RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves certain risks. You should carefully consider the following factors with respect to the securities as well as the risks incorporated by reference in this prospectus or included in any applicable prospectus supplement before making an investment decision. You should also consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions discussed under the heading Risk Factors included in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K, as revised or supplemented by our subsequent reports on Form 10-Q or our current reports on Form 8-K that we have filed with the SEC, all of which are incorporated herein by reference, and which may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future. The risks and uncertainties described in this prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein are not the only ones facing us.

We cannot guarantee the timing, declaration or amount of dividends on, or repurchases of, our common stock.

The timing, declaration and amount of future dividends to stockholders or repurchases of our common stock is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on many factors such as our financial condition, earnings, capital requirements, any future debt service obligations, covenants under our existing or future debt agreements, industry practice, legal requirements, regulatory constraints, and other factors our Board of Directors deems relevant. Our ability to pay dividends or repurchase common stock will depend on our ongoing ability to generate cash from operations.

The trading price of our common stock may be volatile, and purchasers of our common stock could incur substantial losses.

The market price of our common stock may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to actual or anticipated variations in our operating results or other factors beyond our control. In addition, the securities markets have from time to time experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that often have been unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of particular companies. These broad market fluctuations, as well as general market, economic and political conditions, such as recessions, loss of investor confidence or interest rate changes, may negatively affect the market price of our common stock.

If any of the foregoing occurs, it could cause our stock price to fall and may result in purchasers of our common stock losing some or all of the value of their investment in our common stock.

If securities analysts do not publish research or reports about our business, or if they issue unfavorable commentary or negative recommendations with respect to our common stock, the price of our common stock could decline.

The trading market for our common stock is influenced by the research and reports that equity research and other securities analysts publish about us, our business and our industry. We do not have control over these analysts. Analysts could issue negative recommendations with respect to our common stock or publish other unfavorable commentary or cease publishing reports about us, our business or our industry. If one or more of these analysts cease coverage of us, we could lose visibility in the market. As a result of one or more of these factors, the market price of our common stock could decline rapidly and our common stock trading volume could be adversely affected.

Shares eligible for future sale may adversely affect our common stock price.

Sales of our common stock by us or our stockholders, including pursuant to this prospectus, or future sales of our securities in the public or private market, or the perception that these sales may occur, could cause the market price of our common stock to decline. Any transaction involving newly issued common stock could also result in dilution, possibly substantial, to existing stockholders. A decline in the market price of our common stock or the perception of future sales may make it more difficult for us to raise capital through the sale of equity or equity-related securities in the future at a time and price favorable to us.

Certain provisions of our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws and Rhode Island law may discourage a takeover of our company.

Our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws contain certain provisions that may discourage, delay, or prevent a change in our management or control over us. For example, our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, collectively:

Provide that a director may be removed only for cause by a majority vote of directors then in office or a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of that director;

Place limits on the calling of shareholder meetings;

A number of extraordinary corporate transactions, such as a merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all assets, must be approved by at least 80% of the shares then entitled to vote; and

Establish advance notice requirements for nominations of candidates for elections as directors or to bring other business before an annual meeting of our stockholders.

These provisions could discourage potential acquisition proposals and could delay or prevent a change in control, even though a majority of stockholders may consider such proposal, if effected, desirable. Such provisions could also make it more difficult for third parties to remove and replace the members of our Board of Directors. Moreover, these provisions may inhibit increases in the trading price of our common stock that may result from takeover attempts or speculation.

Table of Contents

Provisions of Our Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws and Rhode Island Law That May Have Anti-Takeover Effects

The provisions of our restated articles of incorporation summarized in the following paragraphs could have an impact on potential transactions involving a change in control of the Company or other extraordinary transaction. These provisions are intended to serve the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. They may, however, delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or other transaction that a shareholder might consider to be in his or her best interest.

Removal of Directors.

Our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide that, except as required by law, a director may be removed only for cause by a vote of at least a majority in number of our entire Board of Directors or by a vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of that director. If an Interested Person, as defined below, exists, our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide that such removal must be approved by (1) at least a majority in number of our entire Board of Directors, including a majority of the Continuing Directors, as defined below, or (2) by the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares then entitled to vote on the election of that director, including the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares then entitled to vote on the election of that director that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any Interested Person.

