Item 7.01. Other Events

On February 27, 2019, HomeStreet, Inc. (the "Company"), the parent company of HomeStreet Bank, announced it has entered into a non-binding letter of intent with Homebridge Financial Services, Inc. with respect to the potential sale of assets related to HomeStreet Bank's home loan center-based mortgage origination business and related mortgage personnel. The Company had previously announced that it was exploring the potential sale of these assets. The parties expect to negotiate and enter into a definitive agreement for the transfer of these assets and related personnel to Homebridge, but there is no assurance that an agreement can be reached or what the timing or material terms of this potential transaction might be. If the Company is successful in a sale of its stand-alone home loan center mortgage operations, it plans to still retain a smaller home mortgage lending operation focused around the deposit branch network, online, and through affinity relationships. A press release regarding this announcement is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

The information in this Current Report, including the press release furnished as Exhibit 99.1, shall not be deemed to be "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, and shall not be incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing. The information provided herein shall instead be deemed "furnished."
