructions for surrendering your stock certificates representing your shares of Bridge Capital common stock in exchange for the merger consideration. In the meantime, you should retain your stock certificates because they are still valid. Please DO NOT send in your stock certificates with your proxy card.

Q: What needs to be done to complete the merger?

A: Completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met. In addition to compliance with the merger agreement, these include, but are not limited to:

the approval of the merger agreement by Bridge Capital shareholders;

the approval of the merger by federal and state regulatory authorities;

the approval for listing on the NYSE of the shares of Western Alliance common stock issuable in connection with the merger;

the absence of any injunction or legal restraint preventing the consummation of the merger or government proceedings trying to block the merger;

the registration statement filed with the SEC to register the shares of Western Alliance's common stock to be issued in the merger shall have been declared effective by the SEC; and receipt by Bridge Capital and Western Alliance of satisfactory legal opinions regarding certain tax matters. When the law permits, Western Alliance or Bridge Capital could decide to complete the merger even though one or more of these conditions has not been met. We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, Bridge Capital shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of Bridge Capital common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, Bridge Capital will remain an independent public company and its common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market. Under specified circumstances, Bridge Capital may be required to pay Western Alliance a fee with respect to the termination of the merger agreement, as described under the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the record date but before the special meeting?

A: The record date of the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you sell or otherwise transfer your Bridge Capital shares after the record date but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting (provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting), but you will not have the right to receive the merger consideration to be received by Bridge Capital shareholders in the merger. In order to receive the merger consideration, you must hold your shares through completion of the merger.

See the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 72. In addition, the text of the applicable dissenters' rights provisions of California law is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

General

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 9, 2015, or the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance surviving, which we refer to as the merger. In connection with the merger, Bridge Capital's wholly owned subsidiary, Bridge Bank, National Association, or Bridge Bank, will merge with and into Western Alliance Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Alliance, with Western Alliance Bank surviving, which we refer to as the bank merger.

The Companies Involved in the Merger (page 37)

Western Alliance Bancorporation

One E. Washington Street, Suite 1400

Phoenix, Arizona 85004

Tel: (602) 389-3500

Western Alliance, incorporated in Delaware, is a bank holding company headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona, that provides a full spectrum of deposit, lending, treasury management, and online banking products and services through its wholly-owned banking subsidiary, Western Alliance Bank. Western Alliance Bank operates the following full-service banking divisions: Alliance Bank of Arizona in Arizona, First Independent Bank in Northern Nevada, Bank of Nevada in Southern Nevada, and Torrey Pines Bank in California. Western Alliance also serves business customers through a robust national platform of specialized financial services.

On January 30, 2015, Western Alliance Bank became a member of the Federal Reserve system and, as a consequence, is now regulated as a state member bank under Federal Reserve Board Regulation H (12 C.F.R. Part 208).

On a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2015, Western Alliance had approximately $11.3 billion in assets, $8.7 billion in total loans, $9.7 billion in deposits and $1.1 billion in stockholders' equity.

Bridge Capital Holdings

55 Almaden Boulevard

San Jose, California 95113

Tel: (408) 423-8500

Bridge Capital, incorporated in California, is a bank holding company for Bridge Bank, a full-service professional business bank founded in Silicon Valley in 2001. Bridge Bank's technology banking division provides a broad range of financial solutions to venture-backed and non-venture-backed companies. Bridge Bank's product offering includes growth capital, equipment and working capital credit facilities and treasury management solutions, along with a full line of international products and services and financing secured by domestic, government and foreign receivables.

On a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2015, Bridge Capital had approximately $1.9 billion in total assets, $1.3 billion in total loans, $1.7 billion in deposits and $192.6 million in shareholders' equity.

Merger Consideration (page 45)

The merger agreement provides that Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio, and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights.

Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization, the aggregate merger consideration to be issued or paid by Western Alliance will not exceed 12,494,704 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $36,663,403 of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that is issued, from and after March 9, 2015, and prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Capital stock options and the vesting of Bridge Capital restricted stock, either (i) outstanding as of March 9, 2015, other than any Bridge Capital restricted stock that vests pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement or (ii) granted or issued after March 9, 2015, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate merger consideration will be increased by 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. If the total merger consideration exceeds the amount set forth in the previous sentence (including any cash paid in connection with the cancellation of outstanding vested and unexercised stock options for which the option holders have not made an exercise election (as more fully described under The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 45) and after giving effect to dissenting shares as if they had been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration), then the total merger consideration shall be reduced on a pro rata basis to the aggregate amount set forth in the preceding sentence.

Stock Options. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge

Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration. At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Exercise Election Procedures for Holders of Bridge Capital Options (page 83)

If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that have vested or will vest coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. The exercise election deadline will be 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. To make an election, a holder must submit a completed election form and return it so that the form is actually received by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC at or before the exercise election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. If you do not make a valid exercise election at or before the exercise deadline, at the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which you have not made an exercise election will be cancelled and, in exchange for such cancellation, you will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 76)

The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, it is expected that a U.S. holder of shares of Bridge Capital common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock.

Bridge Capital shareholders are urged to read the discussion in the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 76 and to consult their tax advisors for a full explanation of the tax consequences of the merger.

Bridge Capital Board of Directors Recommends Approval (page 43)

After careful consideration of the various factors, including those set forth under the heading "The Merger" Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 50, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors has determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable, fair to, and in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Bridge Capital shareholders vote:

FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, or the merger agreement proposal;

FOR the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, or the compensatory arrangements proposal; and

FOR the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

The merger is not conditioned on the receipt of shareholder approval (on an advisory, non-binding basis) of the compensatory arrangements proposal or the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital (page 54)

In connection with the proposed merger, Bridge Capital's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, delivered to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors its fairness opinion orally, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of the opinion, and subject to the limitations, qualifications, factors, and assumptions set forth therein, the per share consideration to be paid to the holders of Bridge Capital's common stock was fair to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of the written opinion is attached as Appendix C to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. The written opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital in connection with its consideration of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Bridge Capital as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the merger. The opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share consideration to holders of Bridge Capital common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Bridge Capital to engage in the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Bridge Capital or the effect of any other transaction in which Bridge Capital might engage.

Dissenters' Rights (page 72)

Any shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and that have not approved the merger (or with respect to which the holder has not otherwise effectively waived its rights under Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law), and with respect to which a demand for payment and appraisal has been properly made in accordance with Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration otherwise payable, except as set forth below. See the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 72. In addition, the text of the applicable dissenters' rights provisions of California law is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Differences in the Rights of Shareholders (page 93)

Western Alliance is a Delaware corporation and Bridge Capital is a California corporation. The Western Alliance certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions that are different from the Bridge Capital articles of incorporation and bylaws. Upon completion of the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders will become stockholders of Western Alliance, and their rights will be governed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. No change to Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation or bylaws will be made as a result of the completion of the merger. For a discussion of certain differences between the rights of Western Alliance stockholders and Bridge Capital shareholders, see Differences in the Rights of Shareholders beginning on page 93.

Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours (page 66)

In considering the recommendations of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors to vote in favor of the merger agreement proposal and the compensatory arrangements proposal, you should be aware that Bridge Capital's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Bridge Capital shareholders generally. In connection with the merger agreement, Western Alliance entered into an employment agreement with each of Daniel P. Myers, Thomas A. Sa and Timothy W. Boothe, regarding their continuing roles with the combined company following the merger, which will be effective upon the closing of the merger. Pursuant to each employment agreement, Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe will serve as executives of Western Alliance Bank for a period of three years. Mr. Myers will also be appointed as an executive officer of Western Alliance. In addition, two members of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors will become directors of Western Alliance following the merger. Western Alliance has also entered into protection agreements with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. Additional interests that may differ from yours include, among others, the treatment of outstanding equity awards pursuant to the merger agreement, severance benefits payable under existing employment or change in control agreements entered into with executive officers, and rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage by the surviving corporation for acts and omissions occurring prior to the merger. Bridge Capital's Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby. For more information see The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours beginning on page 66.

Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's Board of Directors After the Merger (page 67)

Prior to the effective time of the merger, all necessary action will be taken by Western Alliance in order that at the first regularly scheduled meeting of the combined company's Board of Directors occurring after the effective time, Western Alliance will expand the size of its Board of Directors by two seats and designate two members of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, who will be named prior to the effective time, to serve on the Board of Directors of Western Alliance.

Regulatory Approvals We Must Obtain to Complete the Merger (page 74)

For the merger to take place, we need to receive the regulatory approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or FRB. For the bank merger to take place, we need to receive the approval of the FRB and the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions, or ADFI, and provide notice to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or OCC. We have filed applications with, and provided the notice to, these regulators.

On May 21, 2015, the FRB approved Western Alliance's application for approval of the merger and the bank merger. In addition, the ADFI granted approval of the bank merger on May 19, 2015. We believe that no further regulatory approvals are required.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions (page 87)

Bridge Capital has agreed not to initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate the submission of any proposals from third parties regarding acquiring Bridge Capital or its businesses. In addition, Bridge Capital has agreed not to engage in discussions or negotiations with or provide confidential information to a third party regarding acquiring Bridge Capital or its businesses. However, if Bridge Capital receives an acquisition proposal from a third party prior to the date of the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders that did not result from solicitation in violation of its obligations under the merger agreement, Bridge Capital may participate in discussions with, or provide confidential information to, such third party if, among other steps, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors concludes in good faith that the failure to take such actions would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 90)

The merger agreement may be terminated prior to the effective time of the merger by either Western Alliance or Bridge Capital if:

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital mutually consent in writing;

a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval that is a condition to the merger denies such approval and such action has become final and non-appealable;

the merger is not consummated by December 31, 2015;

Bridge Capital shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting; or the other party materially breaches any of its representations, warranties or obligations contained in the merger agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach, and which breach has had or is likely to have a material adverse effect on the breaching party.

Additionally, Western Alliance may terminate the merger agreement if:

management or the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital (i) fails to use its reasonable best efforts to call and hold within 45 days of the effective date of this registration statement the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders to consider and approve the merger agreement (except as provided in the merger agreement) or (ii) fails to recommend to shareholders the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Additionally, Bridge Capital may terminate the merger agreement if:

prior to approval of the merger by the Bridge Capital shareholders at the special meeting, Bridge Capital has complied with its obligations regarding competing proposals and Bridge Capital receives an unsolicited bona fide competing proposal that is not withdrawn and that Bridge Capital's Board of Directors determines in good faith is a superior competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement section below) and that failure to accept would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, and Bridge Capital has complied with the expense and breakup fee provisions described below.

Expenses; Breakup Fee (page 90)

Fees and Expenses Payable by Western Alliance. Western Alliance has agreed to reimburse Bridge Capital up to $600,000 for its documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, if the merger agreement is terminated by Bridge Capital due to Western Alliance's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses Payable by Bridge Capital. Bridge Capital has agreed to reimburse Western Alliance up to $600,000 for its documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred by Western Alliance in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, if the merger is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement, or due to the failure by management or the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital to use its reasonable best efforts to call and hold within 45 days of the effective date of this registration statement the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders to consider and approve the merger agreement (except as provided in the merger agreement) or to recommend to shareholders the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Bridge Capital has also agreed to reimburse Western Alliance up to $600,000 for its documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred by Western Alliance in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and to pay a breakup fee of $15.9375 million, under any of the following circumstances:

If the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance or Bridge Capital due to the merger not being consummated by December 31, 2015 or the Bridge Capital shareholders failing to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting;

If the merger agreement is terminated by Bridge Capital prior to the approval of the merger by the Bridge Capital shareholders at the special meeting due to Bridge Capital's receipt of an unsolicited bona fide competing proposal that is not withdrawn and that the Bridge Capital Board of Directors determines in good faith is a superior competing transaction that failure to accept would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

If the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's failure to hold the special meeting within a specified time period or to recommend approval of the merger to the shareholders of Bridge Capital; or

If the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement; and both (a) after the date of the merger agreement (March 9, 2015) and before the special meeting date, Bridge Capital shall have received a competing proposal (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) and (b) within 12 months following the date of such termination, Bridge Capital enters into an agreement for a competing proposal or an acquisition transaction (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) otherwise occurs.

On March 9, 2015, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, certain of the executive officers and all of the directors of Bridge Capital, and Carpenter Fund Manager, GP, LLC, who in the aggregate currently own approximately 37.39% of Bridge Capital's common stock, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge Capital, entered into a support agreement with Western Alliance pursuant to which such shareholder, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, agreed to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and against any alternative business combination transaction. A copy of the form of support agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus at Appendix D.

Purpose of the Special Meeting (page 38). At the special meeting, Bridge Capital shareholders will be asked to:

approve the merger agreement proposal;

approve the compensatory arrangements proposal; and approve any adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote (page 38). Bridge Capital has fixed the close of business on _____, 2015 as the record date for determining the Bridge Capital shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of record of Bridge Capital common stock on the record date are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting, and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Each share of Bridge Capital common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter brought before the meeting. On the record date, there were 15,965,284 shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding.

Quorum Requirement (page 38). Under California law and Bridge Capital's by-laws, a quorum of Bridge Capital's shareholders at the special meeting is necessary to transact business. The presence of holders representing a majority of Bridge Capital's common stock issued and outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting.

All of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, including abstentions, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum at the special meeting.

Votes Required to Approve the Proposals (page 39). Bridge Capital's proposals require the following percentages of votes in order to approve them:

In order to approve the merger agreement proposal, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

In order to approve the compensatory arrangements proposal, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

In order to approve the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

The vote on the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the merger and is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement. Because the vote on the compensatory arrangements proposal is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Therefore, if the other requisite shareholder approvals are obtained and the merger is completed, the amounts payable in connection with the compensatory arrangements will still be paid as long as any other conditions applicable thereto occur.

As of the record date, the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, each of whom has agreed to vote his, her or its shares in support of the merger, beneficially owned and were entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 5,969,921 shares of Bridge Capital common stock representing approximately 37.39% of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding on that date.

Table of Contents

Failure to Vote; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes (page 40). If a shareholder of record properly submits a proxy prior to the special meeting, such shareholder's shares of common stock will be voted as he or she directs. If he or she submits a proxy but no direction is otherwise made, the shares of common stock will be voted FOR the merger agreement proposal, FOR the compensatory arrangements proposal and FOR the approval of any adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Shares held by a Bridge Capital shareholder who indicates on an executed proxy card that he or she wishes to abstain from voting will count toward determining whether a quorum is present and will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the compensatory arrangements proposal and the proposal to approve any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

If a broker non-vote occurs, the broker non-vote will count for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the golden parachute arrangements proposal and the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting. For more information see The Special Meeting Failure to Vote; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes beginning on page 40.

Solicitation of Proxies (page 42). This solicitation is made on behalf of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, and Bridge Capital will pay the costs of soliciting and obtaining proxies, including the cost of reimbursing banks and brokers for forwarding proxy materials to their principals. For more information see The Special Meeting Solicitation of Proxies beginning on page 42.

Revocation of Proxies (page 41). You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the special meeting by doing any one of the following: (1) complete, sign, date and submit another proxy (a properly executed, valid proxy will revoke any previously submitted proxies); (2) re-vote by telephone or on the Internet; (3) provide written notice of revocation to Bridge Capital's Chief Financial Officer; or (4) attend the special meeting and vote in person. For more information see The Special Meeting Revocability of Proxies beginning on page 41.

Comparative Unaudited Per Share Data

The following table shows information, at and for the periods indicated, about Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's historical book value per share and earnings per share. The table also contains pro forma information that reflects the merger of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital using the purchase method of accounting. The cash consideration is $2.39 per share, and the stock consideration is 0.8145 of a share of Western Alliance common stock. The table below reflects an exchange ratio of 0.8145 plus $2.39 in cash per share. The aggregate merger consideration has been calculated based on the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding as of March 9, 2015, including Bridge Capital restricted stock and stock options that will convert pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The actual stock consideration and cash consideration will be determined based on the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding as of the effective time.

Neither Western Alliance nor Bridge Capital has ever paid a cash dividend on its common stock, and neither company anticipates paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

CAUTIONARY NOTE CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus, including information included or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the merger between Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, including future financial and operating results and performance; statements about Western Alliance and Bridge Capital's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations, products and services; and other statements identified by words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "will," "should," "may" or words of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital's management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements:

the failure of the parties to satisfy the closing conditions in the merger agreement in a timely manner or at all;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses following the merger; operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected;

actual credit losses may exceed expected losses in the loan portfolio;

possible need for a valuation allowance against deferred tax assets;

the effects of interest rates and interest rate policy;

exposure of financial instruments to certain market risks may cause volatility in earnings;

risks associated with changes in internal controls and processes;

the ability of the parties to compete in a highly competitive market;

risk of operating in a highly regulated industry and the parties' ability to remain in compliance;

possible need to revalue our deferred tax assets if stock transactions result in limitations on deductibility of net operating losses or loan losses;

exposure to environmental liabilities related to the properties to which each of the parties acquire title;

change in laws or government regulations or policies affecting financial institutions;

cyber security risks; and risks related to ownership and price of Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's common stock.

Additional factors that could cause Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and their respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to Western Alliance and Bridge Capital or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the matters addressed in Cautionary Note Concerning Forward-Looking Statements) and incorporated by reference into this document, you should carefully consider the matters described below in determining whether to approve the merger agreement. Please also refer to the additional risk factors identified in the annual reports and other documents of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital incorporated by reference into this document and listed in Where You Can Find More Information on page 105. Any of these risks could have an adverse effect on Western Alliance's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects, which could in turn affect the price of its shares.

Risks Related to the Merger

Because the market price of Western Alliance's common stock will fluctuate, Bridge Capital shareholders will not know until the effective time the value of the consideration they will receive in the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Bridge Capital common stock, other than dissenting shares, will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. Because the per share stock consideration is fixed, the market value of the Western Alliance common stock to be issued in the merger will depend upon the market price of Western Alliance common stock. This market price may vary from the closing price of Western Alliance common stock on the date the merger was announced, on the date that this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to Bridge Capital shareholders and on the date of the Bridge Capital special meeting. Accordingly, at the time of the Bridge Capital special meeting, Bridge Capital shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Western Alliance common stock and for shares of Bridge Capital common stock.

The market price of Western Alliance common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Western Alliance or Bridge Capital currently.

The businesses of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital differ and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and market prices of common stock of each of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital. For a discussion of the businesses of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 105.

Bridge Capital shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management of the combined organization.

Bridge Capital's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital and on other matters affecting Bridge Capital. Upon the completion of the merger, each Bridge Capital shareholder will become a stockholder of Western Alliance with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the Bridge Capital shareholder's percentage ownership of Bridge Capital. It is expected that the former shareholders of Bridge Capital as a group will receive shares in the merger constituting 12.8% of the outstanding shares of Western Alliance common stock immediately after the merger. Because of this, Bridge Capital's shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Western Alliance than they now have on the management and policies of Bridge Capital.

The merger agreement limits Bridge Capital's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains terms and conditions that make it more difficult for Bridge Capital to sell its business to a party other than Western Alliance. These no shop provisions impose restrictions on Bridge Capital that, subject to certain exceptions, limit Bridge Capital's ability to discuss or facilitate competing third party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of Bridge Capital.

In addition, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital has agreed that it will not, directly or indirectly, facilitate or recommend a competing acquisition proposal, subject to limited exceptions. While the Board of Directors could take such actions if it determined that the failure to do so would or would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties, doing so would entitle Western Alliance to terminate the merger agreement and may entitle it to receive a termination fee. Bridge Capital will also be required to pay the termination fee if the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance or Bridge Capital due to the merger not being consummated by December 31, 2015 or the Bridge Capital shareholders failing to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting, the merger agreement is terminated by Bridge Capital prior to the approval of the merger by the Bridge Capital shareholders at the special meeting due to Bridge Capital's receipt of an unsolicited bona fide competing proposal that is not withdrawn and that the Bridge Capital Board of Directors determines in good faith is a superior competing transaction that failure to accept would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's failure to hold the special meeting within a specified time period or to recommend approval of the merger to the shareholders of Bridge Capital, or the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement; and both (a) after the date of the merger agreement (March 9, 2015) and before the special meeting date, Bridge Capital shall have received a competing proposal (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) and (b) within 12 months following the date of such termination, Bridge Capital enters into an agreement for a competing proposal or an acquisition transaction (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) otherwise occurs.

Western Alliance required Bridge Capital to agree to these provisions as a condition to Western Alliance's willingness to enter into the merger agreement. However, these provisions might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Bridge Capital from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than the current proposed merger consideration, and the termination fee might result in a potential competing acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Bridge Capital than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

Bridge Capital will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees, suppliers and customers may have an adverse effect on Bridge Capital. These uncertainties may impair Bridge Capital's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers, suppliers and others who deal with Bridge Capital to seek to change existing business relationships with Bridge Capital. Bridge Capital employee retention and recruitment may be particularly challenging prior to the effective time of the merger, as employees and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

The pursuit of the merger and the preparation for the integration may place a significant burden on management and internal resources of Bridge Capital. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could affect the financial results of Bridge

Capital and, following the merger, the combined company. In addition, the merger agreement requires that Bridge Capital operate in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and restricts Bridge Capital from taking certain actions prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. These restrictions may prevent Bridge Capital from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger.

Bridge Capital's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from your interest as a Bridge Capital shareholder.

In considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Bridge Capital's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Bridge Capital shareholders generally. In connection with the merger agreement, Western Alliance entered into an employment agreement with each of Daniel P. Myers, Thomas A. Sa and Timothy W. Boothe, regarding their continuing roles with the combined company following the merger, which will be effective upon the closing of the merger. Pursuant to each employment agreement, Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe will serve as executives of Western Alliance Bank for a period of three years. Mr. Myers will also be appointed as an executive officer of Western Alliance. In addition, two members of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors will become directors of Western Alliance following the merger. Western Alliance has also entered into protection agreements with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. Additional interests that may differ from yours include, among others, the treatment of outstanding equity awards pursuant to the merger agreement, severance benefits payable under existing employment or change in control agreements entered into with executive officers, and rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage by the surviving corporation for acts and omissions occurring prior to the merger. For more information see The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours beginning on page 66.

If an adjustment to the merger consideration is required, then Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised dissenters' rights would have their cash portion of the merger consideration reduced and the stock component of their merger consideration increased.

An adjustment in the merger consideration as described in Risk Factors The number of shares of Western Alliance common stock and the cash amount payable as consideration to Bridge Capital shareholders are subject to adjustment and may not be finally determined until after Bridge Capital shareholders have voted on the merger would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration deliverable to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights. The market price of Western Alliance common stock may decline, as described in Risk Factors Because the market price of Western Alliance's common stock will fluctuate, Bridge Capital shareholders will not know until the effective time the value of the consideration they will receive in the merger. Accordingly, in the event that an adjustment in the merger consideration is required, the merger consideration deliverable to Bridge Capital shareholders that do not exercise appraisal rights would include a lower proportionate cash consideration component than the $2.39 currently contemplated and a higher proportionate stock consideration component than that contemplated by the current exchange ratio of 0.8145. These adjustments to the merger consideration, including the increase in the stock component of the merger consideration, may occur at a time when the value of Western Alliance common stock is declining.

The merger agreement may not be completed if certain conditions to the merger are not satisfied or waived or if the merger agreement is terminated by the parties in accordance with its terms.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions that must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include, but are not limited to: the approval of the merger agreement by Bridge Capital shareholders, receipt of required regulatory approvals, absence of orders prohibiting the completion of the merger, the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties, the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements, and the receipt by both parties of legal opinions from their respective tax counsels.

In addition, Bridge Capital or Western Alliance may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time and one or both parties may terminate the merger agreement in a variety of circumstances, including if the merger is not completed by December 31, 2015. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 90 for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the merger agreement could be terminated.

The fairness opinion obtained by Bridge Capital from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, Bridge Capital's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, orally delivered to the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital its opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing dated as of March 9, 2015. The opinion of Sandler O'Neill stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the per share consideration to be received in the merger was fair to the Bridge Capital shareholders from a financial point of view. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of Western Alliance or Bridge Capital, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative values of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from governmental entities that may delay the date of completion of the merger or impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Western Alliance.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from state and federal governmental authorities, including the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or FRB, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or OCC, and the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions. Satisfying the requirements of these governmental entities may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, these governmental entities may include conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. While Western Alliance and Bridge Capital do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would result in a material adverse effect on Western Alliance, there can be no assurance that they will not, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Western Alliance following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on Western Alliance following the merger. The parties are not obligated to complete the merger should any regulatory approval contain a non-customary condition that materially alters the benefit to which Western Alliance bargained for in the merger agreement.

The unaudited pro forma financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus is illustrative only, and may differ materially from the combined company's actual financial position and results of operations after the merger.

The unaudited pro forma financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what the combined company's actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated or will be after the merger.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact the stock prices and future businesses and financial results of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital.

If the merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital may be adversely affected, and Western Alliance and Bridge Capital will be subject to several risks, including the following:

Bridge Capital may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay Western Alliance a termination fee of $15.9375 million under the merger agreement and pay Western Alliance's out-of-pocket costs and

expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby up to $600,000;

Western Alliance may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay Bridge Capital's out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby up to $600,000;

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital will be required to pay certain costs relating to the merger, whether or not the merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, financial advisor and printing fees;

under the merger agreement, Bridge Capital is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the merger which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and matters relating to the merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by Western Alliance and Bridge Capital management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to Western Alliance and Bridge Capital as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the merger is not completed, Western Alliance and/or Bridge Capital may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from their respective customers and employees. Western Alliance and/or Bridge Capital also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the merger or to enforcement proceedings commenced against Western Alliance or Bridge Capital to perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement. If the merger is not completed, Western Alliance and Bridge Capital cannot assure their respective shareholders that the risks described above will not materialize and will not materially affect the business, financial results and stock prices of Western Alliance and/or Bridge Capital.

The shares of Western Alliance common stock to be received by Bridge Capital shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of Bridge Capital common stock.

Following completion of the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Bridge Capital. Bridge Capital shareholders will instead be stockholders of Western Alliance. There will be important differences between your current rights as a Bridge Capital shareholder and the rights to which you will be entitled as a Western Alliance stockholder. See Differences in the Rights of Shareholders beginning on page 93 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Western Alliance common stock and Bridge Capital common stock.

The tax consequences of the merger to a Bridge Capital shareholder will be dependent upon the cash consideration received.

The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, it is expected that a U.S. holder of shares of Bridge Capital common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock.

The number of shares of Western Alliance common stock and the cash amount payable as consideration to Bridge Capital shareholders are subject to adjustment and may not be finally determined until after Bridge Capital shareholders have voted on the merger.

To facilitate the merger's compliance with the continuity of interest requirement for tax-free reorganizations under the Code, the form of the merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment to ensure that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights. As a result, the amount of stock consideration and cash consideration to be received by Bridge Capital shareholders in the merger for each share of Bridge Capital common stock held by them may not be finally determined until after Bridge Capital shareholders have voted on the merger.

Risks Related to the Combined Company if the Merger is Completed

The integration of the companies will present significant challenges that may result in the combined business not operating as effectively as expected or in the failure to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction.

The benefits and synergies expected to result from the proposed transaction will depend in part on whether the operations of Bridge Capital can be integrated in a timely and efficient manner with those of Western Alliance. Western Alliance will face challenges in consolidating its functions with those of Bridge Capital, and integrating the organizations, procedures and operations of the two businesses. The integration of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital will be complex and time-consuming, and the management of both companies will have to dedicate substantial time and resources to it. These efforts could divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from day-to-day operational matters during the integration process. Failure to successfully integrate the operations of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital could result in the failure to achieve some of the anticipated benefits from the transaction, including cost savings and other operating efficiencies, and could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of Western Alliance after the transaction.

Estimates as to the future value of the combined company are inherently uncertain. You should not rely on such estimates without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, including estimates regarding the price at which the common stock of the combined company will trade following the merger, are inherently uncertain. The future value of the combined company will depend upon, among other factors, the combined company's ability to achieve projected revenue and earnings expectations and to realize the anticipated synergies described in this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to the risks and uncertainties described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including these risk factors. Accordingly, you should not rely upon any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, or the price at which the common stock of the combined company will trade following the merger, whether made before or after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus by Western Alliance and Bridge Capital's respective management or affiliates or others, without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

If the merger is consummated, Western Alliance will be subject to substantial additional regulation.

If the merger is consummated, the combined company will be subject to substantial additional regulation. Areas of additional regulation will include, but not be limited to, more sophisticated stress testing, enhanced governance standards, including those relating to risk management, higher FDIC deposit insurance assessments, mandatory clearing of swaps, a mandatory Volcker Rule compliance program, a cap on interchange transaction fees, and direct oversight and examination by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. These additional regulatory requirements could divert management's attention away from ongoing business concerns, place a burden on internal resources, impose additional costs or limitations on the combined company and affect profitability.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the shareholders of Bridge Capital who hold shares of Bridge Capital common stock on the record date for use at the special meeting. Bridge Capital is first mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and accompanying form of proxy to Bridge Capital shareholders on or about May 28, 2015.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held on Thursday, June 25, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at Bridge Capital's principal executive offices at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, the holders of Bridge Capital's common stock will be asked to:

approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, or the merger agreement proposal;

approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, or the compensatory arrangements proposal; and approve any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

The Bridge Capital Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters that may properly come before the special meeting. If any other matters properly come before the special meeting, the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote the shares represented by all properly executed proxies on those matters as determined by a majority of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors.

Recommendation of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors

The Bridge Capital Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Bridge Capital shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and FOR the approval of the proposal with respect to compensatory arrangements.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote

The Bridge Capital Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on May 18, 2015 as the record date for determining the Bridge Capital shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of record of Bridge Capital's common stock at the close of business on that day will be entitled to vote at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Each share of Bridge Capital common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter brought before the meeting. On the record date, there were approximately 15,965,284 shares of Bridge Capital's common stock issued and outstanding, held by approximately 1,902 shareholders of record.

Quorum Requirement

Under California law and Bridge Capital's by-laws, a quorum of Bridge Capital's shareholders at the special meeting is necessary to transact business. The presence of holders representing a majority of Bridge Capital's common stock issued and outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting.

All of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, including abstentions, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum at the special meeting.

Stock Ownership of Bridge Capital's Directors and Executive Officers

On May 18, 2015, the record date, the directors and executive officers of Bridge Capital and their respective affiliates, as a group, beneficially owned and were entitled to vote 1,062,363 shares of Bridge Capital common stock. These shares represent approximately 6.65% of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding on that date. Information pertaining to the security ownership of certain beneficial owners and directors and executive officers of Bridge Capital is incorporated by reference to Bridge Capital's Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, filed with the SEC on April 17, 2015.

On March 9, 2015, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, certain of the executive officers and all of the directors of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager, GP, LLC, who currently own in the aggregate approximately 37.39% of Bridge Capital's common stock, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge Capital, entered into a support agreement with Western Alliance pursuant to which such shareholder, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, agreed to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and against any alternative business combination transaction. A copy of the form of support agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D.

When considering the recommendations of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors to vote in favor of each of the proposals presented at the special meeting, you should be aware that the executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the shareholders of Bridge Capital. See The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours beginning on page 66.

Vote Required to Approve the Proposals

Approval of Bridge Capital's proposals to be considered at the special meeting requires the vote percentages described below. You may vote for or against any of the proposals submitted at the special meeting or you may abstain from voting.

Required Vote for Approval of Merger Agreement. In order to approve the merger agreement, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

Required Vote for Approval of Certain Compensatory Arrangements. In order to approve the compensatory arrangements proposal, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

Required Vote for Adjournment or Postponement of Special Meeting. In order to approve the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

Table of Contents

The vote on the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the merger and is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement. Because the vote on the compensatory arrangements is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Therefore, if the other requisite shareholder approvals are obtained and the merger is completed, the amounts payable under the compensatory arrangements will still be paid as long as any other conditions applicable thereto occur.

As of the record date, the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, each of whom has agreed to vote his, her or its shares in support of the merger, beneficially owned and were entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 5,969,921 shares of Bridge Capital common stock representing approximately 37.39% of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding on that date.

Failure to Vote; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

If a shareholder of record properly submits a proxy prior to the special meeting, his or her shares of common stock will be voted as he or she directs. If he or she submits a proxy but no direction is otherwise made, the shares of common stock will be voted FOR the approval of the merger agreement, FOR the advisory (non-binding) proposal with respect to compensatory arrangements, and FOR the approval of any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Shares held by a Bridge Capital shareholder who indicates on an executed proxy card that he or she wishes to abstain from voting will count towards determining whether a quorum is present and will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the golden parachute arrangements proposal and the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting.

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner signs and returns a proxy with respect to shares of common stock held in a fiduciary capacity (typically referred to as being held in street name) but does not vote on a particular matter because the nominee does not have the discretionary voting power with respect to that matter and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Under the rules that govern brokers who are voting with respect to shares held in street name, brokers have the discretion to vote such shares on routine matters but not on non-routine matters. The proposals that Bridge Capital shareholders are being asked to vote on at the special meeting are not considered routine matters and accordingly brokers or other nominees may not vote without instructions.

If a broker non-vote occurs, the broker non-votes will count for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the golden parachute arrangements proposal and the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting.

Submission of Proxies

If your Bridge Capital common stock is held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in street name), you will receive instructions from that person or entity that you must follow in order to have your shares of Bridge Capital common stock voted. If you give the broker instructions, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you do not give instructions, the broker will not vote your shares on any proposal at the special meeting, as set forth above.

If you hold your Bridge Capital common stock in your own name and not through your broker or other nominee, you may vote your shares at the special meeting or by proxy in one of three ways:

By using the Internet website and instructions listed on the proxy card;

By using the toll-free telephone number listed on the proxy card; or

By signing, dating and mailing the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope.

Table of Contents

Whichever of these methods you select to transmit your instructions, the proxy holders will vote your shares in accordance with those instructions. If you return a proxy card without specific voting instructions, your proxy will be voted by the proxy holders as recommended by the Bridge Capital Board of Directors.

Vote by Internet. If you are a shareholder of record, you may choose to submit your proxy on the Internet. The website for Internet proxy submission and the unique control number you will be required to provide are on the proxy card. Internet proxy submission is available 24 hours a day and will be accessible until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on June 24, 2015. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to your proxy card or the information provided by your bank, broker, custodian or record holder for information on Internet proxy submission. As with telephone proxy submission, you will be given the opportunity to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. If you hold shares through a broker or other custodian, please check the voting form used by that firm to see if it offers Internet proxy submission. If you vote on the Internet, please note that there may be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies, for which you will be responsible. If you submit your proxy on the Internet, you do not need to return your proxy card.

Vote by Telephone. If you hold your Bridge Capital common stock in your own name and not through your broker or another nominee, you can vote by telephone by following the instructions provided on the Internet voting site, or if you requested proxy materials, by following the instructions provided with your proxy materials and on your proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on June 24, 2015. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to your proxy card or the information provided by your bank, broker, custodian or record holder for information on telephone proxy submission. If you hold shares through a broker or other custodian, please check the voting form used by that firm to see if it offers telephone proxy submission. Easy-to-follow voice prompts allow you to vote your shares of stock and confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. Bridge Capital's telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate shareholders by using individual control numbers. If you vote by telephone, you do not need to return your proxy card.

Vote by Mail. A proxy card is enclosed for your use. To submit your proxy by mail, Bridge Capital asks that you sign and date the accompanying proxy and, if you are a shareholder of record, return it as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope or pursuant to the instructions set out in the proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to your proxy card or the information provided to you by your bank, broker, custodian or record holder. When the accompanying proxy is returned properly executed, the shares of Bridge Capital common stock represented by it will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy.

Vote in Person. If you wish to vote in person at the special meeting, a ballot will be provided at the special meeting. However, if your shares are held in the name of your bank, broker, custodian or other record holder, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the special meeting. You should allow yourself enough time prior to the special meeting to obtain this proxy from the holder of record.

Revocability of Proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the special meeting by doing any one of the following:

Complete, sign, date and submit another proxy (a properly executed, valid proxy will revoke any previously submitted proxies);

Re-vote by telephone or on the Internet;

Provide written notice of revocation to Bridge Capital's Corporate Secretary; or Attend the special meeting and vote in person.

Solicitation of Proxies

This solicitation is made on behalf of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors and Bridge Capital will pay the costs of soliciting and obtaining proxies, including the cost of reimbursing banks and brokers for forwarding proxy materials to their principals. Proxies may be solicited, without extra compensation, by Bridge Capital's officers and employees in person or by mail, telephone, fax or other methods of communication. Bridge Capital will also reimburse brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in sending these materials to you and getting your voting instructions.

Householding

Under SEC rules, a single set of annual reports and proxy statements may be sent to any household at which two or more Bridge Capital shareholders reside if they appear to be members of the same family. Each Bridge Capital shareholder continues to receive a separate proxy card. This procedure, referred to as householding, reduces the volume of duplicate information Bridge Capital shareholders receive and reduces mailing and printing expenses for Bridge Capital. Brokers with accountholders who are Bridge Capital shareholders may be householding Bridge Capital's proxy materials. As indicated in the notice previously provided by these brokers to Bridge Capital shareholders, a single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from an affected Bridge Capital shareholder. Once you have received notice from your broker that it will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, please notify your broker. Bridge Capital shareholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.

BRIDGE CAPITAL PROPOSALS

Proposal 1: Approval of the Merger Agreement

Bridge Capital shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement pursuant to which Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance surviving, and approve the transactions contemplated thereby.

For a detailed discussion of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, see The Merger Agreement. As discussed under The Merger Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger, after careful consideration, the Bridge Capital board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and declared the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, fair and in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders.

The approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. Failures to vote, abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the effect of a vote AGAINST this proposal.

THE BRIDGE CAPITAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

Proposal 2: Advisory Approval of Certain Compensatory Arrangements

In accordance with Section 14A of the Exchange Act, Bridge Capital is providing its shareholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory vote on the compensation that may be payable to its named executive officers in connection with the merger. As required by those rules, Bridge Capital is asking its shareholders to vote on the approval of the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings approve, on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, the agreements for and compensation to be paid by Bridge Capital Holdings and Bridge Bank to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger with Western Alliance Bancorporation, as disclosed in the section of the proxy statement/prospectus for the merger captioned The Merger Golden Parachute Arrangements for Bridge Capital Named Executive Officers.

The approval of the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the merger and is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement proposal. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the compensatory arrangements proposal and vote not to approve the merger agreement proposal and vice versa. In addition, because the vote on compensatory arrangements is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Accordingly, because Bridge Capital is contractually obligated to pay the compensation, such compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, if the merger is completed and regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

The affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereon present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal will be required to approve the advisory resolution on the compensatory arrangements. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if a properly executed proxy card is returned) will be counted towards a quorum. However, if you are a shareholder of record, and you fail to vote by proxy or by ballot at the special meeting, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining a quorum.

Failure to submit a proxy card or vote in person will not affect whether this matter has been approved. An abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST this proposal.

Table of Contents

THE BRIDGE CAPITAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL, ON AN ADVISORY (NONBINDING) BASIS, OF THE COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS PROPOSAL.

Proposal 3: Adjournment or Postponement of the Bridge Capital Special Meeting

Bridge Capital is also submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Bridge Capital may not have received sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement by the time of the special meeting. In that event, Bridge Capital would need to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for purposes of soliciting additional proxies to obtain the requisite shareholder approval to approve the merger agreement. Any other adjournment or postponement of the special meeting (e.g., an adjournment required because of the absence of a quorum) would be voted upon pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy card. If the special meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less, Bridge Capital is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The proposal to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock present or represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote will not have an effect on this proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST this proposal. Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger.

THE BRIDGE CAPITAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN OR POSTPONE THE SPECIAL MEETING.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains important information relating to the merger. You are urged to read this discussion together with the merger agreement and related documents attached as appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus before voting.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance continuing as the surviving entity following the merger. When the merger is completed, except as discussed below, each issued and outstanding share of Bridge Capital's common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash and shares of Western Alliance's common stock based on the merger consideration, as described below. Cash will be paid instead of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock. Shares of Bridge Capital's common stock held as treasury stock or held directly or indirectly by Bridge Capital, Western Alliance or any of their subsidiaries will be canceled and shall cease to exist.

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital expect that the merger will take place in the second half of 2015, or as soon as possible after we receive all required regulatory and shareholder approvals and all regulatory waiting periods expire. If the merger does not take place by December 31, 2015, the merger agreement may be terminated by either party unless both parties agree to extend it.

In addition, Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have agreed to merge Bridge Bank with and into Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank continuing as the surviving bank, which we refer to as the bank merger. The merger agreement provides that Western Alliance may, if necessary for regulatory or other reasonable business or tax reasons, change the structure of the bank merger as long as such change does not alter the kind or amount of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, impede or materially delay consummation of the merger, or materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required regulatory approvals or adversely affect the tax treatment of Bridge Capital's shareholders as a result of receiving the merger consideration. It is the current intention of Western Alliance that, from and after the effective time, Western Alliance will continue to use the Bridge Bank name across Bridge Bank's product lines as part of the Western Alliance franchise in the San Francisco Bay Area and at existing Bridge Bank offices outside of California.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio, and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization.

Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization, the aggregate merger consideration to be issued or paid by Western Alliance will not exceed 12,494,704 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $36,663,403 of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that is issued, from and after March 9, 2015, and prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Capital stock options and the vesting of Bridge Capital restricted stock, either (i) outstanding as of March 9, 2015, other than any Bridge Capital restricted stock that vests pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement or (ii) granted or issued after March 9, 2015, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate merger consideration will be increased by 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. If the total merger consideration exceeds the amount set forth in the previous sentence (including any cash paid in connection with the cancellation of outstanding vested and unexercised stock options for which the option holders have not made an exercise election (as more fully described under The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 80) and after giving effect to dissenting shares as if they had been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration), then the total merger consideration shall be reduced on a pro rata basis to the aggregate amount set forth in the preceding sentence.

Bridge Capital Stock Options. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Bridge Capital Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration. At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Fractions of Shares. Certificates for fractions of shares of Western Alliance's common stock will not be issued or book entries representing fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock made. Instead of a fractional share of Western Alliance's common stock, a Bridge Capital shareholder will be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the fractional share interest to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by (B) the 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time closing sales price of Western Alliance common stock reported on the NYSE composite tape for the trading day immediately preceding the closing date for the merger.

Conversion. The conversion of Bridge Capital's common stock into the merger consideration will occur automatically upon completion of the merger. Under the merger agreement, after the effective time, Western Alliance will cause its exchange agent to pay the purchase price to each Bridge Capital shareholder who surrenders the appropriate documents to the exchange agent. In this document, we use the term purchase price to refer to the (i) shares of Western Alliance's common stock, (ii) cash and (iii) any cash to be paid instead of a fraction of a share of Western Alliance common stock, payable to each holder of Bridge Capital's common stock.

