On January 25, 2017, Saratoga Resources, Inc. (the Company) entered into a new employment agreement with its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Thomas Cooke.

The employment agreement (i) has a three-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year terms thereafter unless either party provides notice of non-renewal at least thirty days in advance of the end of the then current term; (ii) provides for a base salary of $250,000 annually, subject to periodic review and upward adjustment by the board or compensation committee; (iii) provides for discretionary bonuses from time to time as determined by the board or compensation committee; (iv) provides additional benefits, vacation pay and expense reimbursement consistent with Company policy and that of other senior officers; and (v) provides for a 5-year stock option grant to purchase 500,000 shares of common stock at fair market value on the date of grant, vesting 20% on the date of grant and 20% each six months thereafter. The employment agreement includes a deferral and accrual provision under which base salary commenced to accrue from May 26, 2016, the date of rejection of Mr. Cooke's prior employment agreement, and all base salary accruing from that date, as well as expenses remaining unreimbursed, accrue and payment of the same is deferred until such time as the Company's board determines, in its sole discretion, that the Company has adequate financial resources to pay such deferred amounts and current base salary and expenses, in part or in whole. Salary deferred under such provision bears simple interest at ten percent per annum and expense reimbursements deferred under such provision bear simple interest at thirteen percent per annum.

Reference is made to the employment agreement of Mr. Cooke, a copy of which is filed herewith, for a full description of the terms of employment.
