Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 26, 2009, CMS Energy Corporation (the "Corporation") entered into Officer Separation Agreements ("Separation Agreements") with James Brunner, the Corporation's General Counsel and John Butler, the Corporation's Senior Vice President for Human Resources and Administrative Services, in a form which the Corporation plans to utilize for other current officers who do not otherwise have separation agreements in place. Under the main feature of the Separation Agreement, if the officer is terminated by the Corporation from employment for reasons other than retirement or good cause, in return for releasing all claims against the Corporation and various other covenants of the officer, the officer would be paid a separation payment in an amount equal to a multiple of his/her then annual base salary (1.50 times in the case of Messrs. Butler and Brunner). The Separation Agreement provides for immediate vesting of restricted stock having only time-based restrictions, and otherwise generally preserves existing rights to other benefits, such as pension benefits and related compensation, and benefits under the Corporation's Performance Incentive Stock Plan, which the officer had accrued at the time of termination.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective January 22, 2009, CMS Energy ("CMS Energy") and Consumers Energy ("Consumers") adopted changes to their respective bylaws. A new section was added to each of CMS Energy's and Consumers' bylaws to govern the requirements for providing advance notice and additional information that a shareholder must provide when making a director nomination or proposal at CMS Energy's or Consumers' annual meeting of shareholders. The information required under the new bylaws will make it possible for CMS Energy and Consumers to better evaluate any nominations or other business placed before the meetings, as well as disclosing information as to the ownership interests of the individuals making nominations or proposals.

The preceding disclosure is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amendments of CMS Energy's and Consumers' bylaws. Copies of the amendments to CMS Energy's and Consumers' bylaws are attached as exhibits 3.01 and 3.02, respectively and are incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
