Clarifications on the discovery in Albacora, at the Campos Basin

Rio de Janeiro, October 3, 2016 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras hereby clarifies that the discovery of a pre-salt reservoir in the Albacora concession of the Campos Basin, as was reported by the newspaper O Globo on October 3, 2016, occurred in April 2011 with the drilling of the well 6-BRSA-899D-RJS (6-AB-119D). The ANP was notified of the discovery on April 27, 2011, and the market was notified April 28, 2011 (see the company's website for a copy of the release).

On August 2012, a Discovery Assessment Plan (PAD) was submitted to the Agência Nacional de Petróleo, with the prevision of a Long Term Test for the year of 2017 as a commitment of the PAD.

The assessments will continue until there is sufficient information to determine whether or not the company will submit a Declaration of Commercial Viability.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company’s expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as “believe,” “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “optimistic,” “intend,” “plan,” “aim,” “will,” “may,” “would,” “likely,” and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company’s actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the “Lava Jato Operation”; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company’s risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2015, and the Company's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