Purpose and Effects of the Merger

The purpose of the merger is to enable Western Alliance to acquire the assets and business of Bridge Capital and its subsidiaries. Upon completion of the merger, except as discussed below, the issued and outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock will automatically be converted into the merger consideration. See Merger Consideration.

Background of the Merger

As part of their ongoing consideration and evaluation of Bridge Capital's long-term prospects and strategies, the board of directors of Bridge Capital and senior management have regularly reviewed and assessed business strategies and objectives, including strategic opportunities and challenges, and have considered various strategic options potentially available to Bridge Capital, all with the goal of enhancing value for Bridge Capital shareholders. The strategic discussions have focused, among other things, on the business and regulatory environment facing financial institutions generally and Bridge Capital in particular, as well as conditions and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry. In furtherance of this process, the board of directors of Bridge Capital directed management to gain an understanding of potential interested parties, their merger philosophy, and a general understanding of related valuation. The Bridge Capital board also formed a Strategic Development Committee to oversee this process, which committee was comprised of Dan Myers and Allan Kramer, as co-chairmen, and Board members Owen Brown, Howard Gould, and Bob Latta, and chief financial officer, Tom Sa.

In connection with this process, Bridge Capital management had contact with senior management at financial institutions that were identified by Bridge Capital as promising from a strategic and financial perspective to gain deeper knowledge of potential business alignment and to raise awareness of Bridge Capital's business focus and potential. In addition, from time to time, Bridge Capital management held informal meetings with investment bankers from several firms to gain insight as to industry trends, merger and acquisition market trends and valuations, and active and potential participants in merger and acquisition activities.

On June 11, 2014, while attending an industry conference, Mr. Sa encountered Dale Gibbons, the Chief Financial Officer of Western Alliance, and discussed in general terms the companies' respective business focus, philosophies and culture. Following this meeting, Robert Sarver, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Western Alliance, contacted Mr. Myers for a meeting to explore whether there was interest in a potential business transaction and to explore the potential benefits of such a transaction. Such meeting was held between Messrs. Myers and Sarver on June 20, 2014.

On August 1, 2014, Bridge Capital and Western Alliance signed a mutual non-disclosure agreement and continued discussions at a meeting in Western Alliance's offices in Phoenix. On August 20, 2014, the Strategic Development Committee received a management presentation regarding companies of interest in a potential business combination, including Western Alliance. On September 26, 2014, Bridge Capital met with the Western Alliance credit team which undertook a review of the Bridge Capital credit process and culture. Following that credit review, Western Alliance orally confirmed its interest in pursuing a business combination, outlining its approach to key strategic and economic components of a potential partnership.

On October 22, 2014, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors received a report from Mr. Myers regarding discussions between senior management of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance regarding interest in a potential transaction, and authorized the engagement of an investment banker to assess the valuation of Bridge Capital and evaluate the strategic benefits of a potential transaction with Western Alliance.

On October 31, 2014, senior management of Bridge Capital invited representatives of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. to assist the Bridge Capital Board of Directors in evaluating the merits of a potential business combination with Western Alliance in the context of current industry trends, Bridge Capital's standalone value prospects, and other potential strategic alternatives. On November 20, 2014, representatives of Sandler O'Neill made a presentation to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors on these topics. At the meeting, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors authorized senior management to continue discussions with Western Alliance, including the negotiation of a non-binding letter of intent.

On December 8, 2014, Bridge Capital received a draft, non-binding letter of intent (LOI) from Western Alliance outlining a potential business transaction. An engagement letter between Bridge Capital and Sandler O'Neill was executed on December 11, 2014. The Strategic Development Committee of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors met with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital's legal counsel, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, on December 11, 2014, to discuss the LOI and a response. Following this meeting, on December 15, 2014, Western Alliance delivered a revised LOI to Bridge Capital; the proposed merger consideration called for Bridge Capital shareholders to receive 0.905 Western Alliance shares for each Bridge Capital share, assuming consideration would be paid 90% in Western Alliance stock and 10% in cash. The LOI contemplated that two Bridge Capital directors would join Western Alliance's Board of Directors and that certain key employees of Bridge Capital would sign employment agreements. Further, the LOI provided Western Alliance 30 days of exclusivity from the date of the LOI to draft and negotiate a definitive agreement.

On December 16, 2014, after careful consideration of Western Alliance's offer and the long-term business plan developed by Bridge Capital's management and previously approved by its Board of Directors, as well as the financial analysis prepared by representatives of Sandler O'Neill, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital instructed management to sign the LOI and enter into further negotiations with Western Alliance regarding a definitive agreement.

Following this meeting, representatives of management and outside advisors to Western Alliance and Bridge Capital began more detailed discussions on the potential business transaction, and Western Alliance commenced credit, operational and legal due diligence of Bridge Capital through an online dataroom established on December 22, 2014. On January 6 and 7, 2015, members of Bridge Capital's executive management, along with a representative from Sandler O'Neill, interviewed members of Western Alliance's executive management in Phoenix, Arizona, as part of Bridge Capital's reverse due diligence investigation of Western Alliance. Bridge Capital, Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital's outside legal advisors also reviewed financial and other information regarding Western Alliance. During these meetings, Bridge Capital disclosed to Western Alliance results for the fourth quarter below estimates of investment analysts. Following these meetings, Western Alliance determined to terminate discussions with Bridge Capital and let the exclusivity period lapse in order to assess other strategic alternatives. On January 16, 2015, the exclusivity provision in the LOI expired. On January 22, 2015, the Strategic Development Committee reported to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors on the status of discussions with Western Alliance. On February 11, 2015, Western Alliance contacted Bridge Capital seeking to re-engage a discussion. On February 17 and 18, 2015, members of Western Alliance's executive management traveled to San Jose for further on-site due diligence on Bridge Capital, and a joint meeting of the Strategic Development Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors was held on February 19, 2015, to review the outcome of these meetings.

Western Alliance's outside legal counsel forwarded an initial draft of the Agreement and Plan of Merger to Bridge Capital's legal counsel on January 2, 2015. Between January 2 and January 7, 2015, and during the weeks following the resumption of negotiations on February 11, 2015, representatives of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, and their respective legal counsel and financial advisors, conducted negotiations regarding the terms of the merger transaction, including, among other terms, the exchange ratio, cash consideration per share, employee compensation and severance, board representation, representations and warranties, covenants, closing conditions, and termination provisions and fees, as well as cultural issues and organizational structure. In addition, the terms of support agreements between Western Alliance and the individual directors of Bridge Capital, certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Community Bank Fund were negotiated, as well as employment and protection agreements between Western Alliance and each of Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe. During this period, Western Alliance also discussed available positions with Bridge Capital's executive management team and reached preliminary agreement with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe regarding employment positions with Western Alliance following the merger. See Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours.

During the period from December 2014 through March 2015, the Strategic Development Committee of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors held five meetings with Mr. Myers and a representative of Sandler O'Neill to discuss the status of the due diligence process, plans for communications with Bridge Capital's staff, customers, shareholders, and regulators, and negotiation of the transaction terms, including, among other terms, employee severance arrangements and cultural issues.

By February 26, 2015, many significant outstanding issues in the transaction negotiations had been resolved. Western Alliance scheduled a Board meeting for February 27, 2015, to consider the merger, and Bridge Capital scheduled a board meeting for March 9, 2015, to consider the merger. On February 27, 2015, Western Alliance's Board of Directors met with members of Western Alliance's management team to review and consider the proposed merger. At the meeting, the Western Alliance Board approved the entry into a transaction with Bridge Capital and the issuance of Western Alliance common stock in connection therewith. The Western Alliance Board then directed its management team to finalize and execute a definitive merger agreement substantially on the terms reviewed and discussed at the meeting.

At Bridge Capital's board meeting held on March 9, 2015, the Board of Directors met, together with representatives of management, Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital's outside legal counsel, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, to consider the proposed transaction. During the Bridge Capital board meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill summarized the key economic terms of the transaction. Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP presented a summary of the other significant terms of the transaction and also described the terms of proposed support agreements with the individual directors of Bridge Capital, certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Community Bank Fund. See The Merger Agreement Support Agreements. Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP discussed the legal standards applicable to the Bridge Capital board's decisions and actions with respect to its evaluation of the merger transaction. Mr. Myers summarized the terms of the employment and protection agreements between Western Alliance and each of Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe. See Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours Employment and Protection Agreements. Bridge Capital's management, representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP described the results of the due diligence investigation of Western Alliance. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill reviewed additional financial information and analyses regarding Bridge Capital, Western Alliance, peer companies and comparable transactions, and presented its oral fairness opinion (subsequently delivered in final written form dated March 9, 2015) to the directors of Bridge

Capital that, based on the qualifications and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair to the Bridge Capital shareholders from a financial point of view. See The Merger Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital. Following these discussions, including consideration of the factors described under Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Bridge Capital and its shareholders, and recommended that Bridge Capital's shareholders approve the merger agreement at a special meeting to be held later in 2015.

Following completion of the March 9, 2015, meeting of the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital, and after finalizing the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements, Bridge Capital and Western Alliance executed and delivered the merger agreement and announced the transaction late that afternoon in a press release.

Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders and, by the unanimous vote of all of the directors of Bridge Capital, approved the merger agreement and the merger. ACCORDINGLY, BRIDGE CAPITAL'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT ALL HOLDERS OF BRIDGE CAPITAL COMMON STOCK VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

In the course of reaching its determination, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors consulted with its legal counsel regarding its fiduciary duties, the terms of the merger agreement and related issues, and reviewed with its financial advisors and its senior management, the financial aspects of the proposed transaction and the fairness of the transaction to the shareholders from a financial point of view, among other matters.

In reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered all factors it deemed material. The Board of Directors analyzed information with respect to the financial condition, results of operations, businesses and prospects of Bridge Capital. In this regard, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered the performance trends of Bridge Capital over the past several years. The Board of Directors compared Bridge Capital's current and anticipated future operating results to publicly available financial and other information for other similarly-sized banking institutions. The Board also considered the ability of Bridge Capital to grow as an independent institution, and its ability to further enhance shareholder value without engaging in a strategic transaction. In this regard, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered the long-term as well as the short-term interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders, including whether those interests might best be served by continued independence.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors also considered a number of factors, including the following:

its knowledge of Bridge Capital's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, and of Western Alliance's business, operations, management, financial condition, asset quality, financial performance, competitive position, stock performance, and prospects, taking into account the presentations made by Bridge Capital's financial advisors, the results of Bridge Capital's due diligence review of Western Alliance, and information provided by Western Alliance's management;

its knowledge of the current environment in the financial services industry, including national, regional and local economic conditions and the interest rate environment, continued consolidation and the competitive effects of consolidation on financial institutions similar in size to Bridge Capital, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, increasing nationwide and global competition, the current environment for banks, particularly in Silicon Valley and the San Francisco Bay Area, and current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on the company's potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options, and the historical market prices of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance common stock;

the financial terms of the merger, including that, based on the closing price on the NYSE of Western Alliance's common stock on March 6, 2015 (the last trading day prior to the execution and announcement of the merger agreement), and the right of Bridge Capital shareholders to receive a mix of approximately 90% Western Alliance common stock and 10% cash, the per share merger consideration as of that date represented an approximate 18.9% premium over the closing price of Bridge Capital shares as of that date and a multiple to tangible book value per share of 222%;

the financial analyses presented by representatives of Sandler O'Neill to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors with respect to Western Alliance and the merger, including the terms of recent comparative transactions, and the opinion of Sandler O'Neill that, as of the date of that opinion and subject to the qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view (see Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital beginning on page 54);

the financial and growth prospects for Bridge Capital and its shareholders of a business combination with Western Alliance as compared to continuing to operate as a stand-alone entity;

the greater market capitalization and trading liquidity of Western Alliance common stock in the event that Bridge Capital shareholders desire to sell the shares of Western Alliance common stock to be received by them following completion of the merger;

the potential revenue-enhancing opportunities in connection with the merger and the potential effect on the future financial performance of the combined company;

the benefits to Bridge Capital and its customers of operating as part of a larger organization, including higher lending limits, potential enhancements to products and services, and greater financial resources;

its belief that the two companies share a common vision of growth and entrepreneurship and that management and employees of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance possess complementary skills and expertise;

the similarity of the two banks' business models, including that they are both focused primarily on serving defined sectors of business, and Western Alliance's track record of successfully integrating and operating the businesses of a combined company following a merger;

the career opportunities afforded by a larger organization, as well as the level of severance benefits to be provided to Bridge Capital employees who will not be continuing with Western Alliance or are terminated within twelve months following the merger other than for cause;

the structure of the merger and the terms of the merger agreement, including the requirement that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital common stock vote to approve the merger as a condition to closing, the termination fee provisions, and the ability of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors, under certain circumstances, to withdraw or materially and adversely modify its recommendation to Bridge Capital's shareholders, as well as its ability to terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal (if one were to be received), subject to payment of a $15.9375 million termination fee;

its assessment of the likelihood that the merger will be completed in a timely manner, including the fact that Western Alliance has existing resources to fund the cash portion of the merger consideration;

the expectation that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the likelihood that such approvals will be received in a timely manner.

Table of Contents

In the course of its deliberations regarding the merger, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors also considered potential risks and potentially negative factors associated with the merger, including the following material factors:

the fact that the value of the aggregate and per share merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Western Alliance's common stock;

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Bridge Capital's business while working to complete the merger;

the restrictions (subject to certain exceptions) on the conduct of Bridge Capital's business prior to the completion of the merger which, although customary for public company merger agreements involving financial institutions, could delay or prevent Bridge Capital from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or other actions it would otherwise take with respect to its operations absent the pending merger;

the potential risks associated with achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings and successfully integrating Bridge Capital's business, operations and workforce with those of Western Alliance;

the risk of potential employee attrition or negative effects on Bridge Capital's business and customer relationships as a result of the pending merger;

the merger-related costs;

the fact that the interests of certain of Bridge Capital's directors and executive officers may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Bridge Capital's other shareholders as described under the heading "Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours" on page 66;

the fact that, in connection with the merger, Sandler O'Neill will receive a transaction fee, the majority of which is subject to the closing of the merger (see "Sandler O'Neill's Relationship");

the fact that, while Bridge Capital expects that the merger will be completed, there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger agreement will be satisfied such that the merger may not be consummated, including that required regulatory and shareholder approvals be obtained; and the fact that Bridge Capital would be prohibited from affirmatively soliciting acquisition proposals after execution of the merger agreement and will be obligated to pay a termination fee of $15.9375 million to Western Alliance if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, all of which may discourage other parties potentially interested in a strategic transaction with Bridge Capital from pursuing such a transaction.

This description of the information and factors considered by Bridge Capital's Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include all material factors the Board considered. In determining whether to approve and recommend the merger agreement, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to any of the foregoing factors, and individual directors may have weighed factors differently. After deliberating with respect to the merger and the merger agreement, considering, among other things, the reasons discussed above, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger as being in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders, based on the total mix of information available to the Board.

Western Alliance's Reasons for the Merger

Western Alliance's reasons for entering in to the merger agreement include:

each of Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects;

Table of Contents

the opportunity for Western Alliance to further expand in the Northern California market, in particular in the Silicon Valley area;

the complementary nature of the businesses of the two companies including, in particular, Bridge Capital's significant technology banking platform with an emphasis on small, middle-market and emerging companies, and low cost deposit funding profile;

the belief of the Western Alliance Board of Directors that the combination would result in a larger and more diversified financial institution that is better positioned to develop and build on its current market position;

the anticipated pro forma impact of the transaction on the combined company, including the expected impact on financial metrics including earnings and tangible equity per share and on regulatory capital levels, and the expectation that the combined company will retain a strong capital position upon completion of the transaction;

the current and prospective environment in which Western Alliance and Bridge Capital operate, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, the continuing consolidation of the industry, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, increasing nationwide competition and current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on the companies' potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options;

the compatibility of the cultures of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital;

the three-year employment agreements with Dan Myers and certain other Bridge Capital executives, the appointment of two Bridge Capital directors to the Western Alliance Board, the retention incentives created by conversion of certain outstanding equity awards of Bridge Capital into awards of Western Alliance, and other factors related to the combined company's ability to continue to successfully operate and grow the Bridge Bank business;

the Board's review and discussions with Western Alliance management concerning the due diligence examination of Bridge Capital;

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Western Alliance's business and towards the completion of the merger and the integration of the two companies; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the expected likelihood that such regulatory approvals will be received in a reasonably timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by Western Alliance's Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal factors considered by Western Alliance's Board of Directors. Western Alliance's Board of Directors collectively reached the unanimous conclusion to approve the merger agreement and approve the merger in light of the various factors described above and other factors that each member of Western Alliance's Board of Directors determined was appropriate. In view of the numerous factors considered by Western Alliance's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of those matters, Western Alliance's Board of Directors did not consider it practical, and therefore did not attempt, to quantify, rank, or otherwise assign relative weights to each specific factor considered in reaching its decision. Rather, Western Alliance's Board of Directors is making its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to and the investigation conducted by it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual Western Alliance directors may have given different weights to each of the factors discussed in their evaluation of the merger.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital

By letter dated December 11, 2014, Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, retained Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, to act as financial advisor to Bridge Capital's Board of Directors in connection with the Board's review of a potential business combination with Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the March 9, 2015 meeting at which Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered and approved the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the Board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Bridge Capital common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Bridge Capital's board and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Bridge Capital to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any holder of Bridge Capital common stock as to how such holder of Bridge Capital common stock should vote at the special meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by Bridge Capital's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the merger consideration to be received by Bridge Capital's common shareholders.

In connection with rendering its opinion dated March 9, 2015, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

the merger agreement;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Bridge Capital that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Western Alliance that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain internal financial forecasts for Bridge Capital for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and an estimated long-term growth rate for 2019 as discussed with the senior management of Bridge Capital; mean publicly available analyst earnings estimates for Western Alliance for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016 and an estimated long-term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter as provided by the senior management of Western Alliance;

certain estimated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, and expected cost savings and other synergies provided by Western Alliance;

a comparison of certain financial and other information, including stock trading information, for Bridge Capital and Western Alliance with similar publicly available information for certain other publicly traded commercial banks;

the publicly available financial terms of certain other recent merger and acquisition transactions in the banking sector and, specifically, in the Western U.S.;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular, including, specifically, the Western U.S.; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Bridge Capital the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Bridge Capital and held similar discussions with the senior management of Western Alliance regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Western Alliance.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to Sandler O'Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O'Neill by Bridge Capital and Western Alliance or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing this letter. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance or any of their respective subsidiaries. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Bridge Capital, Western Alliance or the combined entity after the merger and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Bridge Capital and Western Alliance. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Bridge Capital's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Bridge Capital and Western Alliance are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

With respect to internal financial estimates, Sandler O'Neill used estimates provided by senior management of Western Alliance, publicly available mean earnings per share estimates, and an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for Western Alliance as provided by the senior management of Western Alliance, as discussed below under "Certain Western Alliance Prospective Financial Information Provided to Sandler O'Neill". The senior managements of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that those estimates reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such respective managements of the respective future financial performances of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. Sandler O'Neill assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance since the date of the most recent financial data made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill also assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Bridge Capital and Western Alliance would remain as a going concern for all periods relevant to its analyses. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and any other transactions contemplated in connection therewith.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Bridge Capital's consent, that each of the parties to the merger agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not waived, and that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Bridge Capital, Western Alliance or the merger and that the merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date of its opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect its opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the prices at which the common stock of Bridge Capital or Western Alliance may trade at any time or the impact of the change in price of Western Alliance common stock on the per share consideration.

In rendering its opinion dated March 9, 2015, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Bridge Capital or Western Alliance and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance and the companies to which they are being compared.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Bridge Capital, Western Alliance and Sandler O'Neill. The analysis performed by Sandler O'Neill is not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors at the Board of Directors' March 9, 2015 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Bridge Capital's common stock or the prices at which Bridge Capital's common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Bridge Capital's Board of Directors in making its determination to approve of Bridge Capital's entry into the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision Bridge Capital's Board of Directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger.

In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, it made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

Bridge Capital Net Present Value Analysis

Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Bridge Capital common stock under various circumstances. The analysis assumed that Bridge Capital performed in accordance to internal financial estimates provided by Bridge Capital's senior management for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019. To approximate the terminal value of Bridge Capital common stock at December 31, 2018, Sandler O'Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 12.0x to 20.0x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 120% to 200%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 15.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Bridge Capital's common stock.

During the Bridge Capital Board of Directors meeting on March 9, 2015, Sandler O'Neill noted that the terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of Bridge Capital common stock of $13.68 to $27.22 when applying multiples of earnings to the applicable amounts indicated in the Bridge Capital estimates and $13.49 to $26.83 when applying multiples of tangible book value to the applicable amounts indicated in the Bridge Capital estimates.

