News Corporation Elects John L. Thornton To Board Of Directors

Board Committee Membership Reconstituted

NEW YORK, NY, June 25, 2004: News Corporation today announced that John L. Thornton, professor of global leadership at Tsinghua University of Beijing and former president and co-chief operating officer of Goldman Sachs, has been elected to the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Thornton's appointment is effective immediately. The election of Mr. Thornton increases the number of News Corporation's directors to 15 and, as a result, the board has a majority of independent directors.

News Corp. also announced that the board's three committees - the Audit Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, and the Compensation Committee - had been reconstituted to reflect the changes to the board membership.

Announcing the election of Mr. Thornton, News Corporation Chairman and Chief Executive Rupert Murdoch said: "John is a highly respected businessman. He has been a senior officer of one of the world's greatest financial institutions in Goldman Sachs and is a recognized authority on business leadership. John's contributions to the board as an additional independent member will be invaluable."

John Thornton, 50, has been a professor at Tsinghua University of Beijing since 2003. Previously, he served as president and co-chief operating officer of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. until his retirement in 2003. He continues to serve as a senior advisor to the firm and remains as a director of The Goldman Sachs Foundation. Mr. Thornton joined Goldman Sachs in 1980 and became a partner in 1988. Mr. Thornton is also a director of the Ford Motor Company, Intel Corporation, The DIRECTV Group and Pacific Century Group, Inc.

The changes to the board's committees include:

Rod Eddington was added to the Audit Committee and appointed chairman. Peter Barnes also joins the existing members of the committee, Andrew Knight and Thomas Perkins.

Viet Dinh has joined the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Geoff Bible, as chairman, and Ken Cowley will remain members of the committee, while Rod Eddington has retired.

John Thornton joined the Compensation Committee. Andrew Knight remains chairman of the committee and fellow members Rod Eddington and Thomas Perkins will remain on the committee.