No Action By Written Consent.

Our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by our shareholders may be effected only at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, or by the unanimous written consent of shareholders.

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Certain provisions of the restated articles of incorporation (such as those providing for approvals of extraordinary transactions when an Interested Person exists and those governing the calling of shareholder meetings and action by shareholder written consent) require a vote of 66 2/3% of our outstanding shares to be amended (80% of the outstanding shares if an Interested Person exists).

The amended and restated bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted, by the Board of Directors without shareholder approval. The shareholders of the Company may adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws upon the vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares, provided that such vote must be approved by at least 80% of the outstanding shares if there is an Interested Person.

Business Combinations.

In order to approve a number of extraordinary corporate transactions, such as a merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all assets, with an Interested Person, as defined below, our restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws require:

an 80% vote of all outstanding shares entitled to vote, including a majority vote of all disinterested shareholders;

the approval of a majority of the entire Board of Directors, including the affirmative vote of a majority of the Continuing Directors, as defined in our restated articles of incorporation; and the satisfaction of procedural requirements, which are intended to assure that shareholders are treated fairly under the circumstances.

Table of Contents

Interested Person, as used in the preceding paragraph means:

any person together with its Affiliates and Associates, as defined in the Exchange Act, and any person acting in concert therewith who is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10% or more of the votes held by the holders of the securities generally entitled to vote for directors (the Voting Stock), any Affiliate or Associate of an Interested Person, including without limitation, a Person acting in concert therewith, any person that at any time within the two year period immediately prior to the date in question was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10% or more of the votes held by the holders of shares of Voting Stock, or an assignee of, or successor to, any shares of Voting Stock which were at any time within the two year period prior to the date in question beneficially owned by any Interested Person, if such assignment or succession occurred in a transaction or series of transactions not involving a public offering as defined by the Securities Act.

This definition of an Interested Person is subject to certain exceptions as contained within our restated articles of incorporation.

The 80% vote will not be required and, in accordance with the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, only a majority vote of shareholders will generally be required if this type of a transaction is approved by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, including the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the Continuing Directors.

The selling stockholder may, from time to time, offer the shares of our common stock offered in this prospectus in one or more transactions, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at fixed prices or prices subject to change or at negotiated prices, by one or more of the following methods in addition to any other method permitted under this prospectus:

on The Nasdaq Global Select Market or other national securities exchange or quotation system on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

in the over-the-counter market;

in privately negotiated transactions;

in an underwritten offering;

an ordinary brokerage transaction or a transaction in which the broker solicits purchasers;

a block trade in which the broker-dealer may attempt to sell the shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

a purchase by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its own account;

in an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

through distribution to its members, partners or stockholders, as applicable;

through the writing of options on the shares (whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise);

through short sale transactions following which the shares are delivered to close out the short positions; or through a combination of any of the above methods of sale, or any other method permitted by law.

In addition, the selling stockholder may sell its shares of common stock in reliance on Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any other available exemption from required registration under the Securities Act rather than pursuant to this prospectus, provided they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of such exemption.

The selling stockholder may effect such transactions by selling the shares of our common stock offered in this prospectus to or through broker-dealers or through other agents, including electronic trading platforms or similar services, and such broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of commissions or fees from the selling stockholder and/or the purchasers of shares for whom they may act as agent.

The selling stockholder may enter into derivative or hedging transactions with third parties, or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. In connection with those derivatives or hedges, the third parties may sell shares covered by this prospectus (as amended or supplemented, as required), including in short sale transactions. If so, the third party may use shares pledged by the selling stockholder or borrowed from the selling stockholder or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of shares, and may use shares received from the selling stockholder in settlement of those derivatives or hedges to close out any related open borrowings of shares. The third party in such transactions will be deemed an underwriter within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act and will be identified in a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment.

The selling stockholders may effect such transactions by selling the shares covered by this prospectus directly to purchasers, to or through broker-dealers, which may act as agents for the seller and buyer or principals, or to underwriters who acquire shares for their own account and resell them in one or more transactions. Such broker-dealers or underwriters may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions, or commissions from the selling stockholders and/or the purchasers of the shares covered by this prospectus for whom such broker-dealers may act as agents or to whom they sell as principal, or both (which compensation as to a particular broker-dealer might be in excess of customary commissions) and such discounts, concessions, or commissions may be allowed or re-allowed or paid to dealers. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or paid to dealers may be changed at different times.

