

EQUUS TOTAL RETURN, INC.
Form DEFA14A
April 20, 2010

April 20, 2010

Dear Equus Shareholder,

We recently sent you the proxy materials and WHITE proxy card for the upcoming 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Equus Total Return, Inc. ("Equus" or "the Fund"), wherein you were asked to elect the Fund's directors for the next year. This year's meeting represents one of the most important in the history of your Fund and this vote is one of the most critical you will make regarding its future. The meeting will be held on May 12, 2010 and shareholders of record as of March 15, 2010 are entitled to vote.

No matter how many shares you own, please make sure they are represented at the meeting.
Submit your vote on the attached WHITE proxy card today.

You may receive proxy materials from "The Committee to Enhance Equus," a group led by Sam Douglass (the founder of the Fund and an officer or director of Equus since its inception) and his wife, Paula Douglass (who until recently had been an officer of the Fund and Vice Chairman of the Fund's former investment adviser). Do not be misled. The Douglass Committee is seeking to take control of the Equus board by launching a costly and disruptive proxy contest for reasons that we believe are self-serving and not in the best interest of shareholders, as discussed below.

Don't be fooled by the Douglass Committee's misleading statements. We urge you to consider the information below and vote TODAY in favor of the Fund's nominees on the WHITE proxy card enclosed.

1. OUR FOUR NEW BOARD NOMINEES REPRESENT THE SINGLE LARGEST SHAREHOLDER OF THE FUND. THEIR INTERESTS ARE FULLY ALLIGNED WITH THAT OF ALL SHAREHOLDERS – TO INCREASE SHAREHOLDER VALUE.

Alessandro Benedetti, Bertrand des Pallieres, John A. Hardy, and Fraser Atkinson, the four new nominees for your Board of Directors, represent 822,031 shares, or 9.28% of Equus stock. As representatives of our largest shareholder, their interests in and objectives for the Fund are aligned with all of our shareholders – they have a strong, vested interest in increasing Equus shareholder value.

On March 17, 2010, a majority of your Fund directors determined that Equus needed to change course away from years of stagnation and declining value under Sam and Paula Douglass. This is why Sam and Paula Douglass are not part of the Fund's director nominee slate. We expect that the four new Board members, will, if elected, provide the Fund with access to investment opportunities, capital as required, execution capacity and management expertise. We invite you to read the backgrounds of our new director nominees summarized at the end of this letter to better understand the tremendous resources they will bring to Equus.

2. SAM AND PAULA DOUGLASS (FOUNDERS OF 'THE COMMITTEE TO ENHANCE EQUUS') HAVE BEEN INTIMATELY INVOLVED IN THE MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND SINCE ITS CREATION

The Douglass Committee has attempted to mislead shareholders and characterize the Douglasses as outsiders not associated with the management of the Fund, but in fact:

Sam Douglass was the founder of the Fund and has been an officer or director of Equus since its inception;

- ALL of the Fund's current investments, including those investments which have performed poorly in the past several years, were approved by Sam or Paula Douglass as officers and directors of Moore, Clayton Capital Advisors ("MCCA"), the Fund's most recent investment adviser;
 - One or both of Mr. and Mrs. Douglass have been a member of the Fund's investment committee since the formation of the Fund until March 2010 when a majority of your directors determined to change course by terminating Mrs. Douglass' employment and nominating four new directors with no ties or preexisting relationship with Sam Douglass.

3. THE DOUGLASSES HAVE RECEIVED MILLIONS OF DOLLARS FROM MCCA

Sam Douglass was the chief supporter of MCCA and its appointment as adviser to the Fund because he and Paula Douglass stood to personally benefit from its involvement:

- MCCA was appointed as the Fund's investment adviser in June 2005 in connection with the sale by Sam Douglass of the Fund's previous investment advisor, Equus Capital Management Company ("ECMC"), to MCCA's parent company.
- Two trusts controlled by Sam Douglass were entitled to receive $6 million from the sale of ECMC, a large portion of which was a continuing earn-out contingent on MCCA remaining as advisor to the Fund.
 - At the time it was sold, ECMC was beneficially owned and controlled by Sam Douglass.
- Mr. and Mrs. Douglass became officers, directors, and employees of MCCA, collectively drawing over $1.6 million in salary and bonus.
- When MCCA's investment management agreement with the Fund was terminated in June 2009, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass were no longer entitled to receive income from MCCA as employees or as installment payments for the purchase of ECMC.

ASK YOURSELF WHY THE DOUGLASSES ARE NOW UNDERTAKING THIS PROXY CONTEST TO GET CONTROL OF THE FUND'S MANAGEMENT

4. THE DOUGLASS COMMITTEE'S BOARD SLATE ALSO INCLUDES BOTH THE CHAIRMAN AND CEO OF A COMPANY THAT IS IN DEFAULT ON A $2.2 MILLION LOAN FROM EQUUS

Jonathan H. Godshall and John D. White serve as the CEO and Chairman, respectively, of Trulite, Inc., a portfolio company of Equus that has defaulted on a $2.2 million loan which was originated by Sam and Paula Douglass on behalf of the Fund. Each of Messrs. Godshall and White and Paula Douglass are directors of Trulite. Instead of pressing for collection and recovery of this investment, the Douglasses, through the Douglass Committee, have instead sought to appoint Messrs. Godshall and White, both based in Houston, as well as Paula Douglass to your Fund's Board of Directors.

DON'T LET SAM AND PAULA DOUGLASS DERAILED THE TURN-AROUND

While the Board is in the process of executing a turn-around, Sam and Paula Douglass have chosen to launch this costly and disruptive proxy contest, seeking to replace your entire board with their Houston friends and associates. Please do not be misled. Please discard any gold proxy card you may receive from the Douglass Committee. The Douglasses' own proxy materials state that Mrs. Douglass intends to seek reimbursement from the Fund for her proxy solicitation expenses, which could total up to $300,000 -- without a vote of the Fund's shareholders. Ask yourself if the Douglasses' nominees' interests are the same as yours. Support real change by voting the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

OUR OBJECTIVE

In contrast to the direction taken by the Douglasses, we believe that our new director nominees will help transform Equus from a small Houston-based fund into a much larger, internationally focused and dynamic investment vehicle that can capitalize on opportunities around the world. Our objective is to put Equus firmly back on the track of receiving regular income and capital appreciation from our portfolio companies, with a view to resuming the Fund's quarterly dividend that was discontinued in early 2009 under the Douglasses leadership.

The election of the Fund's director nominees will ensure that the Board can continue to move forward with its plan to build shareholder value and will position the Fund to benefit from the significant actions we have already taken.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT; VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

To support your Board, please sign, date and return the WHITE proxy card in the postage paid envelope provided. Even if you have previously voted on the gold proxy card supplied by the Douglass Committee, you can still support your Board by voting the enclosed WHITE proxy card today. YOUR RESPONSE TODAY WILL HELP PUT THE FUND BACK ON THE RIGHT TRACK.

If you have any questions, require assistance in voting your WHITE proxy card, or need additional copies of the Company's proxy materials, please call our proxy solicitation firm, Georgeson Inc. toll-free at 866-821-2606 (banks and brokerage firms should call 212-440-9800), or email equus@georgeson.com. Sincerely,

/s/ Richard F. Bergner
