Beginning on January 1, 2021, as permitted by regulations adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, paper copies of shareholder reports will no longer be sent by mail, unless you specifically request paper copies of the reports. Instead, the reports will be made available on the Funds' website (us.allianzgi.com), and you will be notified by mail each time a report is posted and provided with a website link to access the report.

If you already elected to receive shareholder reports electronically, you will not be affected by this change and you need not take any action. You may elect to receive shareholder reports and other communications from a Fund electronically anytime by contacting your financial intermediary (such as a broker-dealer or bank) or, if you are a direct investor, by enrolling at us.allianzgi.com/edelivery.

If you prefer to receive paper copies of your shareholder reports after January 1, 2021, direct investors may inform a Fund at any time. If you invest through a financial intermediary, you should contact your financial intermediary directly. Paper copies are provided free of charge and your election to receive reports in paper will apply to all funds held with the fund complex if you invest directly with a Fund or all funds held in your account if you invest through your financial intermediary.

Letter from the President

Thomas J. Fuccillo

President & Chief Executive Officer

Dear Shareholder:

The US economic expansion continued during the twelve-month fiscal reporting period ended February 28, 2019. In contrast, economic growth overseas weakened. Over this period, global equities generated mixed results. Meanwhile, the overall US bond market posted a modest gain during the period.

For the 12-month reporting period ended February 28, 2019

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund returned 4.96% on net asset value (NAV) and 3.72% on market price.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund returned -2.42% on NAV and 2.00% on market price.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II returned -2.69% on NAV and 1.14% on market price.

During the twelve-month period ended February 28, 2019, the Standard & Poor's (S&P) 500 Index, an unmanaged index generally representative of the US stock market, returned 4.68% and the ICE BofA Merrill Lynch High Yield Master II Index, an unmanaged index generally representative of the high yield bond market, returned 4.26%. Convertible securities, which share characteristics of both stocks and bonds, generated even stronger results. The ICE BofA Merrill Lynch All Convertibles All Qualities Index, an unmanaged index generally representative of the convertible securities market, returned 8.33%.

Turning to the US economy, gross domestic product (GDP), the value of goods and services produced in the country, which is the broadest measure of economic activity and the principal indicator of economic performance, expanded at a 2.2% annualized pace during the first quarter of 2018. Second quarter 2018 GDP then accelerated to an annual pace of 4.2%, the best reading since the third quarter of 2014. GDP grew at an annual pace of 3.4% during the third quarter of 2018. Finally, the Commerce Department's initial reading for fourth quarter 2018 GDP growth released after the reporting period ended was 2.6%.

After raising interest rates three times in 2017, the US Federal Reserve (the Fed) again raised rates at its meetings in March, June, September and December of 2018. The last hike pushed the federal funds rate to a range between 2.25% and 2.50%. The Fed also continued to reduce the size of its balance sheet. At its January 2019 meeting, the Fed indicated that it expected to temper its monetary policy tightening in 2019, although this may change based on incoming economic data.

Outlook

Last year was generally a challenging one for investors overall, with poor returns and renewed volatility giving global investors few places to hide, particularly as the year came to a close. The markets seem wary of the growing signs of economic fatigue around the world. Late-cycle fault lines have become more visible: in our view, corporate profit growth may have peaked, fiscal stimulus is waning and central banks are providing less liquidity.

We think economic growth around the world is getting patchier and the US is slowing down amid growing fears of a recession. Although the US economy has the potential to deteriorate in 2019, as signaled by a flatter yield curve and weaker housing market, a recession seems unlikely this year. Even if a recession were to happen, we think active investors will still be able to find opportunities by focusing on the fundamentals – including using proprietary research.

Given recent market conditions and concerns about a recession, it is understandable that investors may be nervous that this long but lackluster economic cycle is coming to an end. However, we do not believe it's finished just yet. So, despite market corrections and volatility, we believe investors should aim to benefit from the long-term power of compounding. In addition, we believe investors should look beyond the immediate news flow and political bluster and instead focus on balance-sheet strengths and other qualities that underpin the sustainability of investments.

On behalf of Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC, thank you for investing with us. We encourage you to consult with your financial advisor and to visit our website, us.allianzgi.com/closedendfunds, for additional information. We remain dedicated to serving your investment needs.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Fuccillo

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund / AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund /AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II

February 28, 2019 (unaudited)

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund

For the period of March 1, 2018 through February 28, 2019, as provided by Douglas G. Forsyth, CFA, Portfolio Manager.

For the twelve-month period ended February 28, 2019, the AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund (the Fund) returned 4.96% on net asset value (NAV) and 3.72% on market price.

Market Environment

The convertible bond, high-yield bond, and senior secured loan markets produced positive returns over the twelve-month period.

Increased volatility in the fourth quarter of 2018 momentarily disrupted the upward trajectory of risk assets over the twelve month period. After a weak finish to the year the convertible bond, high-yield bond, and senior secured loan markets rebounded sharply in 2019. Factors aiding the recovery included United States and China trade progress, a dovish pivot by the US Federal Reserve (Fed) and better-than-feared fourth-quarter financial results.

Against this backdrop, corporate fundamentals continued to improve, with most US companies reporting better-than-expected financial results. In 2018, quarterly earnings growth on a year-over-year basis for the S&P 500 Index averaged more than 20%, according to FactSet Research. Additionally, high-yield credit fundamentals strengthened, continuing a multi-year trend.

The strength of the US economy was supportive of the markets and contrasted overseas slowing. US reports revealed solid growth throughout the annual period with fourth-quarter GDP growth increasing 2.6% and topping expectations. Unemployment stayed low, industrial production increased and consumer spending was healthy. Not all data were positive; however, auto, housing and semiconductor reports confirmed further easing in these industries.

With the US economy growing above trend, the Fed continued to reduce its balance sheet and, as expected, raised the federal funds rate for a fourth time in 2018 and a ninth time this cycle to a range of 2.25% to 2.50%. The Fed's posture shifted in the new year, signaling a patient approach toward monetary policy adjustments and indicating balance sheet flexibility.

Portfolio Specifics

The Fund benefited from exposure to convertibles, high-yield bonds and senior secured loans. In addition to providing a positive total return, the Fund also provided a high level of income over the reporting period.

Edgar Filing: AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II - Form N-CSR

In the convertible bond sleeve, sectors that contributed positively to relative performance were financials, healthcare, and consumer discretionary. On the other hand technology, transportation, and energy sectors pressured relative performance.

In the high-yield bond sleeve, industry exposure that helped relative performance included energy, automotive, and healthcare. Conversely, the financial services, telecommunications, and chemicals industries hindered relative performance.

4 Annual Report | February 28, 2019

Table of Contents

In the senior secured loan sleeve, the top contributing industries included consumer goods, technology & electronics, and retail. The top detracting industries were limited to food & drug retailers and building materials.

Outlook

We believe the US economy and corporate earnings are projected to deliver continued growth in 2019. While some cyclical areas have exhibited weakness, we believe that the overall credit and fundamental profiles of risk assets remain healthy and we believe are not signaling an economic downturn.

We expect US economic activity to slow from above-trend growth to a moderate pace in 2019. Despite some headwinds, we believe that residual impacts of the tax cut, ongoing deregulation efforts and the potential for an infrastructure spending bill support a continuation of economic growth.

The Fed has communicated balance sheet flexibility and a patient approach toward future monetary policy adjustments.

After bottoming in the second quarter of 2016, corporate profits have accelerated through the third quarter of 2018. In 2019, the profit trajectory is still higher, in our view, growth could be less robust given high year-over-year comparisons, US dollar strength and trade uncertainty/tariffs.

Notes to Performance & Statistics:

* Credit ratings apply to the underlying holdings of the Funds and not the Funds themselves and are divided into categories ranging from highest to lowest credit quality, determined for purposes of presentations in this report by using ratings provided by S&P Global Ratings (S&P). Presentations of credit ratings information in this report use ratings provided by S&P for this purpose, among other reasons, because of the access to background information and other materials provided by S&P, as well as the Funds' considerations of industry practice. Bonds not rated by S&P, or bonds that do not have a rating available from S&P, or bonds that had a rating withdrawn by S&P are designated as NR or NA, respectively. Credit quality ratings assigned by a rating agency are subjective opinions, not statements of fact, and are subject to change periodically, even as frequently as daily. Ratings assigned by S&P or another rating agency are not absolute standards of credit quality and do not evaluate market risk. Rating agencies may fail to make timely changes in credit ratings, and an issuer's current financial condition may be better or worse than a rating indicates. In formulating investment decisions for the Funds, Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC develops its own analysis of the credit quality and risks associated with individual debt instruments, rather than relying exclusively on rating agencies or third-party research.

(1) Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Total return is calculated by determining the percentage change in NAV or market price (as applicable) in the specified period. The calculation assumes that all dividends and distributions, if any, have been reinvested. Total return does not reflect broker commissions or sales charges in connection with the purchase or sale of Fund shares. Total return for a period of more than one year represents the average annual total return.

Performance at market price will differ from results at NAV. Although market price returns tend to reflect investment results over time, during shorter periods returns at market price can also be influenced by factors such as changing views about the Funds, market conditions, supply and demand for each Fund's shares, or changes in each Fund's dividends.

An investment in each Fund involves risk, including the loss of principal. Total return, market price, market price yield and NAV will fluctuate with changes in market conditions. This data is provided for information purposes only and is not intended for trading purposes. Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. There is a one time public offering and once issued, shares of closed-end funds are traded in the open market through a stock exchange. NAV is equal to total assets attributable to common shareholders less total liabilities divided by the number of common shares outstanding. Holdings are subject to change daily.

(2) The NAV disclosed in the Funds' financial statements may differ from this NAV due to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(3) Market Price Yield is determined by dividing the annualized current (declared March 1, 2019) monthly dividend per common share (comprised of net investment income) by the market price per common share at February 28, 2019.

(4) Represents amounts drawn under the liquidity facility (Leverage) outstanding, as a percentage of total managed assets as of February 28, 2019. Total managed assets refer to total assets (including assets attributable to Leverage) minus liabilities (other than liabilities representing Leverage).

(5) Represents Preferred Shares and amounts drawn under the liquidity facility (Leverage) outstanding, as a percentage of total managed assets as of February 28, 2019. Total managed assets refer to total assets (including assets attributable to Leverage) minus liabilities (other than liabilities representing Leverage).

Notes to Schedule of Investments:

* Actual amount rounds to less than $1.

- (a) Private Placement Restricted as to resale and may not have a readily available market. Securities with an aggregate value of $112,024,383, representing 63.2% of net assets.
- (b) These securities generally pay interest at rates which are periodically pre-determined by reference to a base lending rate plus a premium. These base lending rates are generally either the lending rate offered by one or more major European banks, such as the LIBOR or the prime rate offered by one or more major United States banks, or the certificate of deposit rate. These securities are generally considered to be restricted as the Fund is ordinarily contractually obligated to receive approval from the Agent bank and/or borrower prior to disposition. Remaining maturities of senior loans may be less than the stated maturities shown as a result of contractual or optional payments by the borrower. Such prepayments cannot be predicted with certainty. The interest rate disclosed reflects the rate in effect on February 28, 2019.
- (c) 144A Exempt from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933. These securities may be resold in transactions exempt from registration, typically only to qualified institutional buyers. Securities with an aggregate value of $51,779,667, representing 29.2% of net assets.
- (d) When-issued or delayed-delivery. To be settled/delivered after February 28, 2019.

