Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG:
All Proposals Put Forward by the Board of Directors Approved

Zurich, April 24, 2015 The shareholders of Credit Suisse Group AG approved all of the proposals of the Board of Directors at today's Annual General Meeting in Zurich. Shareholders approved the distribution for the 2014 financial year of CHF 0.70 per registered share, which they can elect to receive either in the form of shares (scrip dividend) or in cash or a combination thereof. The increase in authorized capital to a maximum of CHF 6.4 million to maintain financial flexibility in the course of further developing business activities, and for the purposes of servicing the 2015 scrip dividend, was also approved by shareholders. In addition, the Annual General Meeting approved the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board and accepted the 2014 Compensation Report. The Chairman and the other Members of the Board of Directors proposed for re-election were confirmed in office for a further term of one year. Seraina Maag was elected as a new Member of the Board of Directors.

At today's Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG in Zurich, shareholders approved all of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors.

Distribution against Reserves from Capital Contributions

Shareholders approved a distribution against reserves from capital contributions of CHF 0.70 per registered share for the 2014 financial year in the form of either shares (scrip dividend), a cash distribution or a combination thereof. Such distributions remain subject to the provisions of foreign law concerning the acquisition of new shares. Should no choice be made, the distribution will be paid out entirely in cash.

Both the delivery of the new shares and the distribution in cash are scheduled for May 21, 2015. The issue price of the new shares is based on the five-day average of the daily volume-weighted average prices from May 11, 2015, to May 18, 2015, of registered shares of Credit Suisse Group AG listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange AG, less a discount of 6%.

Further information on the scrip dividend can be found in the 'Shareholder Information – Summary Document', which is available on the Credit Suisse website at: www.credit-suisse.com/agm

Increase in Authorized Capital for Employee Shares

With a majority of 92.36% of the votes represented, shareholders approved the increase and extension of authorized capital. In order to maintain financial flexibility in the course of further developing business activities and the business portfolio, and for the purposes of servicing the scrip dividend, authorized capital will be increased from currently CHF 4,497,908.52 (equivalent to 112,447,713 registered shares) to a maximum of CHF 6,400,000 (equivalent to 160,000,000 registered shares), authorization will be extended by two years, and Art. 27 of the Articles of Association will be amended accordingly. 60,000,000 of these registered shares are reserved for servicing the 2015 scrip dividend.

Elections to the Board of Directors

Chairman Urs Rohner and the other Members of the Board of Directors who stood for re-election were confirmed in office for a further term of one year.

Seraina Maag was elected to the Board of Directors as a new member for a term of office of one year. Seraina Maag is President and Chief Executive Officer of EMEA at American International Group (AIG), a leading global financial services company. Seraina Maag lives in London and is responsible for the company's insurance business in Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Seraina Maag is an executive with extensive international experience, and has a career spanning more than 25 years with functions in the insurance and financial services industry in Switzerland, Europe, the US and Australia. She grew up in Switzerland and has dual Swiss and Australian citizenship.

Re-Election of the Members of the Compensation Committee

The Annual General Meeting re-elected Iris Bohnet, Andreas N. Koopmann, Jean Lanier and Kai S. Nargolwala as Members of the Compensation Committee for a term of one year. Jean Lanier will serve as Chairman of the Compensation Committee for a further year.

Approval of the Compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board

The Annual General Meeting adopted the proposal to approve a maximum amount of compensation for the Board of Directors of CHF 12 million for the period until the 2016 ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders with a majority of 87.79%.

The Annual General Meeting adopted the proposal to approve a maximum amount of CHF 32.0 million, comprising the fixed compensation component for the Executive Board for the period until the 2016 ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, and the amount of CHF 39.1 million, comprising the variable compensation components for the Executive Board for the 2014 financial year, with a majority of 86.95%.

Consultative Vote on the 2014 Compensation Report

In a consultative vote, shareholders approved the 2014 Compensation Report, with a majority of 66.76% of the represented votes.

Statements by Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors

Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group, commented: "We are pleased by the positive voting results. The approval of the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board and the Compensation Report are an acknowledgment of our responsible compensation policy. We thank our shareholders for their support."

With regard to the changes to the Board of Directors, Urs Rohner added: "I am delighted to welcome Seraina Maag as a new Member of our Board of Directors. Her broad experience and expertise in the financial services sector, combining extensive financial and management responsibility in large American and Swiss companies, will be extremely beneficial for the Board of Directors. We owe Jean-Daniel Gerber and Anton van Rossum, who did not stand for re-election, our considerable thanks for the personal contributions they have made during their terms of office."

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
 - market volatility and interest rate fluctuations and developments affecting interest rate levels;
 - the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the US or other developed countries in 2015 and beyond;
 - the direct and indirect impacts of deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
 - adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of us, sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
 - the ability to achieve our strategic objectives, including improved performance, reduced risks, lower costs, and more efficient use of capital;
 - the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
 - the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, exchange rate, trade and tax policies, as well as currency fluctuations;
 - political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
 - the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;

- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices and possible resulting changes to our business organization, practices and policies in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- competition or changes in competitive position in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
 - the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
 - the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
 - the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
 - technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
 - the adverse resolution of litigation, regulatory proceedings, and other contingencies;
 - the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
 - our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, including the information set forth in “Risk factors” in chapter I – Information on the company in our Annual Report 2014.
