Gannett Comments on Revised Nominations from MNG Enterprises, Inc.

Continues to Recommend that Shareholders Vote FOR ALL of the Company's Eight Highly Experienced, Independent Director Nominees on the WHITE Proxy Card

McLEAN, VA Gannett Co., Inc. (NYSE: GCI) today issued the following statement regarding the revised slate of three highly conflicted director candidates now put forth by MNG Enterprises, Inc. (MNG) for election to Gannett's board in connection with Gannett's 2019 annual meeting of shareholders scheduled to be held on May 16, 2019:

The number of candidates put forth by MNG does not change the fact that each of MNG's director nominees has irreconcilable conflicts of interest (given each nominee's close affiliations with MNG and/or its majority shareholder, Alden Global Capital) and cannot be expected to act in the best interests of all Gannett shareholders. Furthermore, all three of the candidates now put forth by MNG are on the board of Fred's, Inc., which has seen a 92% share price decline since Alden invested in December 2016.¹

In particular:

Heath Freeman is the president and a founding member of Alden, vice chairman of MNG and chairman of the board of Fred's, where he was appointed to the board pursuant to a Cooperation Agreement between Fred's and Alden.

Steven Rossi is the former chief executive officer of MNG and serves as a director on the Fred's board after being appointed to the board pursuant to the same Cooperation Agreement as Mr. Freeman.

Dana Goldsmith Needleman is also a director at Fred's. In addition, Ms. Needleman is a family friend of Mr. Freeman, and they have seemingly known each other for years prior to Ms. Needleman being hand-picked to serve on the Fred's board, including through business dealings, charitable organizations, a shared alma mater and documented social gatherings. Ms. Needleman's spouse has also represented Alden in real estate dealings, and Ms. Needleman has made a sizeable personal donation to one of their alma mater's organizations on which Mr. Freeman is chairman of the advisory board.

In addition, because of the conflicts of interest resulting from the affiliations of MNG's candidates with a direct competitor and/or the controlling owner of a direct competitor, MNG's candidates may face significant restrictions on the company information to which they could have access, meaning they would not benefit from the same information available to Gannett's independent director nominees. As a result, MNG's candidates would not be able to meaningfully fulfill the functions of the seat to which they are being nominated.

The Gannett board of directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR ALL of the company's actively engaged, highly experienced and independent director nominees on the WHITE proxy card today.

Additional materials regarding the board of directors' recommendations for the annual meeting are available on the investor relations page of Gannett's website at <https://investors.gannett.com>.

The Gannett Annual Meeting of Shareholders is scheduled to be held at 8:30 a.m. ET on May 16, 2019, and shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 18, 2019 will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Gannett shareholders who have questions or would like additional information should contact the company's proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, toll-free at 1-877-456-3507.

Greenhill & Co., LLC and Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC are acting as financial advisors and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP is acting as legal advisor to Gannett.

If you have any questions, or need assistance in voting your shares, please call the firm assisting us in the solicitation of proxies:

Remember: Please simply discard any Blue proxy card you may receive from MNG.

Any vote on MNG's Blue proxy card (even a vote in protest on their nominees) will revoke any earlier proxy card that you have submitted to Gannett.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include all statements that are not historical facts. The words believe, expect, estimate, could, should, intend, may, plan, seek, anticipate, project and among others, generally identify forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statements were made and are not guarantees of future performance. Where, in any forward-looking statement, an expectation or belief as to future results or events is expressed, such expectation or belief is based on the current plans and expectations of our management and expressed in good faith and believed to have a reasonable basis, but there can be no assurance that the expectation or belief will result or be achieved or accomplished. Whether or not any such forward-looking statements are in fact achieved will depend on future events, some of which are beyond our control. The matters discussed in these forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, trends, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those projected, anticipated or implied in the forward-looking statements, including the matters described under the heading "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the company's annual report on Form 10-K for fiscal year 2018 and in the company's other SEC filings.