Pro Forma Results and Capital Ratios

Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger on Western Alliance, assuming the following: (i) the merger closes on December 31, 2015; (ii) aggregate transaction value of $425.0 million, based on Western Alliance's closing stock price on March 6, 2015 of $29.02; (iii) Western Alliance would be able to achieve cost savings on Bridge Capital's projected non-interest expense; (iv) a core deposit intangible of approximately $20.0 million (10 year, straight line amortization method); (v) a pretax opportunity cost of cash of 1.50%; (vi) various purchase accounting adjustments, including a mark-to-market adjustment on Bridge Capital's loan portfolio, securities portfolio and fixed assets; and (vii) all vested and exercisable options of Bridge Capital are cashed out at the deal price per share and all unvested options and restricted stock of Bridge Capital are exchanged for Western Alliance options and restricted shares at an exchange ratio of 0.905x. The analyses indicated that as of December 31, 2015, the merger would maintain Western Alliance's regulatory capital ratios in excess of the regulatory guidelines for well capitalized status. The actual results achieved by the combined company, however, may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Analysis of Trading Liquidity of Western Alliance Common Stock

Sandler O'Neill used publicly available information to review Western Alliance's average daily common stock trading activity for the 5 day, 30 day and 90 day periods ending March 6, 2015. During those periods, Western Alliance's daily average common stock trading activity ranged from approximately 425 thousand shares to approximately 473 thousand shares per day and Bridge Capital's daily average common stock trading activity ranged from approximately 13 thousand shares to approximately 20 thousand shares per day. Based on an estimated 12.5 million Western Alliance common shares to be issued in aggregate to Bridge Capital's common shareholders, the analysis indicated that it would take between approximately 29 and 32 trading days to trade all of the shares issued to Bridge Capital's common shareholders on a combined basis, assuming that future trading volumes were consistent with the historical period referenced and no other shares were traded.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship

Sandler O'Neill acted as the financial advisor to Bridge Capital's Board of Directors in connection with the merger and will receive a transaction fee in an amount equal to 1.2% of the aggregate purchase price (as defined in the engagement letter entered into by and between Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital) to be paid in connection with the merger, $750,000 of which was paid upon the signing of the merger agreement and the balance of which is subject to the closing of the merger. Sandler O'Neill received a fee of $250,000 in connection

Certain Western Alliance Prospective Financial Information Provided to Sandler O Neill

Western Alliance management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings and is especially wary of making projections for extended periods due to the significant unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, Western Alliance is including in this proxy statement/prospectus an estimated long-term earnings growth rate for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2019 which was provided to Sandler O Neill in its capacity as financial advisor to Bridge Capital in connection with the merger.

This estimated long-term earnings growth rate reflected numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to Western Alliance's business, all of which are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Western Alliance's control. This estimate is subjective in many respects and thus is susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. This estimate may also be affected by Western Alliance's ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives and targets over the applicable periods. As such, this estimate constitutes forward-looking information and is subject to risks and uncertainties, including the various risks set forth in the sections of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors and in Western Alliance's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and the other reports filed by Western Alliance with the SEC. The estimate covers multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year.

The estimate was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Neither Western Alliance's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the estimate included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the estimate. Furthermore, the estimate does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date the estimate was prepared.

You are strongly cautioned not to place undue reliance on the estimate set forth below. The inclusion of the estimate in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that any of Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, Sandler O Neill, or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives considered or consider the estimate to be predictive of actual future events, and the estimate should not be relied upon as such. None of Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, Sandler O Neill, or their respective affiliates, advisors, officers, directors or representatives can give any assurance that actual results will not differ from the estimate, and none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the estimate to reflect circumstances existing after the date such estimate was generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error. None of Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, Sandler O Neill, or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives makes any representation to any other person regarding the estimate. The estimate is not being included in this proxy statement/prospectus to influence a shareholder's decision regarding how to vote on any given proposal, but because the estimate was provided to Sandler O Neill.

Western Alliance provided Sandler O Neill with an estimated 12% annual long-term earnings growth rate for Western Alliance for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2019.

Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours

Certain directors and executive officers of Bridge Capital have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Bridge Capital, including, but not limited to, agreements that provide for payments and benefits in addition to the merger consideration, enhanced severance pay upon termination, and accelerated vesting of equity awards. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. The Bridge Capital Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement.

- 66 -

The dates and share prices used below to quantify these interests have been selected based upon applicable disclosure requirements and are for illustrative purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the dates on which certain events will occur and do not represent a projection about the future value of Bridge Capital common stock. For purposes of all of the Bridge Capital agreements described below, the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will constitute a change in control.

Board Positions

Prior to the effective time of the merger, all necessary action will be taken by Western Alliance in order that, at the first regularly scheduled meeting of the combined company's Board of Directors occurring after the effective time, Western Alliance will expand the size of its Board of Directors by two seats and designate two members of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, who will be named prior to the effective time, to serve on the Board of Directors of Western Alliance.

Employment and Protection Agreements

New Executive Employment Agreements. In anticipation of the closing of the merger, each of Daniel P. Myers, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bridge Capital; Thomas A. Sa, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Strategy Officer of Bridge Capital; and Timothy W. Boothe, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Bridge Capital, have entered into executive employment agreements and protection agreements with Western Alliance Bank that will become effective upon closing of the bank merger.

Pursuant to the executive employment agreement with Daniel P. Myers, Mr. Myers will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Bridge Bank division of Western Alliance Bank, as the Executive Vice President of Northern California Administration of Western Alliance, and as a member of Western Alliance's Executive Management Committee, with an annual base salary of $450,000, which is subject to a guaranteed increase by $15,000 on each of January 1, 2017 and January 1, 2018. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Myers will receive a grant of 15,000 shares of Western Alliance restricted stock that will vest on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the grant date. Commencing in 2016, Mr. Myers will be eligible for (a) an annual bonus of up to 65% of his base salary based on achievement of target performance goals, and (b) annual long-term equity incentive awards including a performance-based restricted stock award with a target value of 40% of his base salary and performance-based stock units with a target value of 40% of his base salary. Both long-term equity incentive awards will vest over no more than three (3) years. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Myers will be eligible to participate in Western Alliance Bank's employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives.

Pursuant to the executive employment agreement with Thomas A. Sa, Mr. Sa will serve as Executive Vice President of the Bridge Bank division of Western Alliance Bank with an annual base salary of $300,000, which is subject to a guaranteed increase by $10,000 on each of January 1, 2017 and January 1, 2018. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Sa will receive a grant of 7,500 shares of Western Alliance restricted stock that will vest on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the grant date. Commencing in 2016, Mr. Sa will be eligible for (a) an annual bonus of up to 50% of his base salary based on achievement of target performance goals, and (b) annual long-term equity incentive awards including a performance-based restricted stock award with a target value of 35% of his base salary and performance-based stock units with a target value of 35% of his base salary. Both long-term equity incentive awards will vest over no more than three (3) years. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Sa will be eligible to participate in Western Alliance Bank's employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives.

Pursuant to the executive employment agreement with Timothy W. Boothe, Mr. Boothe will serve as Executive Vice President of the Bridge Bank division of Western Alliance Bank with an annual base salary of $275,000, which is subject to a guaranteed increase by $10,000 on each of January 1, 2017 and January 1, 2018. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Boothe will receive a grant of 7,500 shares of Western Alliance restricted stock that will vest on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the grant date. Commencing in 2016, Mr. Boothe will be eligible for (a) an annual bonus of up to 50% of his base salary based on achievement of target performance goals, and (b) annual long-term equity incentive awards including a restricted stock award with a target value of 35% of his base salary and performance-based stock units with a target value of 35% of his base salary. Both long-term equity incentive awards will vest over no more than three (3) years. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Boothe will be eligible to participate in Western Alliance Bank's employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives.

Under each of these executive employment agreements, if the executive officer's employment is terminated by Western Alliance or is terminated by the executive for "good reason" (as defined in the executive employment agreement) or for certain other reasons specified in the executive employment agreement, the applicable officer will be entitled to receive, subject to his timely execution and delivery of a general release of claims, a lump-sum severance payment equal to two (2) times his annual base salary and target bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; accelerated vesting of the restricted stock award granted upon commencement of his employment; and reimbursement for the difference between his COBRA premium for himself and his dependents and the monthly premium amount paid by similarly situated active employees for a period not to exceed eighteen (18) months after termination.

In the event that it is determined that any of the payments or benefits described above or any other payments would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, then such payments will be reduced until no amount payable to the executive officer will be subject to such excise tax.

Protection Agreements. Western Alliance has also entered into protection agreements with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. In addition to certain non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, and confidentiality restrictions, the protection agreements provide that, if Western Alliance terminates the executive officer's service or the executive officer terminates for "good reason" (as defined in the protection agreement) between the third and fifth anniversary of the effective time of the merger (with certain exclusions), Western Alliance shall provide the applicable executive officer with salary continuation payments equal to the executive officer's base salary from the executive officer's date of termination to the fifth anniversary of the effective time of the merger and shall accelerate the vesting of the executive officer's restricted stock awards that are otherwise scheduled to vest on the fifth anniversary of the effective time.

Cash-Out of Previous Employment Agreements. In addition to the new executive employment agreements and protection agreements described above, Mr. Myers, Mr. Sa, Mr. Boothe, Margaret M. Bradshaw (the Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer of Bridge Capital), and Allen G. Williams (the Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer of Bridge Capital) are each party to employment agreements previously entered into with Bridge Capital and Bridge Bank.

In connection with the merger, Bridge Capital will pay Messrs. Myers, Sa, Boothe, and Williams, and Ms. Bradshaw a lump sum cash payment representing the amount he or she would receive if he or she was terminated in connection with a change in control under the employment agreement with Bridge Capital and Bridge Bank, and in return each executive officer will execute a release of any future rights or claims to any change in control or severance payments under such employment agreements. See the table below for the cash-out amounts to be paid to each executive officer.

Name	Total

The amounts disclosed above are gross amounts which do not take into account the effect, if any, of the provision in the previous employment agreement of each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe, which provides that in the event that it is determined that any of the payments or benefits provided pursuant to the previous employment agreement or any other payments would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, then such payments will be reduced until no amount payable to the executive officer will be subject to such excise tax.

Accelerated Vesting and Payment of Equity Compensation

Stock Options. Immediately prior to the merger, each holder of an outstanding, unexercised stock option that is vested or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the merger may elect to exercise the stock option in accordance with the terms of the stock option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration consisting of Western Alliance stock and cash. At the effective time of the merger, if an exercise election is not made for an outstanding, unexercised vested stock option, the stock option shall be cancelled in exchange for a payment equal to (i) the excess of the (A) the closing price (calculated as the sum of (1) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (2) $2.39) over (B) the exercise price per share of such stock option, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such stock option. If the exercise price of an outstanding, unexercised vested stock option for which an election is not made exceeds the closing price per share and for all outstanding unvested stock options, such stock option will be converted automatically into an adjusted stock option with respect to Western Alliance common stock that is subject to the same terms and conditions as a Bridge Capital stock option. The adjusted stock option will represent a right to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock equal to (i) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such stock option, multiplied by (ii) 0.905, the exchange ratio, and will have an exercise price per share equal to (A) the exercise price per share for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such stock option, divided by (B) 0.905, the exchange ratio. See the Section titled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Bridge Capital Stock Options beginning on page 80.

Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the merger, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and vested or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the merger will become a vested right to receive the merger consideration consisting of Western Alliance common stock and cash. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the merger will be automatically converted into an adjusted restricted share of Western Alliance common stock subject to substantially the same terms and conditions as the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock. The number of adjusted restricted shares of Western Alliance common stock will equal (i) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such restricted stock, multiplied by (ii) 0.905, the exchange ratio. See the Section titled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Bridge Capital Restricted Stock beginning on page 81.

In connection with the merger agreement, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital has determined to accelerate vesting of all outstanding unvested stock options and unvested restricted stock, subject to completion of the merger, for each of the individuals listed in the following table. The table sets forth, for each of Bridge Capital's directors and executive officers holding Bridge Capital stock options and restricted stock as of May 11, 2015, (i) the number of vested in-the-money stock options, vested out-of-the-money stock options, and unvested stock options that will vest in connection with the completion of the merger and (ii) the number of shares of restricted stock that will vest in connection with the completion of the merger that such director or executive officer holds.

Deferred Compensation Plans

Bridge Bank sponsors the Bridge Bank Deferred Compensation Plan, effective June 15, 2010, in which each of Mr. Williams and Ms. Bradshaw participates. The plan allows participants to defer compensation and Bridge Capital to make discretionary contributions on such participants' behalf. For those portions of participant account balances that are fully vested, Bridge Capital's contributions are only subject to forfeiture upon a participant's termination for cause. If the employment of an executive officer who participates in the plan is terminated (other than for death or disability) within two (2) years of a change in control, such as the merger, he or she becomes entitled to an immediate lump sum distribution of his or her account balance, despite any other existing elections as to the timing of such payments.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan Agreements

Bridge Bank has also entered into certain Executive Supplemental Retirement Plan Executive Agreements (SERP agreements) with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. Pursuant to the terms of the SERP agreements, if the executive officer's service is terminated by Bridge Bank or by the executive officer for good reason (as defined in the SERP agreements) within twenty-four (24) months following a change in control, such as the merger, the executive officer is entitled to full vesting of the normal benefit under the SERP agreement, and such SERP benefits will be made in installment payments commencing on the first business day of January of the year following the executive officer's attainment of age 55 or, if the executive officer is already age 55 as of such termination of employment, on the first business day of January of the year following the executive officer's termination of employment.

Golden Parachute Compensation for Bridge Capital's Named Executive Officers

The following table sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC, regarding certain compensation which each of Bridge Capital's named executive officers may receive that is based on or that otherwise relates to the merger. The merger-related compensation payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of Bridge Capital's shareholders, as described under "The Bridge Capital Proposals" Proposal 2: Advisory Approval of Certain Compensatory Arrangements beginning on page 43. For additional details regarding the terms of the amounts described below, see the discussion under "Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours."

Please note that the amounts indicated below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including assumptions described below, and do not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur before the completion of the merger. For purposes of the disclosures required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K and calculating the amounts below, Bridge Capital has assumed that: (i) the effective date of the merger and the bank merger is December 31, 2015 (the latest practicable date), although there is no assurance that the merger or the bank merger will occur on such date or at all and (ii) each executive officer will experience a qualifying termination of employment on such date.

- (1) Cash: In accordance with the cash-out of the existing employment agreements described above, each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, Boothe, Williams, and Ms. Bradshaw will receive a lump sum cash payment representing the amount he or she would have received upon a qualifying termination of employment within the period of eighteen (18) to thirty (30) months, depending on the executive officer, following a change in control under the employment agreement. This cash amount is single trigger for purposes of Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K.

- (2) Equity: The amounts in this column reflect the value of the accelerated vesting of the executive officers' unvested stock options and restricted stock that will occur at the effective time of the merger and the value of payments made in cancellation of vested in-the-money stock options and restricted stock. The amounts in this column do not include the value associated with vested out-of-the-money stock options, unvested stock options, and unvested restricted stock that are being assumed and adjusted in connection with the merger. Support Agreements

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, each of the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital, and Carpenter Fund Manager, GP, LLC, who in the aggregate currently own approximately 37.39% of Bridge Capital's common stock, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge Capital, entered into a support agreement with Western Alliance pursuant to which such shareholder, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, agreed to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and against any alternative business combination transaction. None of the shareholders were paid additional consideration in connection with the execution of such agreement. A copy of the form of support agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement requires Western Alliance to purchase an extended reporting period endorsement or a tail policy for the benefit of Bridge Capital's current and former officers and directors who are, as of the date of the merger agreement, individually covered by a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time which were committed by such officers and directors in their capacity as such. The policy is required to provide such coverage for an aggregate period of not less than six years following the effective time, on terms and in an aggregate amount not less favorable than those of the policy in effect on the date of the merger agreement. However, Western Alliance is not required to expend, in the aggregate, an amount equal to more than 200% of the current annual premiums expended by Bridge Capital to maintain or procure such coverage.

Dissenters Rights

The holders of Bridge Capital common stock, will be given the opportunity to exercise dissenters rights in accordance with certain procedures specified in California Corporations Code Sections 1300, et. seq. Please note that the description below discusses only the material terms and requirements of the law relating to dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Sections 1300 through 1304 of the California Corporations Code, which sections are attached hereto as Appendix B.

Holders of Bridge Capital common stock who do not vote in favor of the merger may demand, in accordance with California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304, that Bridge Capital acquire such holder's shares for cash at fair market value as of March 6, 2015, which is the day before the first announcement of the terms of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the merger. In order to exercise dissenters' rights under California law, a Bridge Capital shareholder must either: (i) vote AGAINST the merger; (ii) abstain from voting on the merger proposal; or (iii) not return a proxy.

Submit a Written Demand

In order to exercise dissenters' rights, a Bridge Capital shareholder must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must make a written demand that Bridge Capital purchase his or her shares in cash for the fair market value of such shares and have the demand received by Bridge Capital within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein is mailed to the shareholder. The written demand must state the number of shares held of record by such Bridge Capital shareholder for which demand for purchase for cash is being made and must contain a statement of the amount which such Bridge Capital shareholder claims to be the fair market value of the shares as of March 6, 2015, the day before the first public announcement of the merger. That statement will constitute an offer by the Bridge Capital shareholder to sell his or her shares to Bridge Capital at that price. Once submitted, a Bridge Capital shareholder may not withdraw such demand unless Bridge Capital consents thereto.

Surrender Stock Certificates

Thereafter, in order to perfect dissenters' rights, a Bridge Capital shareholder must deliver his or her share certificate(s) for receipt by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, within 30 days after the date on which notice of the closing of the merger was mailed. American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC will stamp or endorse the certificate(s) with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares and return the certificate(s) to such Bridge Capital shareholder.

Any demands, notices, certificates or other documents delivered to Bridge Capital should be sent to Bridge Capital, Attention: Thomas A. Sa, Chief Financial Officer.

Determination of Value of Bridge Capital Common Stock

The purchase price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock that dissent from the merger agreement will be the fair market value for such shares as of March 6, 2015, the day before the first public announcement of the merger. If there is a disagreement between the shareholder and Bridge Capital regarding the proposed purchase price or if Bridge Capital denies that such shares constitute dissenting shares, the shareholder and Bridge Capital each have the right, for six (6) months following the date on which notice of the closing of the merger was mailed, to file a lawsuit to have the fair market value determined by a court or to determine whether such shares are dissenting shares or both, as the case may be.

Tax Considerations

If you elect to exercise your appraisal rights, the payment in cash of the fair value of your shares of Bridge Capital common stock will be a taxable transaction to you. Shareholders considering exercising dissenters' rights should consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the tax consequences of such actions.

The foregoing summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the procedures for exercising dissenters' rights under California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304, and is qualified in its entirety.

Table of Contents

by reference to the full text of Sections 1300 through 1304, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. Bridge Capital urges any shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters' rights, if any, to read California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304 carefully, and to consult legal counsel before attempting to exercise appraisal rights. Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304 may result in the loss of your statutory dissenters' rights, if any.

Accounting Treatment

The merger, if completed, will be treated as a purchase by Western Alliance of Bridge Capital for accounting purposes. Accordingly, under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, the assets and liabilities of Bridge Capital will be recorded on the books of Western Alliance at their respective fair values at the time of the consummation of the merger. Any goodwill and other intangibles resulting from the merger will not be considered for regulatory capital purposes.

Regulatory Approvals

For the merger of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital to take place, Western Alliance must receive approval from the Federal Reserve Board, or the FRB. For the bank merger to take place, we must receive approvals from the FRB and the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions, or the ADFI, and Bridge Bank must provide notice to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or OCC, of the proposed termination of Bridge Bank's status as a national bank following the merger. Such notice has been provided to the OCC. In this section, we refer to these approvals as the required regulatory approvals. Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have agreed to cooperate to obtain the required regulatory approvals.

Western Alliance Bank filed with the FRB an application for approval of the merger of Bridge Bank into Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank surviving. We refer to that merger in this section as the bank merger. The bank merger is subject to the approval of the FRB under the Bank Merger Act and related FRB regulations. This filing requires consideration by the FRB of various factors, including assessments of the competitive effect of the contemplated transaction, the managerial and financial resources and future prospects of the resulting institution, the effectiveness of the institutions involved in combating money laundering, the risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system posed by the contemplated transaction, and the effect of the contemplated transaction on the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, or the CRA, also requires that the FRB, in deciding whether to approve the bank merger, assess the records of performance of Western Alliance Bank and Bridge Bank in meeting the credit and other needs of the communities they serve, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods. Western Alliance Bank currently has a satisfactory CRA rating. Bridge Bank currently has a satisfactory CRA rating. FRB regulations require publication of notice and an opportunity for public comment concerning the application filed in connection with the bank merger, and authorize the FRB to hold informal or formal hearings or meetings in connection with the application to elicit information, clarify factual issues related to the application, and provide an opportunity for interested individuals to provide testimony if the FRB, after reviewing the application or other materials, determines that such a proceeding appears appropriate. It is not unusual for the FRB to receive protests and other adverse comments on merger applications from community groups and others. The bank merger may not take place for a period of 15 to 30 days following FRB approval, during which time the Department of Justice has the authority to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The FRB will determine the precise length of the waiting period in consultation with the Department of Justice. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of any approval granted by the FRB unless a court specifically orders otherwise. If the Department of Justice does not start a legal action during the waiting period, it may not challenge the transaction afterward, except in an action under Section 2 of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

Application has been made to the ADFI in order to effect both the merger of Bridge Capital into Western Alliance and the bank merger. This application is subject to the review of the ADFI under Title 6 of the Arizona

Revised Statutes. In determining whether to approve the merger of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, the Superintendent of the ADFI, or the Superintendent, considers all the facts presented, including Western Alliance's subsidiary depository institutions' records of compliance with the CRA. In addition, the Superintendent also considers the effect of the proposal on Western Alliance and the banks that it and Bridge Capital control, as well as the effect of the merger on competition in banking.

