FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 17, 2003

Oxford Industries Announces Fourth Quarter and Fiscal 2003 Results

Full-Year Net Sales Grow 13% to $765 Million

Full-Year Earnings Per Share grow 91% to $2.68

Expects Strong Fiscal 2004 Results, Issues EPS Guidance of $4.35 to $4.65

ATLANTA, GA. Oxford Industries, Inc. (NYSE:OXM) announced today financial results for the fourth quarter and full year ended May 30, 2003. The company reported that, for the full year, net sales increased approximately 13% to $765 million versus $677 million during fiscal 2002. Fully diluted earnings per share for the full year increased approximately 91% to $2.68 versus $1.40 in fiscal 2002.

For the fourth quarter, Oxford reported that net sales increased approximately 3% to $198 million versus $192 million in the fourth quarter of last year. Due to expenses incurred in connection with the closure of its Izod Club golf business and interest and fees related to the Viewpoint acquisition, the Company reported a decline in fully diluted earnings per share to $0.60 versus $0.74 in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002.

J. Hicks Lanier, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Oxford commented, "We are very pleased with our progress during the past year with respect to financial results, operations, and strategic positioning. These accomplishments are particularly meaningful given the challenging economic and retail environment that prevailed during the period. All four of our operating groups showed sales and earnings growth for the year."

Lanier Clothes, the company's tailored clothing group, reported a 3% sales increase for the year and saw enhanced profitability during both the fourth quarter and the full year due to lower markdowns and greater manufacturing and sourcing efficiencies. Better than expected shipments of women's sportswear led the Oxford Womenswear Group to an 11% sales increase in the fourth quarter and a 22% increase for the year. Oxford Slacks achieved a sales increase of 1% for the fourth quarter and 20% for the full year, driven by the rollout of Lands' End product to Sears retail stores. The Oxford Shirt Group also benefited from the introduction of a Lands' End assortment to Sears stores, with a 6% sales increase for the year.

Gross margins for the year increased 1.2 percentage points to 20.9% for fiscal 2003 due to favorable sourcing costs and higher capacity utilization rates at company-owned manufacturing facilities. Operating expenses declined as a percentage of sales to 16.3% from 17.1%. Expense leverage was partially offset by a portion of the transaction costs for the Viewpoint acquisition and by costs to shut down the Izod Club golf business.

Mr. Lanier noted, "Supply chain management initiatives paid handsome dividends in the form of lower markdowns and improved inventory turns over the course of the year. Additionally, improvements in sourcing and manufacturing efficiencies led to higher gross margins. The net result was a dramatic improvement in our profitability."

Mr. Lanier continued, "Most importantly this year, we made enormous progress in the long-term strategic positioning of Oxford Industries. We announced and subsequently completed the acquisition of Viewpoint International, Inc., owner of the Tommy Bahama® brand. Tommy Bahama is a compelling lifestyle brand that brings to Oxford a host of new opportunities. Viewpoint and Oxford are quite complementary in terms of products, customers, price points, skill sets and distribution channels. The combination of our two businesses creates a broadly diversified apparel company with exciting prospects for continued sales growth and significant opportunities for incremental profitability improvements."

The balance sheet reflects the proceeds of the senior notes offering that were held in escrow from May 16, 2003, until the Viewpoint acquisition was closed on June 13, 2003. Interest and financing fees incurred in connection with the offering accounted for all of the increase in interest expense over the previous year.

Also today, Oxford issued financial guidance for fiscal 2004. The company expects to report fiscal 2004 sales, which will include the results of Viewpoint, of between $1.05 billion and $1.1 billion. It expects to report earnings per fully diluted share in the range of $4.35 to $4.65. For the first quarter, the company anticipates sales in the range of $230 to $240 million and earnings per share in the range of $0.75 to $0.80. For the second quarter, the company anticipates sales in the range of $245 to $255 million and earnings per share in the range of $0.80 to $0.85. For the third quarter, the company believes appropriate targets for sales are in the range of $280 to $295 million and for earnings per share of between $1.20 and $1.30. For the fourth quarter, the company believes appropriate targets for sales are in the range of $295 to $310 million and for earnings per share of between $1.60 and $1.70.

Mr. Lanier concluded, "We believe that, while the market environment is likely to remain challenging, we have an excellent opportunity to demonstrate superior results over the course of the coming year. Fiscal 2003 has been a dramatic and exciting time for the development of our business and we are now looking forward to leveraging the infrastructure improvements and the strategic progress we have made to deliver strong returns and enhanced value for our shareholders."

The company will hold a conference call with senior management to discuss the financial results at 4:30 p.m. ET today.