The selling stockholder and any agents or broker-dealers that participate with the selling stockholder or third parties to derivative transactions in the sale of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act, and any commissions received by such agents or broker-dealers and any profit on the sale of registered shares by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

The selling stockholder may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus owned by it and, if it defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell such shares from time to time under this prospectus or prospectus supplement, as applicable.

In the event of a distribution of the shares of our common stock offered in this prospectus, the selling stockholder, any selling broker-dealer or agent and any affiliated purchasers may be subject to Regulation M under the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of common stock by the selling stockholder and any other participating person. In addition, Regulation M under the Exchange Act may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in a distribution of the shares of common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares of common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock. At a time a particular offering of shares of our common stock is made, a prospectus supplement, if required, will be distributed that will set forth the aggregate amount of shares of our common stock being offered, the terms of the offering, the name or names of any broker-dealers or agents, any discounts, commissions and other terms constituting compensation from the selling stockholder and any other required information.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus may be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers or, if required, an exemption from issuer-dealer registration is perfected. In addition, in certain states, shares of our common stock may not be sold unless such shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification requirement is available and the sale conforms to the requirements of such exemption.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant is incorporated in Rhode Island. Under Section 7-1.2-814 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act ("RIBCA"), a Rhode Island corporation has the power, under specified circumstances, to indemnify any individual made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an officer or director if:

he or she conducted himself or herself in good faith, he or she reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that his or her actions were in the corporation's best interests, and in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests, in criminal proceedings, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful, or he or she engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation.

The foregoing statement is subject to the detailed provisions of 7-1.2-814 of the RIBCA.

Article X of the amended and restated bylaws of the Registrant provides that the Registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers to the full extent permitted by Section 7-1.2-814 of the RIBCA, as the same may be amended from time to time.

Section 7-1.2-202 of the RIBCA provides that articles of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director provided that the provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, under Section 7-1.2-811 of the RIBCA, which relates to liability for unauthorized acquisitions or redemptions of, or dividends or distributions on, capital stock, or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, unless said transaction is permitted by Section 7-1.2-807 of the RIBCA, which relates to director conflicts of interest.

No provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director will be effective with respect to causes of action arising prior to the inclusion of the provision in the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

Article Thirteenth of the Registrant's restated articles of incorporation contains such a provision.

Table of Contents

Section 7-1.2-814(i) of the RIBCA empowers a Rhode Island corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise, or employee benefit plan, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any corporate capacity or arising out of his or her status as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against the liability under the provisions of such section. The Registrant has a directors and officers liability insurance policy.

The Registrant has entered into an indemnification agreement with each of its directors, whereby the Registrant has agreed to indemnify each such director for amounts which the director is legally obligated to pay, including judgments, settlements or fines, including certain related expenses to be advanced by the Registrant, due to any actual or alleged breach of duty, neglect, error, misstatement, misleading statement or other act or omission by a director in his capacity as a director. This indemnification excludes claims:

covered by the Registrant's directors and officers liability insurance policy, for which the director is otherwise indemnified or reimbursed, relating to certain judgments or adjudications under which the director is liable for breaches of duty of loyalty, acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or involving knowing violations of law, for actions or certain transactions from which the director derives an improper personal benefit, relating to the director's liability for accounting for profits under Section 16 of the Exchange Act, in respect of remuneration, if found unlawful, and as to which a final and non-appealable judgment has determined that payment to the director thereunder is unlawful.

Item 16. Exhibits.

The exhibits to this Registration Statement are listed in the exhibit index, which appears elsewhere herein and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (a)(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
- (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
 - (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and
 - (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by a Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of this registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:
 - (i) each prospectus filed by a Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
 - (ii) each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.
- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of a Registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of such undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, such undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of such undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
- (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of such undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by such undersigned Registrant;
- (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about such undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of such undersigned Registrant; and
- (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by such undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.

Table of Contents

- (b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertake to file an application for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the trustee to act under subsection (a) of Section 310 of the Trust Indenture Act in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the SEC under Section 305(b)(2) of the Trust Indenture Act.
- (d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of any Registrant pursuant to the indemnification provisions described herein, or otherwise, each Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by a Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of such Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, such Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
