Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 5, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Laidlaw International, Inc. approved the following changes to the compensation of non-employee directors:

- Fees paid to members of the Audit Committee for attending Audit Committee meetings were increased to $1,500 per meeting attended. All other committee members continue to receive $1,000 per other committee meeting attended.
- The same in person meeting fees will be paid regardless of whether the committee or board meeting attended is telephonic or in person.
- Upon first being elected or appointed to the Board, a new director will receive a grant of 13,500 stock options and 6,750 restricted shares, pro rated for that portion of the remaining fiscal year in which they will serve as a director.
- All restricted shares granted after July 5, 2006 to non-employee directors will vest on the second anniversary of grant.

In addition, the Compensation Committee approved a change to the director stock ownership guidelines to increase the ownership requirements. Under such guidelines each non-employee director is now expected within five years of election to hold common stock with a value equal to five times the annual retainer of $47,500.
