Edgar Filing: Hill International, Inc. - Form SC 13D/A

February 17, 2016

Irvin E. Richter, Chairman
Bryan W. Clymer, Lead Independent Director
Hill International, Inc.
One Commerce Square
2005 Market Street, 17th Floor
Philadelphia, Pa 19103

Dear Messrs. Richter and Clymer:

We received your letter dated February 4, 2016 (1) rejecting our proposal that the board establish a committee of independent directors (and engage independent counsel) to assess all strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value for Hill, and (2) declining to expressly respond to our request to tell us (a) the actual beginning and ending dates of the window in which we must provide advance notice of nominations and proposals for the 2016 annual meeting and (2) what information we need to supply, and instead referring us to Hill's recently amended and restated bylaws (which are rather complicated).

As to the first matter, you say that the Board rejected our proposal to form a committee to explore alternatives to maximize shareholder value because it thinks it is not in the best interest of Hill or its stockholders. We note that on June 9, 2015 (when Hill's shares closed at $5.31), CEO David Richter boldly announced: "We are confident that Hill's current strategic plan combined with our strong growth outlook and aggressive cost optimization program will deliver both near- and long-term value to our stockholders." With Hill's stock currently trading below $3 per share, it is indisputable that his "strategic plan" has been a dismal failure. Therefore, we find it difficult to understand the Board's thinking in the face of a credible offer to acquire the Company for $4.75 per share, which is more than 60% higher than its current market price. At a minimum, the independent directors should reach out to some of Hill's largest public shareholders to ask them what they think should be done to increase shareholder value.

With respect to the second matter, why are you being evasive? In the Form 8-K that Hill filed on January 27, 2016, Item 5.03 stated that the Amended Bylaws "require that a stockholder desiring to put forward a nomination to be acted upon at the annual meeting must do so no later than the close of business on the 60th day, and no earlier than the close of business on the 90th day, prior to the first anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting...." However, Section 3.3 of the Bylaws (as Amended and Restated to January 21, 2016) states that "[a] stockholder's notice [of nominations] must be delivered...not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one-hundred-twenty (120) days in advance of the Anniversary Date. (That inconsistency was apparently corrected in an amendment to Form 8-K filed on February 8, 2016.) However, Hill's proxy statement for the 2015 annual meeting issued on April 30, 2015 stated: "[Y]ou must give notice to our Corporate Secretary no earlier than March 12, 2016 and no later than April 11, 2016." Should we assume that that statement been superseded?

Once again, to avoid any misunderstanding (and litigation), we request that you simply tell us (1) the earliest and latest date that advance notice for nominations and proposals is due for the 2016 annual meeting (assuming it will not be held earlier than 30 days or later than 70 days from the anniversary date of last year's meeting, i.e., June 9, 2016), and (2) the information that a shareholder must provide with the notice. If you refuse to answer, we shall assume that the advance notice window is from February 10, 2016 through March 11, 2016 (barring an announcement that the meeting will be held before May 10, 2016 or after August 18, 2016).

Edgar Filing: Hill International, Inc. - Form SC 13D/A

Moreover, while some of the bylaw changes are unobjectionable, we think others unnecessarily impede the franchise rights of shareholders, e.g., the requirement that a proposing stockholder must be a stockholder of record rather than a street name holder. Consequently, please be advised that we intend to submit the following proposal at the next meeting of shareholders:

Section 8.8 of the Bylaws is hereby amended by inserting the following sentence immediately after the first sentence: "Effective at the stockholder meeting at which this provision is adopted, no provision of the Bylaws that has the effect of limiting or impeding the franchise rights of stockholders shall be enforceable if it has not been approved by stockholders."

Very truly yours,

/s/ Phillip Goldstein