Edgar Filing: AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II - Form N-CSR

* At February 28, 2019, a security valued at $442,750 was transferred from Level 2 to Level 3. The transfer resulted from the lack of a current valuated price from independent pricing service at February 28, 2019 for the security.

 At February 28, 2019, a security valued at $5 was transferred from Level 2 to Level 3. The transfer was due to uncertainty regarding the receipt of updated financial statements and data related to a current evaluated price.

Issued via corporate action.

Removed from accounting records as worthless.

The table above may include Level 3 investments that are valued by brokers or independent pricing services. The inputs for these investments are not readily available or cannot be reasonably estimated and are generally those inputs described in Note 1(b).

* At February 28, 2019, a security valued at $328,570 was transferred from Level 2 to Level 3. The transfer resulted from the lack of a current valuated price from independent pricing service at February 28, 2019 for the security.

 At February 28, 2019, a security valued at $4 was transferred from Level 2 to Level 3. The transfer was due to uncertainty regarding the receipt of updated financial statements and data related to a current evaluated price.

Issued via corporate action.

Removed from accounting records as worthless.

The table above may include Level 3 investments that are valued by brokers or independent pricing services. The inputs for these investments are not readily available or cannot be reasonably estimated and are generally those inputs described in Note 1(b).

The following tables present additional information about valuation techniques and inputs used for investments that are measured at fair value and categorized within Level 3 at February 28, 2019:

1. Organization and Significant

Accounting Policies

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund (Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term), AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund (Convertible & Income) and AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II (Convertible & Income II) (each, a Fund and, collectively, the Funds), were organized as Massachusetts business trusts on March 21, 2017, January 17, 2003 and April 22, 2003, respectively and accordingly follow the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 946 Financial Services Investment Companies. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II are each organized and registered as diversified, closed-end management investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), and the rules and regulations thereunder. Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC (AllianzGI U.S. or the Investment Manager), serves as the Funds investment manager. AllianzGI U.S. is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Allianz Asset Management of America, L.P. (AAM). AAM is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Allianz SE, a publicly-traded European insurance and financial services company. Each Fund has authorized an unlimited amount of common shares with $0.00001 par value.

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term s investment objectives are to provide a high level of income and to return at least $9.835 per common share (the original net asset value per common share of beneficial interest before deducting offering costs of $0.02 per share) (the Original NAV) to holders of common shares on or about September 1, 2024 (the Termination Date). The objective to return

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term s Original NAV is not an express or implied guarantee obligation of Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, the Investment Manager or any other entity, and an investor may receive less than the Original NAV upon termination of Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term attempts to achieve its investment objectives by investing in a diversified portfolio of high yield securities, convertible securities and other income-producing debt instruments, including senior secured loans, primarily of U.S. issuers. The Fund intends, on or about the Termination Date, to cease its investment operations, liquidate its portfolio (to the extent possible), retire or redeem any outstanding leverage facilities and distribute all its liquidated assets to the then-record holders of common shares, unless such term is extended by the Trustees and absent Trustee and shareholder approval to amend the limited term.

Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II each have an investment objective is to provide total return through a combination of capital appreciation and high current income. Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II attempt to achieve this objective by investing in a portfolio of domestic convertible securities and non-convertible income-producing securities.

There can be no assurance that the Funds will meet their stated objectives.

The preparation of the Funds' financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires the Funds' management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in each Fund's financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

1. Organization and Significant

Like many other companies, the Funds' organizational documents provide that its officers (Officers) and the Board of Trustees of each Fund (together, the Board) are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties to the Funds. In addition, both in some of its principal service contracts and in the normal course of its business, the Funds enter into contracts that provide indemnification to other parties for certain types of losses or liabilities. The Funds' maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this could involve future claims against the Funds.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Funds:

(a) Valuation of Investments

Portfolio securities and other financial instruments for which market quotations are readily available are stated at market value. Market values for various types of the securities and other instruments are determined on the basis of closing prices or last sales prices on an exchange or other market based on quotes or other market information obtained from quotation reporting systems, established market makers, or independent pricing services. The Funds' investments are valued daily using prices supplied by an independent pricing service or broker/dealer quotations, or by using the last sale or settlement price on the exchange that is the primary market for such securities, or the mean between the last bid and ask quotations. Independent pricing services use information provided by market makers or estimates of market values obtained from yield data relating to investments or securities with similar characteristics.

The Board has adopted procedures for valuing portfolio securities and other financial instruments in circumstances where market quotes are not readily available (including in cases where available market quotes are deemed to be unreliable), and has delegated the responsibility for applying the valuation methods to the Investment Manager. The Funds' Valuation Committee was established by the Board to oversee the implementation of the Funds' valuation methods and to make fair value determinations on behalf of the Board, as instructed. The Investment Manager monitors the continued appropriateness of methods applied and identifies circumstances and events that may require fair valuation. The Investment Manager determines if adjustments should be made in light of market changes, events affecting the issuer, or other factors. If the Investment Manager determines that a valuation method may no longer be appropriate, another valuation method previously approved by the Valuation Committee may be selected or the Funds' Valuation Committee will be convened to consider the matter and take any appropriate action in accordance with procedures set forth by the Board. The Board shall review the appropriateness of the valuation methods and these methods may be amended or supplemented from time to time by the Valuation Committee.

Edgar Filing: AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II - Form N-CSR

Short-term debt instruments having a remaining maturity of 60 days or less will be valued at amortized cost unless the Board of Trustees or its Valuation Committee determines that particular circumstances dictate otherwise.

The prices used by the Funds to value investments may differ from the value that would be realized if the investments were sold, and these differences could be material to the Funds' financial statements. Each Fund's net asset value (NAV) is normally determined as of the close of regular trading (normally, 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time) on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) on each day the NYSE is open for business. In unusual circumstances, the Board or the Valuation Committee may in good faith determine the NAV as of 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, notwithstanding an earlier, unscheduled close or halt of trading on the NYSE.

(b) Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical investments that the Funds have the ability to access

Level 2 valuations based on other significant observable inputs, which may include, but are not limited to, quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, interest rates, yield curves, volatilities, prepayment speeds, loss severities, credit risks and default rates or other market corroborated inputs

Level 3 valuations based on significant unobservable inputs (including the Investment Manager's or Valuation Committee's own assumptions and securities whose price was determined by using a single broker's quote)

The valuation techniques used by the Funds to measure fair value during the year ended February 28, 2019 were intended to maximize the use of observable inputs and to minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

An investment asset's or liability's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level input, individually or in aggregate, that is significant to the fair value measurement. The objective of fair value measurement remains the same even when there is a significant decrease in the volume and level of activity for an asset or liability and regardless of the valuation techniques used.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The following are certain inputs and techniques that the Funds generally use to evaluate how to classify each major category of assets and liabilities within Level 2 and Level 3, in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

An asset or liability for which market values cannot be measured using the methodologies described above is valued by methods deemed reasonable in good faith by the Valuation Committee, following the procedures established by the Board, to represent fair value. Under these procedures, the Funds generally use a market-based approach which may use related or comparable assets or liabilities, recent transactions, market multiples, book values and other relevant information. Fair value determinations involve the consideration of a number of subjective factors, an analysis of applicable facts and circumstances and the exercise of judgment. As a result, it is possible that the fair value for a security determined in good faith in accordance with the Funds' valuation procedures may differ from valuations for the same security determined by other funds using their own valuation procedures. Although the Funds' valuation procedures are designed to value a security at the price the Funds may reasonably expect to receive upon the security's sale in an orderly transaction, there can be no assurance that any fair value determination thereunder would, in fact, approximate the amount that the Funds would actually realize upon the sale of the security or the price at which the security would trade if a reliable market price were readily available.

Equity Securities (Common and Preferred Stock and Warrants) Equity securities traded in inactive markets are valued using inputs which include broker-dealer quotes, recently executed transactions adjusted for changes in the benchmark index, or evaluated price quotes received from independent pricing services that take into account the integrity of the market sector and issuer, the individual characteristics of the security, and information received from broker-dealers and other market sources pertaining to the issuer or security. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of equity securities are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

Convertible Bonds & Notes Convertible bonds & notes are valued by independent pricing services based on various inputs and techniques, which include broker-dealer quotations from relevant market makers and recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers. The broker-dealer quotations received are supported by credit analysis of the issuer that takes into consideration credit quality assessments, daily trading activity, and the activity of the underlying equities, listed bonds and sector-specific trends. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of convertible bonds & notes are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

Corporate Bonds & Notes Corporate bonds & notes are generally comprised of two main categories: investment grade bonds and high yield bonds. Investment grade bonds are valued by independent pricing services using various inputs and techniques, which include broker-dealer quotations, live trading levels, recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers, and option adjusted spread models that include base curve and spread curve inputs. Adjustments to individual bonds can be applied to recognize trading differences compared to other bonds issued by the same issuer. High yield bonds are valued by independent pricing services based primarily on broker-dealer quotations from relevant market makers and recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers. The broker-dealer quotations received are supported by credit analysis of the issuer that takes into consideration credit quality assessments, daily trading activity, and the activity of the underlying equities, listed bonds and sector-specific trends. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of corporate bonds & notes are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

Senior Loans Senior Loans generally are valued by independent pricing services based on the average of quoted prices received from multiple dealers or valued relative to other benchmark securities when broker-dealer quotes are unavailable. These quoted prices are based on interest rates, yield curves, option adjusted spreads, credit spreads and/or other criteria. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of Senior Loans are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

February 28, 2019

1. Organization and Significant

(c) Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Realized gains and losses on investments are determined on an identified cost basis. Interest income adjusted for the accretion of discounts and amortization of premiums is recorded on an accrual basis. Discounts or premiums on debt securities purchased are accreted or amortized, respectively, to interest income. Conversion premium is not amortized. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except for certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed, and then are recorded as soon after the ex-dividend date as the Funds, using reasonable diligence, become aware of such dividends. Facility fees and other fees (such as origination fees) received on settlement date are amortized as income over the expected term of the senior loan. Consent fees relating to corporate actions and facility fees and other fees received after settlement date relating to senior loans and commitment fees received relating to unfunded purchase commitments are recorded as miscellaneous income upon receipt. Payments received from certain investments may be comprised of dividends, realized gains and return of capital. These payments may initially be recorded as dividend income and may subsequently be reclassified as realized gains and/or return of capital upon receipt of information from the issuer. Payments considered return of capital reduce the cost basis of the respective security. Distributions, if any, in excess of the cost basis of a security are recognized as capital gains. Expenses are recorded on an accrual basis.

(d) Federal Income Taxes

The Funds intend to distribute all of their taxable income and to comply with the other requirements of Subchapter M of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, no provision for U.S. federal income taxes is required. The Funds may be subject to excise tax based on distributions to shareholders.

Accounting for uncertainty in income taxes establishes for all entities, including pass-through entities such as the Funds, a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of positions taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction), and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. In accordance with provisions set forth under U.S. GAAP, the Investment Manager has reviewed the Funds' tax positions for all open tax years. As of February 28, 2019, the Funds have recorded no liability for net unrecognized tax benefits relating to uncertain income tax positions they have taken. The Funds' federal income tax returns for the prior three years, as applicable, remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

(e) Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders Common Shares

The distributions by Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term may be comprised in varying portions of net investment income, capital gains, including short-term or long-term capital gains, and return of capital. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term may distribute some or all net realized long-term capital gains not previously distributed, if any, at least annually.