Western Alliance filed with the FRB an application under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, for approval of the merger of Bridge Capital with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance surviving. In processing this application, the FRB evaluates the proposed transaction under similar standards and procedures as those set forth above for the Bank Merger Act filing. This filing is subject to a Department of Justice antitrust review period.

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital are not aware of any other material governmental approvals that are required for the merger to take place that are not described above. If any other approval or action is required, we expect that we would seek the approval or take the necessary action.

On May 21, 2015, the FRB approved Western Alliance's application for approval of the merger and the bank merger. In addition, the ADFI granted approval of the bank merger on May 19, 2015. We believe that no further regulatory approvals are required.

Delisting and Deregistration of Bridge Capital Common Stock after the Merger

When the merger is completed, the Bridge Capital common stock currently listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market will be delisted from the NASDAQ Capital Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following summary describes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Bridge Capital's common stock. The following summary is based upon the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published administrative interpretations and court decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, or federal laws that may be applicable to specific individual circumstances, such as the potential application of alternative minimum taxes, are not addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. holder" to mean a beneficial owner which is:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion addresses only those holders of Bridge Capital common stock that hold their Bridge Capital common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of Bridge Capital common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of Bridge Capital common stock that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

investors in pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons that hold Bridge Capital common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

mutual funds;

retirement plans or accounts;

cooperatives;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

certain former U.S. citizens or long-term residents;

holders who hold their shares of Bridge Capital through a tax qualified retirement plan;

holders of Bridge Capital common stock who exercise dissenters' rights;

Table of Contents

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States; and holders who acquired their shares of Bridge Capital common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Bridge Capital common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign or other tax laws and potential changes in those laws.

Tax Opinions

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Western Alliance has received an opinion, dated April 21, 2015, from Hogan Lovells US LLP and Bridge Capital has received an opinion, dated May 18, 2015, from Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. The tax opinions received by Western Alliance and Bridge Capital are based on certain representations, covenants, and assumptions, as described below. It is also a condition to the obligation of each of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital to complete the merger that their respective tax counsel confirm its opinion as of the closing date of the merger. Neither Western Alliance nor Bridge Capital intends to waive this condition.

In rendering their respective opinions regarding the merger, tax counsel to Western Alliance and to Bridge Capital have each relied upon on (1) representations and covenants made by Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, including those contained in the merger agreement and in certificates of officers of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, and (2) specified assumptions, including an assumption that the merger will be completed in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement. If any of the representations, covenants, or assumptions relied upon by tax counsel is inaccurate, tax counsel may not be able to provide the required closing date opinions or the tax consequences of the merger could differ from those described below. An opinion of counsel neither binds the Internal Revenue Service, the IRS, nor precludes the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position. Neither Western Alliance nor Bridge Capital intends to obtain a ruling from the IRS regarding the tax consequences of the merger.

General Tax Consequences of the Merger

Based on the tax opinions described above under Tax Opinions, the merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Accordingly, the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger are as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by Western Alliance or Bridge Capital as a result of the merger;

except with respect to a U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Western Alliance common stock as set forth below, gain (but not loss) will be recognized by U.S. holders of Bridge Capital common stock who receive Western Alliance common stock and cash in exchange for Bridge Capital common stock pursuant to the merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Western Alliance common stock and cash received by a U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its Bridge Capital common stock and (2) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock;

the aggregate basis of the Western Alliance common stock received by a U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock in the merger (including fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Bridge Capital common stock for which it is exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (other than cash received instead of fractional shares), and increased by the amount of gain recognized on the exchange, other than with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as dividend income, as discussed below under Additional Considerations Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend);

the holding period of Western Alliance common stock received in exchange for shares of Bridge Capital common stock (including fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the Bridge Capital common stock for which it is exchanged; and a U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Western Alliance common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by Western Alliance. As a result, such U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above.

U.S. holders that acquired different blocks of Bridge Capital common stock at different times or at different prices should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them in light of their particular circumstances.

Taxation of Capital Gain

Except as described under Additional Considerations Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend below, gain that U.S. holders of Bridge Capital common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such U.S. holders have held (or are treated as having held) their Bridge Capital common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. For U.S. holders of Bridge Capital common stock that are non-corporate holders, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a reduced U.S. federal income tax rate. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Additional Considerations Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend

All or part of the gain that a particular U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock recognizes could be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain if (1) such U.S. holder is a significant shareholder of Western Alliance or (2) such U.S. holder's percentage ownership, taking into account constructive ownership rules, in Western Alliance after the merger is not meaningfully reduced from what its percentage ownership would have been if it had received solely stock consideration rather than a combination of cash consideration and stock consideration in the merger. This could happen, for example, because of ownership of additional shares of Western Alliance common stock by such holder, ownership of shares of Western Alliance common stock by a person related to such holder or a share repurchase by Western Alliance from other holders of Western Alliance common stock. The Internal Revenue Service has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon the particular circumstances of a holder of Bridge Capital common stock, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, holders of Bridge Capital common stock should consult their own tax advisor regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to them, including the effects of U.S. federal, state or local, or foreign or other tax laws.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

A U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock who receives Western Alliance common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Bridge Capital common stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a significant holder that receives Western Alliance common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return setting forth such holder's basis in the Bridge Capital common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the Western Alliance common stock and cash received in the merger. A significant holder is a holder of Bridge Capital common stock, who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of Bridge Capital.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 9, 2015, by and between Western Alliance Bancorporation and Bridge Capital Holdings, or the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and which we incorporate by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. Therefore, we recommend that you read carefully the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A in its entirety, as the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance continuing as the surviving entity following the merger. In addition, Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have agreed to merge Bridge Bank with and into Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank continuing as the surviving bank, which we refer to as the bank merger. The merger agreement provides that Western Alliance may, if necessary for regulatory or other reasonable business or tax reasons, change the structure of the bank merger as long as such change does not alter the kind or amount of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, impede or materially delay consummation of the merger, or materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required regulatory approvals or adversely affect the tax treatment of Bridge Capital's shareholders as a result of receiving the merger consideration. It is the current intention of Western Alliance that, from and after the effective time, Western Alliance will continue to use the Bridge Bank name across Bridge Bank's product lines as part of the Western Alliance franchise in the San Francisco Bay Area and at existing Bridge Bank offices outside of California.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio, and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization.

Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization, the aggregate merger consideration to be issued or paid by Western Alliance will not exceed 12,494,704 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $36,663,403 of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that is issued, from and after March 9, 2015, and prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Capital stock options and the vesting of Bridge Capital restricted stock, either (i) outstanding as of March 9, 2015, other than any Bridge Capital restricted stock that vests pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement or (ii) granted or issued after March 9, 2015, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate merger consideration will be increased by 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. If the total merger consideration exceeds the amount set forth in the previous sentence (including any cash paid in connection with the cancellation of outstanding vested and unexercised stock options for which the option holders have not made an exercise election and after giving effect to dissenting shares as if they had been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration), then the total merger consideration shall be reduced on a pro rata basis to the aggregate amount set forth in the preceding sentence.

Bridge Capital Stock Options. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Bridge Capital Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration. At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Fractions of Shares. Certificates for fractions of shares of Western Alliance's common stock will not be issued or book entries representing fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock made. Instead of a fractional share of Western Alliance's common stock, a Bridge Capital shareholder will be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the fractional share interest to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by (B) the 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time closing sales price of Western Alliance common stock reported on the NYSE composite tape for the trading day immediately preceding the closing date for the merger.

Conversion. The conversion of Bridge Capital's common stock into the merger consideration will occur automatically upon completion of the merger. Under the merger agreement, after the effective time, Western Alliance will cause its exchange agent to pay the purchase price to each Bridge Capital shareholder who surrenders the appropriate documents to the exchange agent. In this document, we use the term purchase price to refer to the (i) shares of Western Alliance's common stock, (ii) cash and (iii) any cash to be paid instead of a fraction of a share of Western Alliance common stock, payable to each holder of Bridge Capital's common stock.

Potential Adjustment to the Merger Consideration

If either of the parties' legal counsel cannot render an opinion that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code (as reasonably determined, in each case, by the counsel charged with giving such opinion) as a result of the merger potentially failing to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, then Western Alliance shall reduce the cash consideration (and increase the stock consideration accordingly) to the minimum extent necessary to enable the relevant tax opinions to be rendered. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights.

Surrender of Stock Certificates

Western Alliance will deposit with the exchange agent the certificates (which may be in electronic form) representing Western Alliance's common stock and cash to be issued to Bridge Capital shareholders in exchange for Bridge Capital's common stock. As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to Bridge Capital shareholders a letter of transmittal, together with instructions for the exchange of their Bridge Capital stock certificates for the merger consideration. Upon surrendering his or her certificate(s) representing shares of Bridge Capital's common stock, together with the signed letter of transmittal, the Bridge Capital shareholder shall be entitled to receive, as applicable (i) certificate(s) representing a number of whole shares of Western Alliance's common stock determined in accordance with the exchange ratio, (ii) a check representing the amount of cash to which such holder shall have become entitled to, and (iii) a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares. You will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the merger with respect to any Western Alliance common stock into which your shares have been converted until you surrender your Bridge Capital stock certificates for exchange. No interest will be paid or accrue to Bridge Capital shareholders on the cash consideration, cash instead of fractional shares or unpaid dividends and distributions, if any. After the effective time, there will be no further transfers of the Bridge Capital common stock. Bridge Capital stock certificates presented for transfer after the completion of the merger will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

If your stock certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, you will have to prove your ownership of these certificates and certify that they were lost, stolen or destroyed, and post any bond reasonably required by Western Alliance, before you receive any consideration for your shares. Upon request, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC will send you instructions on how to provide evidence of ownership.

If any certificate representing shares of Western Alliance's common stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate for shares surrendered in exchange is registered, or cash is to be paid to a person other than the registered holder, it will be a condition of issuance or payment that the certificate so surrendered be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting the exchange either:

inform the exchange agent whether any transfer or other taxes are required by reason of the issuance of a certificate or payment to a person other than the registered holder of the certificate surrendered; or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the exchange agent that the tax has been paid or is not payable.

Any portion of the purchase price made available to the exchange agent that remains unclaimed by Bridge Capital shareholders for six months after the effective time will be returned to Western Alliance. Any Bridge Capital shareholder who has not exchanged shares of Bridge Capital's common stock for the purchase price in accordance with the merger agreement before that time may look only to Western Alliance for payment of the purchase price for these shares, cash in lieu of fractional shares and any unpaid dividends or distributions after that time. In any event, Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, the exchange agent or any other person will not be liable to any Bridge Capital shareholder for any amount properly delivered to a public official under applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Election Procedures for Holders of Bridge Capital Options

If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that have vested or will vest coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. The exercise election deadline will be 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. To make an election, a holder must submit a completed election form and return it so that the form is actually received by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC at or before the exercise election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. If you do not make a valid exercise election at or before the exercise deadline, at the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which you have not made an exercise election will be cancelled and, in exchange for such cancellation, you will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

Conditions to the Merger

all required regulatory approvals are obtained and remain in full force and effect, all statutory or regulatory waiting periods related to these approvals have expired, and none of the regulatory approvals or statutory waiting periods shall have resulted in the imposition of any burdensome condition in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or with respect to the business or operations of Western Alliance;

the registration statement to be filed with the SEC to register the shares of Western Alliance common stock to be issued in the merger is declared effective by the SEC, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement is issued or remain in effect and no proceedings for that purpose are initiated or threatened by the SEC, the basis for which still exists; and no order, injunction or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement from taking place is in effect, and no statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree is enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits, restricts or makes illegal the consummation of the merger.

the representations and warranties of Bridge Capital contained in the merger agreement are true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date) as of the closing date of the merger as though made on and as of the closing date, except where the failure to be so true and correct has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to result in, a material adverse effect on Bridge Capital;

Bridge Capital performs in all material respects all covenants and agreements contained in the merger agreement to be performed by Bridge Capital at or prior to the closing date;

Bridge Capital obtains the consents, approvals or waivers of each person whose consent or approval is required in order to permit the succession by Western Alliance and Western Alliance Bank pursuant to the merger to any obligation, right or interest of Bridge Capital or Bridge Bank under any loan or credit agreement, note, mortgage, indenture, lease, license or other agreement or instrument, except for the failure of which to obtain would not have a material adverse effect on Bridge Capital, Western Alliance, Bridge Bank or Western Alliance Bank, as the case may be;

no changes, other than changes contemplated by the merger agreement, in the business, operations, condition (financial or otherwise), assets or liabilities of Bridge Capital or any Bridge Capital subsidiary (regardless of whether or not such events or changes are inconsistent with the representations and warranties given in the merger agreement) occur that individually or in the aggregate have or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Bridge Capital;

Bridge Capital receives an opinion from its own counsel that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Conduct of Bridge Capital Business Pending the Merger

The merger agreement contains various restrictions on the operations of Bridge Capital before the effective time. In general, the merger agreement obligates Bridge Capital to continue to carry on its businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practices and with prudent banking practices, with specific limitations on the

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. BASIS OF PRO FORMA PRESENTATION

The unaudited pro forma combined consolidated financial information related to the merger includes the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2015, which assumes that the merger was completed on March 31, 2015. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated income for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 were prepared assuming that the merger was completed January 1, 2014. For the purpose of the pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial statements the purchase price consideration is currently estimated at approximately $449.0 million, which is based on consideration of $44.5 million in net cash due at closing and $404.5 million of stock consideration.

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition of Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, by Western Alliance in accordance with the acquisition method of accounting. The acquisition method of accounting requires an acquirer to recognize the assets acquired, and the liabilities assumed to be based on their fair values as of the date of acquisition. Goodwill will be recognized as of the acquisition date in the amount equal to the excess of the consideration transferred over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired. Based on Western Alliance's preliminary purchase allocation, goodwill of $238.9 million is currently expected to be recorded by Western Alliance in the period the merger is completed. Upon closing, the final goodwill will be adjusted for the difference in the stock price at closing and the results from a detailed valuation analysis of the net assets acquired.

As the merger is recorded using the acquisition method of accounting, all loans of Bridge Capital are recorded at fair value, including adjustments for credit and market yield, and no allowance for credit losses is carried over to Western Alliance's balance sheet. In addition, certain anticipated nonrecurring merger transaction costs associated with the merger, such as investment banking fees, change in control severance costs, accounting and legal fees, transfer agent fees, proxy solicitation costs and other related expenditures are discussed in Note D, which are excluded from the pro forma condensed income statements as the timing and amount of such adjustments are not yet known.

The future estimated merger and transaction cost for Western Alliance associated with the acquisition is estimated at approximately $19.5 million pre-tax and $12.2 million after tax, see footnote A.

2. Preliminary Purchase Accounting Allocations

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information for the merger includes unaudited pro forma combined condensed balance sheet as of March 31, 2015 assuming the merger was completed on March 31, 2015. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated income statements for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 were prepared assuming the merger was completed on January 1, 2014.

Net Assets (Equity capital less fair value adjustments)	210,047
Total consideration paid to Bridge Capital shareholders ⁽¹⁾	448,969
Goodwill	$ 238,922(D)

- (1) Total purchase price consideration of $449.0 million includes $44.5 million of net cash due at closing and $404.5 million of stock consideration. Components used to measure stock consideration are the number of Western Alliance shares issued at the May 13, 2015 closing price of $31.83, net of adjustments for replacement stock-based awards. A one dollar increase or decrease to the stock price will increase or decrease goodwill by approximately $12.71 million.

3. Preliminary Pro Forma Adjustments

- A. Adjustments to cash include the following:

Cash account Pro Forma Adjustment Schedule at March 31, 2015
Cash portion of purchase consideration on eligible shares	$ 36,676
Cash to be paid on vested stock options	7,765
WAL merger costs, net of tax	12,200
Cash pro forma adjusting entry	$ 56,641

The estimated transaction costs related to the merger are approximately $12.2 million, net of tax. Some of the merger costs are not tax deductible. The deductibility of such costs is estimated in the table below, but will be finalized and determined subsequent to the completion of the merger. For purposes of the pro forma presentation, the aggregate amount of these merger related costs are excluded from the pro forma condensed income statement, as consistent with applicable regulatory guidance.

Merger Transaction Costs Schedule
Salaries and employee benefits	$ 9,200
Other non-interest expense	10,300
Total non-interest expense	19,500
Tax benefit	7,300
Net expense after tax benefit	$ 12,200

The plan to integrate the operations of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital following the merger is still being developed. The specific details of the plan will continue to be refined over the next several months, and will include assessments of the personnel, benefit plans, premises and equipment and contracts to determine the extent of redundancies that may be eliminated. Certain decisions arising from these assessments may involve involuntary terminations of employees, vacating leased premises, changing information systems, canceling contracts with service providers and selling or disposing of certain furniture and equipment. Also included are additional integration costs consisting of costs related to incremental communication costs to customers and business partners, among others. Costs associated with these actions will ultimately be recorded based on the nature of the cost and timing of the integration actions.

- B. The fair value of the loan portfolio being acquired from Bridge Capital is estimated by Western Alliance to be less than book value. Based on management's judgment, Western Alliance applied an approximate discount of $20.0 million to Bridge Capital's gross loan portfolio to estimate the fair value adjustment at March 31, 2015. The adjustment reflects Western Alliance's estimates of both market rate differential and the potential adjustments required by ASC 310-30, Receivables, Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality. The accretion for the three months ended March 31, 2015 is estimated to be approximately $2.8 million and for the year ended December 31, 2014 is estimated to be approximately $11.0 million.
- C. Pursuant to applicable accounting guidance, the acquired loans are recorded at fair value at the acquisition date and there is no carryover of Bridge Capital's allowance for credit losses of $22.6 million at March 31, 2015.
- D. The goodwill pro forma adjustment reflects the excess of the consideration transferred over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired.
- E. Adjustments to other intangible assets include a core deposit intangible of approximately $15.0 million. A core deposit intangible arises from a financial institution having a deposit base comprised of funds associated with stable customer relationships. These customer relationships provide a cost benefit to the acquiring institution since the associated customer deposits typically are at lower interest rates and can be expected to be retained on a long-term basis. This amount reflects management's estimate of the market premium associated with these core deposits. The core deposit intangible is expected to be amortized over a period of 10 years. The amortization of core deposit intangibles is estimated at approximately $0.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and $1.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2014.
- F. Adjustment relates to the deferred tax liability associated with the fair market value adjustments, offset by deferred tax asset components related to restricted shares included in total stock consideration.
- G. Adjustment reflects the estimated fair market value adjustment on junior subordinated debt. The accretion of junior subordinated debt is estimated at approximately $0.1 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and $0.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2014.
- H. The following is a summary of the transaction reflecting in the Capital account adjustments:

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of March 9, 2015 (this Agreement), is entered into by and between Western Alliance Bancorporation (WAL), a Delaware corporation, and Bridge Capital Holdings, a California corporation (Bridge).

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of WAL and Bridge have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and stockholders to consummate the business combination transaction provided for herein in which WAL will acquire Bridge through the merger of Bridge with and into WAL, with WAL surviving (the Merger);

WHEREAS, contemporaneous with the execution of this Agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of Bridge, and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge, have executed an agreement with WAL containing certain covenants, without which covenants WAL would not have agreed to the Merger (the Support Agreements);

WHEREAS, contemporaneous with the execution of this Agreement, each of Daniel P. Myers, Thomas A. Sa and Timothy W. Boothe and certain other executive officers and employees of Bridge have executed an agreement which reflects the terms of such person's continuing employment with WAL, the effectiveness of which is subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time (the Employment Agreements);

WHEREAS, contemporaneous with the execution of this Agreement, certain executive officers of Bridge have executed a protection agreement, the effectiveness of which is subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time (the Protection Agreements);

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger; and

WHEREAS, unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms shall have the meanings set forth in Section 9.13;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) and the California Corporations Code (the CCC), at the Effective Time, Bridge will merge into WAL, with WAL being the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes called the Surviving Corporation) in the Merger. Upon consummation of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Bridge shall cease.

1.2 Effective Time. The Merger shall become effective on the date and at the time specified in the Certificate of Merger as filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the DE Certificate of Merger) and the Agreement of Merger, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, as filed with the Secretary of State of the State of California (the CA Agreement of Merger), as applicable. The term Effective Time shall be the date and time when the Merger becomes effective as set forth in the DE Certificate of Merger and the CA Agreement of Merger.

1.3 Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in the DGCL and the CCC.

1.4 Conversion of Bridge Common Stock.

A-1

Table of Contents

(a) At the Effective Time, subject to Sections 1.4(b), 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) and Section 1.5, each share of Bridge common stock, no par value per share (Bridge Common Stock), issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time (excluding Dissenters Shares and all unvested shares of Bridge Restricted Stock but, for the avoidance of doubt, including any associated rights to purchase capital stock of Bridge issued pursuant to the Rights Agreement, and any shares of Bridge Common Stock issued as of the Effective Time by reason of the exercise of options to acquire Bridge Common Stock) shall be converted into the right to receive, without interest, (i) 0.8145 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of WAL (WAL Common Stock) (the Stock Consideration) and (ii) $2.39 in cash (the Cash Consideration) (the consideration described in clauses (i) and (ii) and the Cash Out Amount (defined below), the Merger Consideration).

(b) No Dissenters Shares shall be converted into the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Section 1.4, but instead shall be treated in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 2.3(a).

(c) At the Effective Time, all shares of Bridge Common Stock that are owned by Bridge as treasury stock and all shares of Bridge Common Stock that are owned directly or indirectly by WAL or Bridge, including any shares of Bridge Common Stock held by WAL or Bridge or any of their respective Subsidiaries in respect of a debt previously contracted, other than shares that are held by WAL, if any, in a fiduciary capacity, shall be canceled and shall cease to exist and no cash or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor. All shares of WAL Common Stock that are owned by Bridge shall become treasury stock of WAL.

