ITEM 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

Edgar Filing: EASTMAN KODAK CO - Form 8-K

On December 8, 2004, Eastman Kodak Company determined that it will cancel its program to market an automatic film processing station it was developing based on technologies acquired from Austin, Texas-based Applied Science Fiction in May 2003. The action is expected to be completed by March 31, 2005.

In conjunction with the program cancellation, the Company will pay approximately $3 million in severance costs to employees and will incur other exit costs amounting to approximately $8 million. In addition, the Company will record asset impairment charges of approximately $3 million for capital assets, approximately $11 million for intangible assets, and approximately $16 million for goodwill. In addition, the Company will record a charge in cost of goods sold for the write-off of inventory amounting to approximately $4 million. The total charges related to the program cancellation amount to $45 million. The severance and other exit costs require the outlay of cash, while the charges related to inventory, capital assets, intangible assets, and goodwill represent non-cash charges.

A copy of the December 13, 2004 press release related to this action is attached as Exhibit (99.1).