The Funds declare dividends from net investment income to common shareholders monthly. The distributions by Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II may be comprised in varying proportions of net investment income and return of capital. Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II distribute net realized capital gains, if any, at least annually. The Funds record dividends and distributions on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains or return of capital is determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. GAAP. These book-tax differences are considered either temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal income tax treatment. Temporary differences do not require reclassification. To the extent dividends and/or distributions exceed current and accumulated earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes, they are reported as dividends and/or distributions to shareholders from return of capital.

(f) Convertible Securities

It is the Funds' policy to invest a portion of their assets in convertible securities. Although convertible securities derive part of their value from that of the securities into which they are convertible, they are not considered derivative financial instruments. However, certain of the Funds' investments in convertible securities include features which render them sensitive to price changes in their underlying securities. The value of structured/synthetic convertible securities can be affected by interest rate changes and credit risks of the issuer. Such securities may be structured in ways that limit their potential for capital appreciation and the entire value of the security may be at risk of loss depending on the performance of the underlying equity security. Consequently, the Funds are exposed to greater downside risk than traditional convertible securities, but typically still less than that of the underlying stock.

(g) Senior Loans

The Funds may purchase assignments of, and participations in, Senior Loans originated, negotiated and structured by a U.S. or foreign commercial bank, insurance company, finance company or other financial institution for a lending syndicate of financial institutions (the Lender). When purchasing an assignment, the Funds succeed to all the rights and obligations under the loan agreement with the same rights and obligations as the assigning Lender. Assignments may, however, be arranged through private negotiations between potential assignees and potential assignors, and the rights and obligations acquired by the purchaser of an assignment may differ from, and be more limited than, those held by the assigning Lender. The Funds may also enter into lending arrangements involving unfunded loan commitments, which are contractual obligations for future funding. Unfunded loan commitments may include revolving credit facilities, which may obligate the Funds to supply additional cash to the borrower on demand. Unfunded loan commitments represent a future obligation in full, even though a percentage of the principal amounts may never be utilized by the borrower.

The Funds may purchase the securities of distressed companies (including assignments or direct investments), including companies engaged in restructurings or bankruptcy proceedings. Investments in distressed companies may include senior obligations of an issuer issued in connection with a restructuring under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (commonly known as debtor-in-possession or DIP financings). Debtor-in-possession financings generally allow the issuer to continue its operations while reorganizing. Such financings constitute senior liens on unencumbered collateral (i.e., collateral not subject to other creditors' claims). There is risk that the issuer under a debtor-in-possession financing will not emerge from Chapter 11 and be forced to liquidate its assets under Chapter 7 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. In the event of liquidation, the Funds' only recourse would be against the collateral securing the debtor-in-possession financing.

(h) Payment In-Kind Securities

The Funds may invest in payment in-kind securities, which are debt or preferred stock securities that require or permit payment of interest in the form of additional securities. Payment in-kind securities allow the issuer to avoid or delay the need to generate cash to meet current interest payments and, as a result, may involve greater risk than securities that pay interest currently or in cash.

(i) Warrants

The Funds may receive warrants. Warrants are securities that are usually issued together with a debt security or preferred stock and that give the holder the right to buy a proportionate amount of common stock at a specified price. Warrants may be freely transferable and are often traded on major exchanges. Warrants normally have a life that is measured in years and entitle the holder to buy common stock of a company at a price that is usually higher than the market price at the time the warrant is issued. Warrants may entail greater risks than certain other types of investments. Generally, warrants do not carry the right to receive dividends or exercise voting rights with respect to the underlying securities, and they do not represent any rights in the assets of the issuer. In addition, their value does not necessarily change with the value of the underlying securities, and they cease to have value if they are not exercised on or before their expiration date. If the market price of the underlying stock does not exceed the exercise price during the life of the warrant, the warrant will expire worthless. Warrants may increase the potential profit or loss to be realized from the investment as compared with investing the same amount in the underlying securities. Similarly, the percentage increase or decrease in the value of an equity security warrant may be greater than the percentage increase or decrease in the value of the underlying common stock. Warrants may relate to the purchase of equity or debt securities. Debt obligations with warrants attached to purchase equity securities have many characteristics of convertible securities and their prices may, to some degree, reflect the performance of the underlying stock. Debt obligations also may be issued with warrants attached to purchase additional debt securities at the same coupon rate. A decline in interest rates would permit a Fund to sell such warrants at a profit. If interest rates rise, these warrants would generally expire with no value.

(j) Statement of Cash Flows

U.S. GAAP requires entities providing financial statements that report both financial position and results of operations to also provide a statement of cash flows for each period for which results of operations are provided, but exempts investment companies meeting certain conditions. One of the conditions is that the fund had little or no debt, based on the average debt outstanding during the period, in relation to average total assets. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term s indebtedness has been determined to be at a level requiring a statement of cash flows. The Statement of Cash Flows has been prepared using the indirect method which required net change in net assets resulting from operations to be adjusted to reconcile to net cash flows from operating activities. Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II do not require a Statement of Cash Flows.

(k) Loan Interest Expense

With respect to Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, loan interest expense relates to amounts borrowed under the BNP Facility (see Note 8) and under its SSB Facility (see Note 8). With respect to Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II, loan interest expense relates to amounts borrowed under each Fund's respective SSB Facility (See Note 8). Loan interest expense is recorded as it is incurred.

(l) Repurchase Agreements

The Funds are parties to Master Repurchase Agreements (Master Repo Agreements) with select counterparties. The Master Repo Agreements include provisions for initiation of repurchase transactions, income payments, events of default, and maintenance of collateral.

The Funds enter into transactions, under the Master Repo Agreements, with their custodian bank or securities brokerage firms whereby they purchase securities under agreements (i.e., repurchase agreements) to resell such securities at an agreed upon price and date. The Funds, through their custodian, take possession of securities collateralizing the repurchase agreement. Such agreements are carried at the contract amount in the financial statements, which is considered to represent fair value. The collateral that is pledged (i.e. the securities received by the Funds), which consists primarily of U.S. government obligations and asset-backed securities, is held by the custodian bank for the benefit of the Funds until maturity of the repurchase agreement. Provisions of the repurchase agreements and the procedures adopted by the Funds require that the market value of the collateral, including accrued interest thereon, be sufficient in the event of default by the counterparty. If the counterparty defaults under the Master Repo Agreements and the value of the collateral declines or if the counterparty enters an insolvency proceeding, realization of the collateral by the Funds may be delayed or limited. The gross values are included in the Funds' Schedules of Investments. As of February 28, 2019, the value of the related collateral exceeded the value of the repurchase agreements for each Fund.

(m) Restricted Securities

The Funds are permitted to invest in securities that are subject to legal or contractual restrictions on resale. These securities generally may be resold in transactions exempt from registration or to the public if the securities are registered. Disposal of these securities may involve time-consuming negotiations and expenses, and prompt sale at an acceptable price may be difficult.

(n) New Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2016, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-15 which amends ASC 230 to clarify guidance on the classification of certain cash receipts and cash payments in the statement of cash flows. In November 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-18 which amends ASC 230 to provide guidance on the classification and presentation of changes in restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents on the statement of cash flows. ASUs 2016-15 and 2016-18 took effect on March 1, 2018 and the financial statements have been modified accordingly, as applicable.

In March 2017, FASB issued ASU 2017-08, Receivables Nonrefundable Fees and Other Costs (Subtopic 310-20): Premium

Amortization on Purchased Callable Debt Securities. ASU 2017-08 shortens the amortization period for certain callable debt securities, held at a premium, to be amortized to the earliest call date rather than the contractual maturity date. The Funds have adopted and applied ASU 2017-08 on a modified retrospective basis through a cumulative-effect adjustment as of March 1, 2018. The adoption of ASU 2017-08 had no impact on beginning net assets, the current period results from operations, or any prior period information presented in the financial statements.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-13, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure Framework Changes to the disclosure requirements for fair value measurement. ASU 2018-13 removes the disclosure requirements for the amounts of and reasons for transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, the policy for timing of transfers between levels and the valuation processes for Level 3 fair value measurements. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019, and interim periods within those annual periods. Management has reviewed ASU 2018-13 and resolved to adopt immediately certain aspects of the ASU related to the removal and modification of certain fair measurement disclosures.

On October 17, 2018, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) adopted changes to Regulation S-X to simplify the reporting of information by registered investment companies in financial statements. The amendments require presentation of the total, rather than the components, of distributable earnings on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities and also require presentation of the total, rather than the components, of distributions to shareholders, except for tax return of capital distributions, if any, on the Statements of Changes in Net Assets. The amendments also removed the requirement for parenthetical disclosure of undistributed net investment income on the Statements of Changes in Net Assets. These Regulation S-X amendments are reflected in the Funds financial statements for the year ended February 28, 2019. The distributions to shareholders in the February 28, 2018, Statements of Changes in Net Assets presented herein have not been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

2. Principal Risks

In the normal course of business, the Funds trade financial instruments and enter into financial transactions where risk of potential loss exists due to, among other things, changes in the market (market risk) or failure of the other party to a transaction to perform (counterparty risk). The Funds are also exposed to other risks such as, but not limited to, interest rate, credit and leverage risks. Additionally, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term is exposed to limited term risk.

Interest rate risk is the risk that fixed income securities valuations will change because of changes in interest rates. During periods of rising nominal interest rates, the values of fixed income instruments are generally expected to decline. Conversely, during periods of declining nominal interest rates, the values of fixed income instruments are generally expected to rise. To the extent that a Fund effectively has short positions with respect to fixed income instruments, the values of such short positions would generally be expected to rise when nominal interest rates rise and to decline when nominal interest rates decline. A nominal interest rate can be described as the sum of a real interest rate and an expected inflation rate. Fixed income securities with longer durations tend to be more sensitive to changes in interest rates, usually making them more volatile than securities with shorter durations. Duration is used primarily as a measure of the sensitivity of a fixed income security's market price to interest rate (i.e., yield) movements. Interest rate changes can be sudden and unpredictable, and a Funds may lose money as a result of movements in interest rates. A Funds may not be able to hedge against changes in interest rates or may choose not to do so for cost or other reasons. In addition, any hedges may not work as intended. The values of equity and other non-fixed income securities may also decline due to fluctuations in interest rates.

The Funds are exposed to credit risk, which is the risk of losing money if the issuer or guarantor of a fixed income security is unable or unwilling, or is perceived (whether by market participants, rating agencies, pricing services or otherwise) as unable or unwilling, to make timely principal and/or interest payments, or to otherwise honor its obligations. Securities are subject to varying degrees of credit risk, which are often reflected in credit ratings.

The market values of securities may decline due to general market conditions (market risk) which are not specifically related to a particular company, such as real or perceived adverse economic conditions, changes in the general outlook for corporate earnings, changes in interest or currency rates, adverse changes to credit markets or adverse investor sentiment. They may also decline due to factors that affect a particular industry or industries, such as labor shortages or increased production costs and competitive conditions within an industry. Equity securities and equity-related investments generally have greater market price volatility than fixed income securities, although under certain market conditions fixed income securities may have comparable or greater price volatility. Credit ratings downgrades may also negatively affect securities held by the Funds. Even when markets perform well, there is no assurance that the investments held by the Funds will increase in value along with the broader market. In addition, market risk includes the risk that geopolitical events will disrupt the economy on a national or global level.

