On November 6, 2017, Northwest Natural Gas Company (NW Natural) sent a notice (the Notice) to its directors and executive officers informing them that, in order to facilitate a transition of the assets and administration of the Northwest Natural Gas Company Retirement K Savings Plan (the Plan) from T. Rowe Price to Fidelity, Plan participants will be unable to make changes to their Plan accounts, direct or diversify the investments in their Plan accounts, including in NW Natural common stock, or obtain loans or distributions from the Plan, during the period beginning at 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time on December 6, 2017 and ending during the week of December 17, 2017 (the Blackout Period). During the week of December 17, 2017, directors and officers may obtain information about whether the Blackout Period has ended, free of charge, by contacting the person listed below.

The Notice also states that, pursuant to Section 306 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Regulation BTR (Blackout Trading Restriction), during the Blackout Period, NW Natural's directors and executive officers will be prohibited from directly or indirectly purchasing, selling or otherwise acquiring or transferring shares of NW Natural common stock and derivative securities acquired in connection with their service or employment as a director or an executive officer of NW Natural. The Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Inquiries concerning the Notice or the Blackout Period, including the beginning and ending dates thereof (and for a period of two years after the ending date of the Blackout Period), may be directed without charge to:
