Item 5.03                    Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws.

Effective March 2, 2009, the Board of Directors amended the Company's Bylaws to implement a majority voting policy for director elections. As amended, the Bylaws provide for a director nominee to be elected to the Board if the votes cast for such nominee's election exceed the votes cast against such nominee's election (unless the Company has received due notice that a stockholder has nominated a person for election to the Board of Directors with respect to a meeting of stockholders, which nomination has not been withdrawn on or before the tenth day the Company first mails its notice of such meeting to stockholders, in which case the directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at such meeting). The Board of Directors will only appoint or nominate an individual to serve on the Board of Directors who has agreed to tender a resignation which will only become effective if such individual fails to achieve the requisite stockholder vote at the next meeting of stockholders at which an election of directors is held. The Company's Corporate Governance Committee and Board of Directors reserve the right to accept or reject any such resignation based upon any factors they deem relevant to such determination.

The foregoing description of the amendments to the Company's Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amendments to the Bylaws, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