The Funds are exposed to counterparty risk, or the risk that an institution or other entity with which the Funds have unsettled or open transactions will default. The potential loss to the Funds could exceed the value of the financial assets recorded in the Funds' financial statements. Financial assets, which potentially expose the Funds to counterparty risk, consist principally of cash due from counterparties and investments. The Investment Manager seeks to minimize the Funds' counterparty risk by performing reviews of each counterparty and by minimizing concentration of counterparty risk by undertaking transactions with multiple customers and counterparties on recognized and reputable exchanges. Delivery of securities sold is only made once the Funds have received payment. Payment is made on a purchase once the securities have been delivered by the counterparty. The trade will fail if either party fails to meet its obligation.

The Funds are exposed to risks associated with leverage. Leverage may cause the value of the Funds' shares to be more volatile than if the Funds did not use leverage. This is because leverage tends to exaggerate the effect of any increase or decrease in the value of the Funds' portfolio securities. The Funds may engage in transactions or purchase instruments that give rise to forms of leverage. In addition, to the extent the Funds employ leverage, dividend and interest costs on such leverage may not be recovered by any appreciation of the securities purchased with the leverage proceeds and could exceed the Funds' investment returns, resulting in greater losses. As discussed further in Note 6 and Note 11, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II have auction-rate and cumulative preferred shares outstanding. As discussed further in Note 8, the Funds have entered into a liquidity facility.

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term is exposed to limited term risk. The Fund has a limited term feature, pursuant to which it intends, on or about September 1, 2024, to cease its investment operations, liquidate its portfolio (to the extent possible), retire or redeem any outstanding leverage facilities and distribute all its liquidated assets to its then record shareholders, unless the term is extended by the Fund's Board of Trustees (for up to six months) and absent Trustee and shareholder approval to amend the limited term. Because the assets of the Fund will be liquidated in connection with its termination, the Fund may be required to sell portfolio securities when it otherwise would not, including at times when market conditions are not favorable, or at a time when a particular security has entered into default or bankruptcy, or otherwise is in severe distress, which may cause the Fund to lose money. Although the Fund has an investment objective of returning the Original NAV to Common Shareholders on or about the Termination Date, this is not a guarantee and the Fund may not be successful in achieving this objective. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to return the Original NAV to Common Shareholders, and such return is not backed or otherwise guaranteed by the Fund, the Investment Manager or any other entity.

The Funds may hold defaulted securities that may involve special considerations including bankruptcy proceedings, other regulatory and legal restrictions affecting the Funds' ability to trade, and the availability of prices from independent pricing services or dealer quotations. Defaulted securities are often illiquid and may not be actively traded. Sale of securities in bankrupt companies at an acceptable price may be difficult and differences compared to the value of the securities used by the Funds could be material. A Fund may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a portfolio security's default in the payment of principal or interest. In any bankruptcy proceeding relating to a defaulted investment, a Fund may lose its entire investment or may be required to accept cash or securities with a value substantially less than its original investment.

Investments in senior loans and repurchase agreements also involve special risks. Although typically secured, senior loans may not be backed by sufficient collateral to satisfy their issuers' obligations in the event of bankruptcy or similar scenarios. Senior loans may also be illiquid. Similarly, repurchase agreements may result in losses if the collateral associated with such positions is insufficient in the event of a counterparty default or similar scenario. Repurchase agreement positions may also be illiquid.

3. Investment Manager & Deferred Compensation responsible for managing, either directly or through others selected by it, the Funds' investment activities, business affairs and administrative matters. Pursuant to its Agreement, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term pays the Investment Manager an annual fee, payable monthly, at an annual rate of 0.75% of its average daily total managed assets. Total managed assets for Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term refer to the total assets of the Fund (including assets attributable to any borrowings, issued debt securities or preferred shares that may be outstanding, reverse repurchase agreements and dollar rolls) minus accrued liabilities (other than liabilities representing borrowings, issued debt securities, reverse repurchase agreements and dollar rolls). Pursuant to their Agreements, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II, pay the Investment Manager an annual fee, payable monthly, at an annual rate of 0.70% of each Fund's average daily total managed assets. Total managed assets for Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II refer to the total assets of the Fund (including any assets attributable to any Preferred Shares or other forms of leverage of the Fund that may be outstanding) minus accrued liabilities (other than liabilities representing leverage).

(b) Deferred Compensation

The Trustees do not currently receive any pension or retirement benefits from the Funds. In calendar year 2018 and certain prior periods, the Funds maintained a deferred compensation plan pursuant to which each Independent Trustee had the opportunity to elect not to receive all or a portion of his or her fees from the Fund on a current basis, but instead to receive in a subsequent period chosen by the Trustee an amount equal to the value of such compensation if such compensation had been invested in one or more series of Allianz Funds or Allianz Funds Multi-Strategy Trust selected by the Trustees from and after the normal payment dates for such compensation. The deferred compensation program was closed to new deferrals effective January 1, 2019, and all Trustee fees earned with respect to service in calendar year 2019 and beyond have been or will be paid in cash, on a current basis, unless the Board of Trustees of the Allianz-Sponsored Funds reopens the program to new deferrals. Allianz Funds and Allianz Funds Multi-Strategy Trust still have obligations with respect to Trustee fees deferred in 2018 and in prior periods, and will continue to have such obligations until all deferred Trustee fees are paid out pursuant to the terms of the deferred compensation plan.

5. Income Tax Information (continued)

For the year ended February 28, 2019, the Funds utilized the following amounts of capital loss carryforwards:

For the year ended February 28, 2019, permanent book-tax adjustments were:

	Undistributed (Dividends in Excess of) Net Investment Income	Accumulated Net Realized Gain (Loss)	Paid-in Capital In Excess of Par
Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term ^{(a)(b)(c)(d)}	$ 726,208	$ (583,613)	$ (142,595)

Convertible & Income II ^{(a)(b)(c)}	4,495,225	(4,495,225)

These permanent book-tax differences were primarily attributable to:

- (a) Treatment of bond premium amortization
- (b) Reclassification of consent fee
- (c) Section 305 sales adjustment
- (d) Non-deductible excise tax paid

Net investment income, net realized gains or losses and net assets were not affected by these adjustments.

At February 28, 2019, the aggregate cost basis and net unrealized depreciation of investments for federal income tax purposes were:

	Federal Tax Cost Basis ⁽⁵⁾	Unrealized Appreciation	Unrealized Depreciation	Net Unrealized Depreciation
Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term	$ 251,388,116	$ 2,097,240	$ 7,655,096	$ (5,557,856)

- (5) Differences between book and tax cost basis were attributable to wash sale loss deferrals, Section 305 adjustments and the differing treatment of bond premium amortization.

6. Auction-Rate Preferred Shares

Convertible & Income has 1,894 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series A, 1,779 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series B, 1,909 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series C, 1,842 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series D and 1,507 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series E outstanding, each with a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Convertible & Income II has 1,296 shares of Preferred Shares Series A, 1,512 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series B, 1,239 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series C, 1,156 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series D and 1,298 shares of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares Series E outstanding, each with a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Dividends are accumulated daily at an annual rate that is typically re-set every seven days. Distributions of net realized capital gains, if any, are paid annually.

6. Auction-Rate Preferred Shares (continued)

For the year ended February 28, 2019, the annualized dividend rates paid with respect to the Auction-Rate Preferred shares of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II ranged from:

	High	Low	At February 28, 2019
Series A	3.633%	2.162%	3.588%
Series B	3.588%	2.147%	3.588%
Series C	3.588%	2.162%	3.543%
Series D	3.603%	2.162%	3.603%
Series E	3.633%	2.177%	3.603%

Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II are subject to certain limitations and restrictions while Auction-Rate Preferred Shares are outstanding. Failure to comply with these limitations and restrictions could preclude the Funds from declaring or paying any dividends or distributions to common shareholders or repurchasing common shares and/or could trigger the mandatory redemption of Auction-Rate Preferred Shares at their liquidation preference plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Auction-Rate Preferred shareholders, who are entitled to one vote per share on most matters generally vote together with the common shareholders but vote separately as a class to elect two Trustees and on certain matters adversely affecting the rights of the Auction-Rate Preferred Shares.

Since mid-February 2008, holders of auction-rate preferred shares (ARPS) issued by the Funds have been directly impacted by a lack of liquidity, which has similarly affected ARPS holders in many of the nation's closed-end funds. Since then, regularly scheduled auctions for the Preferred shares (which are ARPS) issued by the Funds have consistently failed because of insufficient demand (bids to buy shares) to meet the supply (shares offered for sale) at each auction.

In a failed auction, ARPS holders cannot sell all, and may not be able to sell any, of their shares tendered for sale. While repeated auction failures have affected the liquidity for ARPS, they do not constitute a default or automatically alter the credit quality of the ARPS, and ARPS holders have continued to receive dividends at the defined maximum rate, which for the Funds is equal to the 7-day AA Composite Commercial Paper Rate multiplied by a minimum of 150%, depending on the credit rating of the ARPS. The maximum rate is a function of short-term interest rates and typically higher than the rate that would have otherwise been set through a successful auction.

On May 29, 2014, Moody's Investors Service upgraded each Fund's ARPS ratings to Aa3 from A1. As a result, the applicable multiplier for calculating the maximum rate decreased from 200% to 150% beginning on that date. If the Funds' ARPS continue to fail and the maximum rate payable on the ARPS rises as result of changes in short-term interest rates, returns for the Funds' common shareholders could be adversely affected.

the outstanding ARPS of each of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II at a price equal to 94% of the ARPS liquidation preference of $25,000 per share (or $23,500 per share) plus any unpaid dividends accrued through the expiration date of each tender offer, or such later date to which such tender offer may be extended (each a Tender Offer and, together, the Tender Offers).

On June 28, 2018, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II each commenced its respective Tender Offer. The tables below include the per share liquidation preference and tender offer price per share for the ARPS of each of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II.

On July 31, 2018, the Tender Offers expired and Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II announced the results of the Tender Offers. With respect to Convertible & Income, 5,349 ARPS were tendered, representing approximately 37% of the outstanding ARPS. With respect to Convertible & Income II, 4,459 ARPS were tendered, representing approximately 41% of the outstanding ARPS. The Tender Offers resulted in accretion to the NAVs of common shareholders of $0.09 per common share for both Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II. The ARPS of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II that were not tendered remain outstanding.

8. Liquidity Facility

Each of Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II has entered into a liquidity facility (each a SSB Facility and together the SSB Facilities) with State Street Bank & Trust Company (State Street). The Funds pledge their assets as collateral to secure obligations under the SSB Facilities. The Funds retain the risks and rewards of the ownership of assets pledged to secure obligations under the SSB Facilities. As part of the SSB Facilities, the Funds make assets available for securities lending transactions with State Street acting as the Funds' authorized agent for these transactions. All transactions initiated through State Street are required to be secured with cash collateral received from the securities borrower (the Borrower). Securities lending transactions will be secured with cash collateral in amounts no less than 100% of the market value of the securities utilized in these transactions. Cash received by State Street from securities lending is credited against borrowings under the SSB

Facilities.

