Employment Agreements; Termination / Change in Control Arrangements

We have entered into employment agreements with each of our Named Executive Officers as of December 31, 2014. Below is a description of the material terms of each agreement, including severance provisions.

Employment Agreement with Jason Hart

On March 13, 2014, we entered into an executive employment agreement with Jason Hart. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Hart will receive an annual base salary of $350,000 and is eligible to receive inducement grants of 50,000 RSUs and options to purchase 300,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. He is also eligible to participate in the Company's bonus program for core management executives which sets forth eligibility criteria for an annual bonus as 200% of base salary and will have the use of a company car. The initial term of Mr. Hart's agreement is three years, beginning January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2016, and the agreement may be extended for an additional three-year period at the expiration of the initial term. The Company will provide notice of at least 12 months if it intends to renew the agreement after the initial term. The Company or Mr. Hart may terminate the agreement at any time without cause upon 12 months' prior written notice. In the event that the Company terminates the agreement without cause, Mr. Hart will continue to receive monthly salary payments until the earlier of either the expiry of 24 months from the date of such termination or the then-current term of the agreement. He will also continue to receive benefits under the Company's employee benefits plans and programs, including applicable bonus payments and the use of a company car, until expiry of the then-current term of the agreement. Any change in the scope of authority and responsibility of Mr. Hart will constitute an act or termination without cause. In the event that Mr. Hart terminates the agreement with or without cause, he will continue to receive his base salary and the pro rata amount of any applicable bonus payments and will be entitled to a continuation of all benefits during the 12-month notice period. If within 12 months following a change in control (as defined in the agreement), the Company (or its successor) has reduced Mr. Hart's compensation in excess of 10%, requires Mr. Hart to relocate greater than 50 miles from Mr. Hart's then current location, or terminates Mr. Hart's employment other than for cause, then Mr. Hart will be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 200% of his then-current annual base salary payable in a lump sum, accelerated vesting of all unvested stock options and RSUs so that they become fully vested and exercisable, and reimbursement for health care coverage until the earliest of (i) the date Mr. Hart is no longer eligible to receive continuation coverage pursuant to COBRA, (ii) 12 months following such termination, or (iii) for such shorter period until Mr. Hart obtains new employment offering health insurance coverage. Mr. Hart's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. The agreement does not contain an excise tax gross-up provision. In the event that benefits under the agreement or otherwise payable to the executive would constitute an "excess parachute payment" under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, Mr. Hart is entitled to receive either (i) the full benefits payable or (ii) a reduced amount that falls below the applicable safe harbor provided under Section 280G, whichever amount provides the greater after-tax value for the executive.

On September 14, 2015, we entered into a letter agreement which amended Mr. Hart's employment agreement to provide that Mr. Hart will continue to receive an annual base salary of $350,000; and will be eligible to receive sales commissions of up to 100% of his base salary; and will be eligible for performance-based compensation of up to 50% of his base salary. Mr. Hart is also eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefits programs, will have the use of a company car and be reimbursed up to $10,000 annually for costs incurred with his personal use of a financial advisor. Mr. Hart is also entitled to severance benefits. If he is terminated without Cause other than in connection with a Change in Control of the Company (as each term is defined in such letter agreement), he is entitled to 12 months of his base salary and benefits and 100% of bonuses or actual commissions paid in the prior 12 months. If he is terminated without Cause or leaves for Good Reason following a Change in Control of the Company, he is entitled to 12 months of base salary and benefits, 100% of bonuses or actual commissions paid in the prior 12 months and well as full acceleration of his equity vesting schedule for awards granted prior to December 31, 2016.