(d) Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the Exchange Ratio pursuant to Section 2.2 of this Agreement and as provided in Section 1.9(b) of this Agreement, the aggregate Merger Consideration to be issued or paid shall not exceed 12,494,704 shares of WAL Common Stock and $36,663,403 of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Common Stock that is issued, from and after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Stock Options and the vesting of Bridge Restricted Stock, either (i) outstanding as of the date hereof other than any Bridge Restricted Stock that vests pursuant to the agreements set forth on schedule 1.5 of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule or (ii) granted or issued after the date hereof pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the maximum aggregate Merger Consideration referred to in this subsection shall be increased by 0.8145 shares of WAL Common Stock and $2.39 in cash. In the event that the foregoing clauses of this Section 1.4 result in more total Merger Consideration than specified in the previous sentence, then the total Merger Consideration calculated under Section 1.4(a) (including the Cash Out Amount and giving effect to Dissenting Shares as if they had been converted under Section 1.4(a)) shall be reduced on a pro rata basis to the aggregate amount set forth in this Section 1.4(d).

1.5 Options and Other Stock-Based Awards.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Common Stock granted under the Bridge Stock Plans (defined below) and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with the terms in effect under the agreements and arrangements listed in Section 1.5 of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule (other than any requirement of separation from service) (each, a Bridge Stock Option) may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms thereof (an Exercise Election), contingent on the consummation of the Merger, and shall receive, for any shares of Bridge Common Stock acquired in such election, the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 1.4. In the event of any such Exercise Election, all shares of Bridge Common Stock underlying such exercised options will be deemed to have been issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time for purposes of Section 1.4. If the Merger is not completed, any options for which an Exercise Election has been made will remain outstanding. At the Effective Time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an Exercise Election has not been made shall be canceled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee shall receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess of (A) the Closing Price over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Common Stock subject to such option (in the aggregate, the Cash Out Amount), which cash payment shall be treated as compensation and shall be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the Effective Time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an Exercise Election has not been made the exercise price per share of which exceeds the Closing Price shall be converted automatically into an Adjusted Option (defined below), and shall be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Stock Option in accordance with Section 1.5(b) hereof.

(b) At the Effective Time, each unvested Bridge Stock Option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of WAL Common Stock (each, an Adjusted Option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Common Stock subject to such Bridge Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time and (y) 0.905 (the Equity Award Exchange Ratio), with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each Adjusted Option shall have an exercise price per share of WAL Common Stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Common Stock subject to such Bridge Stock Option divided by (ii) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio. Each Adjusted Option shall otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Stock Option under the applicable Bridge Stock Plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, in all cases, the exercise price of, and the number of shares subject to, each Adjusted Option shall be determined as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, and for any Bridge Stock Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies by reason of its qualification under any of Sections 422 through 424 of the Code, the option price, the number of shares subject to such option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424 of the Code. For purposes of this Agreement, Bridge Stock Plans means the Bridge Bank Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan, as amended, and the Bridge Capital Holdings 2006 Equity Incentive Plan, and any other agreement providing for the grant of options.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Restricted Stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the Effective Time (including any Bridge Restricted Stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with the terms in effect under the agreements and arrangements listed in Section 1.5 of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule (other than any requirement of separation from service)), as of the Effective Time, shall be a vested right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 1.4(a). At the Effective Time, each share of Bridge Restricted Stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into a share of restricted WAL Common Stock (each, an Adjusted Restricted Share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Restricted Stock and (y) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each Adjusted Restricted Share shall otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Restricted Stock under the applicable Bridge Stock Plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

(d) At or prior to the Effective Time, (i) Bridge, the Board of Directors of Bridge and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take all actions that are reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 1.5 and (ii) WAL, the Board of Directors of WAL and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall take such actions as are reasonably necessary for the assumption by WAL of the Adjusted Options, and the Adjusted Restricted Shares. Promptly after the Effective Time, WAL shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-8 registering a number of shares of WAL Common Stock necessary to fulfill WAL's obligations under this Section 1.5 and shall maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement for so long as any Adjusted Options, or Adjusted Restricted Shares remain outstanding.

1.6 Certificate of Incorporation. At the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation of WAL, as in effect at the Effective Time, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation.

A-3

Table of Contents

1.7 Bylaws. At the Effective Time, the bylaws of WAL, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

1.8 Directors and Officers. The directors of WAL immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation, each of whom shall serve in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation; provided, however, that, prior to the Effective Time, all necessary action shall have been taken by WAL in order that, at the first regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors of Surviving Corporation occurring after the Effective Time, WAL shall expand the size of its Board of Directors by two (2) seats in connection with the Merger and designate two (2) members of Bridge's Board of Directors to be named after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time, each of whom meets the qualifications for directors set forth in the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation and is mutually agreed upon by WAL and Bridge prior to the Effective Time, to serve on the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation (the Bridge Director Designees). The Bridge Director Designees shall be appointed to the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation in a manner such that the classes of the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be as nearly equal in number as possible. At the Effective Time, the officers of WAL immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be officers of the Surviving Corporation and, pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, Daniel P. Myers shall become an officer of the Surviving Corporation, and shall serve in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

1.9 Tax Consequences.

(a) It is intended that the Merger shall constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (the Code), and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization for purposes of the Code.

(b) If either the tax opinion referred to in Section 7.2(e) or the tax opinion referred to in Section 7.3(e) cannot be rendered (as reasonably determined, in each case, by the counsel charged with giving such opinion) as a result of the Merger potentially failing to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, then WAL shall reduce the Cash Consideration (and increase the Stock Consideration accordingly) to the minimum extent necessary to enable the relevant tax opinions to be rendered.

1.10 Bank Merger. In connection with the consummation of the Merger, Bridge Bank, National Association, a national banking association chartered under the laws of the United States and a wholly owned subsidiary of Bridge (Bridge Bank), will enter into a merger agreement (the Bank Merger Agreement), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, providing for the merger (the Bank Merger) of Bridge Bank with and into Western Alliance Bank, an Arizona-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of WAL (WAB), with WAB being the surviving bank of the Bank Merger (Surviving Bank).

1.11 Possible Alternative Structures. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, WAL shall be entitled to revise the structure of the Bank Merger, including, without limitation, the possible postponement or elimination thereof, if necessary for regulatory or other reasonable business or Tax reason, provided that (i) there are no adverse federal or state income tax consequences to Bridge shareholders as a result of the modification (including no impact upon the opinions of counsel to be delivered pursuant to Sections 7.2(e) and 7.3(e) of this Agreement); (ii) the consideration to be paid to each holder of record of Bridge Common Stock (other than Dissenters' Shares) (Holder) under this Agreement is not thereby changed in kind or value or reduced in amount as a result of such change in structure; (iii) such modification will not materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required regulatory approvals or other consents and approvals relating to the consummation of the Merger; (iv) such modification will not impede or materially delay consummation of the Merger; and (v) such modification will not otherwise cause any of the conditions set forth in Article VII not to be capable of being fulfilled unless duly waived by the party entitled to the benefits thereof. Each of the parties hereto agrees to appropriately amend this Agreement and any related documents in order to reflect any such revised structure for the Bank Merger.

1.12 Bridge Bank Brand. It is the current intention of WAL that, from and after the Effective Time, WAL will continue to use the Bridge Bank name across Bridge's product lines as part of the WAL franchise in the San Francisco Bay Area and at existing Bridge offices outside of California.

ARTICLE II

EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

2.1 Exchange of Shares.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, WAL will deposit with a bank or trust company designated by WAL (the Exchange Agent) certificates (which may be in electronic form) representing shares of WAL Common Stock (WAL Stock Certificates) sufficient to pay in a timely manner, and WAL shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely pay, the aggregate Stock Consideration. In addition, prior to the Effective Time, WAL shall deposit with the Exchange Agent sufficient cash to permit prompt payment of the Cash Consideration, the cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock and the Cash Out Amount, and WAL shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely pay the Cash Consideration, the cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock and the Cash Out Amount.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, WAL shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each Holder of a Bridge stock certificate(s) which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Bridge Common Stock (Bridge Stock Certificates) whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.4 and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor, (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Bridge Stock Certificate(s) shall pass, only upon delivery of the Bridge Stock Certificate(s) (or affidavits of loss in lieu of such certificates) to the Exchange Agent) and shall be substantially in such form and have such other provisions as shall reasonably be determined by WAL (the Letter of Transmittal), and (ii) instructions for use in surrendering the Bridge Stock Certificate(s) in exchange for the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 2.1(j) and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.1(i).

(c) Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of its Bridge Stock Certificate(s), accompanied by a properly completed Letter of Transmittal, a Holder will be entitled to receive promptly after the Effective Time the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares in respect of the shares of Bridge Common Stock represented by its Bridge Stock Certificate. Until so surrendered, each such Bridge Stock Certificate shall represent after the Effective Time, for all purposes, only the right to receive the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 2.1(j) and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.1(i).

(d) In the case of outstanding shares of Bridge Common Stock that are not represented by Bridge Stock Certificates, the parties shall make such adjustments and take or cause to be taken such actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the same purpose and effect that this Section 2.1 will have with respect to shares of Bridge Common Stock that are represented by Bridge Stock Certificates.

(e) If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name a Bridge Stock Certificate so surrendered is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that such Bridge Stock Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the Person requesting such payment shall inform the Exchange Agent whether any transfer or other similar Taxes are required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Bridge Stock Certificate, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Taxes are not payable. If such transfer or other similar Taxes are payable pursuant to the preceding sentence, then the Exchange Agent shall withhold and deduct from the Merger Consideration (including Stock Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock) otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to the designated Person other than the registered holder such amounts as the Exchange Agent determines is necessary based on the information supplied by the registered holder. The Exchange Agent (or, subsequent to the six-month anniversary of the Effective Time, WAL) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration (including Stock Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock) otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Bridge Common Stock such amounts as the Exchange Agent or WAL, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that any amounts are withheld by the Exchange Agent or WAL, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of shares of Bridge Common Stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Exchange Agent or WAL, as the case may be.

A-5

(f) After the Effective Time there shall be no further registration or transfers of shares of Bridge Common Stock. If, after the Effective Time, Bridge Stock Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article II.

(g) At any time following the six-month anniversary of the Effective Time, WAL shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any remaining portion of the Merger Consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock not distributed to Holders of shares of Bridge Common Stock that was deposited with the Exchange Agent at the Effective Time (the Exchange Fund) (including any interest received with respect thereto and other income resulting from investments by the Exchange Agent, as directed by WAL), and Holders shall be entitled to look only to WAL (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) with respect to the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock and any dividends or other distributions with respect to WAL Common Stock payable upon due surrender of their Bridge Stock Certificates, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither WAL nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any Holder of a Bridge Stock Certificate for Merger Consideration (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash from the Exchange Fund in each case delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(h) In the event any Bridge Stock Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Bridge Stock Certificate(s) to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by WAL or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such sum as WAL may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Bridge Stock Certificate(s), WAL shall cause the Exchange Agent to issue the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect of the shares of Bridge Common Stock represented by such lost, stolen or destroyed Bridge Stock Certificates.

(i) No dividends or other distributions with respect to WAL Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Bridge Stock Certificate with respect to the shares of WAL Common Stock represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to subsection (j) below, and all such dividends, other distributions and cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock shall be paid by WAL to the Exchange Agent and shall be included in the Exchange Fund, in each case until the surrender of such Bridge Stock Certificate in accordance with subsection (c) above. Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws, following surrender of any such Bridge Stock Certificate there shall be paid to the Holder, the Merger Consideration, including a WAL Stock Certificate, or, at WAL's option, evidence of shares of WAL Common Stock in book entry form, for WAL Common Stock representing whole shares of WAL Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of

A-6

Table of Contents

WAL Common Stock and the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of WAL Common Stock to which such Holder is entitled pursuant to subsection (j), and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such whole shares of WAL Common Stock. WAL shall make available to the Exchange Agent cash for these purposes, if necessary.

(j) No WAL Stock Certificates representing fractional shares of WAL Common Stock shall be issued, or book entries representing fractional shares of WAL Common Stock made, upon the surrender for exchange of Bridge Stock Certificates; no dividend or distribution by WAL shall relate to such fractional share interests; and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights as a stockholder of WAL. In lieu of any such fractional shares of WAL Common Stock, each Holder of a Bridge Stock Certificate who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fractional share interest in exchange for such Bridge Stock Certificate shall receive from the Exchange Agent an amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the fractional share interest to which such Holder (after taking into account all shares of Bridge Common Stock held by such holder at the Effective Time) would otherwise be entitled by (B) the Closing WAL Share Value. Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, funds utilized to acquire fractional shares as aforesaid shall be furnished by WAL on a timely basis and shall in no event be derived from or diminish the Cash Consideration available for distribution as part of the Merger Consideration. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the amount of any cash consideration paid pursuant to this Section 2.1(j) in lieu of issuing fractional shares of WAL Common Stock shall be treated as though such fractional share interests were first delivered to affected Holders and then redeemed.

(k) WAL, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, governing (A) the issuance and delivery of WAL Stock Certificates or book entry shares of WAL Common Stock into which shares of Bridge Common Stock are converted in the Merger, and (B) the method of payment of cash for shares of Bridge Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of WAL Common Stock.

2.2 Certain Adjustments. ARTICLE VI

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

6.1 Regulatory Matters.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the date hereof, but not later than forty-five (45) days thereafter, WAL and Bridge shall cooperate in preparing and each shall cause to be filed with the SEC mutually acceptable Proxy Materials which shall constitute the proxy statement-prospectus relating to the matters submitted to the Bridge shareholders at the Special Meeting and WAL shall prepare and file with the SEC the Registration Statement. The proxy statement-prospectus will be included as a prospectus in and will constitute a part of the Registration Statement as WAL's prospectus. WAL shall use reasonable best efforts, and Bridge shall cooperate with WAL, to have the Registration Statement declared effective by the SEC and to keep the Registration Statement effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby. WAL and Bridge shall, as promptly as practicable after receipt thereof, provide the other party copies of any written comments and advise the other party of any oral comments, with respect to the Registration Statement received from the SEC. The parties shall cooperate and provide the other with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any amendment or supplement to the Proxy Materials and the Registration Statement prior to its filing with the SEC, and will provide each other with a copy of all such filings made with the SEC. Notwithstanding any other provision herein to the contrary, no amendment or supplement (including by incorporation by reference) of the Proxy Materials or the Registration Statement shall be made without the approval of both parties, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that with respect to documents filed by a party which are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement or Proxy Materials, this right of approval shall apply only with respect to information relating to the other party or its business, financial condition or results of operations. WAL will use reasonable best efforts to allow Bridge to cause the Proxy Materials to be mailed to Bridge shareholders as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act. Each party will advise the other party, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of the WAL Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC for amendment of the Registration Statement. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to WAL or Bridge, or any of their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by WAL or Bridge, which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any of the Registration Statement or the Proxy Materials so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party hereto and, to the extent required by law, rules or regulations, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and disseminated to the shareholders of Bridge.

(b) The information regarding Bridge and its Subsidiaries to be supplied by Bridge for inclusion in the Registration Statement will not, at the time the Registration Statement becomes effective, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. In connection with the preparation of the Registration Statement, Bridge shall receive a written opinion from Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, counsel to Bridge, dated as of the date on which the Registration Statement is declared effective, to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Such counsel shall be entitled to rely upon representation letters from each of WAL, Bridge and others, in each case, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such counsel. Each such representation letter shall be dated as of the date of such opinion.

(c) The information regarding WAL and its Subsidiaries to be supplied by WAL for inclusion in the Registration Statement will not, at the time the Registration Statement becomes effective, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. In connection with the preparation of the Registration Statement, WAL shall receive a written opinion from Hogan Lovells US LLP, counsel to WAL, dated as of the date on which the Registration Statement is declared effective, to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Such counsel shall be entitled to rely upon representation letters from each of Bridge, WAL and others, in each case, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such counsel. Each such representation letter shall be dated as of the date of such opinion.

(d) WAL also shall take any action (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so qualified or to file a general consent to service of process) required to be taken under any applicable state securities laws in connection with the Merger and each of Bridge and WAL shall furnish all information concerning it and the holders of its Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(e) Prior to the Effective Time, WAL shall use its reasonable best efforts to list on the New York Stock Exchange the additional shares of WAL Common Stock to be issued by WAL in exchange for the shares of Bridge Common Stock.

(f) WAL and Bridge will prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, and to obtain as promptly as practicable all Requisite Regulatory Approvals. Any initial filing with the Governmental Entities shall be made by WAL as soon as reasonably practicable after the execution hereof, but, provided that Bridge has cooperated as described herein, in no event later than forty-five (45) days after the date hereof for the Bank Merger Application required by the FRB. WAL and Bridge shall cooperate with each other to effect the foregoing. Bridge and WAL shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to Bridge or WAL, as the case may be, which appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties hereto agree that they will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to contemplation of the transactions contemplated herein.

(g) WAL and Bridge shall promptly advise each other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement which causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed.

(h) The Board of Directors of Bridge or a committee of Non-Employee Directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act) shall adopt a resolution in advance of the Effective Time providing that the disposition by the officers and directors of Bridge of Bridge Common Stock, options to acquire Bridge Stock, Bridge Restricted Stock or Bridge Restricted Stock Units or other equity securities of Bridge pursuant to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement is intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act.

6.2 Access to Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, Bridge shall accord to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives of WAL, access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments and records and, during such period, Bridge shall make available to WAL (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal securities laws or federal or state banking laws unless prohibited by applicable Law or regulation, and (ii) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as WAL may reasonably request. WAL will hold all such information in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) No investigation by either of the parties or their respective representatives shall relieve any other party from any breach or violation of this Agreement and shall not have any effect for the purposes of determining the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article VII or compliance by Bridge with the covenants set forth in Section 5.1.

(c) Unless prohibited by applicable Law or regulation, Bridge shall provide WAL with true, correct and complete copies of all financial and other information provided to directors of Bridge in connection with meetings of their Boards of Directors or committees thereof; provided, however, that, except as may be expressly required pursuant to the other terms of this Agreement, Bridge shall be under no obligation hereunder to deliver copies of, or otherwise make available to WAL, any information pertaining to the deliberations of the Bridge Board of Directors involving the transactions contemplated hereby (except that Bridge shall provide WAL with access to the board resolutions of Bridge approving the transactions contemplated hereby).

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Bridge shall not be required to deliver to WAL any reports filed by Bridge with the SEC for which WAL may obtain a copy through the SEC's EDGAR filing system.

6.3 Shareholder Meeting.

(a) Bridge shall duly take all lawful action necessary to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders as promptly as practicable and in any event no later than 45 days following the date upon which the Registration Statement becomes effective (the Special Meeting) for the purpose of voting upon the approval of this Agreement and, unless the Bridge Board of Directors has effected a Change in Bridge Recommendation in accordance with Section 6.3(b), shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies for the adoption of this Agreement by such shareholders; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent Bridge from postponing or adjourning the Special Meeting if (x) a quorum is not present at the Special Meeting and Bridge during the period of such postponement or adjournment is using its reasonable best efforts to obtain a quorum, (y) Bridge is so required by applicable Laws, or (z) Bridge's Board of Directors shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that it is necessary to postpone or adjourn the Special Meeting, including in order to give shareholders of Bridge sufficient time to evaluate any information or disclosure that Bridge has sent to its shareholders or otherwise made available to its shareholders. The Board of Directors of Bridge shall recommend adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of Bridge (the Bridge Recommendation) in the Proxy Materials and shall not directly or indirectly withdraw, modify or qualify in any manner adverse to WAL such recommendation (any such action being referred to as a Change in Bridge Recommendation), except as and to the extent expressly permitted by Section 6.3(b). Notwithstanding any Change in Bridge Recommendation, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms (including pursuant to Section 8.1(e) hereof) prior to the Special Meeting, this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of Bridge at the Special Meeting for the purpose of voting on the adoption of this Agreement and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Bridge of such obligation; provided, however, that if the Board of Directors of Bridge shall have effected a Change in Bridge Recommendation, then the Board of Directors of Bridge may submit this Agreement to Bridge's shareholders with a neutral or negative recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Board of Directors of Bridge may communicate the basis for such recommendation to Bridge's shareholders in the Proxy Materials and the Registration Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto or other document to the extent required by applicable Law.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the date of the Special Meeting, Bridge and its Board of Directors shall be permitted to effect a Change in Bridge Recommendation if and only to the extent that:

(i) its Board of Directors, after consultation with its outside counsel, determines in good faith that failure to take such action would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, and

(ii) if Bridge's Board of Directors intends to effect a Change in Bridge Recommendation following and as a result of a Competing Proposal, it has complied in all material respects with Section 6.12, and:

(A) such Competing Proposal did not result from any solicitation in violation of Section 6.12 and Bridge's Board of Directors has concluded in good faith that such Competing Proposal constitutes a Superior Competing Transaction after considering all of the amendments and adjustments offered by WAL pursuant to clause (C) below in a manner that would form a binding contract if accepted by Bridge,

(B) Bridge has notified WAL in writing, at least three (3) Business Days in advance, of its intention to effect a Change in Bridge Recommendation (such three-day period, the Notice Period), specifying the material terms and conditions of any such Superior Competing Transaction (including the identity of the party making such Superior Competing Transaction) and furnishing to WAL a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreements with the party making such Superior Competing Transaction, and all other material documents, and

(C) during the Notice Period, and in any event, prior to effecting such a Change in Bridge Recommendation, Bridge has negotiated, and has caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate, with WAL in good faith (to the extent WAL desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Competing Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Competing Transaction.