Upon return of securities by the Borrower, State Street will return the cash collateral to the Borrower, as applicable, which will eliminate the credit against the borrowings and will cause the draw-downs under the SSB Facilities to increase by the amounts returned. Borrowing fees on the loaned securities are retained by State Street.

State Street indemnifies the Funds for certain losses that may arise if the Borrower fails to return securities when due. With respect to securities lending transactions, upon a default of the securities borrower, State Street uses the collateral received from the Borrower to purchase replacement securities of the same issue, type, class and series. If such collateral is insufficient, the purchase of replacement securities is made at State Street's sole cost and expense. Although the risk of the loss of the securities is mitigated by receiving collateral from the Borrower and through State Street Bank indemnification, the Funds could experience a delay in recovering securities or could experience a lower than expected return if the Borrower fails to return the securities on a timely basis.

State Street may fund drawdowns under a State Street Facility through reverse repurchase agreements in a manner and on terms that are substantially similar to the securities loans described above. None of the Funds' borrowings during the reporting period were funded through reverse repurchase agreements. The maximum capital commitment amounts under the respective SSB Facilities are $71,000,000, $265,000,000 and $210,000,000, respectively for Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II. Interest on amounts drawn under each SSB Facility is charged at a daily rate equal to the U.S. 3-month LIBOR rate plus 0.55%, with a commitment fee of 0.15% payable on the maximum capital commitment amount less the amount drawn in any month when the amount drawn is less than 85% of the commitment amount on any day. At February 28, 2019, the Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term and Convertible & Income had borrowings outstanding under the SSB Facilities totaling $69,700,000 and $28,851,500, respectively, which are shown in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities as Loan Payable. Convertible & Income II did not have borrowings outstanding at February 28, 2019. The interest rate charged at February 28, 2019, was 3.17%. During the period ended February 28, 2019 when the Funds had outstanding borrowings, the weighted average daily balances outstanding for Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II were $69,700,000, $51,693,481 and $104,786,500 respectively, at the weighted average interest rate of 3.125%, 3.015% and 2.875%, respectively. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term previously had a margin loan financing agreement with BNP Paribas Prime Brokerage International Ltd. at a daily rate equal to the U.S. 3-month LIBOR rate plus 0.90% which expired on June 26, 2018 (the BNP Facility). Loan interest expense of $2,208,856, $917,690 and $342,944, respectively, are included in the Funds' Statements of Operations.

As of February 28, 2019, Convertible & Income 2024 Term and Convertible & Income used approximately $61,275,560 and $25,079,779, respectively, of the cash collateral received from the Liquidity Facility to credit against borrowings under the SSB Facilities, representing 24.8% and 2.9% of managed assets, respectively. Cash and securities purchased with cash received through the Liquidity Facility are included in cash and investment line items per the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. As of February 28, 2019, $60,040,590 and $24,675,414 of securities were on loan, respectively, under the SSB Facilities for Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term and Convertible & Income. These amounts are reflected on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities in Investments, at value.

Any Fund may terminate its SSB Facility with 60 days' notice. If certain asset coverage and collateral requirements, or other covenants are not met, an SSB Facility could be deemed in default and result in termination. Absent a default or facility termination event, State Street is required to provide a Fund with 360 days' notice prior to terminating such Fund's SSB Facility.

During the fiscal year ended February 28, 2018, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term issued 16,500,000 common shares in its initial public offering. An additional 1,746,796 shares were issued in connection with the exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option. These shares were all issued at $9.835 per share (public offering price of $10.00 per share less sales load of 1.65% the offering price). Offering costs of $364,936 (representing $0.02 per share) were incurred by Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term for the shares issued in the initial offering and the exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option and were charged to paid-in capital in excess of par. The Investment Manager agreed to pay all offering costs associated with the public offering (other than the sales load) exceeding $0.02 per share, which came to $1,170,064.

11. Cumulative Preferred Shares

On September 11, 2018, Convertible & Income II issued 4,360,000 shares of 5.50% Series A Cumulative Preferred Shares with an aggregate liquidation value of $109,000,000 (NCZ Series A Preferred Shares). The shares are perpetual, non-callable for a period of five years and have a liquidation preference of $25.00 per share. Commencing September 11, 2023, and thereafter, to the extent permitted by the 1940 Act, and Massachusetts law, the Convertible & Income II may at any time, upon notice of redemption, redeem the NCZ Series A Preferred Shares in whole or in part at the liquidation preference per share plus accumulated unpaid dividends through the date of redemption. Dividends are paid at an annual rate of 5.50% on a quarterly basis, and commenced on October 1, 2018, with the first such payment pro-rated from the date of issuance. The Series A Cumulative Preferred Shares of Convertible & Income II received a long-term rating of AAA from Fitch Ratings.

Opinions on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities, including the schedules of investments, of AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund, AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund and AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II (hereafter collectively referred to as the Funds) as of February 28, 2019, for AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund the related statements of operations and cash flows for the year ended February 28, 2019, and the statement of changes in net assets for the year ended February 28, 2019 and for the period June 30, 2017 (commencement of operations) through February 28, 2018, and for AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund and AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II the related statements of operations for the year ended February 28, 2019 and the statements of changes in net assets applicable to common shareholders for each of the two years in the period ended February 28, 2019, including the Funds related notes, and each of the Funds financial highlights for each of the periods indicated therein (collectively referred to as the financial statements). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of each of the Funds as of February 28, 2019, the results of each of their operations for the year then ended, for AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund the results of its cash flows for the year ended February 28, 2019 and the changes in its net assets for the year ended February 28, 2019 and for the period June 30, 2017 (commencement of operations) through February 28, 2018, for AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund and AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II the changes in each of their net assets applicable to common shareholders for each of the two years in the period ended February 28, 2019, and each of the Funds financial highlights for each of the periods indicated therein in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinions

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Funds management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Funds financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Funds in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of February 28, 2019 by correspondence with the custodian, transfer agent and brokers; when replies were not received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinions.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II

As required by the Internal Revenue Code, shareholders must be notified regarding certain tax attributes of distributions made by each Fund.

Under the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003, the following percentages of ordinary dividends paid during the fiscal year ended February 28, 2019, are designated as qualified dividend income (or the maximum amount allowable):

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term	0%
Convertible & Income	26.43%
Convertible & Income II	26.62%

Corporate shareholders are generally entitled to take the dividend received deduction on the portion of a Fund's dividend distribution that qualifies under tax law. The percentage of the following Funds' ordinary income dividends paid during the fiscal year ended February 28, 2019, that qualify for the corporate deduction is set below (or the maximum amount allowable):

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term	0%
Convertible & Income	25.96%
Convertible & Income II	26.15%

Since the Funds' tax year is not the calendar year, another notification will be sent with respect to calendar year 2019. In January 2020, shareholders will be advised on IRS Form 1099 DIV as to the federal tax status of dividends and distributions received during calendar 2019. The amount that will be reported will be the amount to use on the shareholders' 2019 federal income tax return and may differ from the amount which must be reported in connection with the Funds' tax year ended February 28, 2019. Shareholders are advised to consult their tax advisers as to the federal, state and local tax status of the dividend income received from the Funds.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan (unaudited)

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II

Each Fund has adopted a Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the Plan) which allows common shareholders to reinvest Fund distributions in additional common shares of the Fund. American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC (the Plan Agent) serves as agent for common shareholders in administering the Plan. It is important to note that participation in the Plan and automatic reinvestment of Fund distributions does not ensure a profit, nor does it protect against losses in a declining market.

Automatic enrollment/voluntary participation. Under the Plan, common shareholders whose shares are registered with the Plan Agent (registered shareholders) are automatically enrolled as participants in the Plan and will have all Fund distributions of income, capital gains and returns of capital (together, distributions) reinvested by the Plan Agent in additional common shares of the Funds, unless the shareholder elects to receive cash. Registered shareholders who elect not to participate in the Plan will receive all distributions in cash paid by check and mailed directly to the shareholder of record (or if the shares are held in street or other nominee name, to the nominee) by the Plan Agent. Participation in the Plan is voluntary. Participants may terminate or resume their enrollment in the Plan at any time without penalty by notifying the Plan Agent online at www.amstock.com, by calling (800) 254-5197, by writing to the Plan Agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, at P.O. Box 922, Wall Street Station, New York, NY 10269-0560, or, as applicable, by completing and returning the transaction form attached to the Plan statement. A proper notification will be effective immediately and apply to the Funds' next distribution if received by the Plan Agent at least three (3) days prior to the record date for the distribution; otherwise, a notification will be effective shortly following the Funds' next succeeding distribution thereafter. If you withdraw from the Plan and so request, the Plan

Agent will arrange for the sale of your shares and send you the proceeds, minus a transaction fee and brokerage commissions.

How shares are purchased under the Plan. For each Fund distribution, the Plan Agent will acquire common shares for participants either (i) through receipt of newly issued common shares from the Fund (newly issued shares) or (ii) by purchasing common shares of the Fund on the open market (open market purchases). If, on a distribution payment date, the net asset value per common share of the Funds (NAV) is equal to or less than the market price per common share plus estimated brokerage commissions (often referred to as a market premium), the Plan Agent will invest the distribution amount on behalf of participants in newly issued shares at a price equal to the greater of (i) NAV or (ii) 95% of the market price per common share on the payment date. If the NAV is greater than the market price per common share plus estimated brokerage commissions (often referred to as a market discount) on a distribution payment date, the Plan Agent will instead attempt to invest the distribution amount through open market purchases. If the Plan Agent is unable to invest the full distribution amount in open market purchases, or if the market discount shifts to a market premium during the purchase period, the Plan Agent will invest any un-invested portion of the distribution in newly issued shares at a price equal to the greater of (i) NAV or (ii) 95% of the market price per share as of the last business day immediately prior to the purchase date (which, in either case, may be a price greater or lesser than the NAV per common shares on the distribution payment date). No interest will be paid on distributions awaiting reinvestment. Under the Plan, the market price of common shares on a particular date is the last sales price on the exchange where the shares are listed on that date or, if there is no sale on the exchange on that date, the mean between the closing bid and asked quotations for the shares on the exchange on that date. The NAV per common share on a particular date is the amount calculated on that date (normally at the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange) in accordance with the Funds' then current policies.

Fees and expenses. No brokerage charges are imposed on reinvestments in newly issued shares under the Plan. However, all participants will pay a pro rata share of brokerage commissions incurred by the Plan Agent when it makes open market purchases. There are currently no direct service charges imposed on participants in the Plan, although the Funds reserve the right to amend the Plan to include such charges. The Plan Agent imposes a transaction fee (in addition to brokerage commissions that are incurred) if it arranges for the sale of your common shares held under the Plan.

Shares held through nominees. In the case of a registered shareholder such as a broker, bank or other nominee (together, a nominee) that holds common shares for others who are the beneficial owners, the Plan Agent will administer the Plan on the basis of the number of common shares certified by the nominee/record stockholder as representing the total amount registered in such shareholder's name and held for the account of beneficial owners who are to participate in the Plan. If your common shares are held through a nominee and are not registered with the Plan Agent, neither you nor the nominee will be participants in or have distributions reinvested under the Plan. If you are a beneficial owner of common shares and wish to participate in the Plan, and your nominee is unable or unwilling to become a registered shareholder and a Plan participant on your behalf, you may request that your nominee arrange to have all or a portion of your shares re-registered with the Plan Agent in your name so that you may be enrolled as a participant in the Plan. Please contact your nominee for details or for other possible alternatives. Participants whose shares are registered with the Plan Agent in the name of one nominee firm may not be able to transfer the shares to another firm and continue to participate in the Plan.