Table of ContentsEmployment Agreement with Brian Nelson

On December 20, 2013, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Brian Nelson. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Nelson will receive an annual base salary of $295,000 and is eligible to receive options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. He is also eligible to participate in the Company's bonus program for core management executives that sets forth eligibility criteria for an annual bonus at 200% of base salary and will have the use of a company car. The initial term of the Agreement is 36 months, and may be extended by mutual consent at any time prior to the expiration of the initial term. The Company or Mr. Nelson may terminate the Agreement at any time without cause upon 12 months' prior written notice. From the time of such notice to the end of the 12-month notice period, Mr. Nelson would continue to receive his then-current fixed salary and any bonus payments (which shall be pro rata for such applicable portion of the then current fiscal year). If, within 12 months following a change of control (as defined in the agreement), the Company (or its successor) has reduced Mr. Nelson's compensation in excess of 10%, requires Mr. Nelson to relocate greater than 50 miles from Mr. Nelson's then current location, or terminates Mr. Nelson's employment other than for cause, then Mr. Nelson will be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 200% of his then-current annual base salary payable in a lump sum, accelerated vesting of all unvested stock options and RSUs so that they become fully vested and exercisable, and reimbursement for health care coverage until the earliest of (i) the date Mr. Nelson is no longer eligible to receive continuation coverage pursuant to COBRA, (ii) 12 months following such termination, or (iii) for such shorter period until Mr. Nelson obtains new employment offering health insurance coverage. Mr. Nelson's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. The agreement does not contain an excise tax gross-up provision. In the event that benefits under the agreement or otherwise payable to the executive would constitute an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, Mr. Nelson is entitled to receive either (i) the full benefits payable or (ii) a reduced amount that falls below the applicable safe harbor provided under Section 280G, whichever amount provides the greater after-tax value for the executive.

On November 18, 2015, we amended Mr. Nelson's employment agreement to provide that, following June 20, 2016, Mr. Nelson will receive modified severance benefits. If Mr. Nelson is terminated without cause or if he resigns for any reason prior to December 20, 2016, he is entitled to receive pro-rated bonus payments and his base salary through December 20, 2016. Additionally, he is entitled to receive COBRA benefits through December 20, 2017 and the vesting on his outstanding stock options and RSUs will accelerate to such number of shares as if his employment had continued through December 20, 2016.

Employment Agreement with Lawrence W. Midland

On March 18, 2014, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Lawrence Midland under which Mr. Midland will serve as President of the Company and he remained a director of the Company, replacing the amended and restated executive employment agreement between Mr. Midland and the Company dated December 21, 2011. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Midland will receive an annual base salary of $200,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual bonus payment of $100,000, based upon the achievement of criteria as determined by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Compensation Committee. Additionally, Mr. Midland is eligible to receive 10,000 RSUs and options to purchase 40,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The initial term of Mr. Midland's agreement is three years, beginning January 1, 2014, and may be extended by mutual consent at any time prior to its expiration. The Company or Mr. Midland may terminate the agreement at any time without cause upon 12 months' prior written notice. During the 12-month notice period, Mr. Midland would continue to receive monthly salary payments and any applicable bonus payments (which shall be pro rata for such applicable portion of the then current fiscal year) until the end of the notice period. If, within 12 months following a change of control (as defined in the agreement) the Company (or its successor) has reduced Mr. Midland's compensation in excess of 10%, requires Mr. Midland to relocate greater than 50 miles from Mr. Midland's then-current location, or terminates Mr. Midland other than for cause, then Mr. Midland will be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 200% of his then-current annual base salary payable in a lump sum, accelerated vesting of all unvested stock options and RSUs so that they become fully vested and exercisable, and reimbursement for health care coverage until the earliest of (i) the date Mr. Midland is no longer eligible to receive continuation coverage pursuant to COBRA, (ii) 12 months following such termination, or (iii) for such shorter period until Mr. Midland obtains new employment offering health insurance coverage. Mr. Midland's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. The agreement does not contain an excise tax gross-up provision. In the event that benefits under the agreement or otherwise payable to the executive would constitute an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, Mr. Midland is entitled to receive either (i) the full benefits payable or (ii) a reduced amount that falls below the applicable safe harbor provided under Section 280G, whichever amount provides the greater after-tax value for the executive.

