Key Financial and Performance Indicators for the First Three Quarters of 2018

In the third quarter of 2018, the Group continued to implement the national policy of speed upgrade and tariff reduction, and cancelled domestic handset data roaming fees with effect from 1 July. In the first half of the year, the Group prepared in advance by strengthening data traffic operation, optimising tariff packages and strengthening efforts to promote heavy data packages, in order to facilitate a smooth transition for customers and strive to achieve win-win leveraging price elasticity. It mitigated the downward pressure on the Group's mobile service revenue in the third quarter resulting from the cancellation of domestic handset data roaming fees.

In the first three quarters of 2018, the Group insisted on deepening the implementation of the Strategy of Focus, Innovation and Cooperation and fully accelerated the establishment of China Unicom's Five New. It gradually sped up the pace in driving Internet-oriented operations, while its efforts in mixed-ownership reform started delivering notable enhancement in growth momentum, quality and efficiency. The key unaudited financial data in the period were as follows:

Overall service revenue amounted to RMB 200,013 million, up by 6.5% year-on-year.

Mobile service revenue amounted to RMB 125,424 million, up by 7.2% year-on-year.

Fixed-line service revenue amounted to RMB 73,223 million, up by 5.2% year-on-year.

Revenue from industrial Internet business amounted to RMB 17,249 million, up by 35.7% year-on-year.

EBITDA amounted to RMB 66,246 million, up by 1.3% year-on-year.

The profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company amounted to RMB 8,780 million, up significantly by 116.6% year-on-year. It included an increase of RMB 1,474 million in the Group's share of net profit of associates resulting from the change in the Group's shareholding percentage in China Tower after its listing and new share issuance.

To enable shareholders, investors and the general public to better appraise the operational performance of the Group, the board of directors (the Board) of China Unicom (Hong Kong) Limited (the Company), together with its subsidiaries, the Group announces certain selected unaudited key financial and performance indicators of the Group for the first three quarters of 2018.

¹ The Group adopted IFRS/HKFRS 15 Revenue from contracts with customers and IFRS/HKFRS 9 (2014) Financial Instruments from 1 January 2018. For IFRS/HKFRS 15, the Group elected to use the cumulative effect transition method which resulted in an increase of the opening balance of retained profits at 1 January 2018 by approximately RMB1.75 billion. The Group applied IFRS/HKFRS 9 (2014) retrospectively and has taken the advantage not to restate the comparative information for prior periods with respect to the classification and measurement requirements, which resulted in a decrease in the opening balance of retained profits at 1 January 2018 by approximately RMB0.85 billion.

In the third quarter of 2018, the Group continued to implement the national policy of speed upgrade and tariff reduction, and cancelled domestic handset data roaming fees with effect from 1 July. In the first half of the year, the Group prepared in advance by strengthening data traffic operation, optimising tariff packages and strengthening efforts to promote heavy data packages, in order to facilitate a smooth transition for customers and strive to achieve win-win leveraging price elasticity. It mitigated the downward pressure on the Group's mobile service revenue in the third quarter resulting from the cancellation of domestic handset data roaming fees.

In the first three quarters of 2018, the Group insisted on deepening the implementation of the Strategy of Focus, Innovation and Cooperation and fully accelerated the establishment of China Unicom's Five New. It gradually sped up the pace in driving Internet-oriented operations, while its efforts in mixed-ownership reform started delivering notable enhancement in growth momentum, quality and efficiency. The Group centred its energy on driving business model innovation with light touchpoints and low acquisition costs. It stepped up effort in transformation on Internet-oriented operation, and actively countered intensified competition, achieving fast and efficient development of mobile service in the first three quarters of 2018. The Group's mobile service revenue amounted to RMB 125,424 million, up by 7.2% year-on-year. Mobile billing subscribers registered a net addition of 25.66 million, reaching a total of 310 million. Within that, 4G subscribers registered a net addition of 38.97 million, reaching a total of 214 million. Mobile billing subscriber ARPU declined year-on-year to RMB 46.8.

Facing intense competition in the fixed-line broadband market, the Group adhered to the strategy of big integration, big bandwidth and big video and continued to optimise the array of integrated products. It focused on promoting high-bandwidth and contents driven products and continuously enriched quality video content. The Group's fixed-line broadband business continued to report improvements. The number of fixed-line broadband subscribers reached 80.35 million, representing a net addition of 3.81 million as compared to the end of last year. For the first three quarters of 2018, fixed-line broadband access revenue reached RMB 32,039 million, which was largely stable as compared to the same period last year. On the other hand, the Group accelerated the efforts in sharpening the core capability in innovative product platforms and products, established system and mechanism segregated from its fundamental services, and proactively expanded business and capital cooperation with strategic investors from mixed-ownership reform, so as to drive new breakthroughs in its innovative business. For the first three quarters of 2018, revenue from industrial Internet business amounted to RMB 17,249 million, up by 35.7% year-on-year. Driven by the rapid growth of the innovative business, the Group's fixed-line service revenue reached RMB 73,223 million, up by 5.2% year-on-year. Overall service revenue amounted to RMB 200,013 million, up by 6.5% year-on-year.

Table of Contents

In the first three quarters of 2018, the Group proactively deepened the reform of incentive systems and strengthened performance-linked incentives while at the same time stepping up recruitment of talents in innovative business to boost new energy for innovative development. Employee benefit expenses increased by 14.4% year-on-year. Other operating expenses increased by 12.9% year-on-year mainly due to the increasing costs associated with the rapid growth in ICT, higher loss on disposal of fixed assets and appropriately increased marketing spending to counter keen market competition. Due to the substantial reduction in interest-bearing debts, finance costs decreased by 69.4% year-on-year during the period. In August 2018, China Tower Corporation Limited (China Tower), an associate company of the Group, was listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong and issued new shares, leading to a change in the Group's shareholding percentage in China Tower. It caused the Group's share of net profit of associates accounted for under equity method to increase by RMB 1,474 million. For the first three quarters of 2018, the Group's EBITDA amounted to RMB 66,246 million, up by 1.3% year-on-year. EBITDA as a percentage of service revenue was 33.1%. The profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company amounted to RMB 8,780 million, up significantly by 116.6% year-on-year. It included the aforementioned increase in the Group's share of net profit of associates.

Market competition may intensify cyclically in the fourth quarter this year. The Group will actively cope with challenges and persistently deepen the execution of its Strategy of Focus, Innovation and Cooperation. It will accelerate the establishment of China Unicom's Five New and persevere in the implementation of the Internet-oriented operation. Seizing opportunities afforded by the mixed-ownership reform, the Group will deepen strategic cooperation and further advance the system and mechanism reform, accelerating the delivery of benefits from the reform and comprehensively enhancing the Group's overall competitive strengths. It will appropriately step up investments in innovative businesses and talents development, in order to proactively nurture future growth engines and drive high-quality sustainable growth in full-force.
