Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 3, 2018, the MetLife, Inc. (the Company) Board of Directors appointed Tamara L. Schock as Executive Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer. Ms. Schock's appointment will be effective when her employment with a Company affiliate begins, which MetLife expects will be March 4, 2019. A copy of MetLife's news release announcing Ms. Schock's appointment is included in this report as Exhibit 99.1.

Ms. Schock, age 47, has served as Chief Financial Officer of Exchange Income Corporation, a multi-national publicly listed Canadian company with businesses in the aviation, aerospace and manufacturing industries, since 2015. Ms. Schock previously served as a Partner-Assurance & Advisory Services with Deloitte, Canada and Deloitte, United States of America, which provide audit and assurance, consulting, risk and financial advisory, risk management, tax, and related services, from 2006 to 2015.

Ms. Schock will receive base salary from MetLife at an annual rate of $450,000. She will receive Restricted Stock Units (RSUs) with an initial value of $310,000 and total cash sign-on payments of $320,000, each subject to verification of forfeited compensation from her current employer. Ms. Schock will forfeit the RSUs if she voluntarily ends her employment or is terminated for Cause (as defined in the MetLife 2015 Stock and Incentive Compensation Plan) within three years, and must repay the cash sign-on payments if she voluntarily ends her employment or is terminated for Cause within two years of each payment. Ms. Schock will also receive relocation benefits, including limited assistance with immigration, transportation, shipment of personal property, interim housing, an interim period per diem, tax return preparation, home sale support, broker assistance, new home closing costs, a relocation allowance for miscellaneous expenses, and make-whole for taxes on certain relocation items. All of Ms. Schock's relocation benefits are subject to repayment if she voluntarily ends her employment or is terminated for cause during the first two years of her permanent relocation to the United States.

William O. Donnell will remain Company Executive Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer until Ms. Schock's appointment is effective, at which time he will become MetLife's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the U.S.