Effective June 30, 2014, Mr. Midland resigned as director of the Company. Mr. Midland's resignation is not the result of any dispute or disagreement with the Company. On July 31, 2014, the Company entered into an amendment to the executive employment agreement with Lawrence Midland dated March 18, 2014, in connection with ongoing restructuring efforts. Under the terms of the amendment, Mr. Midland agreed to resign his position as President of the Company, as well as all other executive positions held by him with the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries. The amendment entitles Mr. Midland to receive a fixed salary at the rate of $16,666.67 per month for a period of 12 months, ending July 31, 2015 (the Termination Date). In addition, Mr. Midland is entitled to receive a monthly payment of $4,861.11 for 12 months as full settlement of the pro-rated portion of Mr. Midland's executive bonus for 2014. Mr. Midland has agreed to waive any future right or entitlement to any performance or incentive bonus as provided under his Employment Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Company's compensation plans as in effect from time to time prior to the Termination Date. Any stock options and RSUs granted to Mr. Midland prior to or as of the Termination Date, which remain unvested as of such date, shall thereupon become fully vested; all unexercised options will expire two years after the Termination Date.

Employment Agreement with Dr. Manfred Mueller

On February 16, 2012, the Company entered into an amended and restated executive employment agreement with Dr. Manfred Mueller. Under the terms of the agreement, Dr. Mueller will receive an annual base salary of EUR 200,000 and continued to be eligible to participate in the Company's bonus program for core management executive officers that sets forth eligibility criteria for an annual bonus of up to a maximum of 200% of fixed salary and in the Company's benefit programs, as in effect from time to time. The Company waived any obligation of Dr. Mueller to repay the break-up fee previously paid to him in connection with a Termination Agreement and Release, dated April 1, 2010, arising out of the merger of Bluehill ID AG and SCM Microsystems, Inc. The initial term of the agreement is 36 months, and may be extended for an additional term of 24 months by mutual agreement at any time prior to the expiration of the initial term. The Company or Dr. Mueller may terminate the amended agreement at any time without cause upon 12 months' prior written notice. From the time of such notice to the end of the 12-month notice period, Dr. Mueller would continue to receive his then-current fixed salary and any bonus payments pro rata until the end of the notice period. The Company may terminate the amended agreement for cause at any time without notice and without any payment in lieu of notice. Effective June 1, 2012, Dr. Mueller's employment agreement was amended to reflect a voluntary 20% salary reduction effective from June 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012.

On March 18, 2014, the Company entered into a second amendment to its amended and restatement executive employment agreement with Dr. Mueller, dated February 16, 2012. This second amendment changes Dr. Mueller's position to Chief Operating Officer, with responsibility for the Company's sales in the Europe/Middle East and Asia/Pacific regions. It also replaces Dr. Mueller's eligibility for bonus compensation with payment of commissions equal to 50% of his annual base salary, based on achievement of planned target revenues and paid on a quarterly basis. Additionally, Dr. Mueller is eligible to receive 14,000 RSUs and options to purchase 56,000 shares of the Common Stock. The term of Dr. Mueller's amended agreement is three years, beginning January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2016, and may be extended by mutual consent at any time prior to its expiration. If, within 12 months following a change of control (as defined in the agreement) the Company (or its successor) has reduced Dr. Mueller's compensation in excess of 10% requires Dr. Mueller to relocate greater than 50 miles from Dr. Mueller's then-current location, or terminates Dr. Mueller other than for cause, then Dr. Mueller would be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 200% of his then-current annual base salary payable in a lump sum and accelerated vesting of all unvested stock options and RSUs so that they become fully vested and exercisable. Dr. Mueller's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. The agreement does not contain an excise tax gross-up provision. In the event that benefits under the agreement or otherwise payable to the executive would constitute an "excess parachute payment" under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, Dr. Mueller is entitled to receive either (i) the full benefits payable or (ii) a reduced amount that falls below the applicable safe harbor provided under Section 280G, whichever amount provides the greater after-tax value for the executive. All other terms and conditions of Dr. Mueller's amended and restated executive employment agreement dated February 16, 2012 and amended May 31, 2012 remain in full force and effect.

