ITEM 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 22, 2007, General Motors Corporation ("GM") entered into a $4.1 billion standby revolving credit agreement with a syndicate of banks. On December 31, 2007, GM terminated that credit agreement.

As previously disclosed in GM's second quarter 2007 Form 10-Q filed August 7, 2007, GM entered into a 364-Day Revolving Credit Agreement among General Motors Corporation, the Several Lenders, Bank of America, N.A. as Syndication Agent, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as Administrative Agent dated as of June 22, 2007 (the "Credit Agreement"). The Credit Agreement was secured by GM's common equity interest in GMAC LLC and was set to mature in June 2008. GM never borrowed under the Credit Agreement.

After reviewing its liquidity position, GM believes that it has sufficient liquidity and financial flexibility to meet its capital requirements in the first half of 2008 without the Credit Agreement. As a result, GM terminated the Credit Agreement.

Bank of America, N.A., JPMorgan Chase Bank and other members of the lending syndicate have provided banking and underwriting services to GM in the ordinary course of business.

Forward-Looking Statements

In this report and in reports subsequently filed by GM with the SEC on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and filed or furnished on Form 8-K, and in related comments by management of GM, our use of the words "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "forecast," "initiative," "objective," "plan," "goal," "project," "outlook," "priorities," "target," "intend," "evaluate," "pursue," "seek," "may," "would," "could," "should," "believe," "potential," "continue," "designed," "impact," or the negative of any of those words or similar expressions is intended to identify forward-looking statements that represent our current judgment about possible future events. All statements in this report and subsequent reports which GM may file with the SEC on Form 10-K or Form 10-Q or file or furnish on Form 8-K, other than statements of historical fact, including without limitation, statements about future events and financial performance, are forward-looking statements that involve certain risks and uncertainties. We believe these judgments are reasonable, but these statements are not guarantees of any events or financial results, and GM's actual results may differ materially due to a variety of important factors that may be revised or supplemented in subsequent reports on SEC Forms 10-K, 10-Q, and 8-K. Such factors include, among others, the ability of GM to achieve reductions in costs as a result of the turnaround restructuring and health care cost reductions and to implement capital expenditures at levels and times planned by management; our ability to maintain adequate liquidity and financing sources and an appropriate level of debt; costs and risks associated with litigation; changes in our accounting principles, or their application or interpretation, and our ability to make estimates and the assumptions underlying the estimates; the successful completion of collective bargaining agreements with all unions that represent GM employees/retirees and the legal interpretations of those agreements; labor strikes or work stoppages at GM; and general economic conditions, in particular health care costs and investment returns.

We caution investors not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to update publicly or otherwise revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or other such factors that affect the subject of these statements, except where we are expressly required to do so by law.