Tax consequences. Automatically reinvested dividends and distributions are taxed in the same manner as cash dividends and distributions—i.e., automatic reinvestment in additional shares does not relieve stockholders of, or defer the need to pay, any income tax that may be payable (or that is required to be withheld) on Fund dividends and distributions. The Fund and the Plan Agent reserve the right to amend or terminate the Plan. Additional information about the Plan, as well as a copy of the full Plan itself, may be obtained from the Plan Agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, at P.O. ITEM 2. CODE OF ETHICS

- (a) As of the end of the period covered by this report, the registrant has adopted a code of ethics (the Section 406 Standards for Investment Companies Ethical Standards for Principal Executive and Financial Officers) that applies to the registrant's Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer; the registrant's Principal Financial Officer also serves as the Principal Accounting Officer. The registrant undertakes to provide a copy of such code of ethics to any person upon request, without charge, by calling 1-800-254-5197. The code of ethics is included as an Exhibit 99.CODEETH hereto.
- (b) During the period covered by this report, the code of ethics adopted in 2(a) above, was updated to change the Covered Officers identified in Exhibit A.
- (c) During the period covered by this report, there were no waivers or implicit waivers to a provision of the code of ethics adopted in 2(a) above.

ITEM 3. AUDIT COMMITTEE FINANCIAL EXPERT

The registrant's Board has determined that Messrs. James A. Jacobson and Davey S. Scoon, both of whom serve on the Board's Audit Oversight Committee, qualify as an audit committee financial expert, and that they are independent, for purposes of this Item

ITEM 4. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

- a) Audit fees. The aggregate fees billed for each of the last two fiscal years (the Reporting Periods) for professional services rendered by the Registrant's principal accountant (the Auditor) for the audit of the Registrant's annual financial statements, or services that are normally provided by the Auditor in connection with the statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for the Reporting Periods were $77,062 in 2018 and $73,459 in 2019.
- b) Audit-Related Fees. The aggregate fees billed in the Reporting Periods for assurance and related services by the principal accountant that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit registrant's financial statements and are not reported under paragraph (e) of this Item were $17,738 in 2018 and $17,738 in 2019. These services consist of accounting consultations, agreed upon procedure reports (inclusive of annual review of basic maintenance testing associated with the Preferred Shares), attestation reports and comfort letters.
- c) Tax Fees. The aggregate fees billed in the Reporting Periods for professional services rendered by the Auditor for tax compliance, tax service and tax planning (Tax Services) were $17,534 in 2018 and $17,534 in 2019. These services consisted of review or preparation of U.S. federal, state, local and excise tax returns and calculation of excise tax distributions.

- d) All Other Fees. There were no other fees billed in the Reporting Periods for products and services provided by the Auditor to the Registrant.

- e) 1. Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures. The Registrant's Audit Oversight Committee has established policies and procedures for pre-approval of all audit and permissible non-audit services by the Auditor for the Registrant, as well as the Auditor's engagements related directly to the operations and financial reporting of the Registrant. The Registrant's policy is stated below.

AllianzGI Institutional Multi-Series Trust, The Korea Fund, Inc., and

Allianz Global Investors Sponsored Closed-End Funds¹

I. Introduction

The Funds are required to prepare and file audited financial statements.² Audited financial statements must be examined by an independent accountant. Rule 2-01(b) of Regulation S-X provides that the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) will not recognize an accountant as independent, with respect to an audit client, if the accountant is not capable of exercising objective and impartial judgment on all issues encompassed within the accountant's engagement. Rule 2-01(c) elaborates on this general standard by providing specific circumstances in which an accountant will not be considered independent. Recently adopted rules and amendments to existing rules operate by providing that an accountant will not be considered independent with respect to a client if the accountant and the client (including certain of the client's affiliates) do not comply with the restrictions on prohibited services and the rules requiring audit committee pre-approval of services. Therefore, the Audit Oversight Committee (Committee) of each of the Funds has adopted the following policies and procedures in order to ensure that the Funds comply with the above requirements.

Each Fund's Committee is charged with the oversight of the Fund's financial reporting policies and practices and their internal controls. As part of this responsibility, a Fund's Committee must pre-approve any engagement of the Fund's independent accountant to render audit and/or permissible non-audit services to the Fund as well as to the Fund's investment adviser⁴ or any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with the investment adviser that provides ongoing services to the Fund (Applicable Service Providers), if the engagement relates directly to the operations and financial reporting of the Fund.⁵

¹ The listed entities which are open-end investment companies are known as the Trusts and the listed entities which are closed-end investment companies are known as the Closed-End Funds. The Trusts series and the Closed-End Funds are referred to as Funds.

² See, e.g., Rule 3-18 of Regulation S-X.

³ See, e.g., Rule 1-02(d) of Regulation S-X.

⁴ For purposes of this requirement, the term adviser does not include sub-advisers that are not affiliated with a Fund's investment adviser, are overseen by that investment adviser, and whose role is primarily portfolio management.

⁵ Rule 2-01(c)(7) of Regulation S-X

Table of Contents

In evaluating a proposed engagement by the independent accountants, the Committee will assess the effect that the engagement might reasonably be expected to have on the accountants' independence. The Committee's evaluation will be based on:

a review of the nature of the professional services expected to be provided;

the fees to be charged in connection with the services expected to be provided;

a review of the safeguards put into place by the accounting firm to safeguard independence; and periodic meetings with the accounting firm.

The Committee need not evaluate all four factors each time they pre-approve a service; they may rely on previous evaluations to the extent they consider appropriate.

A Fund and its Applicable Service Providers are prohibited from engaging the Fund's independent accountants to provide services except in accordance with these Procedures. Similarly, a Fund's independent accountants are prohibited from providing services to a Fund, its Applicable Service Providers or other entities comprising the client for purposes of the engagement (see Section III below) except in accordance with these Procedures.

II. Policy for Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services to be Provided to the Funds

On an annual basis, a Fund's Committee will review and, if the Committee so determines, pre-approve the scope of the audits of the Fund and proposed audit fees and permitted non-audit (including audit-related) services that are proposed to be performed by the Fund's independent accountants for the Fund and its Applicable Service Providers (to the extent the services to be provided to the Applicable Service Providers relate directly to the operations and financial reporting of the Fund). The Committee may also pre-approve services at any other in-person or telephonic Committee meeting. At least annually, the Committee will receive a report of all audit and non-audit services that were rendered in the previous calendar year by the independent accountants for the Fund and its Applicable Service Providers.

In addition to the Committee's pre-approval of services pursuant to this Policy, the engagement of the independent accounting firm for any permitted non-audit service provided to the Fund will also require the separate pre-approval of the President, Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer of the Fund, who may only grant such approval if he or she believes that the accounting firm's engagement will not adversely affect the firm's independence. All non-audit services performed by the independent accounting firm will be disclosed, to the extent required, in filings with the SEC.

A. Audit Services

The categories of audit services and related fees to be reviewed and pre-approved annually by the Committee in connection with the audit of the Fund are:

Annual Fund financial statement audits

Seed audits (related to new product filings, as required)

SEC and regulatory filings and consents

Semiannual financial statement reviews

Individual audit services that fall within one of these categories and are not presented to the Committee as part of the annual pre-approval process described above, may be pre-approved, if deemed consistent with the accounting firm's independence, by the Committee at any regular or special meeting. Such services may also be pre-approved by the Committee Chair (or any other Committee member who is a disinterested trustee under the Investment Company Act to whom this responsibility has been delegated) so long as the estimated fee for the particular service for which pre-approval is sought does not exceed the limit assigned within Appendix A. Any pre-approval by a Committee member shall be reported to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

B. Audit-Related Services

The following categories of audit-related services are generally considered to be consistent with the role of the Fund's independent accountants and services falling under one of these categories will be pre-approved by the Committee on an annual basis if the Committee deems those services to be consistent with the accounting firm's independence:

Accounting consultations

Fund merger support services

Agreed upon procedure reports (inclusive of annual review of Basic Maintenance testing associated with issuance of Preferred Shares)

Other attestation reports

Comfort letters

Other internal control reports

Individual audit-related services that fall within one of these categories and are not presented to the Committee as part of the annual pre-approval process described above, may be pre-approved, if deemed consistent with the accounting firm's independence, by the Committee at any regular or special meeting or by the Committee Chair (or any other Committee member who is a disinterested trustee under the Investment Company Act to whom this responsibility has been delegated) so long as the estimated fee for the particular service for which pre-approval is sought does not exceed the limit assigned within Appendix A. Any pre-approval by a Committee Member shall be reported to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

Table of Contents

C. Tax Services

The following categories of tax services are generally considered to be consistent with the role of a Fund's independent accountants and services falling under one of these categories will be pre-approved by the Committee on an annual basis if the Committee deems those services to be consistent with the accounting firm's independence:

Federal, state and local income tax compliance and sales and use tax compliance, including required filings and amendments

Timely RIC qualification reviews

Tax distribution analysis and planning

Tax authority examination services

Tax appeals support services

Accounting methods studies

Fund merger support services

Other tax consulting services and related projects

Individual tax services that fall within one of these categories and are not presented to the Committee as part of the annual pre-approval process described above, may be pre-approved, if deemed consistent with the accounting firm's independence, by the Committee at any regular or special meeting. Such services may also be pre-approved by the Committee Chair (or any other Committee member who is a disinterested trustee under the Investment Company Act to whom this responsibility has been delegated) so long as the estimated fee for the particular service for which pre-approval is sought does not exceed the limit assigned within Appendix A. Any pre-approval by a Committee Member shall be reported to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

D. Other Services

Services that are proposed to be provided to a Fund which are not audit, audit-related or tax services may be pre-approved, if deemed consistent with the accounting firm's independence, by the Committee at any regular or special meeting. Such services may also be pre-approved by the Committee Chair (or any other Committee member who is a disinterested trustee under the Investment Company Act to whom this responsibility has been delegated) so long as the estimated fee for the particular service for which pre-approval is sought does not exceed the limit assigned within Appendix A. Any pre-approval by a Committee member shall be reported to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

Table of Contents

III. Prohibited Services

A Fund's independent accountants will not render to the Funds or any audit client those services set forth in Rule 2-01(c)(4) of Regulation S-X. Those services consist of:

Bookkeeping or other services related to the accounting records or financial statements of the audit client*

Financial information systems design and implementation*

Appraisal or valuation services, fairness opinions, or contribution-in-kind reports*

Actuarial services*

Internal audit outsourcing services*

Management functions or human resources

Broker or dealer, investment adviser or investment banking services

Legal services and expert services unrelated to the audit

Any other service that the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board determines, by regulation, is impermissible

* Such services are not prohibited under Rule 2-01(c)(4) of Regulation S-X if it is reasonable to conclude that the results of these services will not be subject to audit procedures during the audit of the audit client's financial statements.