Table of Contents

On February 2, 2015, the Company entered into a third amendment to its amended and restatement executive employment agreement with Manfred Mueller, dated February 16, 2012. Pursuant to the third amendment Dr. Mueller's title was changed to Executive Vice-President, Global Operations and Support. Dr. Mueller was formerly Chief Operating Officer, with responsibility for the Company's sales in the Europe/Middle East and Asia/Pacific regions. In addition to the change in title, the amendment also replaces Dr. Mueller's eligibility to earn commission compensation with an opportunity to earn a bonus equal to 50% of his annual base salary, based on achievement of planned target revenues and other mutually agreed upon performance metrics. All other terms and conditions of Dr. Mueller's amended and restated executive employment agreement dated February 16, 2012, amended May 31, 2012, and March 18, 2014 remain in full force and effect.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

The information below describes the estimated value of certain compensation and benefits that would potentially have become payable under contractual arrangements with our Named Executive Officers assuming a termination of employment or change in control of the Company had occurred on December 31, 2014, based upon the Named Executive Officers' compensation and service levels as of such date and, where applicable, the $13.89 closing price of our common stock on December 31, 2014. The information presented represents estimates of incremental amounts that would become payable had a triggering event occurred on December 31, 2014 and does not include amounts that were earned and payable as of that date regardless of the occurrence of a triggering event. Because Mr. Midland's employment with the Company actually terminated on July 31, 2014, the information presented for him reflects the actual compensation and benefits to which he became entitled as a result of termination. The actual amounts to be paid and the value of any accelerated vesting of stock options, restricted stock or RSUs can be determined only at the time of a triggering event, and are dependent upon the facts and circumstances then applicable.

If Mr. Hart had been terminated by the Company as of December 31, 2014 for any reason other than for cause (as defined in his employment agreement), he would have become entitled to $700,000, representing 24 months' monthly salary. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Hart would have been entitled to all applicable bonus payments until the expiry of the then current term of the employment agreement. Had Mr. Hart's employment terminated as of December 31, 2014 following a change in control of the Company as a result of a termination without cause or other conditions of his employment are materially changed following a change of control of the Company, he would have become entitled to (i) a severance payment of $700,000 payable in a lump sum, representing 200% of his then current annual salary, (ii) reimbursement of health care coverage for a period of twelve months and having a value of approximately $9,000, and (iii) accelerated vesting of options for 10,833 shares having an intrinsic value of approximately $150,000. Mr. Hart's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. In addition, Mr. Hart may be subject to a Section 280G cutback.

If Mr. Nelson had been terminated by the Company as of December 31, 2014 for any reason other than for cause (as defined in his employment agreement), he would have become entitled to $295,000, representing 12 months' salary or continued payment thereof in lieu of notice. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Nelson would have been entitled to a pro rata portion of any bonus that would otherwise have been earned by him during the 12-month notice period. Had Mr. Nelson's employment terminated as of December 31, 2014 following a change in control of the Company as a result of involuntary termination without cause or his resignation following a material change in his employment conditions, he would have become entitled to (i) a severance payment of $590,000 payable in a lump sum, representing 200% of his then current annual salary, (ii) reimbursement of health care coverage for a period of twelve months and having a value of approximately $9,000, and (iii) accelerated vesting of options for 135,000 shares having an intrinsic value of approximately $1,875,000. Mr. Nelson's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. In addition, Mr. Nelson may be subject to a Section 280G cutback.

