Why GE has changed the way we deliver your proxy statement and annual report, and what it means to you

Dear Shareowner,

This year we have distributed proxy materials to some of our shareowners over the Internet by sending them the enclosed Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (Notice) that explains how to access our proxy statement and annual report, and how to vote online. This e-proxy process, which was approved by the SEC in 2007, expedites our shareowners' receipt of these materials, lowers the costs of proxy solicitation and reduces the environmental impact of our annual meeting. Many other large companies have transitioned to this more contemporary way of distributing annual meeting materials.

This new process provides shareowners with our proxy statement and annual report primarily by making them available on the Internet. This electronic posting replaces the traditional documents mailed to you in previous years. If you prefer to receive paper or e-mail copies, however, we will be happy to deliver these materials to you in printed or electronic form, and we have provided several ways for you to request this option.

The Notice provides details about the online posting of our proxy materials. The Notice contains information about how you can, if you wish, request paper or e-mail copies at no cost to you. It also has instructions for voting online, by mail, or in person.

Cordially,

Brackett B. Denniston III
Secretary

What is on the Notice?

The Notice contains simple instructions on how to:

- > Access and view the proxy materials online
- > Vote your shares online
- > Request a free set of printed materials
- > Change delivery preferences for future proxy mailings

DO retain the Notice for future reference

DO NOT mark your vote on the Notice and return it; the Notice is not a proxy card or ballot

How do I vote my shares?

To vote your shares, follow the instructions on the Notice to vote online. If you request a paper copy of the proxy materials, you will receive a proxy card with voting instructions. You may also vote your shares in person by bringing the Notice with you and attending the meeting. Please see the proxy statement for additional information on how to attend the meeting and vote your shares.

How do I request a paper or email copy of the proxy materials for this meeting or future meetings?

To request a free paper or email copy of the proxy materials for this meeting or for future meetings, refer to the Notice for instructions on how to request a copy through the Internet, telephone or email.

Can I elect to receive my proxy materials electronically?

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form DEFA14A

You may elect to receive proxy materials through email for future mailings. To change your delivery preferences, follow the instructions on the Notice.

One of your key privileges as an investor is the right to vote on important matters that affect the company you own shares in.

Please vote. Your vote is important to us and our business.

Reviewing Materials

A The area of the notice shown in Box A (see bottom of page) provides a list of our proxy materials available for your review. You may view these online (see Box B), or you may request that we send paper or e-mail copies to you (see Box C).

B The area of the notice shown in Box B (see bottom of page) provides the website where you can review our proxy materials online. To view the materials online, have the information that is printed in the box marked by the arrow and visit www.proxyvote.com.

C This section describes how to request printed copies of our proxy materials. You may request printed copies by communicating your preference via the Internet, telephone, or e-mail.

Voting

You are encouraged to review all of the important information contained in the proxy materials before voting. You may vote in person, by Internet, or by mail, as explained in How To Vote, which appears on the enclosed notice just below the section depicted at the bottom of this page.

If you elect to receive a printed copy of the proxy materials via the instructions in Box C, you will receive a voting instruction form in paper format as well and can vote by returning the form through the mail. Or, after receiving paper copies of the materials and voting instruction form, you may choose to vote your shares via the Internet.

Attending the Meeting

If you plan to attend the meeting, please following the instructions under Information About Attending the Meeting Obtaining an Admission Card in the proxy statement. If you would like to vote your shares at the meeting, you must obtain a proxy from your bank, broker or other institution and bring it with you to hand in with your ballot.