⁶ For purposes of Rule 2-01, the audit client includes, with respect to Funds, all of the following entities:

(i) the Fund [whose financial statements are] being audited, reviewed or attested;

- (ii) the Fund's investment adviser (not including sub-advisers whose role is primarily portfolio management and who are subcontracted with or overseen by another investment adviser, although affiliated sub-advisers will be included through the operation of clause (iii) below) or sponsor (defined as an entity that establishes a unit investment trust);

- (iii) any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Fund's adviser or sponsor if the entity (A) is an investment adviser or sponsor, or (B) is engaged in the business of providing administrative, custodian, underwriting or transfer agent services to any investment company, investment adviser, or sponsor; and

- (iv) any fund or entity excluded from the definition of investment company by Section 3(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 that has an investment adviser or sponsor referred to in clauses (ii) or (iii) above.

Table of Contents

In addition, a Fund's independent accountant may not provide any personal tax services to individuals who serve in a Financial Reporting Oversight Role with respect to the Funds.⁷ This restriction does not apply to a Director/Trustee of the Funds if he or she is in a Financial Reporting Oversight Role only because he or she serves as a Director/Trustee of the Funds.

IV. Pre-Approval of Non-Audit Services Provided to Other Entities within the Fund Complex

Rule 2-01(c)(7) of Regulation S-X provides that an accountant is not independent of a Fund unless the Fund's Committee approves any permitted non-audit services to be provided to a Fund's Applicable Service Providers, provided, in each case, that the engagement relates directly to the operations and financial reporting of the Fund.

Services to be provided to Applicable Service Providers that are required to be pre-approved, may be pre-approved, if deemed consistent with the accounting firm's independence, by the Committee at a regular or special meeting or by the Committee Chair (or any other Committee member who is a disinterested trustee under the Investment Company Act to whom this responsibility has been delegated) so long as the estimated fee does not exceed the limit assigned, per service, within Appendix A. If a service is approved by a Committee member, the full Committee is notified of such pre-approval at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

Although the Committee will not be required to pre-approve all services provided to Applicable Service Providers and their affiliates, the Committee will receive an annual report from the Fund's independent accounting firm showing the aggregate fees for all services provided to Applicable Service Providers and their affiliates.

V. De Minimis Exception to Requirement of Pre-Approval of Non-Audit Services

Rule 2-01(c)(7)(i)(c) of Regulation S-X provides a limited exception (sometimes referred to as the de minimis exception) to the pre-approval requirements. This exception is designed to prevent the disqualification of the Fund's independent accountant due to a minor oversight and is to be used only rarely and only if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

The aggregate fees and costs of all non-audit services that, but for the limited exception provided by this Section V, would require pre-approval by the Committee constitutes no more than five percent of the total fees and costs paid by the Fund and Applicable Service Providers to the independent accountant during the fiscal year during which such non-audit services are provided;

⁷ Financial Reporting Oversight Role means a role in which a person is in a position to or does exercise influence over the contents of the financial statements or anyone who prepares them, such as when the person is a member of the board of directors or similar management or governing body, chief executive officer, president, chief financial officer, chief operating officer, general counsel, chief accounting officer, controller, director of internal audit, director of financial reporting, treasurer, or any equivalent position.

At the time of the engagement for such services, the Fund did not recognize that the services were non-audit services that required preapproval; and

Each such service is brought promptly to the attention of the Committee and approved prior to the completion of the audit by the Committee, Committee Chair or any other Committee member who is a disinterested trustee under the Investment Company Act to whom this responsibility has been delegated.

VI. Oversight and Monitoring

A Fund's CCO will be responsible for determining that a Fund's Applicable Service Providers and independent accountants have adopted and implemented policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent violations of these Procedures. If the CCO determines that the Applicable Service Providers or the independent accountant's policies and procedures do not meet such standard, the CCO shall notify the Applicable Service Provider or the independent accountant of the deficiency and request that the Applicable Service Provider or the independent accountant indicate how it intends to address the deficiency. If the deficiency is not addressed to the CCO's satisfaction within a reasonable time after such notification (as determined by the CCO), then the CCO shall promptly notify the Fund's Board of Directors/Trustees of the deficiency and shall discuss with the Board possible responses.

VII. Recordkeeping

The Fund shall maintain a written record of all decisions made pursuant to these procedures, together with appropriate supporting material.

In connection with the approval of any non-audit service pursuant to the de minimis exception provided in Section V of these procedures, a record shall be made indicating that each of the conditions for this exception has been satisfied.

A copy of these Procedures and of any amendments to these Procedures shall be maintained and preserved permanently in an easily accessible place. The written records referred to in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Section VII shall be maintained and preserved for six years from the end of the fiscal year in which the actions recorded were taken, for at least the first two years in an easily accessible location.

PROXY VOTING POLICY

1. It is the policy of each Trust that proxies should be voted in the interest of its shareholders, as determined by those who are in the best position to make this determination. Each Trust believes that the firms and/or persons purchasing and selling securities for the Trust and analyzing the performance of the Trust's securities are in the best position and have the information necessary to vote proxies in the best interests of the Trust and its shareholders, including in situations where conflicts of interest may arise between the interests of shareholders, on one hand, and the interests of the investment adviser, a sub-adviser and/or any other affiliated person of the Trust, on the other. Accordingly, each Trust's policy shall be to delegate proxy voting responsibility to the entity with portfolio management responsibility for the Trust.
2. Each Trust delegates the responsibility for voting proxies to Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC (AllianzGI US). A summary of the detailed proxy voting policy of AllianzGI US is attached as Appendix B hereto. Such summary may be revised from time to time to reflect changes to AllianzGI US's detailed proxy voting policy.
3. The party voting the proxy (i.e., AllianzGI US) shall vote such proxies in accordance with such party's proxy voting policy and, to the extent consistent with such policy, may rely on information and/or recommendations supplied by others.
4. AllianzGI US shall deliver a copy of its proxy voting policy and any material amendments thereto to the applicable Board of the Trust promptly after the adoption or amendment of any such policy.
5. The party voting the proxy shall: (i) maintain such records and provide such voting information as is required for the Trust's regulatory filings including, without limitation, Form N-PX and the required disclosure of policy called for by Item 18 of Form N-2 and Item 7 of Form N-CSR; and (ii) shall provide such additional information as may be requested, from time to time, by the Board or the Trust's Chief Compliance Officer.

Appendix B

Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC (AllianzGI US)

Description of Proxy Voting Policy and Procedures

AllianzGI US typically votes proxies as part of its discretionary authority to manage accounts, unless the client has explicitly reserved the authority for itself. When voting proxies, AllianzGI US seeks to make voting decisions solely in the best interests of its clients and to enhance the economic value of the underlying portfolio securities held in its clients' accounts.

AllianzGI US has adopted the Allianz Global Investors Global Corporate Governance Guidelines and Proxy Voting Policy (the Proxy Guidelines), which are reasonably designed to ensure that the firm is voting in the best interest of its clients. For the purpose of voting proxies for all accounts of AllianzGI US, AllianzGI US uses the services of its affiliate, Allianz Global Investors GmbH (AllianzGI GmbH). The employees of AllianzGI GmbH who provide proxy voting services to AllianzGI US are considered associated persons as that term is defined in the Advisers Act.

The Proxy Guidelines provide a general framework for our proxy voting analysis and are intended to address the most significant and frequent voting issues that arise at our investee companies' shareholder meetings. However, the Proxy Guidelines are not intended to be rigid rules, and AllianzGI's consideration of the merits of a particular proposal may cause AllianzGI to vote in a manner that deviates from the approach set forth in the Proxy Guidelines.

AllianzGI has retained an unaffiliated third party proxy research and voting service provider (Proxy Voting Service), to assist it in researching and voting proxies. With respect to each proxy received, the Proxy Voting Service researches the ballot proposals and provides a recommendation to AllianzGI as to how to vote on each proposal based on the Proxy Voting Service's research of the individual facts and circumstances and the Proxy Voting Service's application of its research findings to the Proxy Guidelines.

In some cases a portfolio manager, research analyst or proxy analyst from the Global Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) team may propose to override a policy recommendation made by the Proxy Voting Service. In such cases, AllianzGI will review the proxy to determine whether there is a material conflict between the interests of AllianzGI (including the employee proposing the vote) and the interests of AllianzGI s clients. If a material conflict does exist, AllianzGI will seek to address the conflict in good faith and in the best interests of the applicable client accounts, as described more fully below. In the absence of a material conflict, the proxy will be reviewed by a proxy analyst and the relevant portfolio managers and/or research analysts and, from time to time as may be necessary, the Head of ESG Research (or equivalent), to determine how the proxy will be voted. Any deviations from the Proxy Guidelines will be documented and maintained in accordance with Rule 204-2 under the Advisers Act.

AllianzGI has adopted and implemented policies and procedures, including the procedures described in this document, which are reasonably designed to ensure that client account proxies are voted in the best interest of clients. Such policies and procedures are in part designed to identify and address material conflicts of interest that may arise between the interests of AllianzGI and its clients, as well as identify material conflicts of interest that portfolio managers, proxy analysts and research analysts may have, to ensure any such conflicted individuals refrain from participating in the proxy voting process or that the conflicts are otherwise mitigated. With respect to personal conflicts of interest, AllianzGI s Code of Ethics requires all employees to conduct themselves with integrity and distinction, to put first the interests of the firm s clients, and to take care to avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Portfolio managers, research analysts, proxy analysts, or Proxy Committee members with a personal conflict of interest regarding a particular proxy vote must recuse themselves and not participate in the voting decisions with respect to that proxy.

With respect to the voting process, as described above, most votes are based on the independent recommendation of the unaffiliated, third party Proxy Voting Service, which recommendations are in turn based on the Proxy Voting Service's independent review and research of each proxy and its independent application of the Proxy Guidelines.

In those cases in which a proxy analyst, portfolio manager or research analyst proposes to override a policy recommendation made by the Proxy Voting Service or the Proxy Voting Service has not provided a recommendation, the proxy analyst and relevant portfolio managers and/or research analysts will review the proxy to ensure any recommendation appears based on a sound investment rationale and assess whether any business or other relationship, or any other potential conflict of interest, may be influencing the proposed vote on that company's proxy. In the event a material conflict is identified, AllianzGI will convene the Proxy Committee to review the proxy and make a decision how to vote. Proposed votes that raise potential material conflicts of interest are promptly resolved by the Proxy Committee prior to the time AllianzGI casts its vote.

As a further safeguard, while AllianzGI includes members from different parts of the organization on the Proxy Committee, AllianzGI does not include individuals whose primary duties relate to client relationship management, marketing, or sales. Finally, any voting decision by the Proxy Committee must include a vote from a member of at least one of the Risk, Legal, or Compliance functions.

AllianzGI US may vote proxies in accordance with other relevant procedures that have been approved and implemented to address specific types of conflicts. For example, when a material conflict between the interests of AllianzGI US and its clients have been identified AllianzGI US may abstain from voting.

In certain circumstances, a client may request in writing that AllianzGI US vote proxies for its account in accordance with a set of guidelines which differs from the Proxy Guidelines. For example, a client may wish to have proxies voted for its account in accordance with the Taft-Hartley proxy voting guidelines. In that case, AllianzGI US will vote the shares held by such client accounts in accordance with their direction, which may be different from the vote cast for shares held on behalf of other client accounts that vote in accordance with the Proxy Guidelines.

AllianzGI may abstain from voting client proxies if, based on its evaluation of relevant criteria, it determines that the costs associated with voting a proxy exceed the expected benefits to affected clients. The primary aim of this cost-benefit analysis is to determine whether it is in a client's best economic interest to vote its proxies. If the costs associated with voting a proxy outweigh the expected benefit to the client, AllianzGI may refrain from voting that proxy.