Mr. Midland and the Company entered into an amendment to the executive employment agreement with Lawrence Midland on July 31, 2014, under which Mr. Midland agreed to resign his position as President of the Company, as well as all other executive positions held by him with the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries. The amendment entitles Mr. Midland to receive a fixed salary at the rate of $16,666.67 per month for a period of 12 months, ending July 31, 2015 (the Termination Date). In addition, Mr. Midland is entitled to receive a monthly payment of $4,861.11 for 12 months as full settlement of the pro-rated portion of Mr. Midland's executive bonus for 2014 and health care coverage for the period up to his Termination Date having a value of approximately $9,000. Under the amendment, any stock options and RSUs granted to Mr. Midland prior to or as of the Termination Date, which remain unvested as of such date, shall thereupon become fully vested and all unexercised options will expire two years after Termination Date. Mr. Midland is entitled to the accelerated vesting of options for 30,000 shares having an intrinsic value of approximately $417,000 and 20,000 RSUs with a value of approximately $278,000.

If Dr. Mueller had been terminated by the Company as of December 31, 2014 for any reason other than for cause as defined in his employment agreement, he would have become entitled to approximately $249,532, representing 12 months salary based on the average exchange rate for December 2014 of one U.S. Dollar being equal to 0.8015 Euro or continued payment thereof in lieu of notice, and a pro rata portion of any bonus that would otherwise have been earned by him during the 12-month notice period. Had Dr. Mueller's employment terminated as of December 31, 2014 following a change in control of the Company as a result of a termination without cause or other conditions of his employment are materially changed following a change of control of the Company, he would have become entitled to (i) a severance payment of $499,064 payable in a lump sum, representing 200% of his then current annual salary, (ii) reimbursement of health care coverage for a period of twelve months and having a value of approximately $3,200, and (iii) accelerated vesting of options for 42,500 shares having an intrinsic value of approximately $590,000. Dr. Mueller's entitlement to such benefits would be conditioned upon his execution and non-revocation of a general release in a form determined by the Company. In addition, Dr. Mueller may be subject to a Section 280G cutback.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

During 2014, each non-employee member of our Board of Directors was eligible to receive compensation consisting of cash and equity awards, which are further described below.

Annual Compensation

During 2014, each non-employee member of our Board of Directors was eligible to receive cash compensation, payable quarterly, as detailed below. However, a director may elect to receive, in lieu of cash, equity awards under the Company's 2011 Incentive Compensation Plan. Annual compensation for each eligible director for 2014 potentially included:

an annual retainer of $25,000 paid in cash, or, at each directors election, $30,000 paid in equity awards (representing 120% of the annual cash retainer). For the Chairman of the Board of Directors, an annual retainer of $31,250 paid in cash, or, at the Chairman's election, $37,500 paid in equity awards (representing 120% of the annual cash retainer);

an additional annual retainer for service as Lead Director of the Board of Directors, if applicable;

until May 2014, an additional annual retainer of $5,000 for service on the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, except for the committee Chairman, who is eligible to receive an annual retainer of $10,000, with all amounts paid in cash or equity awards;

until May 2014, an additional annual retainer of $2,000 for service on the Compensation or Nominating Committees of the Board of Directors, except for the Chairman of such committees, each of whom is eligible to receive an annual retainer of $4,000, with all amounts paid in cash or equity awards; and beginning in May 2014, an annual equity grant under the Company's 2011 Incentive Compensation Plan with a fair value of $175,000 for each eligible director who serves on the Board of Directors until the next Annual Stockholder Meeting, such amount to be allocated between restricted stock units (RSUs) and stock options at the election of each eligible director. For the Chairman of the Board of Directors, an annual equity grant under the Company's 2011 Incentive Compensation Plan with a fair value of $218,750 for serving as Chairman of the Board of Directors until the next Annual Stockholder Meeting, such amount to be allocated between RSUs and stock options at the election of the Chairman. Equity awards shall be awarded each year on the date of the Annual Shareholder Meeting to vest in four equal installments over a one year period or by the date of the next Annual Stockholder Meeting or for a pro-rated amount.

