On April 19, 2016, the Board of Directors of Northwest Pipe Company (the “Company”), upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, approved the Long Term Incentive Plan Agreement (the “Agreement”), with cash awards and grants of restricted stock units (“RSUs”) for the following Executive Officers in the amounts set forth in the table below. Pursuant to the Agreement, each Executive Officer received an award of cash and RSUs valued at an amount equal to a specific percentage of his or her respective annual base salary, with 75 percent of each award represented by cash and 25 percent of each award represented by RSUs. 50 percent of the cash will be paid on the final regular payroll date of 2016 and 50 percent of the cash will be paid on the final regular payroll date of 2017, provided that the Executive Officer remains employed by the Company on such dates. The RSUs awarded will vest on January 16, 2018 based upon continued service with the Company on that date. In the event of a “change in control” (as defined in the Agreement), the RSUs will vest and the cash will be paid immediately after the change in control. The Agreement also provides that, in the event the Executive Officer’s employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without “Cause” (as defined in the Agreement) before the final regular payroll date of 2017, the Company shall pay the Executive Officer a lump sum amount equal to the Executive Officer’s salary for the number of months specified in the table below, and extend the Executive Officer’s health insurance coverage under COBRA for the shorter of the number of months specified in the table below or the maximum COBRA period. The severance benefit is conditioned upon the Executive Officer’s agreement to comply with certain noncompetition and nonsolicitation covenants and the execution of a separation agreement that includes a release of claims against the Company. The foregoing descriptions of the terms of the Agreement, the cash awards, the RSU awards, and severance benefits are qualified by reference to the full text of the forms of the Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
