Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000 (Dollars in Thousands)

1. Plan Description

The Southern New England Telephone Company Tax Reduction Act Stock Ownership Plan (the Plan) was by The Southern New England Telephone Company (SNET) under the provisions of the Tax Reduction Act amended by the Tax Reform Acts of 1976 and 1986, to provide shares of the sponsor company's common eligible employees. SNET is a wholly owned subsidiary of SBC Communications Inc. (SBC).

The following description of the Plan provides only general information. The Plan text and prosp include complete descriptions of Plan provisions. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the E Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

The Plan permitted an employer to claim a credit against its federal income tax liability if an a equivalent to the credit claimed was applied to the purchase of its common shares to be held in the benefit of employees. Contributions to the Plan were based upon amounts allowed by law, and were to eligible employees based upon a ratio of employee compensation to total compensation.

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 repealed the income tax credit on employee stock ownership plan contriction compensation paid or accrued after December 31, 1986. No contributions were made to the Plan begin the 1987 plan year. Employees with a balance in the Plan on December 31, 1986 are eligible for printing the Plan and continue to maintain a balance in the Plan. Employees who did not have a balance at that time are not eligible to participate.

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, SBC has the right under the Plan to terminate any time subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event that the Plan is terminated, subject to conditions set forth by ERISA, the Plan provides that the net assets be distributed to participant amounts equal to their respective interests in such assets.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The fair value of SBC common stock is determined on the basis of the closing price per share on t date as reported at the official close of the New York Stock Exchange. Temporary cash investment at cost, which approximates fair value. Purchases and sales of securities are reflected as of the date. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date. Interest earned on investments is on the accrual basis.

All administrative expenses of the Plan are paid by SBC.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accept United States requires management to make estimates that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Allocations and Distributions to Participants

The Plan maintains an account for each participant. Distribution of the shares allocated to a participant is made to a participant no later than April of the plan year following the plan year in participant attains age 70 1/2, or to a beneficiary as soon as practicable after the participant. For each distribution, the participant or beneficiary may elect to receive stock or cash, but if is made, the distribution will be made in cash.

All quarterly dividends for a year earned on shares in participants' accounts are held in an interaction account until paid to participants on an annual basis in November of each year. Interest earned dividends is allocated to participant accounts as cash and paid to the participant or beneficiary distribution of the account.

4. Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issued a determination letter on November 4, 1996, stating that and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Cool The Plan has been amended since the determination letter was received. The Plan Administrator be the Plan is currently designed and is operating in compliance with the applicable requirements of

On February 28, 2002, the Plan filed for, but has not yet received, a new tax determination letter IRS to reflect legally required changes and other changes made to the Plan since the previous detector was issued.