In the event of any material revisions to the Superior Competing Transaction, Bridge shall be required to deliver a new written notice to WAL and to again comply with the requirements of this Section 6.3(b) with respect to such new written notice, except that the Notice Period shall be reduced to two (2) Business Days.

6.4 Legal Conditions to Merger; Third Party Consents. Each of WAL and Bridge shall use their commercially reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements which may be imposed on such party with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any consent, authorization, or approval of any third party non-Governmental Entity, or any waiver thereof, as may be required to be obtained (i) by Bridge under any Bridge Contract or (ii) by WAL under any material contract for which WAL is a party, in each case, in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Table of Contents6.5 Employees.

(a) To the extent permissible under the applicable provisions of the Code and ERISA, for purposes of crediting periods of service for eligibility and vesting, but not for benefit accrual purposes, under employee pension benefit plans (within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(2), other than the Bridge Bank, National Association Executive Supplemental Retirement Plan (the SERP)) and employee welfare plans (within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(1)) maintained by WAL or WAB, as applicable, and for purposes of all vacation, paid time off and similar plans, policies, practices maintained by WAL or WAB, as applicable, and for purposes of crediting periods of service for eligibility, vesting and benefit accrual under the agreements that constitute the SERP and any severance plan, policy or practice maintained by WAL or WAB, as applicable, individuals who are employees of Bridge or any Bridge Subsidiary at the Effective Time and who become eligible to participate in such plans will be credited with periods of service with Bridge or any Bridge Subsidiary (or with any predecessor to Bridge or any Bridge Subsidiary, to the extent such service is credited for such purposes under the corresponding Plan) before the Effective Time as if such service had been with WAL or WAB, as applicable; provided, however, no such individuals will participate in any severance plan, policy or practice maintained by WAL or WAB, as applicable, until the expiration of the twelve (12) month period following the Effective Time during which time severance will be provided pursuant to Section 6.5(e) hereof.

(b) Effective no later than the last day of the regularly scheduled payroll period immediately preceding the Closing Date, Bridge and each Bridge Subsidiary, as applicable, shall freeze contributions to any Code Section 401(a) plan that it sponsors or contributes to (a 401(a) Plan). Effective no later than the day before the Closing Date, Bridge and each Bridge Subsidiary, as applicable, shall terminate any 401(a) Plan by proper Board action. Before the Closing Date, Bridge and each Bridge Subsidiary, as applicable, shall provide to WAL (i) copies of duly adopted resolutions terminating the 401(a) Plan, and (ii) an executed amendment to the 401(a) Plan sufficient to assure compliance with all applicable requirements of the Code and regulations thereunder. The resolution and amendment shall be subject to the prior review and approval of WAL, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. At the request of the WAL, Bridge and each Bridge Subsidiary, as applicable, shall terminate any and all other Plans, including any group health, dental, severance, separation or salary continuation plans, programs or arrangements, effective either immediately before the Closing Date or thereafter as specified by WAL. Effective as of the Closing Date, WAL shall have in effect or shall cause WAB to provide a defined contribution plan that is qualified under Code Section 401(a) and that includes a qualified cash or deferred arrangement within the meaning of Code Section 401(k), in which employees of Bridge and any Bridge Subsidiary shall, within sixty (60) days of the Closing, be eligible to participate.

(c) Through December 31, 2015, WAL shall or shall cause WAB to provide to all individuals who are employees of Bridge or any Bridge Subsidiary as of the Effective Time (i) salary or wage levels at least equal to the salary or wage levels to which such individuals were entitled immediately prior to the Closing Date and (ii) incentive plan opportunities at least equal to the incentive plan opportunities to which such individuals were entitled as of the date hereof. Except to the extent that WAL or its Subsidiaries continue Plans in effect or as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement (including pursuant to the preceding sentence), employees of Bridge or any of the Bridge Subsidiaries who become employed by WAL or any of the WAL Subsidiaries will be eligible for employee benefits (including, without limitation, incentive and equity-based compensation) at least as favorable as the employee benefits that WAL or such WAL Subsidiary, as the case may be, provides to its similarly situated employees and, except as otherwise required by this Agreement, on substantially the same basis as is applicable to such similarly situated employees, provided that nothing in this Agreement shall require any duplication of benefits. If WAL or any of its Subsidiaries determines to discontinue a Plan in effect prior to December 31, 2015, then to the extent permitted under applicable Law and WAL's group health, life insurance and disability plans, and paid time off plans, WAL will or will cause WAB to give credit to employees of Bridge and Bridge Subsidiaries, with respect to the satisfaction of 2015 plan year (x) deductibles, (y) co-payments, (z) coinsurance requirements, (aa) maximum out-of-pocket provisions and (bb) similar limitations on coverage that are applicable under such plans of WAL or WAB, equal to the credit that any such employee had received as of the Effective Time towards the satisfaction of any such limitations under the comparable plans of Bridge or Bridge Subsidiaries and to waive preexisting condition limitations, evidence of insurability requirements and waiting periods for participation and coverage to the same extent waived under the corresponding Plan. WAL shall be solely responsible for compliance with the requirements of Code Section 4980B and part 6 of subtitle B of title I of ERISA (COBRA), including, without limitation, the provision of continuation coverage (within the meaning of COBRA) with respect to all employees of Bridge and any Bridge Subsidiary and their spouses and dependents for whom a qualifying event (within the meaning of COBRA) occurs on or after the Closing Date.

(d) After the Effective Time and through December 31, 2015, WAL and each relevant WAL Subsidiary will honor and perform the obligations of Bridge under the incentive contracts, plans and arrangements listed in Section 6.5(d)(1) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule, in accordance with the terms in effect under such contracts, plans and arrangements as of the Effective Time, subject to any required regulatory approval or satisfaction of a condition in any regulatory approval necessary for such action (with WAL and each relevant WAL Subsidiary taking commercially reasonable efforts acting in good faith to obtain any such regulatory approvals and/or satisfy any such regulatory conditions). After the Effective Time, WAL and each relevant WAL Subsidiary will honor and perform the obligations of Bridge under the contracts, plans and arrangements listed in Section 6.5(d)(2) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule, in accordance with the terms in effect under such contracts, plans and arrangements as of the Effective Time (other than any requirement of separation from service pursuant to such agreements and arrangements as are identified on Section 6.5(d)(2) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule as providing for payment of a severance benefit), subject to any required regulatory approval or satisfaction of a condition in any regulatory approval necessary for such action (with WAL and each relevant WAL Subsidiary taking commercially reasonable efforts acting in good faith to obtain any such regulatory approvals and/or satisfy any such regulatory conditions), except to the extent that any such agreements if permitted by the terms thereof shall be superseded or terminated at the Closing Date or following the Closing Date. Except for the contracts, plans and arrangements described in the preceding sentences, the 401(a) Plan that shall be terminated prior to Closing, and as otherwise provided in this Agreement, subject to and following the occurrence of the Effective Time, the Plans of Bridge and any Subsidiary of Bridge shall, in the sole and absolute discretion of WAL, be frozen, terminated or merged into comparable plans of WAL or any relevant Subsidiary of WAL, effective at such time as WAL shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion.

(e) After the Effective Time, WAL and each relevant WAL Subsidiary will provide a severance benefit to each full-time employee of Bridge or any Bridge Subsidiary immediately before the Effective Time (except to the extent that any such employee who is a party to any written agreement relating to employment or severance described in Section 3.12(a) hereof or retention or severance plan described in Section 3.11(a) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule is entitled to a severance benefit or retention benefit in lieu thereof) and whose employment is terminated involuntarily, other than for Cause (as defined below), by WAL or such WAL Subsidiary as of the Effective Time or within twelve (12) months thereafter. The severance benefit shall consist of a lump sum payment equal to such employee's regularly scheduled base salary or base wages at the time of termination of employment for a period equal to (i) two weeks multiplied by (ii) the number of full years of continuous service completed by such employee with Bridge or any Bridge Subsidiary, up to a maximum of 15 weeks, subject to applicable tax withholding, and shall be the only severance benefit available to such employees. For purposes of this Section 6.5(e), Cause shall mean the employee's personal dishonesty, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, failure to comply with any valid and legal directive of WAL, failure to perform stated duties, violation of any law, rule or regulation (other than traffic violations or similar offenses) or final cease-and-desist order. After the Effective Time, WAL and each relevant WAL Subsidiary will honor and perform the obligations of Bridge under any written agreement relating to employment or severance described in Section 3.12(a) hereof or retention or severance plan described in Section 3.11(a) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule.

(f) Notwithstanding anything contained in the agreements set forth in Sections 6.5(d) and 3.11 of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule or in this Agreement, no payment shall be made under any Plan that would constitute a parachute payment (as such term is defined in Code Section 280G), and to the extent that any such payment would constitute a parachute payment, the payment will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid it being considered a parachute payment. Bridge and any relevant Subsidiary of Bridge will take any and all needed corporate action including any required plan amendments in order to effect the foregoing.

Table of Contents6.6 Indemnification.

(a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, in which any Person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer or employee of Bridge or any of its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he is or was a director, officer or employee of Bridge or its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors or (ii) this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby and all actions taken by an Indemnified Party in connection herewith, in each case in such Indemnified Party's capacity as a director, officer or employee of Bridge or any of its Subsidiaries, whether in any case asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, the parties hereto agree to cooperate and defend against and respond thereto to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Bridge and the applicable Bridge Subsidiaries as in effect on the date hereof and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date hereof with any directors, officers and employees of Bridge and its Subsidiaries. It is understood and agreed that from and after the Effective Time, WAL shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each such Indemnified Party against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses in advance of the final disposition of any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of this Agreement by Bridge and its Subsidiaries pursuant to applicable Laws, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Bridge and the applicable Bridge Subsidiaries as in effect on the date hereof and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date hereof with any directors, officers and employees of Bridge and its Subsidiaries. In the event of any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time), the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to WAL; provided, however, that (1) WAL shall have the right to assume and control the defense thereof and upon such assumption the Indemnified Party shall cooperate with WAL in such defense and WAL shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by any Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except that if WAL elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably advises the Indemnified Parties that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between WAL and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to WAL, and WAL shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, (2) WAL shall be obligated pursuant to this Section 6.6(a) to pay for only one firm of counsel for each Indemnified Party, (3) WAL shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), and (4) WAL shall not be obligated pursuant to this Section 6.6(a) to the extent that a final non-appealable judgment determines that an Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder for any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement. Upon the request of an Indemnified Party, WAL shall be obligated to advance expenses incurred in connection with a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding in advance of final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, unless WAL is prohibited from doing so by applicable Law; provided that the Indemnified Party provides an undertaking to repay such amount if it is determined that such party is not entitled to be indemnified by WAL. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 6.6(a), upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall notify WAL thereof; provided, however, that the failure to so notify shall not affect the obligations of WAL under this Section 6.6(a) except to the extent such failure to notify materially prejudices WAL. WAL's obligations under this Section 6.6(a) continue in full force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time; provided, however, that all rights to indemnification in respect of any claim asserted or made within such period shall continue until the final disposition of such claim. WAL shall require any successor to expressly assume its obligations under this Section 6.6(a).

(b) WAL shall purchase an extended reporting period endorsement or a tail policy for the benefit of the persons currently or formerly serving as officers and directors of Bridge who are, as of the date of this Agreement, individually covered by a directors and officers liability insurance policy, covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time which were committed by such officers and directors in their capacity as such, which shall provide such directors and officers liability insurance coverage for an aggregate period of not less than six (6) years following the Effective Time, on terms with respect to such coverage, and in an aggregate amount, not less favorable to such individuals than those of such policy in effect on the date hereof; provided however, that in no event shall WAL be required to expend, in the aggregate, an amount equal to more than 200% of the current annual premiums expended by Bridge to maintain or procure such coverage. In connection with the foregoing, Bridge agrees to provide such insurer or substitute insurer with such representations as such insurer may reasonably request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.6 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and representatives and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such person may have by contract or otherwise.

6.7 Subsequent Interim and Annual Financial Statements. As soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, but in no event more than 30 days after the end of each calendar month ending after the date hereof, Bridge shall furnish to WAL (a) consolidated and consolidating financial statements (including balance sheets, statements of operations and shareholders equity) of Bridge and its Subsidiaries as of and for such month then ended, (b) internal management financial control reports showing actual financial performance against plan and previous period, and (c) any reports provided to the Board of Directors of Bridge or any committee thereof relating to the financial performance and risk management of Bridge. In addition, Bridge shall furnish WAL with a copy of each report filed by Bridge or any of its Subsidiaries with a Governmental Entity within three (3) Business Days following the filing thereof. All information furnished by Bridge to WAL pursuant to this Section 6.7 shall be held in confidence to the same extent of WAL's obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.8 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, or to vest the Surviving Corporation or the Surviving Bank with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, or the constituent banks to the Bank Merger, as the case may be, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and WAL's and Bridge's Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by WAL or Bridge, as the case may be.

6.9 Advice of Changes. WAL and Bridge shall promptly advise the other party of any change or event that, individually or in the aggregate, has or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its respective representations, warranties or covenants contained herein. From time to time prior to the Effective Time, each party will promptly supplement or amend its disclosure schedule delivered in connection with the execution of this Agreement to reflect any matter which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such disclosure schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such disclosure schedule which has been rendered inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such disclosure schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.2(a) or 7.3(a), as the case may be, or the compliance by Bridge with the covenants set forth in Section 5.1.

6.10 Current Information. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, Bridge will cause one or more of its designated representatives to confer on a regular and frequent basis (not less than monthly) with representatives of WAL and to report the general status of the ongoing operations of Bridge. Bridge will promptly notify WAL of any material change in the normal course of business or in the operation of the properties of Bridge and of any complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated) of any Governmental Entity, or the institution or the threat of litigation involving Bridge, and will keep WAL fully informed of such events.

6.11 Transaction Expenses of Bridge.

- (a) Bridge has provided at Section 6.11(a) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule its estimated budget of transaction-related expenses reasonably anticipated to be payable by Bridge in connection with this transaction, including the fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers and other professionals.
- (b) Bridge shall promptly advise WAL if Bridge anticipates exceeding the estimated budget of transaction-related expenses set forth in Section 6.11(a) of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule, or any subsequent adjustment thereof.
- (c) Promptly after the execution of this Agreement, Bridge shall ask all of its attorneys and other professionals to render current and correct invoices for all unbilled time and disbursements. Bridge shall accrue and/or pay all of such amounts which are actually due and owing as soon as possible.
- (d) Bridge, in reasonable consultation with WAL, shall make all arrangements with respect to the printing and mailing of the Proxy Materials. Bridge shall, if WAL reasonably deems necessary, also engage a proxy solicitation firm to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the Special Meeting. Bridge agrees to cooperate as to such matters.

6.12 Acquisition Proposals.

- (a) From the date hereof until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the date on which this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Article VIII, Bridge shall not, directly or indirectly, and will instruct its officers, directors and executive employees and its accountants, consultants, legal counsel, investment bankers, financial advisors, agents and other representatives (collectively, Representatives) not to, directly or indirectly:
- (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or Knowingly facilitate (including by way of providing information) the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers (whether firm or hypothetical) relating to or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, any Competing Proposal,
- (ii) have any discussions with or provide any confidential information or data to any Person relating to a Competing Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning a Competing Proposal (other than discussions or requests for and receipt of information to ascertain the terms of any such Competing Proposal),
- (iii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any Competing Proposal,
- (iv) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, merger agreement, asset or share purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement relating to any Competing Proposal,
- (v) enter into any agreement or agreement in principle requiring, directly or indirectly, Bridge to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or breach its obligations hereunder, or
- (vi) publicly propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that Bridge receives a bona fide written Competing Proposal after the date hereof that did not result from solicitation which is in violation of this Section 6.12 and the Board of Directors of Bridge, after consultation with independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that such Competing Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Competing Transaction, Bridge may, and may permit its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to, prior to (but not after) the date of the Special Meeting, take any or all action described in clauses (i) and (ii) above if the Board of Directors of Bridge concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel) that failure to take such actions would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, however, that prior to providing any confidential information or data to such Person, Bridge shall have received from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to Bridge in any material respect than those contained in the Mutual Confidentiality Agreement by and between WAL and Bridge, dated as of August 1, 2014 (the Confidentiality Agreement), and shall contemporaneously provide to WAL any non-public information concerning Bridge or its Subsidiaries to be provided to such Person which was not previously provided to WAL (or its Representatives);

(b) Bridge shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions or negotiations conducted before the date hereof with any third parties other than WAL with respect to any Competing Proposal, will use its commercially reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement relating to a Competing Proposal, including by instructing the other parties thereto to promptly return or destroy any confidential information previously furnished by or on behalf of Bridge thereunder, and will not waive or amend any provision of any such agreement. Bridge will promptly (and in all events within 24 hours) following receipt of any Competing Proposal or any inquiry which would reasonably be expected to lead to a Competing Proposal advise WAL of the material terms thereof (including the identity of the Person making such Competing Proposal), and will keep WAL reasonably apprised of any related discussions and negotiations with the Person making such Competing Proposal and the status and terms thereof (including providing WAL with a copy of all material documentation and correspondence with the Person making such Competing Proposal relating thereto) on a current basis. Without limiting the foregoing, Bridge shall notify WAL orally and in writing within 24 hours after it enters into discussions or negotiations with another Person regarding a Competing Proposal or executes and delivers a confidentiality agreement with another Person in connection with a Competing Proposal.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall prevent Bridge from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a)(2)-(3) promulgated under the Exchange Act with respect to a Competing Proposal; provided, that such Rules will in no way eliminate or modify the effect that any action pursuant to such Rules would otherwise have under this Agreement; and provided, further, that any such disclosure (other than a stop, look and listen or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) shall be deemed to be a Change in Bridge Recommendation unless the Board of Directors of Bridge expressly and concurrently reaffirms the Bridge Recommendation.

6.13 Takeover Laws. Bridge and its Board of Directors shall (i) use reasonable best efforts to ensure that no state takeover Law or similar Law or any takeover-related provision in Bridge's certificate of incorporation or bylaws is or becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) if any state takeover Law or similar Law or any takeover-related provision in Bridge's certificate of incorporation or bylaws becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, use reasonable best efforts to ensure that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of such Law on this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.14 Shareholder Litigation. Bridge shall give WAL the opportunity to participate, at WAL's expense, in the defense or settlement of any shareholder litigation against Bridge and/or its directors relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and no such settlement shall be agreed to without WAL's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

6.15 Confidentiality Agreement. WAL and Bridge shall comply with, and shall cause their respective Representatives to comply with, all of their respective obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement, which shall survive the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms set forth therein.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of Bridge:

(a) by mutual consent of WAL and Bridge in a written instrument, if the Board of Directors of each so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board;

(b) by either WAL or Bridge upon written notice to the other party (i) 30 days after the date on which any request or application for a Regulatory Approval shall have been denied or withdrawn at the request or recommendation of the Governmental Entity which must grant such Regulatory Approval, unless within the 30-day period following such denial or withdrawal the parties agree to file, and have filed with the applicable Governmental Entity, a petition for rehearing (or other applicable appeal) or an amended or supplemented application, provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b) if such denial or request or recommendation for withdrawal shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(c) by either WAL or Bridge if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before December 31, 2015, unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(d) by either WAL or Bridge (provided that the terminating party is not in breach of its obligations under Section 6.3) if the approval of the shareholders of Bridge hereto required for the consummation of the Merger shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at a duly held meeting of shareholders or at any adjournment or postponement thereof;

(e) by Bridge, prior to the time, but not after, the approval of this Agreement by the holders of the Bridge Common Stock at the Special Meeting has occurred, if: (i) Bridge is not in material breach of this Agreement (including Sections 6.3 and 6.12 hereof); (ii) Bridge receives an unsolicited bona fide Competing Proposal that is not withdrawn and that the Bridge Board of Directors determines in good faith is a Superior Competing Transaction; (iii) the Bridge Board of Directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial and legal advisors) that failure to accept the Superior Competing Transaction would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; and (iv) Bridge, prior to termination of this Agreement, pays to WAL in immediately available funds, any amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 9.3 hereof;

(f) by either WAL or Bridge (provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein that, individually or in the aggregate, would give the other party the right to terminate this Agreement) if there shall have been a breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, if such breach, individually or in the aggregate, has had or is likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on the breaching party, and such breach is not curable or shall not have been cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the other party hereto or such breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Closing;

(g) by either WAL or Bridge (provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein that, individually or in the aggregate, would give the other party the right to terminate this Agreement) if there shall have been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, and such breach is not curable or shall not have been cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the other party hereto or such breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Closing; and

(h) by WAL, if the management of Bridge or its Board of Directors, for any reason, (i) fails to use its reasonable best efforts to call and hold within 45 days of the effective date of the Registration Statement a special meeting of Bridge's shareholders to consider and approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (except as provided in Section 6.3(a)) or (ii) fails to recommend to shareholders the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either WAL or Bridge as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect except (i) the last sentence of Section 6.2(a), Section 8.2 and Article IX (other than Section 9.1) shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful or intentional breach of any provision of this Agreement.