Additionally, the Company reimburses its non-employee directors for all reasonable out-of pocket expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as directors, which in practice primarily consist of travel expenses associated with Board of Directors or committee meetings or with committee assignments.

Equity Compensation

During 2014, each of the Company's non-employee directors was eligible to receive option awards under the terms of the Company's 2011 Incentive Compensation Plan. Under this plan, new members of the Board of Directors receive an initial option grant to purchase 1,000 shares of Common Stock, or such other number of shares as determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion. Until May 2014, continuing members of the Board of Directors who have served for at least six months receive an annual option grant to purchase 2,000 shares of Common Stock, awarded on the date of our Annual Meeting of stockholders. Both of these option grants vest 1/12th per month over the one-year period following the date of grant.

Non-employee directors who served on the Strategic Committee were eligible to receive an option grant to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock each quarter, with such options being fully vested at the date of grant. The Strategic Committee was dissolved as of April 15, 2014.

For directors who elect to receive shares in lieu of cash as payment for their service on the Board of Directors, such shares received as compensation may not be sold except in exceptional circumstances and subject to the prior approval of the Compensation Committee.

Earn-out Consideration Pursuant to idOnDemand Agreement. As discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the SPA) on April 29, 2011 between the Company and the sellers of idOnDemand, Inc. (the Selling Shareholders) whereby the Selling Shareholders were eligible to receive limited earn-out payments (Earn-out Consideration) in the form of shares of common stock subject to certain lock-up periods under the terms of the SPA. The SPA provided for the Earn-out Consideration to be paid to the Selling Shareholders for each of the years or part years ended December 31, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 based on the achievement of specific financial and sales performance targets, with the measurement of those achievements to be determined based on the financial records of idOnDemand. However, since the idOnDemand product group has been fully integrated into the Company since the acquisition and, as such, it was impractical to derive the discrete financial records of the related product group, the Company decided to engage a third party independent valuation firm to assist in the validation of the Earn-out Consideration liability as of December 31, 2014. The valuation was based on a calculation of the Company's internal sales performance data as well as consideration of comparable companies' metrics and data. The Board of Directors of the Company considered this valuation, among other factors, and approved an Earn-out Consideration liability in the amount of $3.51 million for the period ended December 31, 2014.

As outlined in the SPA, certain of the Selling Shareholders include Mr. Hart and Mr. Nelson. The Earn-out Consideration will be settled through the issuance of the Company's common stock within 60 days from the release of annual results. Accordingly, the $3.51 million Earn-out Consideration will be distributed to the Selling Shareholders in proportion to their former shareholdings, which include approximately 87% held by Jason Hart representing approximately $3,040,000 and 0.3% held by Brian Nelson representing approximately $10,500 of the total Earn-out Consideration. Company common shares issued will have a lock-up period of 12 months from date of issue.

Director Independence

Our Board of Directors has reviewed the independence of each of our directors and considered whether any director has had a material relationship with the Company or our management that could compromise his ability to exercise independent judgment in carrying out his duties and responsibilities. As a result of this review, our Board of Directors determined that all of our directors, other than Mr. Hart and Mr. Humphreys, are independent under applicable rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market and the SEC.

In connection with the determination of independence of Daniel S. Wenzel, the Board of Directors considered Mr. Wenzel's relationship with one of the Company's largest stockholders, Mountain Partners AG, of which Mr. Wenzel is a co-founder and partner. The Board of Directors determined that such relationship would not compromise Mr. Wenzel's ability to exercise independent judgment in carrying out his duties and responsibilities. In agreeing to serve as a member of our Board of Directors, Mr. Wenzel must act independently of Mountain Partners AG in discharging his fiduciary duties to stockholders of the Company and also is obligated not to disclose to Mountain Partners AG or use for his own benefit any confidential information that he may obtain during his service on our Board of Directors. Mr. Wenzel disclaims shared voting or dispositive power over any securities held by Mountain Partners AG.
