Ternium informs the market of court decision preventing its Argentine subsidiary Siderar from paying previously announced dividend

Luxembourg, May 5, 2011 – Ternium S.A. (NYSE: TX) provided today further information concerning its Argentine subsidiary Siderar S.A.I.C.

On the date hereof, Siderar was notified of a court decision issued by a Commercial Court in the City of Buenos Aires at ANSeS' request, revoking its prior clarificatory ruling of May 2, 2011 (which permitted Siderar to distribute to its shareholders, including Ternium, the USD370 million dividend approved by its April 15, 2011 shareholders' meeting). Today's court decision supersedes the prior ruling and provides that Siderar may not distribute dividends out of its results or reserves for the fiscal year 2010 and it is only permitted to distribute dividends out of results or reserves corresponding to fiscal years prior to 2010.

Siderar subsequently informed that, as a result of this court decision, it is not permitted to make on May 11, 2011, the dividend payment approved by its April 15, 2011 shareholders' meeting. Siderar has further informed that it will file an appeal against the court decision in accordance with applicable law.

These events will have no impact on the dividend proposed to Ternium's shareholders meeting to be held on June 1, 2011.