8.3 Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable Law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of Bridge; provided, however, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by Bridge's shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement which reduces the amount or changes the form of the consideration to be delivered to Bridge shareholders hereunder other than as contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

8.4 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

ARTICLE IX

(b) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by WAL pursuant to Sections 8.1(f), (g) or (h), Bridge shall pay all documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) up to $600,000 incurred by WAL in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, such amount to be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by WAL.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Bridge pursuant to Sections 8.1(f) or (g), WAL shall pay all documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) up to $600,000 incurred by Bridge in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, such amount to be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Bridge.

(d) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by WAL or Bridge under Section 8.1(c) or 8.1(d) or by Bridge under Section 8.1(e) without the requisite vote of Bridge shareholders having been obtained, or by WAL pursuant to Sections 8.1(f), (g) or (h) and both (i) after the date of this Agreement but prior to the Special Meeting, Bridge or the Bridge Board of Directors shall have received a Competing Proposal and (ii) within 12 months following the date of such termination, Bridge enters into an agreement for a Competing Proposal or an Acquisition Transaction otherwise occurs, Bridge shall pay all documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) up to $600,000 incurred by WAL in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, plus a breakup fee of $15.9375 million, such amount to be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by WAL (except in the case of termination by Bridge pursuant to Section 8.1(e) in which case such payment shall be made prior to such termination).

(e) The parties acknowledge and agree that the remedies set forth in Sections 9.3(b), (c) and (d) shall be the sole and exclusive remedies for any losses incurred by WAL or Bridge, as the case may be, arising from the termination of this Agreement pursuant to any such Sections, except that (i) nothing herein shall preclude either party from specifically enforcing this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.9 below, and (ii) each of WAL and Bridge shall be entitled to recover such other remedies as are available at law or in equity if WAL or Bridge, as the case may be, terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e) or Section 8.1(f), respectively, as a result of a willful or intentional breach of this Agreement by the other party.

If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

CONVERSION OF SHARES

In and by virtue of the Merger and at the Effective Time, pursuant to this Agreement of Merger, the shares of WAL Common Stock and Bridge Common Stock outstanding at the Effective Time shall be converted as follows:

(a) Effect on WAL Common Stock. Each share of WAL Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, on and after the Effective Time, remain outstanding and shall automatically and for all purposes be deemed to represent one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation (Surviving Corporation Stock).

(b) Effect on Bridge Common Stock. At the Effective Time, each share of Bridge Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time (excluding dissenters' shares and all unvested shares of Bridge restricted stock but, for the avoidance of doubt, including any associated rights to purchase capital stock of Bridge issued pursuant to that certain Rights Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2008, between Bridge and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, as rights agent, and any shares of Bridge Common Stock issued as of the Effective Time by reason of the exercise of options to acquire Bridge Common Stock) shall be converted into the right to receive, without interest, (i) 0.8145 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of WAL Common Stock (the Stock Consideration) and (ii) $2.39 in cash (the Cash Consideration) (the consideration described in clauses (i) and (ii) and the Cash Out Amount (defined below), the Merger Consideration). All shares of WAL Common Stock that are owned by Bridge shall become treasury stock of WAL. Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Merger Agreement and as provided in Section 1.9(b) of the Merger Agreement, the aggregate Merger Consideration to be issued or paid shall not exceed 12,494,704 shares of WAL Common Stock and $36,663,403 million of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Common Stock that is issued, from and after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Stock Options and the vesting of Bridge Restricted Stock, either (i) outstanding as of the date hereof other than any Bridge

Restricted Stock that vests pursuant to the agreements set forth on schedule 1.5 of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule or (ii) granted or issued after the date hereof pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, the maximum aggregate Merger Consideration referred to in this subsection shall be increased by 0.8145 shares of WAL Common Stock and $2.39 in cash. (c) Conversion of Options to Purchase Bridge Common Stock. Prior to the Effective Time, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Common Stock granted under the Bridge Stock Plans (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with the terms in effect under the agreements and arrangements listed in Section 1.5 of the Bridge Disclosure Schedule (other than any requirement of separation from service) (each, a Bridge Stock Option) may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms thereof (an Exercise Election), contingent on the consummation of the Merger, and shall receive, for any shares of Bridge Common Stock acquired in such election, the Merger Consideration. In the event of any such Exercise Election, all shares of Bridge Common Stock underlying such exercised options will be deemed to have been issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If the Merger is not completed, any options for which an Exercise Election has been made will remain outstanding. At the Effective Time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an Exercise Election has not been made shall be canceled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee shall receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of WAL Common Stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date (the Closing Price) over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Common Stock subject to such option (in the aggregate, the Cash Out Amount), which cash payment shall be treated as compensation and shall be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the Effective Time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an Exercise Election has not been made the exercise price per share of which exceeds the Closing Price shall be converted automatically into an Adjusted Option (defined below), and shall be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Stock Option in accordance with the terms hereof. At the Effective Time, each unvested option to acquire Bridge Common Stock under the Bridge Stock Plans that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of WAL Common Stock (each, an Adjusted Option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Common Stock subject to such Bridge Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time and (y) 0.905 (the Equity Award Exchange Ratio), with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each Adjusted Option shall have an exercise price per share of WAL Common Stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Common Stock subject to such Bridge Stock Option divided by (ii) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio. Each Adjusted Option shall otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Stock Option under the applicable Bridge Stock Plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, in all cases, the exercise price of, and the number of shares subject to, each Adjusted Option shall be determined as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, and for any Bridge Stock Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies by reason of its qualification under any of Sections 422 through 424 of the Code, the option price, the number of shares subject to such option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424 of the Code.

(c) Conversion of Bridge Restricted Stock. Prior to the Effective Time, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the Effective Time (including any Bridge restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with the terms in effect under certain agreements and arrangements (other than any requirement of separation from service)), as of the Effective Time, shall be a vested right to receive the Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, each share of Bridge restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into a share of restricted WAL Common Stock (each, an Adjusted Restricted Share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge restricted stock and (y) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each Adjusted Restricted Share shall otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Stock Plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

The parties hereto shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such deeds and other instruments, and will take or cause to be taken all further or other action as they may deem necessary or desirable, in order to vest in and confirm to the Surviving Corporation title to and possession of all of WAL's and Bridge's property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises hereunder, and otherwise to carry out the intent and purposes of this Agreement of Merger.

Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code

1300. (a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, as adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend that becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, dissenting shares means shares to which all of the following apply:

(1) That were not, immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger, listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any shares where the holder of those shares is required, by the terms of the reorganization or short-form merger, to accept for the shares anything except: (A) shares of any other corporation, which shares, at the time the reorganization or short-form merger is effective, are listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100; (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraph (A); or (C) any combination of the shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraphs (A) and (B).

(2) That were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in paragraph (1), were voted against the reorganization, or were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

(3) That the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

(4) That the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, dissenting shareholder means the recordholder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

1301. (a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, that corporation shall mail to each of those shareholders a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of that approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, and 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder's right under those sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of those shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case, within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1300. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at that price.

1302. Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

1303. (a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

1304. (a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.

1305. (a) If the court appoints an appraiser or appraisers, they shall proceed forthwith to determine the fair market value per share. Within the time fixed by the court, the appraisers, or a majority of them, shall make and file a report in the office of the clerk of the court. Thereupon, on the motion of any party, the report shall be submitted to the court and considered on such evidence as the court considers relevant. If the court finds the report reasonable, the court may confirm it.

(b) If a majority of the appraisers appointed fail to make and file a report within 10 days from the date of their appointment or within such further time as may be allowed by the court or the report is not confirmed by the court, the court shall determine the fair market value of the dissenting shares.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, judgment shall be rendered against the corporation for payment of an amount equal to the fair market value of each dissenting share multiplied by the number of dissenting shares which any dissenting shareholder who is a party, or who has intervened, is entitled to require the corporation to purchase, with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date on which judgment was entered.

(d) Any such judgment shall be payable forthwith with respect to uncertificated securities and, with respect to certificated securities, only upon the endorsement and delivery to the corporation of the certificates for the shares described in the judgment. Any party may appeal from the judgment.

(e) The costs of the action, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable, but, if the appraisal exceeds the price offered by the corporation, the corporation shall pay the costs (including in the discretion of the court attorneys' fees, fees of expert witnesses and interest at the legal rate on judgments from the date of compliance with Sections 1300, 1301 and 1302 if the value awarded by the court for the shares is more than 125 percent of the price offered by the corporation under subdivision (a) of Section 1301).

1306. To the extent that the provisions of Chapter 5 prevent the payment to any holders of dissenting shares of their fair market value, they shall become creditors of the corporation for the amount thereof together with interest at the legal rate on judgments until the date of payment, but subordinate to all other creditors in any liquidation proceeding, such debt to be payable when permissible under the provisions of Chapter 5.

1307. Cash dividends declared and paid by the corporation upon the dissenting shares after the date of approval of the reorganization by the outstanding shares (Section 152) and prior to payment for the shares by the corporation shall be credited against the total amount to be paid by the corporation therefor.

1308. Except as expressly limited in this chapter, holders of dissenting shares continue to have all the rights and privileges incident to their shares, until the fair market value of their shares is agreed upon or determined. A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw a demand for payment unless the corporation consents thereto.

1309. Dissenting shares lose their status as dissenting shares and the holders thereof cease to be dissenting shareholders and cease to be entitled to require the corporation to purchase their shares upon the happening of any of the following:

(a) The corporation abandons the reorganization. Upon abandonment of the reorganization, the corporation shall pay on demand to any dissenting shareholder who has initiated proceedings in good faith under this chapter all necessary expenses incurred in such proceedings and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(b) The shares are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 or are surrendered for conversion into shares of another class in accordance with the articles.

(c) The dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree upon the status of the shares as dissenting shares or upon the purchase price of the shares, and neither files a complaint or intervenes in a pending action as provided in Section 1304, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

B-3

(d) The dissenting shareholder, with the consent of the corporation, withdraws the shareholder's demand for purchase of the dissenting shares.

1310. If litigation is instituted to test the sufficiency or regularity of the votes of the shareholders in authorizing a reorganization, any proceedings under Sections 1304 and 1305 shall be suspended until final determination of such litigation.

1311. This chapter, except Section 1312, does not apply to classes of shares whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to such shares in the event of a reorganization or merger.

1312. (a) No shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this chapter to demand payment of cash for the shares held by the shareholder shall have any right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger, or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, except in an action to test whether the number of shares required to authorize or approve the reorganization have been legally voted in favor thereof; but any holder of shares of a class whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to them in the event of a reorganization or short-form merger is entitled to payment in accordance with those terms and provisions or, if the principal terms of the reorganization are approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202, is entitled to payment in accordance with the terms and provisions of the approved reorganization.

(b) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, subdivision (a) shall not apply to any shareholder of such party who has not demanded payment of cash for such shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter; but if the shareholder institutes any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, the shareholder shall not thereafter have any right to demand payment of cash for the shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter. The court in any action attacking the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded shall not restrain or enjoin the consummation of the transaction except upon 10 days' prior notice to the corporation and upon a determination by the court that clearly no other remedy will adequately protect the complaining shareholder or the class of shareholders of which such shareholder is a member.

(c) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, in any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, (1) a party to a reorganization or short-form merger which controls another party to the reorganization or short-form merger shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of the controlled party, and (2) a person who controls two or more parties to a reorganization shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of any party so controlled.

1313. A conversion pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 1150) shall be deemed to constitute a reorganization for purposes of applying the provisions of this chapter, in accordance with and to the extent provided in Section 1159.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Bridge Capital Holdings (the Company) and Western Alliance Bancorporation (WAL) have entered into an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of March 9, 2015 (the Agreement) pursuant to which the Company will merge with and into WAL, with WAL as the surviving entity (the Merger). Pursuant to the terms of the merger, upon the effective date of the Merger, each share of the common stock of the Company (the Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time, except for those shares as described in the Agreement, shall be converted into the right to receive, without interest, (i) 0.8145 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of WAL (WAL Common Stock) (the Stock Consideration) and (ii) $2.39 in cash (the Cash Consideration) (the consideration described in clauses (i) and (ii) and the Cash Out Amount (defined below), the Merger Consideration). The other terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement, and capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Company Common Stock.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of the Company that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of WAL that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial forecasts for the Company for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and an estimated long-term growth rate for 2019 as discussed with senior management of the Company; (v) mean publicly available analyst earnings estimates for WAL for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016 and a long-term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter as provided by senior management of WAL; (vi) certain estimated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies which were provided by WAL; (vii) a comparison of certain financial and other information, including stock trading information, for the Company and WAL with similar publicly available information for certain other publicly traded commercial banks; (viii) the financial terms of certain other recent merger and acquisition transactions in the banking sector; (ix) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (x) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of the Company the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Company and held similar discussions with the senior management of WAL regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by the Company and WAL or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing this letter. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of the Company and WAL that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company and WAL or any of their respective subsidiaries. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of the Company, WAL or the combined entity after the Merger and we have we not reviewed any individual credit files relating to the Company and WAL. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both the Company and WAL are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for the Company as provided by the senior management of the Company. Sandler O'Neill used median publicly available earnings estimates for WAL and an estimated long-term growth rate as discussed with the senior management of WAL. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its analyses certain projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies which were provided by WAL. With respect to those projections, estimates and judgments, the respective management of the Company and WAL confirmed to us that those projections, estimates and judgments reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective managements of the future financial performance of the Company and WAL, respectively, and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. We have assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of the Company and WAL since the date of the most recent financial data made available to us. We have also assumed in all respects material to our analysis that the Company and WAL would remain as a going concern for all periods relevant to our analyses. We express no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated in connection therewith.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, WAL or the Merger and (iii) the Merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements.

Our analyses and the views expressed herein are necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect our views. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this letter or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading values of the Company Common Stock and the WAL Common Shares after the date of this opinion or what the value of the WAL Common Shares will be once it is actually received by the holders of the Company Common Stock.

We have acted as the Company's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and a significant portion of our fees are contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We also will receive a fee from the Company as a result of our rendering this opinion. The Company has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to the Company and WAL and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of the Company and WAL or their affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

This letter is directed to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to holders of the Company Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent, provided however Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in required regulatory filings (including the proxy statement to be sent to shareholders of the Company) to be completed in connection with the Merger. This Opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by the Company's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholders of the Company.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to the holders of the Company Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

2.2. Restrictions on Transfer. Except as provided for herein, the Shareholder agrees from and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date not to (a) tender into any tender or exchange offer or otherwise directly or indirectly Transfer any Owned Shares (or any rights, options or warrants to acquire Bridge Common Shares), or (b) grant any proxies with respect to the Shareholder's Owned Shares, deposit the Shareholder's Owned Shares into a voting trust, enter into a voting agreement with respect to any of the Shareholder's Owned Shares or otherwise restrict the ability of the Shareholder to exercise freely all voting rights with respect thereto. Any action attempted to be taken in violation of the preceding sentence will be null and void.

2.3. No Solicitation. From and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, the Shareholder, in his capacity as a shareholder of the Company, shall not, nor shall the Shareholder authorize any Representative of the Shareholder or any of his affiliates, other than the Company in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, to (and, to the extent applicable to the Shareholder, the Shareholder shall not permit any of his Representatives or affiliates, other than the Company in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, to) (a) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate (including by providing information) the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal (whether firm or hypothetical) relating to, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a Competing Proposal, (b) have any discussions with or provide any information or data with respect to Bridge or any of its Subsidiaries to any Person (other than WAL) relating to any Competing Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning a Competing Proposal, (c) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to a Competing Proposal, (d) solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act) with respect to a Competing Proposal (other than the Merger Agreement) or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action that would compete with, restrain or otherwise serve to interfere with or inhibit the timely consummation of the Merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, (e) initiate a shareholders' vote or action by consent of the Company's shareholders with respect to a Competing Proposal, or (f) except by reason of this Agreement, become a member of a group (as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of the Company that takes any action in support of a Competing Proposal.

2.4. Capacity as Shareholder. The Shareholder is signing this Agreement solely in the Shareholder's capacity as a shareholder of Bridge, and not in the Shareholder's capacity as a director [officer] of Bridge or any of its Subsidiaries. The Shareholder makes no agreement or understanding in this Agreement in the Shareholder's capacity as a director [officer] of Bridge or any of its Subsidiaries (if Shareholder holds such office), and nothing in this Agreement[: (a)] will limit or affect any actions or omissions taken by the Shareholder in the Shareholder's capacity as such a director [officer], including in exercising rights under the Merger Agreement, and no such actions or omissions shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement [or (b) will be construed to prohibit, limit or restrict the Shareholder from exercising the Shareholder's fiduciary duties as a director to Bridge or its shareholders].

III. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1. Representations and Warranties of Shareholders. The Shareholder hereby represents and warrants to WAL, as of the date of this Agreement, that (i) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the

IV. ADDITIONAL COVENANTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

4.1. Waiver of Dissenters' Rights. Notwithstanding any provision in the Merger Agreement to contrary, the Shareholder hereby waives, and shall cause the record holders (if different from the Shareholder) of any Owned Shares Beneficially Owned by the Shareholder to waive, dissenters' rights, if any, that the Shareholder or such record holder may have under Sections 1300-1313 of the California Corporations Code in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Upon such determination that any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is invalid, void, unenforceable or against regulatory policy, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

5.5. Assignment. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that the Shareholder may not assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of WAL and any attempted assignment without such consent shall be null and void without effect; and provided, further, that WAL may assign its respective rights or obligations hereunder to any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of WAL (or any successor thereto) without the prior written consent of the parties hereto.

References to a Person will refer to its predecessors and successors and permitted assigns.

5.7. Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended except by written agreement signed by WAL and by the Shareholder.

5.8. Extension: Waiver. Prior to the Expiration Date, WAL may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the Shareholder, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the Shareholder contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered under this Agreement, or (c) unless prohibited by applicable Laws, waive compliance by the Shareholder with any of the covenants or conditions contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by such party. The failure of any party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise will not constitute a waiver of such rights.

5.9. Fees and Expenses. Each party is responsible for its own fees and expenses (including the fees and expenses of financial consultants, investment bankers, accountants and counsel) in connection with the entry into of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.12. Counterparts; Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which are one and the same agreement. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile signature by any party and such signature is deemed binding for all purposes hereof, without delivery of an original signature being thereafter required.

5.13. Effectiveness and Termination. This Agreement will become effective when WAL has received a counterpart signed by the Shareholder and itself and shall terminate automatically, without any further action on the part of any parties hereto, and be of no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date. As used herein, Expiration Date means the earliest to occur of: (a) the Effective Time or (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms. Upon termination of this Agreement, except for any rights any party may have in respect of any breach by any other party of its or his obligations hereunder, none of the parties hereto shall have any further obligation or liability hereunder.

5.14. Specific Performance. The parties agree that the remedies at law for any breach or threatened breach, including monetary damages, are inadequate compensation for any loss and that any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate is waived. Accordingly, in the event of any actual or threatened default in, or breach of, any of the terms, conditions and provisions of this Agreement, the party or parties who are or are to be thereby aggrieved shall have the right to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief of its rights under this Agreement, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies at law or in equity, and all such rights and remedies shall be cumulative. Any requirements for the securing or posting of any bond with such remedy are waived.

5.15. Submission to Jurisdiction. The parties to this Agreement (a) irrevocably submit to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware and the State of Arizona and (b) waive any claim of improper venue or any claim that those courts are an inconvenient forum. 5.16. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party acknowledges and agrees that any controversy which may arise under this Agreement is likely to involve complicated and difficult issues and, therefore, each such party irrevocably and unconditionally waives any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The following is only a general summary of certain aspects of Delaware law and Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation related to the indemnification of directors and officers, and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of Sections 145 and 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL, Article 8 of Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation, and the provisions of Article VII of Western Alliance's bylaws, as amended.

Western Alliance is a Delaware corporation subject to the applicable indemnification provisions of the DGCL. Section 145 of the DGCL generally provides that all directors, officers, employees and agents of a corporation may be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with certain specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, or a derivative action), if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard of care is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification extends only to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of an action, and the DGCL requires court approval before there can be any indemnification where the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation. Section 145 of the DGCL also provides that the rights conferred thereby are not exclusive of any other right to which any person may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, and permits a corporation to advance expenses to or on behalf of a person entitled to be indemnified upon receipt of an undertaking to repay the amounts advanced if it is determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified.

Article VII of Western Alliance's bylaws, as amended, provide that directors, officers, trustees, employees and agents of Western Alliance made party to (or threatened to be made party to) any action, suit or proceeding shall be indemnified and held harmless by Western Alliance to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL against all expenses, liability and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, the corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if (a) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law, (b) the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors, (c) such indemnification is provided by the corporation, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the corporation under the DGCL, or (d) the proceeding (or part thereof) is brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification or advancement under an indemnity agreement or any other statute or law or otherwise as required under Section 145 of the DGCL.

Article 8 of Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation provides that no director will be personally liable to Western Alliance or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of a fiduciary duty as a director other than liability for any breach of such director's duty of loyalty to Western Alliance or its stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for any payment of a dividend or approval of a stock repurchase that is illegal under Section 174 of the DGCL, or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Western Alliance has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its directors and executive officers in addition to indemnification provided for in its bylaws. Western Alliance maintains, on behalf of its directors and officers, insurance protection against certain liabilities arising out of the discharge of their duties, as well as insurance covering Western Alliance for indemnification payments made to its directors and officers for certain liabilities. The premiums for such insurance are paid by Western Alliance.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules

(a) The exhibits required by this item are set forth on the Exhibit Index attached hereto.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(6) That, in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

Edgar Filing: WESTERN ALLIANCE BANCORPORATION - Form S-4/A

Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (1) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (2) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