The circumstances under which AllianzGI may refrain from voting may include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) proxy statements and ballots being written in a foreign language, (2) untimely notice of a shareholder meeting, (3) requirements to vote proxies in person, (4) restrictions on a foreigner's ability to exercise votes, and (5) requirements to provide local agents with power of attorney to execute the voting instructions. Such proxies are voted on a best-efforts basis.

Proxy voting in certain countries requires share blocking. To vote proxies in such countries, shareholders must deposit their shares shortly before the date of the meeting with a designated depository and the shares are then restricted from being sold until the meeting has taken place and the shares are returned to the shareholders' custodian banks. Absent compelling reasons, AllianzGI believes the benefit to its clients of exercising voting rights does not outweigh the effects of not being able to sell the shares. Therefore, if share blocking is required AllianzGI generally abstains from voting.

AllianzGI will be unable to vote securities on loan under securities lending arrangements into which AllianzGI's clients have entered. However, under rare circumstances such as voting issues that may have a significant impact on the investment, if the client holds a sufficient number of shares to have a material impact on the vote, AllianzGI may request that the client recall securities that are on loan if it determines that the benefit of voting outweighs the costs and potential lost revenue to the client and the administrative burden of retrieving the securities.

Table of Contents

The ability to timely identify material events and recommend recall of shares for proxy voting purposes is not within the control of AllianzGI US and requires the cooperation of the client and its other service providers. Efforts to recall loaned securities are not always effective and there can be no guarantee that any such securities can be retrieved in a timely manner for purposes of voting the securities.

 Of the Other Pooled Investment Vehicles, four accounts totaling $1,094 million pays an advisory fee that is based in part on the performance of the account.

AllianzGI USPotential Conflicts of Interest

Like other investment professionals with multiple clients, a portfolio manager for a Fund may face certain potential conflicts of interest in connection with managing both the Portfolio and other accounts at the same time. The paragraphs below describe some of these potential conflicts, which AllianzGI US believes are faced by investment professionals at most major financial firms.

AllianzGI US has adopted compliance policies and procedures that address certain of these potential conflicts. The management of accounts with different advisory fee rates and/or fee structures, including accounts that pay advisory fees based on account performance (performance fee accounts), may raise potential conflicts of interest by creating an incentive to favor higher- fee accounts. These potential conflicts may include, among others:

The most attractive investments could be allocated to higher-fee accounts or performance fee accounts.

The trading of higher-fee accounts could be favored as to timing and/or execution price. For example, higher-fee accounts could be permitted to sell securities earlier than other accounts when a prompt sale is desirable or to buy securities at an earlier and more opportune time.

Table of Contents

The investment management team could focus their time and efforts primarily on higher-fee accounts due to a personal stake in compensation.

When AllianzGI US considers the purchase or sale of a security to be in the best interests of a Fund as well as other accounts, AllianzGI US's trading desk may, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, aggregate the securities to be sold or purchased.

Aggregation of trades may create the potential for unfairness to a Fund or another account if one account is favored over another in allocating the securities purchased or sold—for example, by allocating a disproportionate amount of a security that is likely to increase in value to a favored account. AllianzGI US considers many factors when allocating securities among accounts, including the account's investment style, applicable investment restrictions, availability of securities, available cash and other current holdings. AllianzGI US attempts to allocate investment opportunities among accounts in a fair and equitable manner. However, accounts are not assured of participating equally or at all in particular investment allocations due to such factors as noted above.

Cross trades, in which one AllianzGI US account sells a particular security to another account (potentially saving transaction costs for both accounts), may also pose a potential conflict of interest when cross trades are effected in a manner perceived to favor one client over another. For example, AllianzGI US may cross a trade between performance fee account and a fixed fee account that results in a benefit to the performance fee account and a detriment to the fixed fee account. AllianzGI US has adopted compliance procedures that provide that all cross trades are to be made at an independent current market price, as required by law.

Another potential conflict of interest may arise from the different investment objectives and strategies of a Fund and other accounts. For example, another account may have a shorter-term investment horizon or different investment objectives, policies or restrictions than a Portfolio. Depending on another account's objectives or other factors, a portfolio manager may give advice and make decisions that may differ from advice given, or the timing or nature of decisions made, with respect to a Fund. In addition, investment decisions are subject to suitability for the particular account involved. Thus, a particular security may not be bought or sold for certain accounts even though it was bought or sold for other accounts at the same time. More rarely, a particular security may be bought for one or more accounts managed by a portfolio manager when one or more other accounts are selling the security (including short sales). There may be circumstances when purchases or sales of portfolio securities for one or more accounts may have an adverse effect on other accounts. AllianzGI US maintains trading policies designed to provide portfolio managers an opportunity to minimize the effect that short sales in one portfolio may have on holdings in other portfolios.

A portfolio manager who is responsible for managing multiple funds and/or accounts may devote unequal time and attention to the management of those funds and/or accounts. As a result, the portfolio manager may not be able to formulate as complete a strategy or identify equally attractive investment opportunities for each of those accounts as might be the case if he or she were to devote substantially more attention to the management of a single fund. The effects of this potential conflict may be more pronounced where funds and/or accounts overseen by a particular portfolio manager have different investment strategies.

A Portfolio's portfolio manager(s) may be able to select or influence the selection of the broker/dealers that are used to execute securities transactions for the Fund. In addition to executing trades, some brokers and dealers provide AllianzGI US with brokerage and research services (as those terms are defined in Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), which may result in the payment of higher brokerage fees than might have otherwise be available. These services may be more beneficial to certain funds or accounts than to others. In order to be assured of continuing to receive services considered of value to its clients, AllianzGI US has adopted a brokerage allocation policy embodying the concepts of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Although the payment of brokerage commissions is subject to the requirement that the portfolio manager determine in good faith that the commissions are reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided to the Fund and the Sub-Adviser's other clients, a portfolio manager's decision as to the selection of brokers and dealers could yield disproportionate costs and benefits among the funds and/or accounts that he or she manages.

A Fund's portfolio manager(s) may also face other potential conflicts of interest in managing a Portfolio, and the description above is not a complete description of every conflict that could be deemed to exist in managing both the Portfolios and other accounts. In addition, a Fund's portfolio manager may also manage other accounts (including their personal assets or the assets of family members) in their personal capacity.

AllianzGI US's investment personnel, including each Fund's portfolio manager, are subject to restrictions on engaging in personal securities transactions pursuant to AllianzGI US's Code of Business Conduct and Code of Ethics (the Code), which contain provisions and requirements designed to identify and address conflicts of interest between personal investment activities and the interests of the Fund. The Code is designed to ensure that the personal securities transactions, activities and interests of the employees of AllianzGI US will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients (including the Portfolios) or

(ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts.

Compensation Structure for AllianzGI US

As of February 28, 2019 the following explains the compensation structure of each individual who shares primary responsibility for day-to-day portfolio management of the Fund:

The compensation system is designed to support the organization's corporate values and culture. While acknowledging the importance of financial incentives and seeking to pay top quartile compensation for top quartile performance, AllianzGI US also believes that compensation is only one of a number of critically important elements that allow the emergence of a strong, winning culture that attracts, retains and motivates talented investors and teams. AllianzGI US's compensation system supports its belief that investment professionals are a key element of the company's success in meeting clients' objectives. To the extent that there are regional experts located in other AllianzGI US-affiliated offices worldwide who are associated persons of AllianzGI US and who serve as portfolio managers for certain of the Funds, this compensation strategy is applied independently by the AllianzGI US-affiliated company that employs such a portfolio manager. In such cases, AllianzGI US compensates the employing company through an affiliated transfer pricing arrangement that takes into account the value placed by AllianzGI US on the shared service of the portfolio manager.

The primary components of compensation are the base salary and an annual variable compensation payment. Base salary typically reflects scope, responsibilities and experience required in a particular role, be it on the investment side or any other function in the company. Base compensation is regularly reviewed against peers with the help of compensation survey data. Base compensation is typically a greater percentage of total compensation for more junior positions, while for the most senior roles it is typically a comparatively small component, often capped and only adjusted every few years.

The variable compensation component typically comprises a cash bonus that pays out immediately after the performance year as well as a deferred component, for members of staff whose variable compensation exceeds a certain threshold. Except for certain specialist investment teams as noted below, variable compensation is determined on a discretionary basis and is primarily designed to reflect the achievements of an individual against set goals, over a certain time period. For an investment professional these goals will typically be 70% quantitative and 30% qualitative. The former will reflect a weighted average of investment performance over a three-year rolling time period (one-year (25%) and three year (75%) results) and the latter reflects contributions to broader team goals, contributions made to client review meetings, product development or product refinement initiatives. Portfolio managers have their performance metric aligned with the benchmarks of the client portfolios they manage.

Variable compensation for certain specialist investment teams including AllianzGI US Income & Growth and Structured Products is determined on a formulaic basis. These teams share a percentage of advisory fee revenue including performance fee revenue, if applicable, generated by the investment strategy.

After consultation and oversight from the firm's compensation committee, the lead portfolio manager allocates the team's share of the shared revenue to the individual team members. Allocation to individual team members is determined based on individual performance and contribution to the team and client success. All team members have agreed upon performance objectives to serve as a basis for performance evaluation during the year. These objectives are both quantitative and qualitative in nature. Quantitative objectives typically align to investment performance and client-stated objectives. Qualitative objectives reflect contributions to broader team goals, such as idea sharing, contributions made to client review meetings, product development or product refinement initiatives, and the way behaviors reflect AllianzGI US's core values of excellence, passion, integrity and respect. For all investment professionals, a 360 degree feedback evaluation forms part of the qualitative input. Achievement against these goals as measured by the lead portfolio manager and Chief Investment Officer serve to link performance to compensation. Notwithstanding the basis for determining variable compensation, all compensation principles, including the deferral rules and deferred instruments described below, apply.

As noted above, variable compensation includes a deferral component. The deferred component for most recipients would be a notional award of the Long Term Incentive Plan Award (LTIPA); for members of staff whose variable compensation exceeds an additional threshold, the deferred compensation is itself split 50%/50% between the LTIPA and a Deferral into Funds program (DIF). Deferral rates increase in line with the overall variable compensation and can reach up to 42%. Overall awards, splits, components and deferral percentages are regularly reviewed to ensure they are competitive and, where applicable, comply with regulatory standards.

The LTIPA element of the variable compensation cliff vests three years after each (typically annual) award. Its value is directly tied to the operating profit of Allianz Global Investors.

The DIF element of the variable compensation cliff vests three years after each (typically annual) award and enables qualifying members of staff to invest in a range of Allianz Global Investors funds. Investment professionals are encouraged to invest into their own funds or funds of a similar nature to those that they manage. The value of the DIF award is determined by the performance of the fund over the three-year period covering each award.

Assuming an annual deferral of 33% over a three year period, a typical member of staff will have roughly one year's variable compensation (3x33%) as a deferred component in the bank. Three years after the first award, and for as long as deferred components were awarded without break, cash payments in each year will consist of the annual cash bonus for that current year's performance as well as a payout from LTIPA/DIF commensurate with the prior cumulative three-year performance.

In addition to competitive compensation, the firm's approach to retention includes providing a challenging career path for each professional, a supportive culture to ensure each employee's progress and a full benefits package.
