Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Following the acquisition of DIRECTV, John Stankey was named CEO -AT&T Entertainment and Internet Services, which includes among other responsibilities, overseeing DIRECTV operations. As a result of these responsibilities, Mr. Stankey is expected to engage in extensive business travel on behalf of AT&T (“AT&T” or “the Company”). Mr. Stankey will retain his primary residence and work addresses in Texas, but he will need to travel to various AT&T locations to execute his responsibilities. As a result, on August 20, 2015, the company entered into a tax equalization agreement (“Equalization Agreement”) with Mr. Stankey to reimburse him for: 1) state and local income taxes he incurs while traveling outside of Texas to perform his responsibilities; and 2) an amount to cover income taxes owed on the reimbursement of such state and local income taxes.

The foregoing summary of the Equalization Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms and provisions of the Equalization Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

On August 19, 2015, D. Wayne Watts announced his intention to retire as Senior Executive Vice President and General Counsel of AT&T, effective as of September 30, 2015. In connection with his retirement, Mr. Watts and the Company entered into an agreement pursuant to which the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors approved the removal of the automatic proration at retirement for Mr. Watts’s outstanding grants of performance shares and Mr. Watts agreed to not compete with the company and not solicit the Company’s employees, customers, or vendors for 24 months, and to maintain the confidentiality of AT&T’s trade secrets and other confidential information and to other terms customary for such agreements (the “Agreement”). The foregoing summary of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms and provisions of the Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 10.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, AT&T announced that David R. McAtee II will be appointed as Senior Executive Vice President and General Counsel of AT&T, effective as of October 1, 2015. Mr. McAtee, age 46, is currently Senior Associate General Counsel, AT&T Services, Inc., and has served in this capacity since February 2015. He was Senior Vice President and Assistant General Counsel, AT&T Services, Inc., from January 2012 through February 2015. Prior to becoming Senior Vice President and Assistant General Counsel, Mr. McAtee was a partner of Haynes and Boone, LLP.
